Letter to Stakeholders

Dear Stakeholder,

Wipro is 60 years old today. From its humble beginning as a company manufacturing vegetable oil to becoming one of World's leading technology service providers, the journey has been an exciting and deeply invigorating one. Along the way, we have created an enviable track record. Over a six decade period, our Revenues have grown by a compounded annual growth rate (CAGR) of 21%; our Net Income has grown by a CAGR of 31% and our Market Capitalization by a CAGR of 25%*. Importantly, in most of these years, we have led the industry growth in the segments we operate in. And all the time we have constantly invested, to conquer new frontiers and sustain future growth.

The results for 2005-06 are a continuation of this trend. During the year we made strategic acquisitions and several organic investments for accelerating growth, drew up an aggressive strategic plan, added highest ever number of people to our team and streamlined our organization structure. Through all this, we delivered industry-leading Revenue growth in all our businesses, recording strong profit growth and stabilized margins which crossed several landmarks in the process:

- Our Revenues crossed the Rs. 100 billion threshold
- Revenues in our combined IT businesses surpassed the $2 billion landmark
- In our Global IT business, Product Engineering

Services business - one of our key differentiators - crossed half-billion US Dollars in annual Revenues, as did our Revenues from Europe

- Our Profit After Tax crossed Rs. 20 billion
- Our team size in Global IT business crossed 50,000

What has made this track record possible? I would attribute this to two aspects of Wipro - one that is ever changing and the other that is never changing.

Our philosophy in running our business is one of embracing change. No matter how successful we were, no matter how secure we were, there was always this restless edge to do more, to achieve more. This has made us look beyond the present; it made us reach into the future. The challenge, however, is to do these strategic investments without diluting the focus on operational excellence that leads to flawless execution. That's where Wipro scores. Consequently, we have constantly reinvented ourselves and reinvested for future businesses, for we know that to reap benefits tomorrow, we need to sow the seeds today. And, more often than not, we have done this while improving our operational performance. For instance, our past investments in incubating newer services and geographies yielded fruits in 2005-06. It is very heartening to note that the strong growth in our Global IT business last year was driven by areas where we have invested proactively in the past - be it

Technology Infrastructure or Testing in Service lines or Europe in geographies. Similarly, our investments in Innovation initiatives are beginning to pay off. Innovation initiatives contributed about 5% of our Revenues for the year and our plan is to make this 10% of our Revenue in three years. Many of our strategic customer wins were made possible because of our breadth of services and Innovation initiatives.

Our India, Middle East and AsiaPac IT business won 5 consecutive contracts in the Total Outsourcing space - which is a unique and specialized Service line - culminating in a Rs. 360 crore ($80 million) multi-year Total Outsourcing Contract with HDFC Bank. I have already talked of the strategic initiatives we took during the year, so I will not labor that point. The good news is that we continue to make such proactive investments for the future to create the next set of sustainable differentiators.

Our philosophy in dealing with our stakeholders is based on the foundation of enduring Values. Over the years, our core Values have not changed, even though we have constantly rearticulated them to make them relevant to changing times. These Values guide us in all our transactions and relations. These Values define what Wipro is and what we mean to our stakeholders. We call this Spirit of Wipro.

Spirit of Wipro is the core of Wipro. It is rooted and it is aspirational... thus making it future active. Spirit of Wipro means manifesting intensity to win, acting with sensitivity and being unyielding on integrity all the time. Let me take a moment to expand on each of these statements.

First, Intensity to Win. This is the desire to stretch, to achieve that which seems beyond our grasp. This is aiming for maximum. This is the ardor to do our best, the hunger to be the best. It is about working together to create synergy. It is realizing that I win when my team wins, my team wins when Wipro wins, and Wipro wins when its customers win, when its stakeholders win.

However, it is not about winning at any cost. It is not about winning every time. It is not about winning at the expense of others. When we play to win, it does not mean playing dirty. Playing to win brings out the best in us, in our teams, and in Wipro. It is about innovating all the time. It is a continuous endeavor to do better than last time. It is the Spirit of fortitude, the Spirit of never letting go... ever.

Second, Acting with Sensitivity. As I see it, the core of sensitivity is respect. And respect comes from equity, from trust and from harmony. Equity is knowing that all of us are equal - no matter what role we play in our lives. The other source of respect is trust. Trusting that every individual is driven by learning, that each individual would like to grow, that every individual strives for a meaningful life and is intrinsically driven to do the best. Therefore, true respect means creating conditions in which every individual grows to realize his or her promise and potential. Finally sensitivity means living in harmony with the world around us - with society, and with ecology. If we act with thoughtfulness, act responsibly, act with empathy... then we are acting with sensitivity.

Third, Unyielding Integrity. That integrity means delivering on the commitments we make is obvious. But integrity also has a higher meaning - and that is a commitment to searching for and acting on the truth. At Wipro we have always believed that there will be no compromise on integrity and that as Wiproites we must always establish the foremost standards of honesty and fairness. Each one of us is our own litmus test of integrity. For integrity is the manifestation of conscience.

I believe that it is the combination of Spirit of Wipro and our ability, desire and willingness to invest for the future, without letting up on execution, that has been the formula, if I may say so, for our success.

With the strategic as well as operational success of past years behind us, we look to the future with more enthusiasm than ever before. The IT Services industry is evolving from a simple Service Provision mode to a more complex and higher Value Added Knowledge Creation mode. Delivering value to customers in the emerging scenario will require a comprehensive but tightly knit combination of domain expertise, integrated-service offerings, innovative solutions structuring and deep technical knowledge. We have identified and rolled out initiatives in our Strategic and Operational Plans in this direction. We are confident that this will be a significant differentiator for us that will enable us to continue to lead industry growth. Additionally, inorganic initiatives can help accelerate this process and supplement organic growth rate. Our experience with the acquisitions so far has been quite satisfactory. This has given us confidence to pursue this strategy more aggressively in future. We will similarly pursue strategic initiatives identified in our Strategic Plan to deliver strong growth in future in all our businesses.

Clearly, Wipro's businesses are all in the sweet spot of strong growth. We have the game-plan to leverage the opportunities and realize our growth potential. And Spirit of Wipro will ensure that our businesses are so run that our stakeholders win. This will help

Wipro deliver sustainable and profitable growth for many years to come.

I thank you for all the support and encouragement you have given us so far. Let me assure you that our hunger for growth is far from sated, our ambitions far from fulfilled and Vision far from achieved. Every Wiproite is charged to give her/his best.

After all, we have a track record to maintain and exceed.

Very Sincerely,

Technology Absorption, Research & Development and InnovationOverall Investments & Returns

Wipro R&D focus during the year has been in strengthening the portfolio of Centers of Excellence (CoE) and Innovation Projects. Wipro's Innovation initiative has a full time team of 275 and CoEs have a full time team of 128 and about 100 leveraged resources. We run 40 CoEs and 50 Innovation projects. Revenues from Innovation for the year 2005-06 are $ 53 million. Our Technology & IP Innovations contributed $ 8.4 million, Business Innovative solutions contributed about $ 41 million and Business & Productivity Tools Innovative solutions contributed $ 3.6 million. The enabled opportunities from CoEs account for $ 48.2 million.

Center of Excellence (CoE) Initiative

The goal of a CoE is to enable the growth of an existing Practice or create a new Practice. CoEs focus to create competencies in technologies and domains, both in existing as well as new. CoEs address areas like Wireless and Broadband Communication , Computing Platforms like Grid Computing , Storage Area Networks , Embedded Systems like Consumer and Automotive Electronics, E-Biz technologies like Web Services, Portals and Application Integration, Business Intelligence & Data Warehousing, Retail Supply Chain Management, Point Of Sale solutions(POS), Knowledge Management, Package Implementation , Testing etc.

Your Company adopts a methodology called 4A for CoE.

The different phases are :

Awareness – Setting goals & building roadmap for the CoE

Assimilation – Creating knowledge base

Application – Using capabilities that CoE has generated and Advancement – Adding value by repeated use

Some of the CoEs are given below.

The SOA and Web Services CoE focuses on competency building in advanced web services technologies such as web services security, web services management, registry and orchestration. The CoE has built execution artifacts such as toolkits, templates and best practices for new service lines such as SOA Consulting and Migration. The CoE maintains a robust knowledge management solution with innovative tools for maximizing knowledge flow within the practice.

Grid Computing CoE has been established to address the combined space of grid computing and utility computing. The CoE is engaged with customers in grid assessment (consulting), architecture, implementation and management services. An internal grid is being created to develop pilot applications (Computer & Data Intensive applications) before moving to a real-world implementation.

Broadband and Access Networks CoE has built competencies in the Layer 2 and Layer 3 areas of networking like switching and routing protocols, MPLS. The CoE has also built prototype solutions and components in upcoming technologies using open platforms (Linux) aligned to networking standards bodies like IETF, IEEE or the ITU.

Modular Communication Platforms (MCP) CoE is focused on building solutions and competencies in ATCA (Advanced Telecom Computing Architecture), CGL (Carrier Grade Linux) and high availability software for next generation network equipment based on HA middleware compliant with SAF (Service Availability Forum) specifications. The CoE participates in various industry forums like PICMG, OSDL, SA Forum, SCOPE etc.

Our SAP CRM practice has established competencies in newer areas such as Trade Promotion Management and even demonstrated and built systems unavailable in SAP CRM Winclient.

Supply Chain CoE offers a blend of technical and functional expertise, spanning across planning, execution and analytics areas of Supply Chain spectrum, with enabling tools like product evaluation templates and frameworks. The CoE has built solutions like pre-pack optimization and reverse logistics that mines additional value for the customer.

Business Analytics CoE has expertise in various areas of business analysis for Retail/CPG/Distribution, Health Care & Life Sciences and Energy & Utilities verticals. Some of them include Customer Analytics, Merchandising Analytics, Marketing Spend Analytics and Optimization, Promotion Effectiveness, Clinical Trials, Disease Management, Petroleum Data Management, Energy Trading and Risk Analytics etc. The CoE develops reusable templates and frameworks for core business analytics, statistical analysis and Predictive Analysis (Including Data Mining) in above mentioned functional areas.

Enterprise Application Security CoE has been set up to facilitate assimilation and distribution of Enterprise Security knowledge. The CoE has built expertise across multiple security products. The CoE has designed and implemented best of breed solutions, architecture, models and methodology. The CoE is engaged in new R&D in the areas of Digital Signing, Secure Gateway and web SSO, Federated Identity Management.

Retail Pharmacy CoE focuses on improving the prescription filling process helping Pharmacists do their job efficiently. Identifies the current pain areas of the business and develops the solutions like E-Prescribing, Central Filling, etc. It has developed trainings modules and process frameworks to increase competency levels.

Technology Infrastructure CoE the CoE has built competency in the areas of Storage, AIX and Veritas based systems. The CoE has built solution frameworks in the area of Application Packaging, Factory model and Desktop Deployment methodology which are designed to address the challenges in the Infrastructure Management services.

Innovation Initiative

At Wipro, we institutionalized the spirit of Innovation through our Innovation initiatives six years ago and are now deriving business value from these investments. The next generation managed services platform GCC won the NASCOM's IT Innovation Award 2005 and the award was presented by Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam, President of India.

Following is our Innovation Portfolio.

Process Innovations : We have pioneered in the art of adopting Lean techniques for Software Delivery. The benefits from this are Delivery excellence and a cost savings of about 11% top line and 10% -15% in effort. Usage of the Knowledge management practice in Wipro Infotech for reuse of knowledge in sales and delivery has improved customer responsiveness. In Consulting division it has resulted in up to 15% of sales effort reduction and 30-35% reduction in project delivery timelines .

Our process Innovations in Consumer Care & Lighting is given below.

Factories : Increased the vapor absorption of moisture from noodles by 50% with combination of vacuum systems in Toilet soap Plant at Tumkur leading to a productivity improvement of 48% in noodle output and energy savings of 10% besides eliminating usage of one continuous vapor spraying unit.

In house conversion of existing solvent based coating equipment with water based coating technology leading to multiple benefits viz Change over to eco friendly technology, Investment savings of Rs. 1.6 Mn , utilization of existing assets which would have been wasted and elimination of risk to employee's health and safety.

Development of new soldering device at CFL manufacture line leading to an achievement of 50% improvement in productivity at the soldering station. It also resulted in elimination of accident and injury risk to the operators and reduction of rework.

Marketing : Direct Media buying - Taking advantage of distress buying in media leading to a cost savings of 20% over regular agency costs.

Media innovation - Created an in film presence for our products using advertorials instead of advertising thus enabling in cutting through the clutter of competition better.

Delivery Innovations : Global Delivery model and Software Factory model for standardized delivery are good examples of our Delivery Innovations. These innovations have provided consistent results and our customers have greatly benefited from them.

Technology Innovations are solutions with high Intellectual Property (IP) content, which can be delivered as a service to product companies, thus giving the time to market advantage. We have developed semi conductor IPs like Wireless LAN 802.11 and IEEE 1394 which are having a large market share. For example, IEEE 1394 has more than 62% market share today.

The Aerospace, Defense and Space Communication Group has built a prototype solution for an AGPS based tracking system. This is being extended as a platform for all Location Based services. This is done as a joint collaboration with the CEDT, Indian Institute of Science, Bangalore. The solution features important concepts such as tracking in indoors and outdoors, recording of navigation path, on demand position update, Geofencing, programmable alert messaging etc.

Product Innovations : At Wipro Consumer Care and Lighting innovations have been a part of continual improvement culture and have been a catalyst in our endeavor to deliver better products to our customer on a consistent basis.

Toilet Soaps - Chandrika Amritam : Introduced Soap plus aromatic oil for the first time in the world at a lower unit price to customer.

Wellness Segment - Introduced new variants of ginger and lemon flavor in Honey for the first time in India. Offered for the first time in India total modularity in furniture through three tile system leading to high degree of flexibility and re-configurability. This would enable changing of office appearance at a lower cost.

Business Innovations are frameworks and methodologies to develop solutions for specific Business. Deep domain understanding and new customer experience are primary drivers in identifying such solutions.

Flow-briX, a Business Process Management Solution is a good example for this. Our understanding of workflow systems and domain expertise helped us to create a number of vertical solutions based on Flow-briX. Examples are Order Management Process Automation, Test Management Process Automation etc.

Developed SoX compliance Framework as part of SoX consultancy practice and also developed solution around Payment Card Industry (PCI) Data Security Standards.

Our domain knowledge gained through years of experience in Utility domain , helped us develop Work and Asset Management systems (both front office and back office). This solution has positioned us as a leading provider of IT Services for GAS Distribution companies.

The Manufacturing Vertical has developed a framework around dealer integration for the Automobile industry based on open source technologies and STAR standards.

We have return process systems for the Hi-Tech Industry, frameworks and solutions for Pharmaceutical Industry to address 'e-Pedigree' mandated by the FDA.

Apart from such industry specific solutions we have created re-usable assets for business processes such as warehouse management, work in process tracking and asset tracking using cutting edge technology like RFID.

Platforms and Tools : Platforms are foundations on which Solutions are built. Next Generation Managed Services Platform (GCC) is a good example of this. This platform enables us to remotely manage a customer infrastructure. A variety of services is being planned to be built on top of this platform.

The GCC challenges all myths associated with IT infrastructure outsourcing engagements by offering a comprehensive and fool proof IT infrastructure management solution. The key Innovative features that distinguish GCC are its Tool Agnostic process, virtualization of IT operations, enhanced security for mitigating malicious attacks and avoiding human errors, Business impact reporting & always available Management Information through live online reporting.

Tools are productivity improvement solutions. Repeatability and re-use are primary drivers in identifying such solutions. Test Automation and Management Solutions, Migration Solutions etc. form part of this category of solutions.

Innovation Process

The Innovation projects are managed through a well defined process called the Stage Gate Process comprising of the major phases : Idea Generation, Incubation and Successful Execution.

The total expenditure for R&D last year has been Rs. 202.86 million.

Subsidiary Companies

As per Section 212 of the Companies Act, 1956, we are required to attach the Directors' Report, Balance Sheet and Profit and Loss Account of our subsidiary companies. We had applied to the Department of Company Affairs, Government of India for an exemption from that requirement as we present the audited Consolidated Financial Statements in the Annual Report. We believe that the Consolidated Accounts present a full and fair picture of the state of affairs and the financial condition and is accepted globally. The Ministry of Company Affairs, Government of India has granted exemption from complying with Section 212 of the Companies Act, 1956. Accordingly, the Annual Report does not contain the particulars of these subsidiaries. The Company undertakes that annual accounts of the subsidiary companies and the related detailed information for the year ended March 31, 2006 will be made available to Wipro Limited's investors and subsidiary company's investors seeking such information at any point of time. The annual accounts of the subsidiary companies are also kept for inspection by any investor at the Registered Office of the Company. The statements required pursuant to the approval letter obtained from the Ministry of Company Affairs for this exemption is disclosed as part of the Notes to Consolidated Accounts of the Company at Sl.No. 25.

Foreign Exchange Earnings and Outgoings

The foreign exchange earnings of the Company during the year were Rs. 71,788 million while the outgoings were Rs. 25,281 million (including materials imported).

Para 1. A brief statement on Company's philosophy on code of governance.

Globally corporates and societies are adopting and following Best in Class concept of Corporate Governance. It has now come to be recognised that companies need to attract and protect all stakeholders, be it investors, society, employees, customers, suppliers and the environment. Global capital investors feel comfortable in an environment where the bed rocks of Corporate Governance is best protected and practiced and bypasses where Corporate Governance is limited or not followed. Companies stand to gain by adopting systems that bolster Stake holder's trust through transparency, accountability and fairness. With increasing interdependence and free trade among countries and citizens across the globe, good Corporate Governance is of paramount importance for companies seeking to distinguish themselves in the global footprint.

For Wipro, Corporate Governance is a continuous journey, seeking to provide an enabling environment to harmonise the goals of maximising stakeholder value and maintaining a customer centric focus. Wipro's philosophy on Corporate Governance envisages attainment of the highest levels of transparency, accountability and equity in all facets of its operations, and in all its interactions with its stakeholders, including shareholders, employees and the Government.

Wipro's foundation in Corporate Governance has been its Ethical Business Practices, its Values and Integrity, reflected in the actions of each of its employees. The Board of Directors fully support and endorse Corporate Governance practices and attempt to go beyond the statutory requirements.

Your Board of Directors presents the Corporate Governance Report for the year 2005-06.

c. Electronic Clearing Service/mandates/bank details

The members may please note that Electronic Clearing Service details contained in the Benpos downloaded from the Depositories would be reckoned for payment of dividend. Shareholders desirous of modifying those instructions may write to the Company's Registrar and Share Transfer Agent, M/s. Karvy Computershare Pvt. Ltd., Hyderabad (for shares held in physical form) or to their respective Depository Participants (for shares held in electronic form).

d. Nomination in respect of shares held in physical form

The Companies Act, 1956 provides facility for making nominations by shareholders in respect of their holding of shares. Such nomination greatly facilitates transmission of shares from the deceased shareholder to his/her nominee without having to go through the time consuming process of obtaining Succession Certificate/Probate of the Will, etc. It would, therefore, be in the best interest of the shareholders holding shares in physical form registered as sole holder to make such nominations.

e. Unclaimed dividends

Under the Companies Act, 1956, dividends that are unclaimed for a period of seven years is required to be transferred to the Investor Education and Protection Fund administered by the Central Government.

We give below a table providing the dates of declaration of dividend since 1998-99 and the corresponding dates when unclaimed dividends are due to be transferred to the Investor Education and Protection Fund of the Central Government. The unclaimed amount since 1998-99 as of March 31, 2006 is also provided in the table given below :

Financial Year	Date of declaration of dividend	Last date for claiming unpaid dividend	Unclaimed amount	Due date for transfer to Investor Education and Protection Fund
1998-99	July 29, 1999	July 28, 2006	Rs. 43,023	August 27, 2006
1999-2000 (Interim)	May 24, 2000	May 23, 2007	Rs. 54,920	June 22, 2007
2000-2001	July 19, 2001	July 18, 2008	Rs. 104,969	August 17, 2008
2001-2002	July 18, 2002	July 17, 2009	Rs. 20,21,600	August 16, 2009

2004-2005	July 21, 2005	July 20, 2012	Rs. 12,42,105	August 19, 2011

Separate letters will be sent to the Shareholders who are yet to encash the dividend indicating that dividend yet to be encashed by the concerned shareholder and the amount remaining unpaid will be transferred as per the above dates. Members are requested to utilise this opportunity and get in touch with Company's Registrar and Share Transfer Agent, M/s. Karvy Computershare Pvt. Limited, Bangalore for encashing the unclaimed dividend standing to the credit of their account.

After completion of seven years as per the above table, no claims shall lie against the said Fund or the Company for the amounts of dividend so transferred nor shall any payment be made in respect of such claims.

f. Secretarial Audit

A qualified practicing Company Secretary has carried out secretarial audit every quarter to reconcile the total admitted capital with National Securities Depository Limited (NSDL) and Central Depository Services (India) Limited (CDSL) and the total issued and listed capital. The audit confirms that the total issued/paid up capital is in agreement with the aggregate total number of shares in physical form and the total number of dematerialized shares held with NSDL and CDSL.

g. Compliance

The certificate dated April 10, 2006 obtained from Mr. V Sreedharan, Practicing Company Secretary is given at page no. 43 of the Annual Report.

h. Code of Conduct

In the present business environment that is growing in speed with business complexities and global breadth, the employees of the Company will be confronted with grey areas in which the right and wrong things are not clearly defined and recognizable. In order to make the employees of the Company knowledgeable and committed to follow integrity, to outline the Company's values & principles and to set out the standards of professional and ethical behaviour expected of the employees in the organisation, the Board of Directors of your Company has laid down Code of Business Conduct and Ethics.

Our Code of Business Conducts and Ethics states that the employees will be fair, honest, truthful, reliable and upright in whatever they do. Simply put, this means choosing the right things and doing it. The Code will ensure that the employees must not only have personal integrity in doing the right things but also be aware of them and confirm that they are responsible for. Code of Business Conduct and Ethics is available on Company's website (www.wipro.com/Investors/Corpinfo).

The Affirmation of Compliance to the code has been made by the Board members and senior Management of the Company.

ANNUAL DECLARATION BY CEO PURSUANT TO CLAUSE 49(I)(D)(ii) OF THE INDIAN STOCK EXCHANGE LISTING AGREEMENT

As the Chief Executive Officer of Wipro Limited and as required by Clause 49(I)(D)(ii) of the Indian Stock Exchange Listing Agreement, I hereby declare that all the Board members and senior management personnel of the Company have affirmed compliance with the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics for the Financial year 2005-06.

Sd/-
Azim H. Premji
Chief Executive Officer

Date : June 20, 2006

Corporate Governance Report forming part of the Directors' Report of Wipro Limited for the year ended 31 March, 2006 pursuant to Annexure I D (Non mandatory requirements) read with Para VI of Clause 49 of the Listing Agreement entered into with the Stock Exchanges in India.

(1) The Board

A non-executive Chairman may be entitled to maintain a Chairman's office at the Company's expense and also allowed reimbursement of expenses incurred in performance of his duties.

Independent Directors may have a tenure not exceeding, in the aggregate, a period of nine years, on the Board of a company.

Compliance Status :

Our Chairman is the Chief Executive of the Company and hence this requirement is not applicable.

(2) Remuneration Committee

- i. The Board may set up a remuneration committee to determine on their behalf and on behalf of the shareholders with agreed terms of reference, the Company's policy on specific remuneration packages for Executive Directors including pension rights and any compensation payment.
- ii. To avoid conflicts of interest, the remuneration committee, which would determine the remuneration packages of the executive Directors may comprise of at least three Directors, all of whom should be Non-Executive Directors, the Chairman of committee being an independent Director.
- iii. All the members of the remuneration committee could be present at the meeting.
- iv. The Chairman of the remuneration committee could be present at the Annual General Meeting, to answer the shareholder queries. However, it would be up to the Chairman to decide who should answer the queries.

Compliance Status :

With effect from July 21, 2005, the Directors of your Company have constituted Board Governance & Compensation Committee which complies with all the requirements of the Remuneration Committee. Prior to July 21, 2005, Compensation & Benefits Committee was existing as a separate committee and performed the functions of Remuneration Committee. The details of Board Governance & Compensation Committee are included in item Para 4 of Mandatory requirements in this Report. The Chairman of the Board Governance and Compensation Committee was present at the Annual General Meeting held on July 21, 2005 to answer the shareholders queries.

(3) Shareholder Rights

A half-yearly declaration of financial performance including summary of the significant events in last six-months, may be sent to each household of shareholders.

Compliance Status :

The quarterly, half-yearly declaration of financial performance including summary of the significant events on a periodic basis, are posted on the Company's website (www.wipro.com). However, we will evaluate and explore possibilities of sending a six monthly report to each of the Shareholders.

(4) Audit qualifications

Company may move towards a regime of unqualified financial statements.

Compliance Status :

The Financial Statements of the Company do not have any audit qualifications.

(5) Training of Board Members

A company may train its Board members in the business model of the company as well as the risk profile of the business parameters of the company, their responsibilities as Directors, and the best ways to discharge them.

Compliance Status :

New Director Orientation

The Company has in place an orientation process for new Directors that includes background material, visits to Company facilities, and meetings with senior management to familiarise the Director with the Company's strategic and operational plans, key issues, Corporate Governance, Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, its principle officers, risk management, compliance programs and its internal and independent auditors. In addition, new members to a Committee will be provided information relevant to the Committee and its role and responsibilities

Continuing Director Education

The Board believes that it is appropriate for the Directors, at their discretion, to have access to education programmes related to their duties as Director on an on going basis to enable them to perform their duties better and to recognise and to deal appropriately with the issues that arise. The views of the Directors will be obtained from time to time for the areas in which the Directors would like to get more information.

(6) Mechanism for evaluating non-executive Board Members

The performance evaluation of non-executive Directors could be done by a peer group comprising the entire Board of Directors, excluding the Director being evaluated; and Peer Group evaluation could be the mechanism to determine whether to extend/continue the terms of appointment of non-executive Directors.

Compliance Status :

The Board of Directors of the Company have put in place an effective mechanism for evaluating performance on a continuing basis which includes an assessment of the effectiveness of the full Board, the operations of Board Committees and the contributions of individual Directors.

1. Group Performance

The Board Governance and Compensation Committee shall sponsor and oversee an annual performance evaluation of the Board to determine whether it is functioning effectively. This evaluation focuses on the performance of the Board as a whole, concentrating on areas where performance might be improved. The Board shall administer an annual self-evaluation of the performance of the Board as a whole and the Committees of the Board and reporting its conclusion and recommendation to the Board.

2. Individual Performance

The Board Governance and Compensation Committee also administers an annual performance evaluation of each Director, with consideration being given to skills and expertise, group dynamics, core competencies, personal characteristics, accomplishment of specific responsibilities, attendance and participation. Such an evaluation process may also include self/peer evaluation of each Director.

(7) Whistle Blower Policy

The Company may establish a mechanism for employees to report to the management concerns about unethical behaviour, actual or suspected fraud or violation of the Company's code of conduct or ethics policy. This mechanism could also provide for adequate safeguards against victimisation of employees who avail of the mechanism and also provide for direct access to the Chairman of the Audit committee in exceptional cases. Once established, the existence of the mechanism may be appropriately communicated within the organisation.

Compliance Status :

The Company has adopted an Ombudsprocess policy wherein it has established procedures for receiving, retaining and treating complaints received, and procedures for the confidential and anonymous submission by employees of complaints regarding possible violations of the code of conduct and ethics.

Under this policy, our employees are encouraged to report questionable accounting matters, any reporting of fraudulent financial or other information, to the stakeholders, any conduct that results in violation of the Company's Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, to management (on an anonymous basis, if employees so desire). Likewise, under this policy, we have prohibited discrimination, retaliation or harassment of any kind against any employees who, based on the employee's reasonable belief that such conduct or practice have occurred or are occurring, reports that that information or participates in the investigation. No personnel of the Company has been denied access to the Audit Committee or its Chairman.

The Company's Ombudsprocess policy is available under the investor relation section on the Company's website at www.wipro.com

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE COMPLIANCE CERTIFICATETo the Members of Wipro Limited

I have examined all the relevant records of Wipro Limited ("the Company") for the purpose of certifying compliance of the conditions of the Corporate Governance under Clause 49 of the Listing Agreement with the Stock Exchanges for the financial year ended March 31, 2006. I have obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of my knowledge and belief were necessary for the purpose of certification.

The compliance of conditions of corporate governance is the responsibility of the Management. My examination was limited to the procedure and implementation process adopted by the Company for ensuring the compliance of the conditions of the corporate governance. This certificate is neither an assurance as to the future viability of the Company nor of the efficacy or effectiveness with which the management has conducted the affairs of the Company.

In my opinion and to the best of my information and according to the explanations given to me, I certify that the Company has complied with the conditions of Corporate Governance as stipulated in the aforesaid Listing Agreement.

COMPLIANCE REPORT WITH THE FINAL CORPORATE GOVERNANCE RULES OF THE NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE (NYSE) AS APPROVED BY THE SECURITIES & EXCHANGE COMMISSION ON NOVEMBER 4, 2003, AS AMENDED WITH EFFECT FROM NOVEMBER 3, 2004 AND CODIFIED IN SECTION 303A OF THE NYSE LISTED COMPANY MANUAL

The New York Stock Exchange's Board of Directors approved significant changes in its listing standards in 2002, aimed at restoring investor confidence by strengthening corporate governance practices. Companies listed on the NYSE must comply with these Corporate Governance standards which are codified in Section 303A of the NYSE Listed Companies Manual. Though some of the requirements are not applicable, the Company presently complies with all the practices.

Listed companies that are foreign private issuers (as such term is defined in Rule 3b-4 of the Securities Exchange Act, 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act")) are permitted to follow their home country practice in lieu of the provisions of Section 303A, except that such companies are required to comply with the requirements of Sections 303A.06, 303.A.11 and 303.A.12(b) and (c).

A compliance report on the Corporate Governance Standards as codified in Section 303A of the NYSE Listed Company Manual is presented below as of March 31, 2006 :

1. Listed companies must have a majority of independent Directors (303A.01)

The Board of our Company comprises of five Independent Non Executive Directors out of a total strength of six Directors.

2(a) No Director qualifies as "independent" unless the Board of Directors affirmatively determines that the director has no material relationship with the listed company (either directly or as a partner, shareholder or officer of an organisation that has a relationship with the Company). Companies must identify which Directors are independent disclose the basis for that determinations. (303A.02(a))

Five Directors on the board are independent Directors and satisfy the category of 'independent Directors' as per this clause.

2(b) A director is or has been within the last three years, an employee of the listed company of an immediate family member is, or has been within the last three years, an executive officer, of the listed company. (303A.02(b)(i))

None of our existing independent Directors or their family members has held the office of employment in the Company at any point of time.

2(c) A Director has received or has an immediately member who has received, during any 12 months period within the last three years, more than $100,000 in direct compensation from the listed Company, other than Director and committee fees and pension or other forms of deferred compensation for prior service (provided such compensation is not contingent in any way on continued service) (303A.02(b)(ii)).

None of our independent Directors receive any other direct compensation apart from their directorship and committee fees, pension, or any form of deferred compensation or have ever received such at any point of time.

2(d) A Director or an immediate family member is a current partner of a firm that is the Company's internal or external auditor; a director is a current employee of such a firm; a director has an immediate family member who is a current employee of such a firm and who participates in the firm's audit, assurance of tax compliance (but not tax planning) practice or; a director or an immediately family member was within the last three years (but is no longer) a partner or employee of such a firm and personally worked on the Company's audit within that time. (303A.029(b)(iii)).

None of our Directors or their immediate family members have ever been affiliated or employed in any capacity by a present or former internal or external auditor of the Company at any point of time and have ever participated in the firm's audit or assurance of tax compliance practice.

2(e) A Director or an immediate family member, is or has been within the last three years, employed as an executive officer of another company where any of the listed company's present Executive Officers at the same time serves or served on Company's Compensation Committee (303A.02(b)(iv))

None of our Directors or their immediate family members is or has been within the last three years, employed as Executive Officer of another company where any of the Company's present Executive Officers at the same time serves or served on that Company's compensation committee.

2(f) A Director is a current employee, or an immediate family member is a current Executive Officer, of a Company that has made payments to, or received payments from, the Company for property or services in an amount, which, in any of the last three fiscal years, exceeds the greater of $1 Mn or 2% of such other company's consolidated gross revenues. (303A.02(b)(v))

None of the Directors is a current employee, nor any of their immediate family member is a current executive officer, has not made payments to, or received payments from, the Company for property or services in an amount, which, in any of the last three fiscal years, exceeds the greater of $1 Mn or 2% of such other company's consolidated gross revenues.

3. To empower non-management Directors to serve as a more effective check on management, the non-management Directors of each company must meet at regularly scheduled executive sessions without management. (303A.03)

Non management Directors regularly meet at scheduled executive sessions without management prior to every Board meetings held during the year. The executive sessions were all presided by Mr. N. Vaghul, the lead independent Director.

4(a) Listed companies must have a nominating/corporate governance committee composed entirely of independent Directors. (303A.04(a)).

4(b) The nominating/corporate governance committee must have a written charter that addresses: (303A.04(b)(i) & (ii))

i. the committee's purpose and responsibilities – which, at minimum, must be to: identify individuals qualified to become board members, consistent with criteria approved by the board, and to select, or to recommend that the board select, the Director nominees for the next annual meeting of shareholders; develop and recommend to the board a set of corporate governance principles applicable to the corporation; and oversee the evaluation of the board and management; and

ii. an annual performance evaluation of the committee

These are complied with. The Board Governance & Compensation committee formed in July, 2005, comprises entirely of three Independent Directors. Prior to July, 2005 the Nomination & Corporate Governance Committee, formed in October 2002 complied with these requirements. The Board Governance & Compensation Committee has the following key deliverables :

- developing, updating and recommending to the Board a set of corporate governance guidelines applicable to the Company;
- implementing policies and processes relating to corporate governance principles; and
- forming policies and procedures to assess the requirements for the induction of new members on the Board and to make recommendations for the same.

Board membership criteria

Board members are expected to possess strong management experience, ideally with major public companies with successful multinational operations, other areas of expertise or experience that are desirable, given the Company's business and the current membership of the Board, such as expertise or experience in Information Technology businesses, manufacturing, international, financial or investment banking, scientific research and development, senior level government experience and academic administration, personal characteristics matching with the Company's values, such as integrity, accountability, financial literacy, and high performance standards.

The Board Governance and Compensation Committee (prior to July 21, 2005 the Compensation & Benefits Committee) comprise entirely of Independent Directors which works closely with the Board in identifying, screening, recruiting and recommending Directors for nomination by the Board for election as members of the Board.

Re-appointment of Directors in the Annual General Meeting

Our Articles of Association provide that at least two-thirds of our Directors shall be subject to retirement by rotation. One third of these Directors must retire from office at each annual general meeting of the shareholders. A retiring Director is eligible for re-election.

As per the above provisions, during the year 2005-06, the Board Governance and Compensation Committee has recommended Dr. Jagdish N. Sheth and Mr. P.M. Sinha, Directors who retire by rotation, for re-appointment.

AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Members of WIPRO LIMITED

We have audited the attached balance sheet of Wipro Limited ("the Company") as at 31 March 2006 and the profit and loss account and cash flow statement for the year ended on that date, annexed thereto. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted in India. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Without qualifying our opinion, we draw attention to Note 9 of the Notes to Accounts. The Company has granted Restricted Stock Units (RSU's) since October 2004. The stock compensation cost is computed under the intrinsic value method and amortized on a straight line basis over the total vesting period of five years. An alternative interpretation could require amortization of cost on an accelerated basis. If the Company were to amortize the cost on an accelerated basis, profit before taxes and profit after tax for year ended March 31, 2006 would have been lower by Rs. 490 million and Rs. 449 million respectively. Similarly, the profit before taxes and profit after tax for the year ended March 31, 2005 would have been lower by Rs. 443 million and Rs. 409 million respectively.

1. As required by the Companies (Auditor's Report) Order, 2003, as amended by the Companies (Auditors Report) Amendment Order, 2004 ("the Order"), issued by the Central Government in terms of Section 227 (4A) of the Companies Act, 1956 ("the Act"), we enclose in the Annexure a statement on the matters specified in paragraphs 4 and 5 of the said Order.
2. Further to our comments in paragraph 1 above, we report that:
 - (a) we have obtained all the information and explanations, which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of our audit;
 - (b) in our opinion, proper books of account as required by law have been kept by the Company so far as appears from our examination of those books;
 - (c) the balance sheet, profit and loss account and cash flow statement dealt with by this report are in agreement with the books of account;
 - (d) in our opinion, the balance sheet, profit and loss account and cash flow statement dealt with by this report comply with the accounting standards referred to in sub-section (3C) of Section 211 of the Companies Act, 1956;
 - (e) on the basis of written representations received from the directors as on 31 March 2006, and taken on record by the Board of Directors, we report that none of the directors is disqualified as at 31 March 2006 from being appointed as a director in terms of clause (g) of sub-section (1) of Section 274 of the Companies Act, 1956; and
 - (f) in our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the said accounts give the information required by the Companies Act, 1956, in the manner so required and give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India:
 - (i) in the case of the balance sheet, of the state of affairs of the Company as at 31 March 2006;
 - (ii) in the case of the profit and loss account, of the profit of the Company for the year ended on that date; and
 - (iii) in the case of cash flow statement, of the cash flows for the year ended on that date.

SCHEDULE -19 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND NOTES TO ACCOUNTSCompany overview

Wipro Limited is a leading India based provider of software technology services, IT enabled services, hardware services and consumer care lighting products. Wipro is headquartered in Bangalore, India.

Significant accounting policiesBasis of preparation of financial statements

The accompanying financial statements are prepared and presented under historical cost convention on accrual basis of accounting, in accordance with Indian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (Indian GAAP) and accounting standards issued by The Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI).

Use of estimates

The preparation of financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities on the date of the financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period reported. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue recognition

Revenue from software development services comprises revenue from time and material and fixed-price contracts. Revenue from time and material contracts are recognized as related services are performed. Revenue from fixed-price, fixed-time frame contracts is recognized in accordance with the percentage of completion method.

Maintenance revenue is considered on acceptance of the contract and is accrued over the period of the contract.

Revenue from customer training, support and other services is recognised as the related services are performed.

Provision for estimated losses, if any, on incomplete contracts are recorded in the period in which such losses become probable based on the current contract estimates. 'Unbilled revenues' included in loans and advances represent cost and earnings in excess of billings as at the balance sheet date. 'Unearned revenues' included in current liabilities represent billing in excess of revenue recognised.

Agency commission is accrued when shipment of consignment is dispatched by the principal.

Profit on sale of investments is recorded upon transfer of title by the Company and is determined as the difference between the sales price and the then carrying value of the investment.

Interest is recognized using the time-proportion method, based on rates implicit in the transaction.

Export incentives are accounted on accrual basis and include estimated realizable values/benefits from special import licenses and advance licenses.

Other income is recognized on accrual basis. Other income includes unrealized losses on short-term investments.

Warranty cost

The Company accrues the estimated cost of warranties at the time when the revenue is recognized. The accruals are based on the Company's historical experience of material usage and service delivery costs.

Fixed assets, intangible assets and work-in-progress

Fixed assets are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation.

Interest on borrowed money allocated to and utilized for fixed assets, pertaining to the period up to the date of capitalization is capitalized. Assets acquired on hire purchase are capitalized at the gross value and interest thereon is charged to profit and loss account.

Intangible assets are stated at the consideration paid for acquisition less accumulated amortization.

Advances paid towards the acquisition of fixed assets outstanding as of each balance sheet date and the cost of fixed assets not ready for use before such date are disclosed under capital work-in-progress.

Lease payments under operating lease are recognised as an expense in the profit and loss account.

Goodwill

The goodwill arising on acquisition of a group of assets is not being amortised. It is tested for impairment on a periodic basis and written off if found impaired.

Investments

Long term investments are stated at cost less provision for diminution in the value of such investments. Diminution in value is provided for where the management is of the opinion that the diminution is of permanent nature. Short term investments are valued at lower of cost and net realizable value.

Inventories

Finished goods are valued at cost or net realizable value, whichever is lower. Other inventories are valued at cost less provision for obsolescence. Small value tools and consumables are charged to consumption on purchase. Cost is determined using weighted average method.

Provision for retirement benefits

Gratuity - In accordance with applicable Indian laws, the Company provides for gratuity, a defined benefit retirement plan (Gratuity Plan). The Gratuity Plan provides a lump sum payment to vested employees, at retirement or termination of employment, an amount based on the respective employee's last drawn salary and the years of employment with the Company. The Company contributes to the group gratuity scheme of Life Insurance Corporation of India (LIC).

Superannuation - Apart from being covered under the Gratuity Plan described above, the senior officers of the Company also participate in a defined contribution plan maintained by the Company. This plan is administered by the LIC. The Company makes annual contributions based on a specified percentage of each covered employee's salary. The Company has no further obligations under the plan beyond its annual contributions.

Provident fund - In addition to the above benefits, employees receive benefits from a provident fund, a defined contribution plan. The employee and employer each make monthly contributions to the plan equal to 12% of the covered employee's salary. A portion of the contribution is made to the Provident Fund trust managed by the Company, while the remainder of the contribution is made to the Governments' Provident Fund. The Government mandates the annual yield to be provided to the employees on their corpus. The Company has an obligation to make good the shortfall, if any, between the yield on the investments of trust and the yield mandated by the Government.

Foreign currency transactions

The Company is exposed to currency fluctuations on foreign currency transactions. With a view to minimize the volatility arising from fluctuations in the currency rates, the Company follows established risk management policies, including the use of foreign exchange forward contracts and other derivative instruments.

As a part of the Risk Management Policies, the forward contracts are designated as hedge of highly probable forecasted transactions. The Accounting Standard (AS 11) on "The Effects of Changes on Foreign Exchange Rates", amended with effect from April 1, 2004 provides guidance on accounting for forward contracts. In respect of forward contracts entered into to hedge foreign exchange risk of highly probable forecasted transactions, the ICAI has clarified that AS 11 is not applicable to exchange differences arising from such forward contracts. The premium or discount of such contracts is amortised over the life of the contract in accordance with AS 11 (revised).

Foreign currency transactions are recorded at the average rate for the month. Period-end balances of monetary foreign currency assets and liabilities are restated at the closing rate. The exchange difference arising from restatement or settlement is recognized in the profit and loss account.

In respect of forward contracts assigned to the foreign currency assets as on the balance sheet date, the proportionate premium/discount for the period upto the date of balance sheet is recognized in the profit and loss account. The exchange difference measured by the change in exchange rate between inception of forward contract and the date of balance sheet is applied on the foreign currency amount of the forward contract and recognized in the profit and loss account.

Exchange differences, including gains/losses on intermediary roll over/cancellation, of forward contracts designated as hedge of highly probable forecasted transactions are recognised in the profit and loss account in the period in which the forecasted transaction occurs. Realised/unrealised gains and losses on forward contracts and options not designated as hedges of forecasted transactions are accounted in the profit and loss account for the period.

Employee stock options

The Company measures the compensation cost relating to employee stock options using the intrinsic value method. The compensation cost is amortized on a straight line basis over the total vesting period of the stock options.

Fringe benefit tax

Consequent to the introduction of Fringe Benefit Tax (FBT) effective April 1, 2005, in accordance with the guidance note on accounting for fringe benefits tax issued by the ICAI, the Company has made provision for FBT under income taxes.

Income tax

The current charge for income taxes is calculated in accordance with the relevant tax regulations. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognised for the future tax consequences attributable to timing differences that result between the profit offered for income taxes and the profit as per the financial statements. Deferred tax in respect of timing differences which originate during the tax holiday period but reverse after the tax holiday period is recognised in the period in which the timing differences originate. For this purpose the timing difference which originates first is considered to reverse first. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognised in the period that includes the enactment/substantial enactment date. Deferred tax assets on timing differences are recognised only if there is a reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised. However, deferred tax assets on the timing differences when unabsorbed depreciation and losses carried forward exist, are recognised only to the extent that there is virtual certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised. Deferred tax assets are reassessed for the appropriateness of their respective carrying values at each balance sheet dates.

Research and development

Revenue expenditure on research and development is charged to Profit and Loss account and capital expenditure is shown as addition to fixed assets.

Earnings per share

The number of shares used in computing basic earnings per share is the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. The number of shares used in computing diluted earnings per share comprises the weighted average shares considered for deriving basic earnings per share, and also the weighted average number of equity shares that could have been issued on the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares. The dilution is determined using the treasury stock method. Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed converted as of the beginning of the period, unless issued at a later date. The number of shares and potentially dilutive equity shares are adjusted for any stock splits and bonus shares issues.

Cash flow statement

Cash flows are reported using indirect method, whereby net profits before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future cash receipts or payments. The cash flows from regular revenue generating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated.

Provisions and contingent liabilities

The Company creates a provision when there is a present obligation as a result of an obligating event that probably requires an outflow of resources and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. A disclosure for a contingent liability is made when there is a possible obligation or a present obligation that may, but probably will not, require an outflow of resources. Where there is a possible obligation or a present obligation in respect of which the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.

Impairment of assets

The Company assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is any indication that an asset including goodwill may be impaired. If any such indication exists, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the asset. If such recoverable amount of the asset or the recoverable amount of the cash generating unit to which the asset belongs to is less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount is reduced to its recoverable amount. The reduction is treated as an impairment loss and is recognised in the profit and loss account. If at the balance sheet date there is an indication that if a previously assessed impairment loss no longer exists, the recoverable amount is reassessed and the asset is reflected at the recoverable amount subject to a maximum of depreciated historical cost. In respect of goodwill the impairment loss will be reversed only when it was caused by specific external events and their effects have been reversed by subsequent external events.

6. As of March 31, 2006, forward contracts and options (including zero cost collars) to the extent of US$ 226 Million have been assigned to the foreign currency assets as on the balance sheet date. The proportionate premium/discount on the forward contracts for the period upto the date of balance sheet is recognized in the profit and loss account. The exchange difference measured by the change in exchange rate between inception of forward contract and the date of balance sheet is applied on the foreign currency amount of the forward contract and recognized in the profit and loss account.

Additionally, the Company has designated forward contracts and options to hedge highly probable forecasted transactions. The Company also designates zero cost collars to hedge the exposure to variability in expected future foreign currency cash inflows due to exchange rate movements beyond a defined range. The range comprises an upper and lower strike price. At maturity, if the exchange rate remains within the range the Company realizes the cash inflows at spot rate, otherwise the Company realizes the inflows at the upper or lower strike price.

The exchange differences on the forward contracts and gain/loss on options are recognized in the profit and loss account in the period in which the forecasted transaction is expected to occur. The premium/discount at inception of forward contracts is amortised over the life of the contract.

In certain cases, the Company has entered into forward contracts having a maturity earlier than the period in which the hedged transaction is forecasted to occur. The gain/loss on roll over/cancellation/expiry of such contracts is recognized in the profit and loss account in the period in which the forecasted transaction is expected to occur, till such time the same is accumulated and shown under Loans and Advances/Current liabilities.

In respect of option/forward contracts which are not designated as hedge of highly probable forecasted transactions, realized/unrealized gain or loss are recognized in the profit and loss account of the respective periods.

As at March 31, 2006, the Company had forward/option contracts to sell US$ 438 Million in respect of highly probable forecasted transactions. The effect of marked to market and of any intermediary roll over/expiry of the said forward contracts is a gain of Rs. 131 Million. The final impact of such contracts will be recognized in the profit and loss account of the respective periods in which the forecasted transactions are expected to occur.

7. During the year ended March 31, 2006, the Company made additional investments in Wipro Inc. and Wipro Holding Mauritius Limited, of Rs. 1,292 Million and Rs. 1,157 Million respectively. In December 2005, Wipro Inc. acquired mPower Software Services Inc. USA and its subsidiaries and Wipro Holdings UK Limited acquired NewLogic Technologies AG, Austria and its subsidiaries.
8. In terms of the scheme of amalgamation approved by the Reserve Bank of India on February 11, 2006, the High Court of Karnataka on April 5, 2006, the Registrar of Companies, Mauritius on January 6, 2006 and the Ministry of Finance, Bermuda on March 28, 2006, Wipro BPO Solutions Limited, India, Spectramind Limited, Mauritius and Spectramind Limited, Bermuda amalgamated with the Company with effect from April 1, 2005. The Scheme of Amalgamation became effective from April 2006 pursuant to obtaining necessary approvals and filing with the Registrar of Companies. In accordance with the scheme, the merger becomes effective from the Appointed Date of 1 April, 2005. The Company has accounted for the amalgamation as amalgamation in the nature of merger under AS 14 – Accounting for amalgamation.

The following are the salient features of the scheme :

- a) Spectramind Limited, Bermuda is the wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. Spectramind Limited, Mauritius, a wholly owned subsidiary of Spectramind Limited, Bermuda is therefore a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. All shares held in Spectramind Limited, Mauritius and Spectramind Limited, Bermuda were cancelled and extinguished.
- b) From the effective date of the scheme, the entire share capital of Wipro BPO Solutions Limited comprising of 31,023,567 shares of Rs. 10/- each held by the Company, 1 equity share of Rs. 10/- held by Spectramind Limited, Bermuda and 34,904,102 equity shares of Rs. 10/- each held by Spectramind Limited, Mauritius were cancelled and extinguished.
- c) All the assets and liabilities of Wipro BPO Solutions Limited, Spectramind Limited, Bermuda and Spectramind Limited, Mauritius are recorded in the books of the Company at their carrying amounts as on April 1, 2005.
- d) Pursuant to the scheme of amalgamation, the following amounts, being the balances in the Share Premium and General reserves has been recorded as an addition/adjustment to the Share Premium and General reserves of the Company.

	(Rs in Million)
Share Premium	1,120.21
General Reserve	(3,257.30)
Total	(2,137.09)

- e) Total investments of Rs. 6,151 Million including Rs. 852 Million invested during the year in Wipro BPO Solutions Limited have been cancelled as a part of the amalgamation.
9. In June 2004, the Company established Wipro Restricted Stock Unit Plan (WRSUP 2004) and Wipro ADS Restricted Stock Unit Plan (WARSUP 2004). The Company is authorized to issue upto 12,000,000 Restricted Stock Units (RSUs) under each plan to eligible employees.

The Company has been granting restricted stock units (RSUs) since October 2004. The RSUs generally vest equally at annual intervals over a five year period. The stock compensation cost is computed under the intrinsic value method and amortized on a straight line basis over the total vesting period of five years. As permitted by generally accepted accounting principles in the United States (US GAAP), the Company applies a similar straight line amortization method for financial reporting under US GAAP. The Company has been advised by external counsel that the straight line amortization over the total vesting period complies with the SEBI Employee Stock Option Scheme Guidelines 1999, as amended.

However, an alternative interpretation could result in amortization of the cost on an accelerated basis. Under this approach, the amortization in the initial years would be higher with a lower charge in subsequent periods (though the overall charge over the full vesting period will remain the same). If the Company were to amortize the cost on an accelerated basis, profit before taxes and profit after tax for the year ended March 31, 2006 would have been lower by Rs. 490 Million & Rs. 449 Million respectively. Similarly, the profit before taxes and profit after tax for the year ended March 31, 2005 would have been lower by Rs. 443 Million and Rs. 409 Million respectively. This would effectively increase the profit before and after tax in later years by similar amounts.

The Company is awaiting further clarification on the matter.

10. From time to time, in the normal course of business, the Company transfers accounts receivables and employee advances (financial assets) to banks. Under the terms of the arrangements, the Company surrenders control over the financial assets and accordingly the transfers are recorded as sale of financial assets. The sale of financial assets may be with or without recourse. Under arrangements with recourse, the Company is obligated to repurchase the uncollected financial assets, subject to limits specified in the agreement with the banks. Additionally, the Company retains servicing responsibility for the transferred financial assets.

WIPRO LIMITED

Gains and losses on sale of financial assets are recorded based on the carrying value of the financial assets, fair value of servicing liability and recourse obligations. Loss/Profit on sale is recorded at the time of sale.

During the year ended March 31, 2006, the Company transferred financial assets of Rs. 223.04 Million under such arrangements. This transfer resulted in loss of Rs. 3.6 Million. The maximum amount of recourse obligation in respect of this transfer is limited to 10% of the value of financial assets transferred under the arrangement.

11. The Company has instituted various Employee Stock Option Plans. The compensation committee of the board evaluates the performance and other criteria of employees and approves the grant of options. These options vest with employees over a specified period subject to fulfillment of certain conditions. Upon vesting, employees are eligible to apply and secure allotment of Company's shares at a price determined on the date of grant of options. The particulars of options granted under various plans are tabulated below. (The number of shares in the table below is adjusted for any stock splits and bonus shares issues).

13. The Company had received demands from the Indian income tax authorities for the financial years 2000-01 & 2001-02 aggregating to Rs. 5,231.72 Million. The tax demands were primarily on account of denial of deduction claimed by the Company under Section 10A of the Income Tax Act 1961 (Act), in respect of profits earned by its undertakings in Software Technology Park at Bangalore. The Company had appealed against the said demands. In March 2006, the first Income tax appellate authority substantially upheld the deductions claimed by the Company under Section 10A of the Act, which will vacate a substantial portion of the demands for these years.

In March 2006, the Company received an assessment order for financial year 2002-03 on the similar lines of the earlier two financial years. The order has demanded a tax of Rs. 2,868.77 Million (including interest of Rs.750.38 Million). The Company will file an appeal against the assessment order within the prescribed statutory time.

Considering the facts and nature of disallowance, the order of the appellate authority upholding the claims of the Company for financial years 2000-01 & 2001-02, the management believes that the final outcome of the dispute should be positive in favour of the Company and there should not be any material impact on the financial statements.

14. Provision for taxation comprises of following :
- Rs. 1,571.96 Million (2005 : Rs. 1,133.65 Million) in respect of foreign taxes.
 - Rs. 1,392.37 Million (2005 : Rs. 1,479.97 Million) in respect of Indian Income Tax, which includes write back of Rs. 338.48 Million (2005 : provision of Rs. 70.55 Million) in respect of earlier years and a deferred tax benefit of Rs. 62.82 Million (2005 : Deferred tax benefit of Rs.3.02 Million)
 - Rs. 7.5 Million (2005 : Rs. 8.40 Million) in respect of Wealth Tax which includes provision of Rs. Nil (2005 : Rs. 3.40 Million) in respect of earlier years.
 - Rs. 227.67 Million (2005 : Nil) on account of Fringe Benefit Tax.
15. In August 2005, the Company recorded a bonus issue in the ratio of one additional equity share or ADS for every equity share or ADS held.
16. The Company publishes standalone financials statements along with the consolidated financial statements in the annual report. In accordance with Accounting Standard 17, Segment Reporting, the Company has disclosed the segment information in the consolidated financial statements.

AUDITORS' REPORT TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS ON THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS OF WIPRO LIMITED AND ITS SUBSIDIARIES

We have audited the attached consolidated balance sheet of Wipro Limited ('the Company') and subsidiaries (collectively called 'the Wipro Group') as at 31 March 2006, the consolidated profit and loss account and the consolidated cash flow statement for the quarter and year ended on that date, annexed thereto. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in India. Those Standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by Management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

We report that the consolidated financial statements have been prepared by the Company's management in accordance with the requirements of Accounting Standard (AS) 21, Consolidated Financial Statements, issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

Without qualifying our opinion, we draw attention to Note 10 of the Notes to Accounts. The Company has granted Restricted Stock Units (RSU's) since October 2004. The stock compensation cost is computed under the intrinsic value method and amortized on a straight line basis over the total vesting period of five years. An alternative interpretation could require amortization of cost on an accelerated basis. If the Company were to amortize the cost on an accelerated basis, profit before taxes and profit after tax for quarter and year ended March 31, 2006 would have been lower by Rs 28 million, Rs 24 million and Rs 490 million, Rs 449 million respectively. Similarly, the profit before taxes and profit after tax for the year ended March 31, 2005 would have been lower by Rs 443 million and Rs 409 million respectively.

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the said accounts give a true and fair view in conformity with the accounting principles generally accepted in India:

- (a) in the case of the consolidated balance sheet, of the state of affairs of the Wipro Group as at 31 March 2006;
- (b) in the case of the consolidated profit and loss account, of the profit of the Wipro Group for the quarter and year ended on that date; and
- (c) in the case of the consolidated cash flow statement, of the cash flows of the Wipro Group for the quarter and year ended on that date.

SCHEDULE - 19 SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES AND NOTES TO ACCOUNTS

Company overview

Wipro Limited (Wipro), together with its subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, the Company or the group) is a leading India based provider of IT Services and Products, including Business Process Outsourcing (BPO) services, globally. Further, Wipro has other businesses such as India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products and Consumer Care and Lighting. Wipro is headquartered in Bangalore, India.

Significant accounting policies

Basis of preparation of financial statements

The accompanying financial statements are prepared and presented under historical cost convention on accrual basis of accounting, in accordance with Indian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (Indian GAAP) and accounting standards issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI).

Principle of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of Wipro and all its subsidiaries, which are more than 50% owned or controlled.

The financial statements of the parent Company and its majority owned and controlled subsidiaries have been combined on a line by line basis by adding together the book values of all items of assets, liabilities, incomes and expenses after eliminating inter-company balances/transactions and resulting unrealised gain/loss.

The consolidated financial statements are prepared using uniform accounting policies for similar transactions and other events in similar circumstances.

Use of estimates

The preparation of consolidated financial statements requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities on the date of the consolidated financial statements and reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the period reported. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Revenue recognition

Revenue from software development services comprises revenue from time and material and fixed-price contracts. Revenue from time and material contracts are recognised as related services are performed. Revenue from fixed-price, fixed-time frame contracts is recognized in accordance with the percentage of completion method.

Revenues from BPO services are derived from both time-based and unit-priced contracts. Revenue is recognized as the related services are performed, in accordance with the specific terms of the contract with the customers.

Maintenance revenue is considered on acceptance of the contract and is accrued over the period of the contract.

Revenue from customer training, support and other services is recognised as the related services are performed.

Provision for estimated losses, if any, on incomplete contracts are recorded in the period in which such losses become probable based on the current contract estimates. 'Unbilled revenues' included in loans and advances represent cost and earnings in excess of billings as at the balance sheet date. 'Unearned revenues' included in current liabilities represent billing in excess of revenue recognised.

Agency commission is accrued when shipment of consignment is dispatched by the principal.

Profit on sale of investments is recorded upon transfer of title by the Company and is determined as the difference between the sales price and the then carrying value of the investment.

Interest is recognised using the time-proportion method, based on rates implicit in the transaction.

Export incentives are accounted on accrual basis and include estimated realizable values/benefits from special import licenses and advance licenses.

Other income is recognised on accrual basis. Other income includes unrealised losses on short-term investments.

Warranty cost

The Company accrues the estimated cost of warranties at the time when the revenue is recognised. The accruals are based on the Company's historical experience of material usage and service delivery costs.

Fixed assets, intangible assets and work-in-progress

Fixed assets are stated at historical cost less accumulated depreciation.

Interest on borrowed money allocated to and utilised for fixed assets, pertaining to the period up to the date of capitalization is capitalized. Assets acquired on direct finance lease are capitalized at the gross value and interest thereon is charged to profit and loss account.

Intangible assets are stated at the consideration paid for acquisition less accumulated amortisation.

Advances paid towards the acquisition of fixed assets outstanding as of each balance sheet date and the cost of fixed assets not ready for use before such date are disclosed under capital work-in-progress.

Lease payments under operating lease are recognised as an expense in the profit and loss account.

Goodwill

Goodwill arising on consolidation/acquisition of assets is not amortised. It is tested for impairment on a periodic basis and written-off if found impaired.

Depreciation and amortisation

Depreciation is provided on straight line method at rates not lower than rates specified in Schedule XIV to the Companies Act, 1956. Assets under capital lease are amortised over their estimated useful life or the lease term, whichever is lower.

Intangible assets are amortised over their estimated useful life. Estimated useful life is usually less than 10 years. For certain brands acquired by the Company, based on the performance of various comparable brands in the market, the Company estimated the useful life of those brands to be 20 to 25 years. Accordingly, such intangible assets are being amortized over 20 to 25 years.

Investments

Long term investments (other than investments in affiliates) are stated at cost less provision for diminution in the value of such investments. Diminution in value is provided for where the management is of the opinion that the diminution is of other than temporary nature. Short term investments are valued at lower of cost and net realizable value.

Investments in affiliates are accounted under the equity method.

Inventories

Finished goods are valued at cost or net realisable value, whichever is lower. Other inventories are valued at cost less provision for obsolescence. Small value tools and consumables are charged to consumption on purchase. Cost is determined using weighted average method.

Provision for retirement benefits

Gratuity - In accordance with applicable Indian laws, the Company provides for gratuity, a defined benefit retirement plan (Gratuity Plan). The Gratuity Plan provides a lump sum payment to vested employees, at retirement or termination of employment, an amount based on the respective employee's last drawn salary and the years of employment with the Company. The Company contributes to the group gratuity scheme of Life Insurance Corporation of India (LIC).

Superannuation - Apart from being covered under the Gratuity Plan described above, the senior officers of the Company also participate in a defined contribution plan maintained by the Company. This plan is administered by the LIC. The Company makes annual contributions based on a specified percentage of each covered employee's salary. The Company has no further obligations under the plan beyond its annual contributions.

Provident fund - In addition to the above benefits, employees receive benefits from a provident fund, a defined contribution plan. The employee and employer each make monthly contributions to the plan equal to 12% of the covered employee's salary. A portion of the contribution is made to the provident fund trust managed by the Company, while the remainder of the contribution is made to the Government's provident fund. The Government mandates the annual yield to be provided to the employees on their corpus. The Company has an obligation to make good the shortfall, if any, between the yield on the investments of trust and the yield mandated by the Government.

Foreign currency transactions

The Company is exposed to currency fluctuations on foreign currency transactions. With a view to minimise the volatility arising from fluctuations in the currency rates, the Company follows established risk management policies, including the use of foreign exchange forward contracts and other derivative instruments.

As a part of the Risk Management Policies, the forward contracts are designated as hedge of highly probable forecasted transactions. The Accounting Standard (AS 11) on "The Effects of Changes on Foreign Exchange Rates", amended with effect from April 1, 2004 provides guidance on accounting for forward contracts. In respect of forward contracts entered into to hedge foreign exchange risk of highly probable forecasted transactions, the ICAI has clarified that AS 11 is not applicable to exchange differences arising from such forward contracts. The premium or discount of such contracts is amortised over the life of the contract in accordance with AS 11 (revised).

Foreign currency transactions are recorded at the average rate for the month. Period-end balances of monetary foreign currency assets and liabilities are restated at the closing rate. The exchange difference arising from restatement or settlement is recognised in the profit and loss account.

In respect of forward contracts assigned to the foreign currency assets as on the balance sheet date, the proportionate premium/discount for the period upto the date of balance sheet is recognised in the profit and loss account. The exchange difference measured by the change in exchange rate between inception of forward contract and the date of balance sheet is applied on the foreign currency amount of the forward contract and recognised in the profit and loss account.

Exchange differences, including gains/losses on intermediary roll over/cancellation, of forward contracts designated as hedge of highly probable forecasted transactions are recognised in the profit and loss account in the period in which the forecasted transaction occurs. Realised/unrealised gains and losses on forward contracts and options not designated as hedges of forecasted transactions are accounted in the profit and loss account for the period.

In respect of non-integral operations, assets and liabilities are translated at the exchange rate prevailing at the date of the balance sheet. The items in the profit & loss account are translated at the average exchange rate during the period. The differences arising out of the translation are transferred to translation reserve.

Employee stock options

The Company measures the compensation cost relating to employee stock options using the intrinsic value method. The compensation cost is amortized on a straight line basis over the total vesting period of the stock options.

Fringe benefit tax

Consequent to the introduction of Fringe Benefit Tax (FBT) effective 1 April, 2005, in accordance with the guidance note on accounting for fringe benefits tax issued by the ICAI, the Company has made provision for FBT under income taxes.

Income tax

The current charge for income taxes is calculated in accordance with the relevant tax regulations. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognised for the future tax consequences attributable to timing differences that result between the profit offered for income taxes and the profit as per the financial statements by each entity in the Company. Deferred tax in respect of timing differences which originate during the tax holiday period but reverse after the tax holiday period is recognised in the period in which the timing differences originate. For this purpose the timing difference which originates first is considered to reverse first. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using the tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the balance sheet date. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognised in the period that includes the enactment/substantial enactment date. Deferred tax assets on timing differences are recognised only if there is a reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised. However, deferred tax assets on the timing differences when unabsorbed depreciation and losses carried forward exist, are recognised only to the extent that there is virtual certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised. Deferred tax assets are reassessed for the appropriateness of their respective carrying values at each balance sheet dates.

Research and development

Revenue expenditure on research and development is charged to profit and loss account and capital expenditure is shown as addition to fixed assets.

Earnings per share

The number of shares used in computing basic earnings per share is the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period. The number of shares used in computing diluted earnings per share comprises the weighted average shares considered for deriving basic earnings per share, and also the weighted average number of equity shares that could have been issued on the conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares. The dilution is determined using the treasury stock method. Dilutive potential equity shares are deemed converted as of the beginning of the period, unless issued at a later date. The number of shares and potentially dilutive equity shares are adjusted for any stock splits and bonus shares issues.

Cash flow statement

Cash flows are reported using indirect method, whereby net profits before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of a non-cash nature and any deferrals or accruals of past or future cash receipts or payments. The cash flows from regular revenue generating, investing and financing activities of the Company are segregated.

Provisions and contingent liabilities

The Company creates a provision when there is a present obligation as a result of an obligating event that probably requires an outflow of resources and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. A disclosure for a contingent liability is made when there is a possible obligation or a present obligation that may, but probably will not, require an outflow of resources. Where there is a possible obligation or a present obligation in respect of which the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.

Impairment of assets

The Company assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is any indication that an asset including goodwill may be impaired. If any such indication exists, the Company estimates the recoverable amount of the asset. If such recoverable amount of the asset or the recoverable amount of the cash generating unit to which the asset belongs to is less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount is reduced to its recoverable amount. The reduction is treated as an impairment loss and is recognised in the profit and loss account. If at the balance sheet date there is an indication that if a previously assessed impairment loss no longer exists, the recoverable amount is reassessed and the asset is reflected at the recoverable amount subject to a maximum of depreciated historical cost. In respect of goodwill the impairment loss will be reversed only when it was caused by specific external events and their effects have been reversed by subsequent external events.

d)	Adjustment on account of amalgamation [Refer note 19 (8)]	(5,835.35)	-

3. Goodwill on consolidation as at March 31, 2006 comprises of the following :

(Rs. in Million)

	For the year ended March 31,
	2006	2005
Wipro Infrastructure Engineering Limited (formerly Wipro Fluid Power Limited)	18.27	18.27
Wipro Healthcare IT Limited	175.01	175.01
Cygnus Negri Investments Private Limited	16.26	16.26

	3,528.34	5,663.16

4. As of March 31, 2006, forward contracts and options (including zero cost collars) to the extent of US$ 226 Million have been assigned to the foreign currency assets as on the balance sheet date. The proportionate premium/discount on the forward contracts for the period upto the date of balance sheet is recognized in the profit and loss account. The exchange difference measured by the change in exchange rate between inception of forward contract and the date of balance sheet is applied on the foreign currency amount of the forward contract and recognized in the profit and loss account.

Additionally, the Company has designated forward contracts and options to hedge highly probable forecasted transactions. The Company also designates zero cost collars to hedge the exposure to variability in expected future foreign currency cash inflows due to exchange rate movements beyond a defined range. The range comprises an upper and lower strike price. At maturity, if the exchange rate remains within the range the Company realizes the cash inflows at spot rate, otherwise the Company realizes the inflows at the upper or lower strike price.

The exchange differences on the forward contracts and gain/loss on options are recognised in the profit and loss account in the period in which the forecasted transaction is expected to occur. The premium/discount at inception of forward contracts is amortised over the life of the contract.

In certain cases, the Company has entered into forward contracts having a maturity earlier than the period in which the hedged transaction is forecasted to occur. The gain/loss on roll over/cancellation/expiry of such contracts is recognised in the profit and loss account in the period in which the forecasted transaction is expected to occur, till such time the same is accumulated and shown under Loans and Advances/Current liabilities.

In respect of option/forward contracts which are not designated as hedge of highly probable forecasted transactions, realised/unrealised gain or loss are recognised in the profit and loss account of the respective periods.

As at March 31, 2006, the Company had forward/option contracts to sell US$ 438 Million in respect of highly probable forecasted transactions. The effect of mark to market of the said forward contracts is a gain of Rs. 131 Million. The final impact of such contracts will be recognized in the profit and loss account of the respective periods in which the forecasted transactions are expected to occur.

5. Effective December 1, 2005, the Company acquired 100% equity of mPower Software Services Inc. and its subsidiaries (mPower) including the minority shareholding held by MasterCard International in MPact India, a joint venture between MasterCard International and mPower Software Services Inc, for an aggregate cash consideration of Rs.1,274.57 Million. mPower Software Services Inc. is a US based Company engaged in providing IT services in the payments space.

As a part of this acquisition, Wipro aims to provide MasterCard a wide range of services including application development and maintenance, infrastructure services, package implementation, BPO and testing. Through this acquisition, Wipro is able to expand domain expertise in payment space and increase the addressable market for IT services.

This acquisition resulted in goodwill of Rs. 1,089.18 Million.

6. On December 28, 2005, the Company acquired 100% equity of BVPENTE and its subsidiaries (New Logic). New Logic is a European system-on-chip design company. The consideration includes cash consideration of Rs. 1,156.54 Million and earn outs of Euro 26 Million to be determined and paid in future based on financial targets being achieved over a 3 year period.

Through this acquisition, the Company has acquired strong domain expertise in semiconductor IP cores and complete system-on-chip solutions with digital, analog mixed signal and RF design services. The acquisition also enables the Company to access over 20 customers in the product engineering space.

This acquisition resulted in goodwill of Rs. 849.39 Million.

7. During the year ended March 31, 2006, the Company acquired 4,619,614 shares from the employee shareholders of Wipro BPO Solutions Limited for a total consideration of Rs. 852.00 Million. The excess of consideration paid over the carrying value of minority interest of Rs. 623.12 Million was recognised as goodwill. With this acquisition, the Company held 100% equity of Wipro BPO Solutions Limited [refer note 19(8)].

8. In terms of the scheme of amalgamation approved by the Reserve Bank of India on February 11, 2006, the High Court of Karnataka on April 5, 2006, the Registrar of Companies, Mauritius on January 6, 2006 and the Ministry of Finance, Bermuda on March 28 2006, Wipro BPO Solutions Limited, India, Spectramind Limited, Mauritius and Spectramind Limited, Bermuda amalgamated with the Company with effect from April 1, 2005. The Scheme of Amalgamation became effective from April 2006 pursuant to obtaining necessary approvals and filing with the Registrar of Companies. In accordance with the scheme, the merger becomes effective from the Appointed Date of April 1, 2005. The Company has accounted for the amalgamation as amalgamation in the nature of merger under AS 14 – Accounting for amalgamations.

Following are the salient features of the scheme

- a) Spectramind Limited, Bermuda is the wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. Spectramind Limited, Mauritius, a wholly owned subsidiary of Spectramind Limited, Bermuda is therefore a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. All shares held in Spectramind Limited, Mauritius and Spectramind Limited, Bermuda were cancelled and extinguished.
- b) From the effective date of the scheme, the entire share capital of Wipro BPO Solutions Limited comprising of 31,023,567 shares of Rs. 10/- each held by the Company, 1 equity share of Rs. 10/- held by Spectramind Limited, Bermuda and 34,904,102 equity shares of Rs. 10/- each held by Spectramind Limited, Mauritius were cancelled and extinguished.
- c) All the assets and liabilities of Wipro BPO Solutions Limited, Spectramind Limited, Bermuda and Spectramind Limited, Mauritius are recorded in the books of the Company at their carrying amounts as on April 1, 2005.
- d) Pursuant to the scheme of amalgamation, the following amounts, being the balances in the Share Premium and General reserves has been recorded as an addition to the Share Premium and adjustment to General reserves of the Company :

	(Rs in Million)
Share Premium	1,120.21
General Reserve	(3,257.30)
Total	(2,137.09)

If amalgamation in the nature of merger had not been effected, goodwill arising on consolidation would have been higher by Rs. 4,715.14 Million.

9. The Company has a 49% equity interest in Wipro GE Medical Systems Private Limited (Wipro GE), an entity in which General Electric, USA holds the majority equity interest. The shareholders agreement provides specific rights to the two shareholders. Management believes that these specific rights do not confer joint control as defined in Accounting Standard 27 "Financial Reporting of Interest in Joint Venture". Consequently, Wipro GE is not considered as a joint venture and consolidation of financial statements are carried out as per equity method in terms of Accounting Standard 23 "Accounting for Investments in Associates in Consolidated Financial statements".

Investments in WeP Peripherals Ltd. have been accounted for by the equity method.

10. In June 2004, the Company established Wipro Restricted Stock Unit Plan (WRSUP 2004) and Wipro ADS Restricted Stock Unit Plan (WARSUP 2004). The Company is authorized to issue up to 12,000,000 Restricted Stock Units (RSUs) under each plan to eligible employees.

The Company has been granting restricted stock units (RSUs) since October 2004. The RSUs generally vest equally at annual intervals over a five year period. The stock compensation cost is computed under the intrinsic value method and amortized on a straight line basis over the total vesting period of five years. As permitted by generally accepted accounting principles in the United States (US GAAP), the Company applies a similar straight line amortisation method for financial reporting under US GAAP. The Company has been advised by external counsel that the straight line amortization over the total vesting period complies with the SEBI Employee Stock Option Scheme Guidelines 1999, as amended.

However, an alternative interpretation could result in amortisation of the cost on an accelerated basis. Under this approach, the amortization in the initial years would be higher with a lower charge in subsequent periods (though the overall charge over the full vesting period will remain the same). If the Company were to amortize the cost on an accelerated basis, profit before taxes and profit after tax for three months ended March 31, 2006 would have been lower by Rs. 28 Million and Rs. 24 Million and for the year ended March 31, 2006 would have been lower by Rs. 490 Million and Rs. 449 Million respectively. Similarly, the profit before taxes and profit after tax for the year ended March 31, 2005 would have been lower by Rs. 443 Million and Rs. 409 Million respectively. This would effectively increase the profit before and after tax in later years by similar amounts.

The Company is awaiting further clarification on the matter.

11. From time to time, in the normal course of business, the Company transfers accounts receivables and employee advances (financials assets) to banks. Under the terms of the arrangements, the Company surrenders control over the financial assets and accordingly the transfers are recorded as sale of financial assets. The sale of financial assets may be with or without recourse. Under arrangements with recourse, the Company is obligated to repurchase the uncollected financial assets, subject to limits specified in the agreement with the banks. Additionally, the Company retains servicing responsibility for the transferred financial assets.

Gains and losses on sale of financial assets are recorded based on the carrying value of the financial assets, fair value of servicing liability and recourse obligations. Loss/Profit on sale is recorded at the time of sale.

During the year ended March 31, 2006, the Company transferred financial assets of Rs. 223.04 Million under such arrangements. This transfer resulted in loss of Rs. 3.60 Million. The maximum amount of recourse obligation in respect of this transfer is limited to 10% of the value of financial assets transferred under the arrangement.

12. The Company has instituted various Employee Stock Option Plans. The compensation committee of the board evaluates the performance and other criteria of employees and approves the grant of options. These options vest with employees over a specified period subject to fulfillment of certain conditions. Upon vesting, employees are eligible to apply and secure allotment of Company's shares at a price determined on the date of grant of options. The particulars of options granted under various plans are tabulated below. (The number of shares in the table below are adjusted for any stock splits and bonus shares issues).

14. The Company had received demands from the Indian income tax authorities for the financial years 2000-01 & 2001-02 aggregating to Rs. 5,231.72 Million. The tax demands were primarily on account of denial of deduction claimed by the Company under Section 10A of the Income Tax Act 1961 (Act), in respect of profits earned by its undertakings in Software Technology Park at Bangalore. The Company had appealed against the said demands. In March 2006, the first Income tax appellate authority substantially upheld the deductions claimed by the Company under Section 10A of the Act, which will vacate a substantial portion of the demands for these years.

In March 2006, the Company received an assessment order for financial year 2002-03 on the similar lines of the earlier two financial years. The order has demanded a tax of Rs. 2,868.77 Million (including interest of Rs. 750.38 Million). The Company will file an appeal against the assessment order within the prescribed statutory time.

Considering the facts and nature of disallowance, the order of the appellate authority upholding the claims of the Company for financial years 2000-01 & 2001-02, the management believes that the final outcome of the dispute should be positive in favour of the Company and there should not be any material impact on the financial statements.

15. Provision for taxation comprises of following :
- Rs. 1,605.27 Million (2005 : Rs. 1,133.65 Million) in respect of foreign taxes including a Deferred tax charge of Rs. 30.03 Million.
 - Rs. 1,547.35 Million (2005 : Rs. 1,607.54 Million) in respect of Indian Income Tax, which includes write back of Rs. 338.48 Million (2004 : Nil & 2005 : provision of Rs. 70.55 Million) in respect of earlier years and a Deferred tax benefit of Rs. 49.52 Million.
 - Rs. 7.5 Million (2005 : Rs. 8.40 Million) in respect of Wealth Tax which includes provision of Rs. Nil (2005 : Rs. 3.40 Million) in respect of earlier years.
 - Rs. 230.86 Million (2005 : Nil) on account of Fringe Benefit Tax.

3.2.7 InvestmentsPurchase of Investments during the year

Surplus cash generated by operations are invested in short term mutual fund units. The Company follows a policy of investing in specific plan of Mutual Funds having a minimum corpus of Rs 2,000 Million with an overall ceiling to ensure that the Company's investment is not more than 10% of the corpus of the fund. Investments in units of liquid mutual funds have increased from Rs 22,784 Million in fiscal 2005 to Rs. 29,814 Million in fiscal 2006.

3.2.8 Inventories

Inventories mainly comprise computers, upgrades and spares of India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products and raw material and finished stocks of Wipro Consumer Care & Lighting and Wipro Infrastructure Engineering (WIEL). Stock of inventory has increased from Rs 1,747 Million as on March 31, 2005 to Rs 2,065 Million as on March 31, 2006.

Inventory of India and AsiaPac IT Services increased by Rs 147 Million, up by 18% due to procurement of components and finished goods towards the end of the year to meet certain specific pending orders for execution during the period April to June 2006. Increase in WIEL by Rs. 106 Million, up by 22% was mainly due to increase in sales volume by 32% in 2006.

3.2.9 Sundry Debtors

Sundry Debtors (net of provision) for the current year is at Rs 21,272 Million against 15,518 Million in the previous year. Segment-wise break-up of sundry debtors is outlined below.

(Rs. in Million)
Business Unit	2006	2005	Increase (%)
Global IT Services and Products	15,956	11,708	36%
India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products	4,029	3,045	32%
Consumer Care and Lighting	564	264	114%
Others	723	501	44%
Total	21,272	15,518	37%

In Global IT Services and Products, revenues for the quarter ended March, 31, 2006 have increased by 41% as compared to revenues for the quarter ended March 31, 2005, days of sales outstanding for IT Services and Products have decreased from 66 days in fiscal 2005 to 65 days in fiscal 2006.

In India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products, Sundry debtors have increased on account of 18% increase in revenues quarter on quarter and days of sales outstanding have increased from 64 days in fiscal 2005 to 74 days in fiscal 2006.

In Consumer care and lighting, Sundry debtors have increased on account of 35% increase in revenues quarter on quarter and days of sales outstanding have increased from 19 days in fiscal 2005 to 26 days in fiscal 2006.

Debtors outstanding for more than six months-considered good remain the same on lower than 1% of revenues in fiscal 2006 & 2005. Provision for doubtful debts has increased from Rs 847 Million to Rs. 1,116 Million in fiscal 2006.

3.2.10 Cash and Bank Balances

Customer collections of the last few working days of fiscal 2006 have been remitted / deployed in April 2006 for the purpose of overseas branch profit tax liability (US$ 85 Million).

3.2.11 Loans and advances

(Rs. in Million)

Particulars	2006	2005	Increase %
Advances recoverable in cash or in kind	3,258	1,795	82%
Unbilled revenue	4,336	2,675	62%
Others	2,779	1,093	154%
Total	10,373	5,563	86%

- Increase in 'advances recoverable in cash or in kind' is mainly on account of placement of Rs. 500 Million in a structured deposit with a banker, repayment of recovery from employee advances sold in fiscal year 2005 to one of the bankers, increase in employee and other advances, etc.
- Unbilled revenue has increased on account of three factors. First, 15% increase in revenues from Fixed Price Projects in IT Services. Second, 48% increase in revenues from BPO services where certain customers are billed after the end of the month. Third, increase in revenues from services by 39% in fiscal 2006 in India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products.
- Increase of Rs. 1,686 Million in 'Others' is mainly due to payment of advance tax Rs. 1053 Million and deposit against land refundable after 90 years Rs 384 Million.

3.2.12 Current Liabilities and Provisions

Current Liabilities

(Rs. in Million)

Particulars	2006	2005	Increase %
Sundry Creditors	4,146	3,743	11%
Advances from customers	969	638	52%
Unearned revenues	601	640	-6%
Other Liabilities	12,811	7,721	66%
Total	18,527	12,742	45%

Sundry Creditors represent the amount payable to vendors for supply of goods and services. Sundry creditors of India & AsiaPac IT Services & Products increased by 150 Million primarily due to increase in proportion of sales of specific traded products where the company has better credit terms and growth in product sales.

Advances from customers increased in India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products by Rs. 188 Million mainly due to advances received against new orders.

Other liabilities comprise of amounts due for operational expenses. Other liabilities have increased by Rs 5,090 Million from Rs 7,721 Million to Rs 12,811 Million. Other liabilities of Global IT Services and Products have increased by Rs 4,372 Million in fiscal 2006. The increase in other liabilities is mainly towards subcontracting expenses, pass through costs, administrative expenses, withholding taxes, incentives, quarterly linked performance bonus, onsite reimbursements etc. This increase is in line with increase in employee base, infrastructure and business.

Provisions

(Rs. in Million)

Particulars	2006	2005	Increase
Employee retirement benefits	1,396	829	567
Warranty provision	719	462	257
Proposed Dividend	7,129	3,518	3,611
Tax on proposed dividend	1,000	493	507
Total	10,244	5,302	4,942

- Provisions of Rs. 1,396 Million for employee retirement benefit represent Company's liability towards employee leave encashment and gratuity. The Company provides a contribution defined pension scheme for senior officers of the company. The contribution is funded into a pension scheme.
- Warranty provision has increased from Rs 462 Million to Rs 719 Million primarily in India & AsiaPac services and products, due to increase in single and multi year warranties for IT products sold.
- For fiscal 2006, the Directors of the Company have proposed a cash dividend of Rs 5/- per share on equity shares. Provisions include Rs 7,129 Million towards proposed dividend and Rs 1,000 Million towards tax payable on distribution of dividends.

3.3.1 Income from Sales and Services

(Rs. in Million)

Segmental Revenues	2006	2005	Growth
Global IT Services and Products	80,660	60,753	33%
India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products	17,048	13,964	22%
Consumer Care and Lighting	6,008	4,723	27%
Others	2,542	2,258	13%
Total	106,258	81,698	30%

Global IT Services and Products

Global IT Services and Products accounted for 76% of the revenues of Wipro Limited Consolidated. During the year, revenues grew by 33% from Rs 60,753 Million to Rs. 80,660 Million.

This increase is attributable mainly due to 34% increase in revenue from Enterprise Services & Technology Services and a 17% increase from BPO Services. The increase in revenue from Enterprise Services is principally driven by increased revenues from services provided to finance solutions, Manufacturing, retail and utility companies. The increase in revenue from Enterprise business is principally driven by increased revenues from services provided to product engineering. Revenue from BPO services increased mainly due to increase in the scope and volume of services provided to the clients.

Onsite	77,889	59,262	31%
Offshore	172,115	120,216	43%
Total	250,004	179,478	39%

(Rs. in Million)

Revenue by location – IT Services	2006	2005	Increase (%)
Onsite	39,219	30,364	29%
Offshore	33,814	23,866	42%
Total	73,033	54,230	35%

Revenue by Project type - IT Services	2006	2005
Time & Material	79%	78%
Fixed Price	21%	22%
Total	100%	100%

In IT Services, the volumes in terms of man months billed increased by 39% in fiscal 2006. The proportion of revenues from onsite projects decreased from 56% of total revenues in fiscal 2005 to 53.7% of total revenues in fiscal 2006. The proportion of Time and Material contracts increased from 78% in fiscal 2005 to 79% in fiscal 2006.

Global IT Services added over 168 new customers during the year, new clients accounted for over 4.2% of the total revenues from IT Services. Customers with an annual Revenue of $ 5 Million and above in IT Services increased to 79 in the year ended March 31, 2006 from 65 last year.

India and Asia Pac IT Services and Products

India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products accounted for 16% of the total consolidated revenues of Wipro Limited and the year on year growth is 22%. The increase in revenue has been mainly on account of 47% growth in revenues of Enterprise Networking, 24% growth in Enterprise products, 7% growth in manufactured and traded products and a growth of 31% in revenues from Services. The growth in services was driven by growth in Professional services, Solutions and Consulting businesses, both in India and Middle East & AsiaPac geographies.

Consumer Care and Lighting

Consumer Care and lighting accounts for 6% of consolidated revenue of Wipro Limited. Sales under this segment have increased by 27% growth year on year. This was primarily attributable to increase in revenues in consumer care by 16% and lighting sales have gone up by 41%.

3.3.2 Other Income

(Rs. in Million)

Particulars	Year ended March 31,
	2006	2005
Interest, Dividend and Profit on sale of Investments	1,307	751
Profit on Sale of fixed assets	13	110
Difference in exchange	135	(9)
Others	81	93
Total	1,536	945

Other income for the current year has increased by 63% mainly on account of two factors. First, profit on sale of mutual funds and interest income have increased due to increase in average quantum of investments (yield @ 5.3% against 4.5% last year). Second, higher exchange gain is due to translation of foreign currency balances and accounting of forward contracts.

3.3.3 Cost of goods sold

(Rs. in Million)

Particulars	March 31, 2006		March 31, 2005		Increase
	Amount	% to sales	Amount	% to sales
Consumption of raw material, finished & process stocks	14,819	14.0%	12,183	14.9%	22%
Employee compensation costs	38,184	36.0%	29,140	35.7%	31%
Travel	3,688	3.5%	2,372	2.9%	55%
Sub-contracting / technical fees	4,317	4.1%	2,130	2.6%	103%
Others	7,771	7.3%	6,263	7.7%	24%
Miscellaneous	2,705	2.6%	1,993	2.4%	36%
Total	71,484	67.4%	54,081	66.3%	32%
Income from sales and services	106,029		81,606

Consumption of Raw materials, finished and process stocks

Consumption of raw materials, finished and process stocks comprise mainly consumption of raw materials and finished goods for trading in India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products, Wipro Consumer Care & Lighting and of Wipro Infrastructure Engineering products. The consumption ratio to product sales has increased to 77% as against 76 % in last year. The increase was mainly on account of increase in revenues from products component in India and AsiaPac IT Services and products by 19%, Consumer Care and Lighting by 23% and Wipro Infrastructure Engineering by 32%.

Employee compensation costs

Salaries and other manpower related costs increased by 31% to Rs 38,184 Million in the year ended March 31, 2006. This increase was mainly due to a 28% increase in the number of employees in Global IT Services from 41,857 employees as on March 31, 2005 to 53,742 employees as on March 31, 2005 and annual compensation review in November 2005.

Travel

Travel expenses have increased in fiscal 2006 by Rs. 1,316 Million. Out of this, increase in Global IT Services and Products by Rs. 1,279 Million was mainly due to higher no. of people deployed onsite and increase in visa costs. Onsite billed man months increased by 31% from 59,262 in fiscal 2005 to 77,889 in fiscal 2006.

Subcontracting / Technical Fees

Subcontracting expenses includes manpower from various agencies and fees for technical services includes pass through cost billed to the clients. The increase in the same would have a corresponding effect on the revenue.

Others

Other expenses increased by 24 % to Rs. 7771 Million primarily due to increase in power & fuel, stores & spares consumption, communication expenses depreciation etc in relation to the increase in infrastructure.

Miscellaneous Expenses

Miscellaneous expenditure has increased by 36% to Rs 2,705 Million for year ended 2006. This is principally due to increase in professional charges and other repairs in Global IT Services and Products and increase in technology operating expenses in the BPO services in line with growth of business.

3.3.4 Selling & Marketing Expenses

(Rs. in Million)

Particulars	March 31, 2006		March 31, 2005		Increase
	Amount	% to sales	Amount	% to sales
Employee compensation cost	3,508	3.3%	2,626	3.2%	34%
Travel	647	0.6%	564	0.7%	15%
Advertisement and sales promotion	972	0.9%	756	0.9%	29%
Carriage and freight	555	0.5%	357	0.4%	55%
Others	732	0.7%	841	1.0%	(13%)
Miscellaneous	589	0.6%	494	0.6%	19%
Total	7,003	6.6%	5,638	6.9%	24%
Income from sales and services	106,029		81,606

Employee compensation and related manpower costs

Salaries and other manpower related costs increased by 34% to Rs. 3,508 Million in the year ended March 31, 2006. This increase was mainly due to a 21% increase in the number of employees in sales team in Global IT Services from 173 as on March 31, 2005 to 213 as on March 31, 2006 and onsite compensation review in January 2006.

Travel

Travel expenses as compared to sales have come down marginally though there is an increase by 15% as against last year. This is primarily due to rationalisation of travel and other costs relating to foreign offices.

Advertisement and sales promotion

Advertisement and sales promotion have increased by 29% to Rs 972 Million in the year ended March 31, 2006. The increase is mainly in Wipro Consumer Care and Lighting business segment where the Company is strategically investing in existing brands for increasing penetration and enhancing its product offering by building new products. This strategy has given good dividends during the year.

Carriage & Freight

Carriage & freight expenses have increased by 55% from 357 Million to 555 Million during the year mainly due to increase in revenue, increase in billing from APAC countries and increase in cost of carriage.

Other Expenses

Other expense comprises of expenses like rent, commission on sales, depreciation, communication expenses etc. There is a 13% decrease in other expenses due to decrease in commission on sales and communication expenses.

Miscellaneous Expenses

Miscellaneous expenses have gone up from Rs. 494 Million to Rs. 589 Million. Though there is an increase by 19% year on year, the percentage on sales remains the same.

3.3.5 General and Administrative Expenses

(Rs. in Million)

Particulars	March 31, 2006		March 31, 2005		Increase
	Amount	% to sales	Amount	% to sales
Employee compensation cost	2,155	2.0%	1,568	1.9%	37%
Travel	637	0.6%	418	0.5%	52%
Provision / write off of bad debts	304	0.3%	152	0.2%	100%
Others	370	0.3%	282	0.3%	31%
Miscellaneous	1,799	1.7%	1,407	1.7%	28%
Total	5,265	5.0%	3,827	4.7%	38%
Income from sales and services	106,029		81,606

Employee compensation and related manpower costs

Salaries and other manpower related costs have increased by 37% to Rs. 2,155 Million in the year ended March 31, 2006. The support staff headcount in IT Services has increased by 52% from 1,784 in March 2005 to 2,704 in March 2006.

Travel

Travel expenses have increased mainly due to increased number of business travel due to higher integration activities, visa expenses etc.

Provision / write off of bad debts

Provision for write off of bad debts has increased by 100% from Rs. 152 Million in fiscal 2005 to Rs. 304 Million in fiscal 2006. As a percentage to sales, provision for write off of bad debts has increased from 0.2% of sales in fiscal 2005 to 0.3% of sales in fiscal 2006.

Others

Other expense comprises of expenses like insurance, rent, rates & taxes, depreciation, communication expenses etc. There is a 31% increase in other expenses due to increase in rates & taxes and communication expenses.

Miscellaneous Expenses

Miscellaneous expenses have increased by 28% during the year from Rs. 1,407 Million in 2005 to Rs. 1,799 Million in 2006.

3.3.6 Interest

Interest expense for fiscal 2006 is 35 Million. (Rs. 56 Million for fiscal 2005)

3.3.7 Income taxes

Effective tax rate, excluding tax provision for previous years, has increased from 14.1% to 14.3%. The higher effective tax rate is primarily due to increase in the proportion of income subject to tax in India and in foreign jurisdictions and introduction of fringe benefit tax during the year.

The Company had received demands from the Indian income tax authorities for the financial years 2000-01 & 2001-02 aggregating to Rs. 5,232 Million. The tax demands were primarily on account of denial of deduction claimed by the Company under Section 10A of the Income Tax Act 1961 (Act), in respect of profits earned by its undertakings in Software Technology Park at Bangalore. The Company had appealed against the said demands. In March 2006, the first Income tax appellate authority substantially upheld the deductions claimed by the Company under Section 10A of the Act, which will vacate a substantial portion of the demands for these years.

In March 2006, the Company received an assessment order for financial year 2002-03 on the similar lines of the earlier two financial years. The order has demanded a tax of Rs. 2,869 Million (including interest of Rs.750 Million). The Company will file an appeal against the assessment order within the prescribed statutory time.

Considering the facts and nature of disallowance, the order of the appellate authority upholding the claims of the Company for financial years 2000-01 & 2001-02, the management believes that the final outcome of the dispute should be positive in favour of the Company and there should not be any material impact on the financial statements.

3.3.8 Appropriation from profit

The Profit for the period of Rs 20,674 Million is appropriated as follows

- Dividend distributed to Wipro Equity Reward Trust Rs. 20 Million,
- Additional dividend paid (for the differential no. of shares as at AGM date) for the previous year Rs. 6 Million,
- Proposed dividend on equity shares Rs. 7,129 Million,
- Tax on distribution of dividend Rs. 1,000 Million &
- Transfer to general reserve Rs. 6,723 Million
- Adjustment on account of amalgamation. [Refer Note 19 (8) in Notes to Accounts of Consolidated Financial Statements]

Intangible asset amortization	E	(51)	(92)
Deferred Taxes	G	(126)	-
Others		(35)	(9)
Total		(404)	(452)
Net Income as per US GAAP		20,270	15,833

Notes :

- A. The difference on account of forex gains or losses is primarily on account of difference in the treatment of mark to market gains or losses on premium on forward contracts designated as hedges. As per the Indian GAAP, the contract date premium/discount on forward contracts designated for forecasted cash flows is amortised over the life of the forward contract. There is no such requirement under US GAAP.
- B. Wipro BPO has 4,008,681 shares to employees, upon exercise of employee stock options, for the year ended March 31, 2005. As the exercise price per option was less than the Company's carrying value per share, the exercise resulted in a decline in the carrying value of the Company's ownership interest by Rs. 207 million for the year ended March 31, 2005. The decline in carrying value is recognised as expense in US GAAP. In Indian GAAP, the excess of consideration paid upon exercise of stock options over the share in the assets of Wipro BPO has been offset against the goodwill arising from the Wipro BPO acquisition.
- C. The Company has adopted EITF 00-21, revenue is recognised on dispatch. However, where installation is a condition to the contract, zero or minimal margin is recognised in US GAAP and the balance is recognised upon completion of installation.
- D. Under US GAAP, compensation cost is recognised for shares granted to employees as the excess of the quoted market price of the stock at the date of grant over the amount to be paid by the employee. Such compensation cost is amortised over the vesting period. Accordingly, Wipro has recorded compensation cost for shares granted to employees from the Wipro Equity Reward Trust and acceleration of stock options for certain employees. No such accounting is required under Indian GAAP.
- E. In US GAAP, a portion of the purchase consideration in a business acquisition will be allocated to intangible assets meeting the criteria for being recognised as an asset apart from goodwill. The value assigned to the intangible assets will be amortised over the useful life of the intangible asset in proportion to the economic benefits consumed during each reporting period.
- F. In US GAAP, for leases of property which provide for rent escalation clause during the life of the lease the lease rentals are accrued on a straight line basis over the lease period. The impact on the profits under US GAAP was a loss of Rs. 75 million for the year ended March 31, 2006.
- G. In US GAAP, we create deferred tax liability for the difference between book value of investments in Wipro GE and WeP Peripherals (equity method) and the tax basis. The difference is represented by undistributed profits / losses of these entities. For the year ended March 31, 2006, we have recognised a deferred tax liability of Rs. 57 million on the undistributed share of profits of affiliates. In the year ended March 31, 2006, we have claimed a tax benefit of Rs. 69 million in US taxes on disqualified disposition of stock options by employees. Under US GAAP, the tax benefit has been directly recognised in equity. There is no such requirement under the Indian GAAP.

Except as otherwise stated in this Annual Report, all translations from Indian rupees to U.S. dollars are based on the noon buying rate in the City of New York on March 31, 2006, for cable transfers in Indian rupees as certified for customs purposes by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York which was Rs. 44.48 per $1.00. No representation is made that the Indian rupee amounts have been, could have been or could be converted into United States dollars at such a rate or any other rate. Any discrepancies in any table between totals and sums of the amounts listed are due to rounding. Information contained in our website, www.wipro.com, is not part of this Annual Report.

Forward-Looking Statements May Prove Inaccurate

IN ADDITION TO HISTORICAL INFORMATION, THIS ANNUAL REPORT CONTAINS CERTAIN FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS WITHIN THE MEANING OF SECTION 27A OF THE SECURITIES ACT OF 1933, AS AMENDED (THE “SECURITIES ACT”), AND SECTION 21E OF THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934, AS AMENDED (THE “EXCHANGE ACT”). THE FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS CONTAINED HEREIN ARE SUBJECT TO CERTAIN RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES THAT COULD CAUSE ACTUAL RESULTS TO DIFFER MATERIALLY FROM THOSE REFLECTED IN THE FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS. FACTORS THAT MIGHT CAUSE SUCH A DIFFERENCE INCLUDE, BUT ARE NOT LIMITED TO, THOSE DISCUSSED IN THE SECTIONS ENTITLED “RISK FACTORS” AND “MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITIONS AND RESULTS OF OPERATION” AND ELSEWHERE IN THIS REPORT. READERS ARE CAUTIONED NOT TO PLACE UNDUE RELIANCE ON THESE FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS, WHICH REFLECT MANAGEMENT’S ANALYSIS ONLY AS OF THE DATE HEREOF. IN ADDITION, READERS SHOULD CAREFULLY REVIEW THE OTHER INFORMATION IN THIS ANNUAL REPORT AND IN THE COMPANY’S PERIODIC REPORTS AND OTHER DOCUMENTS FILED WITH THE SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION (“SEC”) FROM TIME TO TIME.

This Annual Report includes statistical data about the IT industry that comes from information published by sources including International Data Corporation (IDC), Gartner Inc. (Gartner), National Association of Software and Service Companies (NASSCOM), and Dataquest India (Dataquest). This type of data represents only the estimates of IDC, Gartner, NASSCOM, Dataquest and other sources of industry data. In addition, although we believe that data from these companies is generally reliable, this type of data is inherently imprecise. We caution you not to place undue reliance on this data.

Exchange Rates

Fluctuations in the exchange rate between the Indian rupee and the U.S. dollar will affect the U.S. dollar equivalent of the Indian rupee price of our equity shares on the Indian stock exchanges and, as a result, will likely affect the market price of our American Depositary Shares, or ADSs, listed on the New York Stock Exchange, and vice versa. Such fluctuations will also affect the U.S. dollar conversion by our depository for the ADSs, Morgan Guaranty Trust Company of New York, or Depository, of any cash dividends paid in Indian rupees on our equity shares represented by the ADSs.

The following table sets forth, for the fiscal years indicated, information concerning the number of Indian rupees for which one U.S. dollar could be exchanged based on the average of the noon buying rate in the City of New York on the last business day of each month during the period for cable transfers in Indian rupees as certified for customs purposes by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York. The column titled "Average" in the table below is the average of the daily noon buying rate on the last business day of each month during the year.

RISK FACTORS

This Annual Report contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of certain factors, including those set forth in the following risk factors and elsewhere in this Annual Report. The following risk factors should be considered carefully in evaluating us and our business.

Risks Related to our Company and our Industry

Our revenues and expenses are difficult to predict because they can fluctuate significantly given the nature of the markets in which we operate. This increases the likelihood that our results could fall below the expectation of market analysts, which could cause the price of our equity shares and ADSs to decline.

Our revenue historically has fluctuated and may fluctuate in the future depending on a number of factors, including:

- the size, complexity, timing, pricing terms and profitability of significant projects or product orders;
- changes in our pricing policies or those of our competitors;
- the proportion of services we perform at our clients' sites rather than at our offshore facilities;
- seasonal changes that affect the mix of services we provide to our clients or the relative proportion of services and product revenue;
- seasonal changes that affect purchasing patterns among our consumers of desktops, notebooks, servers, communication devices, consumer care and other products;
- unanticipated cancellations, contract terminations or deferral of projects, or those occurring as a result of our clients reorganizing their operations;
- the duration of tax holidays or exemptions and the availability of other Government of India incentives;
- the effect of seasonal hiring patterns and the time we require to train and productively utilize our new employees;

- unanticipated variations in the duration, size and scope of our projects, as well as changes in the corporate decision-making process of our clients;
- currency exchange fluctuations; and
- other economic and political factors.

Approximately 52% of our total operating expenses in our IT Services and Products business, particularly personnel and facilities, are fixed in advance of any particular quarter. As a result, unanticipated variations in the number and timing of our projects or employee utilization rates may cause significant variations in operating results in any particular quarter. Therefore, we believe that period-to-period comparisons of our results of operations are not necessarily meaningful and should not be relied upon as indications of future performance. Thus, it is possible that in the future some of our quarterly results of operations may be below the expectations of public market analysts and investors, and the market price of our equity shares and ADSs could decline.

Our net income increased 28% in the year ended March 31, 2006, as compared to the year ended March 31, 2005. We continue to face increasing competition, pricing pressures for our products and services and wage pressures for our work force in India primarily due to large U.S. multinational corporations establishing offshore operations in India. We are also investing in developing capabilities in new technology areas and deepening our domain expertise. While we believe that our global delivery model allows us to manage costs efficiently, as the proportion of our services delivered at client sites increases, we may not be able to keep our operating costs as low in the future. In our Business Process Outsourcing, or BPO, business, we are diversifying our service offerings to include process transformation services. High attrition levels and higher proportion of revenues from customer interaction services could adversely impact our operating margins. As a result, there can be no assurance that we will be able to sustain our historic levels of profitability.

If we do not continue to improve our administrative, operational and financial personnel and systems to manage our growth, the value of our shareholders' investment may be harmed.

We have experienced significant growth in all our businesses. We expect our growth to continue to place significant demands on our management and other resources. This will require us to continue to develop and improve our operational, financial and other internal controls, both in India and elsewhere. In particular, our continued growth will increase the challenges involved in:

- recruiting and retaining sufficiently skilled technical, marketing and management personnel;
- adhering to our high quality standards;
- maintaining high levels of client satisfaction;
- developing and improving our internal administrative infrastructure, particularly our financial, operational, communications and other internal systems; and
- preserving our culture, values and entrepreneurial environment.

If we are unable to manage our growth effectively, the quality of our services and products may decline, and our ability to attract clients and skilled personnel may be negatively affected. These factors in turn could negatively affect the growth of our Global IT Services and Products business and harm the value of our shareholders' investment.

Intense competition in the market for IT services could adversely affect our cost advantages, and, as a result, decrease our revenues.

The market for IT services is highly competitive. Our competitors include software companies, IT companies, systems consulting and integration firms, other technology companies and client in-house information services departments. We may also face competition from IT companies operating from China and the Philippines. Many of our competitors command significantly greater financial, technical and marketing resources and generate greater revenue than we do. We cannot be reasonably certain that we will be able to compete successfully against such competitors or that we will not lose our key employees or clients to such competitors. Additionally, we believe that our ability to compete also depends in part on factors outside our control, such as the availability of skilled resources, the price at which our competitors offer comparable services, and the extent of our competitors' responsiveness to their clients' needs.

We may face difficulties in providing end-to-end business solutions for our clients that could cause clients to discontinue their work with us, which in turn could harm our business.

We have been expanding the nature and scope of our engagements and have added new service offerings, such as IT consulting, business process management, systems integration and outsourcing of entire portions of IT infrastructure. The success of these service offerings is dependent, in part, upon continued demand for such services by our existing and new clients and our ability to meet this demand in a cost-competitive and effective manner. In addition, our ability to effectively offer a wider breadth of end-to-end business solutions depends on our ability to attract existing or new clients to these service offerings. To obtain engagements for such end-to-end solutions, we also are more likely to compete with large, well-established international consulting firms, resulting in increased compensation and marketing costs. Accordingly, we cannot be certain that our new service offerings will effectively meet client needs or that we will be able to attract existing and new clients to these service offerings.

The increased breadth of our service offerings may result in larger and more complex projects with our clients. This will require us to establish closer relationships with our clients and a thorough understanding of their operations. Our ability to establish such relationships will depend on a number of factors, including the proficiency of our IT professionals and our management personnel. Our failure to understand our client requirements or our failure to deliver services which meet the requirements specified by our clients could result in termination of client contracts, and we could be liable to our clients for significant penalties or damages.

Larger projects may involve multiple engagements or stages, and there is a risk that a client may choose not to retain us for additional stages or may cancel or delay additional planned engagements. These terminations, cancellations or delays may result from the business or financial condition of our clients or the economy generally, as opposed to factors related to the quality of our services. Such cancellations or delays make it difficult to plan for project resource requirements, and inaccuracies in such resource planning may have a negative impact on our profitability.

Our success depends in large part upon our management team and other highly skilled professionals. If we fail to retain and attract these personnel, our business may be unable to grow and our revenue could decline, which may decrease the value of our shareholders' investment.

We are highly dependent on the senior members of our management team, including the continued efforts of our Chairman and Managing Director. Our ability to execute project engagements and to obtain new clients depends in large part on our ability to attract, train, motivate and retain highly skilled professionals, especially project managers, software engineers and other senior technical personnel. If we cannot hire and retain additional qualified personnel, our ability to bid on and obtain new projects and to continue to expand our business will be impaired and our revenue could decline. We believe that there is significant competition for professionals with the skills necessary to perform the services we offer. We may not be able to hire and retain enough skilled and experienced employees to replace those who leave. Additionally, we may not be able to re-deploy and retain our employees to keep pace with continuing changes in technology, evolving standards and changing client preferences. We are experiencing high employee attrition rates, in line with industry, in our BPO services business. Continued employee attrition rates in this business may adversely affect our revenues and profitability.

The Central Government in India is considering introducing legislation mandating employers to give preferential hiring treatment to under-represented groups. State Governments in India may also introduce such legislation. The quality of our work force is critical to our business. The legislation may affect our ability to hire the most qualified and competent technology and other professionals.

Appreciation of Indian Rupee against major currencies of the world could negatively impact our revenue and operating results.

Approximately 79% of our revenues are earned in major currencies of the world while a significant portion of our costs is in Indian rupees. The exchange rate between the rupee and major currencies of the world has fluctuated significantly in recent years and may continue to fluctuate in the future. Appreciation of the rupee against the major currencies of the world can adversely affect our revenues and competitive positioning, and can adversely impact our gross margins. We enter into forward exchange contracts to minimize the impact of currency fluctuations on our revenues. However, volatility in exchange rate movement and/or sustained rupee appreciation will negatively impact our revenue and operating results.

Our hedging strategy could negatively impact our competitive positioning.

We have entered into forward contracts to hedge a significant portion of our forecasted foreign currency inflows through fiscal 2007. Although the forward contracts minimize the impact of volatility in foreign exchange rates on our income statement, this could result in our realizations of foreign currency denominated revenues or foreign currency denominated expenses to be at a rate different from prevailing market rates and different from the rates realized or incurred by our competitors. This could adversely affect our competitive positioning in the market, our revenues and our operations.

An economic slowdown, terrorist attacks in the United States, and other acts of violence or war could delay or reduce the number of new purchase orders we receive and disrupt our operations in the United States, thereby negatively affecting our financial results and prospects.

Approximately 65% of our Global IT Services and Products revenue is from the United States. During an economic slowdown our clients may delay or reduce their IT spending significantly, which may in turn lower the demand for our services and affect our financial results. Further, terrorist attacks in the United States could cause clients in the U.S. to delay their decisions on IT spending, which could affect our financial results. Any significant decrease in the IT industry, or significant consolidation in that industry or decrease in growth or consolidation in other industry segments on which we focus, may reduce the demand for our services and negatively affect our revenues and profitability. Although we continue to believe that we have a strong competitive position in the United States, we have increased our efforts to geographically diversify our clients and revenue.

Our Global IT Services and Products service revenue depend to a large extent on a small number of clients, and our revenue could decline if we lose a major client.

We currently derive, and believe we will continue to derive, a significant portion of our Global IT Services and Products service revenue from a limited number of corporate clients. The loss of a major client or a significant reduction in the service performed for a major client could result in a reduction of our revenue. Our largest client for the years ended March 31, 2004, March 31, 2005 and March 31, 2006, accounted for 5%, 4% and 3% of our Global IT Services and Products revenue, respectively. For the same periods, our ten largest clients accounted for 33%, 27% and 27% of our Global IT Services and Products revenue. The volume of work we perform for specific clients may vary from year to year, particularly since we typically are not the only outside service provider for our clients. Thus, a major client in one year may not provide the same level of revenue in a subsequent year.

There are a number of factors, other than our performance, that could cause the loss of a client and that may not be predictable. In certain cases, clients have reduced their spending on IT services due to challenging economic environment and consequently have reduced the volume of business with us. If we were to lose one of our major clients or have significantly lower volume of business with them, our revenue and profitability could be reduced. We continually strive to reduce our dependence on revenue from services rendered to any one client.

Restrictions on immigration may affect our ability to compete for and provide services to clients in the United States, which could hamper our growth and cause our revenue to decline.

If U.S. immigration laws change and make it more difficult for us to obtain H-1B and L-1 visas for our employees, our ability to compete for and provide services to clients in the United States could be impaired. In response to recent terrorist attacks in the United States, the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services has increased the level of scrutiny in granting visas and has decreased the number of its grants. This restriction and any other changes in turn could hamper our growth and cause our revenue to decline. Our employees who work on site at client facilities or at our facilities in the United States on temporary and extended assignments typically must obtain visas.

A majority of our personnel in the United States hold H-1B visas or L-1 visas. An H-1B visa is a temporary work visa, which allows the employee to remain in the United States while he or she remains an employee of the sponsoring firm, and the L-1 visa is an intra-company transfer visa, which only allows the employee to remain in the United States temporarily. Although there is no limit to new L-1 petitions, there is a limit to the aggregate number of new H-1B petitions that the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services may approve in any government fiscal year. The U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services have limited the number of H-1B visas that may be granted as of the 2005 fiscal year to 65,000 per year, from 195,000 in each of the three years prior to 2004. Although the U.S. government has approved the grant of approximately 20,000 additional H-1B visas, these visas are only available to skilled workers who possess a Master's or higher degree from educational institutions in the United States.

The L-1 and H-1B Visa Reform Act of 2004 further proposes to preclude foreign companies from obtaining L-1 visas for employees with specialized knowledge: (1) if such employees will be stationed primarily at the worksite of another company in the U.S. and the employee will not be controlled and supervised by his employer, or (2) if the placement is essentially an arrangement to provide labor for hire rather than in connection with the employee's specialized knowledge. The L1 Reforms Act provisions became effective in June 2005.

Immigration laws in the United States may also require us to meet certain levels of compensation, and to comply with other legal requirements, including labor certifications, as a condition to obtaining or maintaining work visas for our technology professionals working in the United States.

Immigration laws in the United States and in other countries are subject to legislative change, as well as to variations in standards of application and enforcement due to political forces and economic conditions. It is difficult to predict the political and economic events that could affect immigration laws, or the restrictive impact they could have on obtaining or monitoring work visas for our technology professionals.

Although we currently have sufficient personnel with valid H-1B visas, we cannot assure you that we will continue to be able to obtain any or a sufficient number of H-1B visas on the same time schedule as we have previously obtained, or at all.

We focus on high-growth industries, such as networking and communications. Any decrease in demand for technology in such industries may significantly decrease the demand for our services, which may impair our growth and cause our revenue to decline.

Approximately 37% of our IT Services and Products business is derived from clients in high growth industries who use our IT services for networking and communications equipment. These industries have experienced periods of above normal growth and periods of contraction. Any significant decrease in the growth of these industries will decrease the demand for our services and could reduce our revenue.

Our failure to complete fixed-price, fixed-timeframe contracts on budget and on time may negatively affect our profitability, which could decrease the value of our shareholders' investment.

We offer a portion of our services on a fixed-price, fixed-timeframe basis, rather than on a time-and-materials basis. Although we use specified software engineering processes and our past project experience to reduce the risks associated with estimating, planning and performing fixed-price, fixed-timeframe projects, we bear the risk of cost overruns, completion delays and wage inflation in connection with these projects. If we fail to accurately estimate the resources and time required for a project, future rates of wage inflation and currency exchange rates, or if we fail to complete our contractual obligations within the contracted timeframe, our profitability may suffer.

Disruptions in telecommunications could harm our service model, which could result in a reduction of our revenue.

A significant element of our business strategy is to continue to leverage and expand our software development centers in Bangalore, Chennai, Hyderabad and Pune, India, as well as overseas. We believe that the use of a strategically located network of software development centers will provide us with cost advantages, the ability to attract highly skilled personnel in various regions of the country and the world, the ability to service clients on a regional and global basis and the ability to provide services to our clients 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Part of our service model is to maintain active voice and data communications between our main offices in Bangalore, our clients' offices, and our other software development and support facilities. Although we maintain redundancy facilities and satellite communications links, any significant loss in our ability to transmit voice and data through satellite and telephone communications could result in a disruption in business, thereby hindering our performance or our ability to complete client projects on time. This, in turn, could lead to a reduction of our revenue.

The markets in which we operate are subject to the risk of earthquakes, floods and other natural disasters.

Some of the regions that we operate in are prone to earthquakes, flooding and other natural disasters. In the event that any of our business centers are affected by any such disasters, we may sustain damage to our operations and properties, suffer significant financial losses and be unable to complete our client engagements in a timely manner, if at all. Further, we may also incur costs in redeploying personnel and property. In addition, if there is a major earthquake, flood or other natural disaster in any of the locations in which our significant customers are located, we face the risk that our customers may incur losses, or sustained business interruption and/or loss which may materially impair their ability to continue their purchase of products or services from us. A major earthquake, flood or other natural disaster in the markets in which we operate could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

We may be liable to our clients for damages caused by disclosure of confidential information or system failures.

We often have access to or are required to collect and store confidential client and customer data. Many of our client agreements do not limit our potential liability for breaches of confidentiality. If any person, including any of our employees, penetrates our network security or misappropriates sensitive data, we could be subject to significant liability from our clients or from our clients' customers for breaching contractual confidentiality provisions or privacy laws. Unauthorized disclosure of sensitive or confidential client and customer data, whether through breach of our computer systems, systems failure or otherwise, could damage our reputation and cause us to lose clients.

We are investing substantial cash assets in new facilities and physical infrastructure, and our profitability could be reduced if our business does not grow proportionately.

As of March 31, 2006, we had contractual commitments of approximately Rs. 1,714 million ($ 39 million) related to capital expenditures on construction or expansion of our software development facilities. We may encounter cost overruns or project delays in connection with new facilities. These expansions may increase our fixed costs. If we are unable to grow our business and revenues proportionately, our profitability will be reduced.

Our international operations subject us to risks inherent in doing business on an international level that could harm our operating results.

Currently, we have software development facilities in eight countries around the world. The majority of our software development facilities are located in India. We intend to establish new development facilities in Southeast Asia and Europe. We have not yet made substantial contractual commitments to establish any new facilities and we cannot assure you that we will not significantly alter or reduce our proposed expansion plans. Because of our limited experience with facilities outside of India, we are subject to additional risks related to our international expansion strategy, including risks related to complying with a wide variety of national and local laws, restrictions on the import and export of certain technologies and multiple and possibly overlapping tax structures. In addition, we may face competition in other countries from companies that may have more experience with operations in such countries or with international operations generally. We may also face difficulties integrating new facilities in different countries into our existing operations, as well as integrating employees that we hire in different countries into our existing corporate culture. Our international expansion plans may not be successful and we may not be able to compete effectively in other countries.

Our business will suffer if we fail to anticipate and develop new services and enhance existing services in order to keep pace with rapid changes in technology and the industries on which we focus.

The IT services market is characterized by rapid technological change, evolving industry standards, changing client preferences and new product and service introductions. Our future success will depend on our ability to anticipate these advances and develop new product and service offerings to meet client needs. We may not be successful in anticipating or responding to these advances in a timely basis, or, if we do respond, the services or technologies we develop may not be successful in the marketplace. Further, products, services or technologies that are developed by our competitors may render our services non-competitive or obsolete.

Most of our client contracts can typically be terminated without cause and with little or no notice or penalty, which could negatively impact our revenue and profitability.

Our clients typically retain us on a non-exclusive, project-by-project basis. Most of our client contracts, including those that are on a fixed-price, fixed-timeframe basis, can be terminated with or without cause, with between zero and ninety days' notice and without termination-related penalties. Additionally, most of our contracts with clients are typically limited to discrete projects without any commitment to a specific volume of business or future work. Our business is dependent on the decisions and actions of our clients, and there are a number of factors relating to our clients that are outside our control that might result in the termination of a project or the loss of a client, including:

- financial difficulties for a client;
- a change in strategic priorities, resulting in a reduced level of IT spending;
- a demand for price reductions; and
- a change in outsourcing strategy by moving more work to client in-house IT departments or to our competitors.

We may engage in future acquisitions, investments, strategic partnerships or other ventures that may harm our performance, dilute our shareholders' ownership and cause us to incur debt or assume contingent liabilities.

We have acquired and in the future may acquire or make investments in complementary businesses, technologies, services or products, or enter into strategic partnerships with parties who can provide access to those assets. For example, in December 2005, we acquired 100% of the equity of mPower Software Service Inc. and its subsidiaries, a U.S. based company in the payment processing sector, and we acquired 100% of the equity of BVPENTE BETEILIGUNGSVERWALTUNG GmbH and its subsidiaries (NewLogic Technologies AG), a European system-on-chip design company. In the future, we may not identify suitable acquisition, investment or strategic partnership candidates, or if we do identify suitable candidates, we may not complete those transactions on terms commercially acceptable to us or at all. We could have difficulty in assimilating the personnel, operations, technology and software of the acquired company. In addition, the key personnel of the acquired company may decide not to work for us. If we make other types of acquisitions, we could have difficulty in integrating the acquired products, services or technologies into our operations. These difficulties could disrupt our ongoing business, distract our management and employees and increase our expenses.

Our revenues could be significantly affected if the governments, in geographies we operate in, restrict companies from outsourcing work to foreign corporations.

In the United States, despite economic recovery, the unemployment levels have not declined significantly from the pre-economic recovery levels. There has been concern among the legislators about the impact of outsourcing on unemployment levels in the United States. Legislation has been proposed to prohibit federal and state governments from outsourcing IT and IT enabled services to foreign corporations. Legislators have also proposed to introduce economic deterrents for U.S. companies outsourcing work to foreign corporations.

Independent research agencies have conducted research and concluded that outsourcing benefits the U.S. economy. Several U.S. companies have also supported outsourcing as a competitive advantage. However, if the proposed laws come into effect it would adversely affect our revenues and profitability.

Our BPO services revenue depend to a large extent on a small number of clients, and our revenue could decline if a major client reduces the volume of services obtained from us.

We currently derive, and believe we will continue to derive, a significant portion of our BPO services revenue from a limited number of corporate clients. The reduction in volume of work done to a major client could result in a reduction of our revenue. Since we recruit and train employees in anticipation of continued growth in volume, reduction in the volume of work from these major clients would adversely impact our gross margins.

There are a number of factors that could cause the loss of a client and such factors are not predictable. We could fail to achieve performance standards due to a lack of clarity between us and the client on the performance standards or due to deficiencies in processes. In certain cases, a client could reduce their spending on such services due to a challenging economic environment and consequently reduce the volume and profitability of business with us. In other cases, a client could reduce its spending on such services with us and form internal competing operations in the U.S., India or other price competitive geographies.

Some of our long-term client contracts contain benchmarking provisions which, if triggered could result in lower contractual revenues and profitability in the future.

As the size and complexity of our client engagements increase, our clients may require further benchmarking provisions in our client contracts. Benchmarking provisions allow a customer in certain circumstances to request a benchmark study prepared by an agreed upon third-party comparing our pricing, performance and efficiency gains for delivered contract services to that of an agreed upon list of other service providers for comparable services. Based on the results of the benchmark study and depending on the reasons for any unfavorable variance, we may be required to reduce the pricing for future services to be performed under the balance of the contract, which could have an adverse impact on our revenues and profitability.

We may be liable to our clients for damages caused by system failures, which could damage our reputation and cause us to lose customers.

Many of our contracts involve projects that are critical to the operations of our clients' businesses and provide benefits that may be difficult to quantify. Any failure in a client's system could result in a claim for substantial damages against us, regardless of our responsibility for such failure. Although we attempt to limit our contractual liability for consequential damages in rendering our services, we cannot be assured that the limitations on liability we provide for in our service contracts will be enforceable in all cases, or that they will otherwise protect us from liability for damages. A successful assertion of one or more large claims against us that exceeds our available insurance coverage or changes in our insurance policies, including premium increases or the imposition of a large deductible or co-insurance requirement, could adversely affect our operating results.

Our earnings will be adversely affected upon adoption of an accounting policy to expense stock options based on fair value method.

We do not currently deduct the expense of employee stock option grants from our income based on the fair value method. We have adopted the pro forma disclosure provisions of SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation. In December 2004, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued FASB Statement No. 123 (revised 2004), Share-Based Payment, requiring companies to change their accounting policies to record the fair value of stock options issued to employees as an expense. We are required to adopt SFAS No. 123R as of April 1, 2006. The change in our accounting policy with respect to the treatment of employee stock option grants will adversely affect our earnings, operating results and earnings per share in the event that we make any grants in the future. If we had amortized the stock based employee compensation expense determined under the fair value method of SFAS No. 123, our net income as reported for the years ended March 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 would have been reduced by Rs. 2,080 million, Rs. 1,244 million and Rs. 571 million respectively.

Compliance with new and changing corporate governance and public disclosure requirements adds uncertainty to our compliance policies and increases our costs of compliance.

Changing laws, regulations and standards relating to accounting, corporate governance and public disclosure, including the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, new SEC regulations, NYSE rules, Securities and Exchange Board of India rules and Indian stock market listing regulations, are creating uncertainty for companies like ours. These new or changed laws, regulations and standards may lack specificity and are subject to varying interpretations. Their application in practice may evolve over time as new guidance is provided by regulatory and governing bodies. This could result in continuing uncertainty regarding compliance matters and higher costs of compliance as a result of ongoing revisions to such governance standards.

Pursuant to the requirements of Sarbanes Oxley Act, 2002, in the annual report for the year ended March 31, 2007, the company is required to report on the effectiveness of internal controls over financial reporting. The company is documenting the internal controls over financial reporting, assessing the design and operating effectiveness and correcting the deficiencies, if any, in the internal controls over financial reporting. There can be no assurance that the company would be able to complete this exercise on time or the company would not report any material weakness in the internal controls over financial reporting.

We are committed to maintaining high standards of corporate governance and public disclosure, and our efforts to comply with evolving laws, regulations and standards in this regard have resulted in, and are likely to continue to result in, increased general and administrative expenses and a diversion of management time and attention from revenue-generating activities to compliance activities. In addition, the new laws, regulations and standards regarding corporate governance may make it more difficult for us to obtain director and officer liability insurance. Further, our board members, chief executive officer and chief financial officer could face an increased risk of personal liability in connection with their performance of duties. As a result, we may face difficulties attracting and retaining qualified board members and executive officers, which could harm our business. If we fail to comply with new or changed laws or regulations and standards differ, our business and reputation may be harmed.

Risks Related to Investments in Indian Companies and International Operations generally.

We are incorporated in India, and substantially all of our assets and our employees are located in India. Consequently, our financial performance and the market price of our ADSs will be affected by political, social and economic developments affecting India, Government of India policies, including taxation and foreign investment policies, Government currency exchange control, as well as changes in exchange rates and interest rates.

Wages in India have historically been lower than wages in the United States and Europe, which has been one of our competitive advantages. Wage increases in India may prevent us from sustaining this competitive advantage and may reduce our profit margins.

Our wage costs in India have historically been significantly lower than wage costs in the United States and Europe for comparably skilled professionals, and this has been one of our competitive advantages. However, wage increases in India may prevent us from sustaining this competitive advantage and may negatively affect our profit margins. We may need to increase the levels of our employee compensation more rapidly than in the past to retain talent. Unless we are able to continue to increase the efficiency and productivity of our employees or source talent from other low cost locations, like Eastern Europe, China or South-East Asia, wage increases in the long term may reduce our profit margins.

Our costs could increase if the Government of India reduces or withholds tax benefits and other incentives it provides to us.

Currently, we benefit from certain tax incentives under Indian tax laws. As a result of these incentives, our operations have not been subject to significant Indian tax liabilities. These tax incentives currently include a tax holiday from payment of Indian corporate income taxes for our Global IT Services and Products business operated from specially designated “Software Technology Parks” and “Special Economic Zones” in India and an income tax deduction of 100% for profits derived from exporting information technology services. As a result, a substantial portion of our pre-tax income has not been subject to significant tax in recent years. For the years ended March 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 our tax benefits were Rs. 2,925 million, Rs. 4,591 million and Rs. 4,721 million respectively, from such tax incentives. We are currently also eligible for exemptions from other taxes, including customs duties. The Finance Act, 2000 phases out the tax holiday for “Software Technology Parks” over a ten year period from the financial year 1999-2000 to financial year 2008-2009. Our current tax holidays expire in stages by 2009. For companies opting for the 100% tax deduction for profits derived from exporting information technology services, the Finance Act, 2000 phases out the income tax deduction over a period of five years from April 1, 2000. Additionally, the Government of India could enact similar laws in the future, which could further impair our other tax incentives.

In the Finance Act, 2005, the Government of India introduced a separate tax holiday scheme for units set up under designated special economic zones engaged in manufacture of articles or in provision of services. Under this scheme, units in designated special economic zones which begin providing services on or after April 1, 2005 will be eligible for a deduction of 100 percent of profits or gains derived from the export of services for the first five years from commencement of provision of services and 50 percent of such profits or gains for a further five years. Certain tax benefits are also available for a further five years subject to the unit meeting defined conditions. When our tax holiday and income tax deduction exemptions expire or terminate, our costs will increase.

In March 2004 and March 2005, we had received demands from the Indian income tax authorities for our 2000 and 2001 fiscal years respectively for a total of Rs. 5,232 million. The tax demands were primarily due to the denial of deductions claimed by us under Section 10A of the Income Tax Act 1961, with respect to profits earned by our undertakings at our Software Technology Park located at Bangalore. We have appealed against these demands. In March 2006, the first Income tax appellate authority substantially upheld the deductions claimed by us under Section 10A of the Act, which will vacate a substantial portion of the demands for these years.

In March 2006, we received an assessment order from the tax authorities for our 2002 fiscal year on similar grounds. The order has demanded a tax of Rs. 2,869 million (including interest of Rs.750 million). We will file an appeal against this assessment order within the prescribed statutory timeframe.

Considering the facts and nature of disallowances, the order of the appellate authority upholding our deduction claims for our 2000 and 2001 fiscal years, our management believes that the final outcome of the 2002 dispute should also be resolved in our favour and there should not be any material impact on our financial statements.

Although we currently believe we will ultimately prevail in our appeal, the results of such appeal, and any subsequent appeals, cannot be predicted with certainty. Should we fail to prevail in our appeal, or any subsequent appeals, in any reporting period, the operating results of such reporting period could be materially adversely affected.

After considering the provision made in the books based on our assessment, as of March 31, 2006, our net exposure on these tax demands was Rs. 2,413 million, or approximately $ 54 million.

The Indian Finance Act, 2005 imposes an additional income tax on companies called a “Fringe Benefits Tax”, or FBT. Pursuant to this Act, companies are deemed to have provided fringe benefits to their employees if certain defined expenses are incurred. A portion of these expenses is deemed to be a fringe benefit to the employees and subjects a company to tax at a rate of 30%, exclusive of applicable surcharge and cess. The Fringe Benefits Tax and other similar taxes enacted in the future by the Government of India could adversely affect our profitability.

Regional conflicts in South Asia could adversely affect the Indian economy, disrupt our operations and cause our business to suffer.

South Asia has from time to time experienced instances of civil unrest and hostilities among neighboring countries, including between India and Pakistan. In recent years there have been military confrontations between India and Pakistan that have occurred in the region of Kashmir and along the India-Pakistan border. The potential for hostilities between the two countries is high due to terrorist incidents in India and the aggravated geopolitical situation in the region. Both countries have initiated active measures to reduce hostilities. Military activity or terrorist attacks in the future could influence the Indian economy by disrupting communications and making travel more difficult and such political tensions could create a greater perception that investments in Indian companies involve higher degrees of risk. This, in turn, could have a material adverse effect on the market for securities of Indian companies, including our equity shares and our ADSs, and on the market for our services.

Political instability in the Indian Government could delay the liberalization of the Indian economy and adversely affect economic conditions in India generally, which could impact our financial results and prospects.

Since 1991, successive Indian Governments have pursued policies of economic liberalization, including significantly relaxing restrictions on the private sector. Nevertheless, the role of the Indian Central and State Governments in the Indian economy as producers, consumers and regulators has remained significant. The last general elections were held in May 2004. The ruling coalition Government, which has over last several years pushed significant economic reforms, was voted out of power and a new coalition Government has come to the helm. The new Government has announced policies and taken initiatives that support the continued economic liberalization policies that have been pursued by previous Government. Although we believe that the process of economic liberalization will continue, the rate of economic liberalization could change, and specific laws and policies affecting technology companies, foreign investment, currency exchange and other matters affecting investment in our securities could change as well. A significant change in India's economic liberalization and deregulation policies could adversely affect business and economic conditions in India generally and our business in particular.

The new Government is a coalition of several parties and withdrawal of one or more of these parties could result in political instability. Such instability could delay the reform of the Indian economy and could have a material adverse effect on the market for securities of Indian companies, including our equity shares and our ADSs, and on the market for our services.

Indian law limits our ability to raise capital outside India and may limit the ability of others to acquire us, which could prevent us from operating our business or entering into a transaction that is in the best interests of our shareholders.

Indian law constrains our ability to raise capital outside India through the issuance of equity or convertible debt securities. Generally, any foreign investment in, or an acquisition of, an Indian company requires approval from relevant Government authorities in India, including the Reserve Bank of India. However, subject to certain exceptions, the Government of India currently does not require prior approvals for IT companies like us. If we are required to seek the approval of the Government of India and the Government of India does not approve the investment or implements a limit on the foreign equity ownership of IT companies, our ability to seek and obtain additional equity investment by foreign investors will be limited. In addition, these restrictions, if applied to us, may prevent us from entering into a transaction, such as an acquisition by a non-Indian company, which would otherwise be beneficial for our company and the holders of our equity shares and ADSs.

Our ability to acquire companies organized outside India depends on the approval of the Government of India. Our failure to obtain approval from the Government of India for acquisition of companies organized outside India may restrict our international growth, which could negatively affect our revenue.

The Ministry of Finance of the Government of India and/or the Reserve Bank of India must approve our acquisition of any company organized outside of India. The Government of India has recently issued a policy statement permitting the acquisition of companies organized outside India for a transaction value not exceeding 200% of the net worth of the acquiring company and:

- if the transaction consideration is paid in cash, up to 100% of the proceeds from an ADS offering; and
- if the transaction consideration is paid in stock (i.e., by issue of ADRs/GDRs), the greater of $ 100 million or ten times the acquiring company's previous fiscal year's export earnings.

We cannot assure you that any required approval from the Reserve Bank of India and or the Ministry of Finance or any other Government agency can be obtained. Our failure to obtain approval from the Government of India for acquisitions of companies organized outside India may restrict our international growth, which could negatively affect our revenue.

It may be difficult for us to enforce any judgment obtained in the United States against us, the selling shareholders or our affiliates.

We are incorporated under the laws of India and many of our directors and executive officers, reside outside the United States. Virtually all of our assets and the assets of many of these persons are located outside the United States. As a result, we may be unable to effect service of process upon us outside India or upon such persons outside their jurisdiction of residence. In addition, we may be unable to enforce against us in courts outside of India, or against these persons outside the jurisdiction of their residence, judgments obtained in courts of the United States, including judgments predicated solely upon the federal securities laws of the United States.

We have been advised by our Indian counsel that the United States and India do not currently have a treaty providing for reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments (other than arbitration awards) in civil and commercial matters. Therefore, a final judgment for the payment of money rendered by any federal or state court in the United States on civil liability, whether or not predicated solely upon the federal securities laws of the United States, would not be enforceable in India. However, the party in whose favor such final judgment is rendered may bring a new suit in a competent court in India based on a final judgment that has been obtained in the United States. The suit must be brought in India within three years from the date of the judgment in the same manner as any other suit filed to enforce a civil liability in India. It is unlikely that a court in India would award damages on the same basis as a foreign court if an action is brought in India. Furthermore, it is unlikely that an Indian court would enforce foreign judgments if it viewed the amount of damages awarded as excessive or inconsistent with Indian practice. A party seeking to enforce a foreign judgment in India is required to obtain approval from the Reserve Bank of India under the Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999, to execute such a judgment or to repatriate any amount recovered.

The laws of India do not protect intellectual property rights to the same extent as those of the United States, and we may be unsuccessful in protecting our intellectual property rights. Unauthorized use of our intellectual property may result in development of technology, products or services which compete with our products. We may also be subject to third-party claims of intellectual property infringement.

Our intellectual property rights are important to our business. We rely on a combination of copyright and trademark laws, trade secrets, confidentiality procedures and contractual provisions to protect our intellectual property. However, the laws of India do not protect proprietary rights to the same extent as laws in the United States. Therefore, our efforts to protect our intellectual property may not be adequate. Our competitors may independently develop similar technology or duplicate our products or services. Unauthorized parties may infringe upon or misappropriate our products, services or proprietary information.

The misappropriation or duplication of our intellectual property could disrupt our ongoing business, distract our management and employees, reduce our revenue and increase our expenses. We may need to litigate to enforce our intellectual property rights or to determine the validity and scope of the proprietary rights of others. Any such litigation could be time-consuming and costly. As the number of patents, copyrights and other intellectual property rights in our industry increases, and as the coverage of these rights increases, we believe that companies in our industry will face more frequent infringement claims. Defending against these claims, even if not meritorious, could be expensive and divert our attention and resources from operating our company.

Although we believe that our intellectual property rights do not infringe on the intellectual property rights of any other party, infringement claims may be asserted against us in the future. If we become liable to third parties for infringing their intellectual property rights, we could be required to pay a substantial damage award and be forced to develop non-infringing technology, obtain a license or cease selling the applications or products that contain the infringing technology. We may be unable to develop non-infringing technology or to obtain a license on commercially reasonable terms, or at all.

Risks Related to the ADSs

Sales of our equity shares may adversely affect the prices of our equity shares and the ADSs.

Sales of substantial amounts of our equity shares, including sales by insiders, in the public market, or the perception that such sales may occur, could adversely affect the prevailing market price of our equity shares or the ADSs or our ability to raise capital through an offering of our securities. In the future, we may also sponsor the sale of shares currently held by some of our shareholders, or issue new shares. We can make no prediction as to the timing of any such sales or the effect, if any, that future sales of our equity shares, or the availability of our equity shares for future sale, will have on the market price of our equity shares or ADSs prevailing from time to time.

An active or liquid trading market for our ADSs is not assured.

An active, liquid trading market for our ADSs may not be maintained in the long term. Loss of liquidity could increase the price volatility of our ADSs.

Indian law imposes foreign investment restrictions that limit a holder's ability to convert equity shares into ADSs, which may cause our ADSs to trade at a premium or discount to the market price of our equity shares.

Under certain circumstances, the Reserve Bank of India must approve the sale of equity shares underlying ADSs by a non-resident of India to a resident of India. The Reserve Bank of India has given general permission to effect sales of existing shares or convertible debentures of an Indian company by a resident to a non-resident, subject to certain conditions, including the price at which the shares may be sold. Additionally, except under certain limited circumstances, if an investor seeks to convert the rupee proceeds from a sale of equity shares in India into foreign currency and then repatriate that foreign currency from India, he or she will have to obtain an additional Reserve Bank of India approval for each transaction. Required approval from the Reserve Bank of India or any other Government agency may not be obtained on terms favorable to a non-resident investor or at all.

Investors who exchange ADSs for the underlying equity shares and are not holders of record will be required to declare to us details of the holder of record, and the holder of record will be required to disclose the details of the beneficial owner. Any investor who fails to comply with this requirement may be liable for a fine of up to Rs. 1,000 for each day such failure continues. Such restrictions on foreign ownership of the underlying equity shares may cause our ADSs to trade at a premium or discount to the equity shares.

An investor in our ADSs may not be able to exercise preemptive rights for additional shares and may thereby suffer dilution of his or her equity interest in us.

Under the Indian Companies Act, a company incorporated in India must offer its holders of equity shares preemptive rights to subscribe and pay for a proportionate number of shares to maintain their existing ownership percentages prior to the issuance of any new equity shares, unless such preemptive rights have been waived by three-fourths of the shares voting on the resolution to waive such rights. Holders of ADSs may be unable to exercise preemptive rights for equity shares underlying ADSs unless a registration statement under the Securities Act is effective with respect to such rights or an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act is available. We are not obligated to prepare and file such a registration statement and our decision to do so will depend on the costs and potential liabilities associated with any such registration statement, as well as the perceived benefits of enabling the holders of ADSs to exercise their preemptive rights, and any other factors we consider appropriate at the time. No assurance can be given that we would file a registration statement under these circumstances. If we issue any such securities in the future, such securities may be issued to the Depositary, which may sell such securities for the benefit of the holders of the ADSs. There can be no assurance as to the value, if any, the Depositary would receive upon the sale of such securities. To the extent that holders of ADSs are unable to exercise preemptive rights granted in respect of the equity shares represented by their ADSs, their proportional interests in us would be reduced.

ADS holders may be restricted in their ability to exercise voting rights.

At our request, the Depositary will mail to you any notice of shareholders' meeting received from us together with information explaining how to instruct the Depositary to exercise the voting rights of the securities represented by ADSs. If the Depositary receives voting instructions from you in time, relating to matters that have been forwarded to you, it will endeavor to vote the securities represented by your ADSs in accordance with such voting instructions. However, the ability of the Depositary to carry out voting instructions may be limited by practical and legal limitations and the terms of the securities on deposit. We cannot assure that you will receive voting materials in time to enable you to return voting instructions to the Depositary in a timely manner. Securities for which no voting instructions have been received will not be voted. There may be other communications, notices or offerings that we only make to holders of our equity shares, which will not be forwarded to holders of ADSs. Accordingly, you may not be able to participate in all offerings, transactions or votes that are made available to holders of our equity shares.

Item 4. Information on the Company

History and Development of the Company

Wipro Limited was incorporated in 1945 as Western India Vegetable Products Limited under the Indian Companies Act, VII of 1913, which is now superseded by the Companies Act, 1956. We are deemed to be registered under the Companies Act, 1956, or the Companies Act. We are registered with the Registrar of Companies, Karnataka, Bangalore, India as Company No. 20800. Our registered office is located at Doddakannelli, Sarjapur Road, Bangalore 560 035, and the telephone number of our registered office is +91-80-2844-0011. The name and address of our registered agent in the United States is CT Corporation, located at 1350 Treat Blvd., Suite 100, Walnut Creek, California 94596.

Wipro Limited was initially engaged in the manufacture of hydrogenated vegetable oil. Over the years, we have diversified into the areas of Information Technology, or IT, services, IT products and Consumer Care and Lighting Products. We are headquartered in Bangalore, India and have operations in North America, Europe and Asia. For the fiscal year ended March 31, 2006, 95% of our operating income was generated from our IT business segments. For the same period, IT Services and Products represented 84% of our operating income, BPO Services represented 4% of our operating income, India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products represented 6% of our operating income and Consumer Care and Lighting represented 4% of our operating income.

In October 2000, we raised gross aggregate proceeds of approximately $ 131 million in our initial U.S. public offering of our ADSs on the New York Stock Exchange. We used a portion of these proceeds to consummate the acquisition of Wipro BPO, Global Energy Practice and Wipro Nervewire.

We incurred capital expenditure of Rs. 4,135 million, Rs. 6,613 million and Rs. 7,486 million during the fiscal years ended March 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006, respectively. These capital expenditures were primarily incurred on new software development facilities in India for our IT Services and Products business segment. As of March 31, 2006, we had contractual commitments of Rs. 1,714 million ($ 39 million) related to capital expenditures on construction or expansion of software development facilities. We currently intend to finance our planned construction and expansion entirely from internal sources of capital.

Business Overview

We are a leading global IT services company. We have been acknowledged as leading offshore providers of technology services by Gartner, Forrester and other leading research and advisory firms. We are the only Indian company to be ranked among the 'Top 10 Global Outsourcing Providers' in the International Association of Outsourcing Professionals – Fortune Global 100 listings. We are also winners of NASSCOM's Technology Innovation Award 2005.

We provide a comprehensive range of IT services, software solutions, IT consulting, business process outsourcing, or BPO, services and research and development services in the areas of hardware and software design to leading companies worldwide. We combine the business knowledge and industry expertise of our domain specialists and the technical knowledge and implementation skills of our delivery team in our development centers located in India and around the world, to develop and integrate solutions which enable our clients to leverage IT for achieving their business objectives. We use our quality processes and global talent pool for delivering time to development advantage, cost savings and productivity improvements.

In India, we are a leader in providing IT solutions and services. We also have a profitable presence in the Indian markets for consumer products and lighting.

We have three principal business segments:

- Global IT Services and Products: Our Global IT Services and Products segment provides IT services to customers in the Americas, Europe and Japan. The range of our services includes IT consulting, custom application design, development, re-engineering and maintenance, systems integration, package implementation, technology infrastructure outsourcing, BPO services and research and development services in the areas of hardware and software design. Our service offerings in BPO services include customer interaction services, finance and accounting services and process improvement services for repetitive processes.
 - Until June 30, 2005, we reported Global IT Services and Products as an integrated business segment. Effective as of July 1, 2005, we reorganized the management structure of our Global IT Services and Products segment. Pursuant to this reorganization, we have reorganized our business into new operating segments. Business lines with similar economic characteristics and which comply with segment aggregation criteria specified in U.S. GAAP have been combined to form our new reportable segments. Consequently, IT Services and Products and BPO Services now qualify as separate reportable segments. Segment data for previous periods have been reclassified to conform to the current period presentation.
 - In December 2005, we acquired 100% of the equity of mPower Software Service Inc. and its subsidiaries, a U.S. based company in the payment processing space, for an aggregate cash consideration equal to Rs. 1,275 million ($28 million). Pursuant to the terms of this acquisition, we also acquired 100% of the equity of MPact India, a joint venture between MasterCard International and mPower Software Services Inc.
 - In December 2005, we acquired 100% of the equity of BVPENTE Beteiligungsverwaltung GmbH and its subsidiaries (NewLogic Technologies AG), a European system-on-chip design company. The consideration included a cash payment of Rs. 1,157 million and an earn-out of Euro 26 million to be determined and paid in the future based on certain financial targets being achieved over a three-year period. A portion of this earn-out, up to a maximum of Euro 3 million, is linked to the continuing employment of one of the selling shareholders.
 - The operations of mPower and New Logic, which are now part of our IT Services and Products, are currently reviewed by our Chief Operating Decision Maker, or CODM, separately, and have accordingly been reported separately under "Acquisitions" in the Notes to our Financial Statements. We intend to include all acquisitions made within 2 to 4 quarters preceding the reporting date within "Acquisitions".
 - In April 2006, we acquired cMango Inc., a privately held California, US – headquartered company, in an all cash deal. cMango is a provider of Business Service Management (BSM) solutions. The consideration included a cash payment of Rs.886 Million ($20 million) paid at the closing of the transaction and additional earn-out payments based on achieving specified financial metrics over a two year period.

- In May 2006, we acquired, subject to completion of certain closing conditions, US based Quantech Global Services LLC and India based Quantech Global Services Limited for a total consideration of Rs. 444.80 million ($ 10 million) and additional earn outs based on achieving specified financial targets over a three year period. Quantech, founded 16 years ago, is a leading provider of Computer Aided Design and Engineering services to Fortune 500 companies, particularly in the automotive, aerospace and consumer goods industries. We currently intend to fund this acquisition through our internal accruals.
- In May 2006, we acquired, subject to completion of certain closing conditions, a Europe based retail solutions provider, Enabler for a consideration of Euros 41 Million ($ 53 million) payable on closure of the transaction as well as earn-outs on achieving agreed financial targets over a two year period. We currently intend to fund this acquisition through our internal accruals. Enabler is one of the leading specialists in consulting and implementation of integrated solutions and effective support of retail systems.
- Our Global IT Services and Products segment accounted for 76% of our revenue and 88% of our operating income for the year ended March 31, 2006. Of these percentages, our IT Services and Products segment accounted for 69% of our revenue and 84% of our operating income for the year ended March 31, 2006, and our BPO Services segment accounted for 7% of our revenue and 4% of our operating income for the year ended March 31, 2006.
- India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products: Our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products segment is a leader in the Indian IT market and focuses primarily on meeting the IT products and services requirements of companies in India, Asia-Pacific and the Middle East region. This business segment accounted for 16% of our revenue and 6% of our operating income for the year ended March 31, 2006.
- Consumer Care and Lighting: We leverage our brand name and distribution strengths to sustain a profitable presence in niche markets in the areas of soaps, toiletries and lighting products for the Indian market. This business segment accounted for 5% of our revenue and 4% of our operating income for the year ended March 31, 2006.

Industry Overview

IT Services and Products

The role of IT in transforming businesses and economies has been widely recognized. Changing economic and business conditions, rapid technological innovation, proliferation of the Internet and increasing globalization are creating an increasingly competitive market environment that is driving corporations to transform the manner in which they operate. Customers are increasingly demanding improved products and services with accelerated delivery times and at lower prices. To adequately address these needs, corporations are focusing on their core competencies and are using outsourced technology service providers to help improve productivity, develop new products, conduct research and development activities, reduce business risk and manage operations more effectively.

The IT and information technology-enabled service or IT-ITES, sector has been experiencing growth in India, with multinational companies building a global presence through cross-border acquisitions and organic growth in other low cost locations. This is complemented by major global players continuing to significantly develop their offshore delivery capabilities, predominantly in India, validating the success of the global delivery model and highlighting India's increasing role in outsourcing.

The shift in the role of IT from merely supporting business to transforming business, which is driving productivity gains and creating new business models, has increased the importance of IT to the success of companies worldwide. The ability to design, develop, implement, and maintain advanced technology platforms and solutions to address business and customer needs has become a competitive advantage and a priority for corporations worldwide. We have found that companies are now focused on moving data residing in disparate IT systems to the decision makers within the company real-time and in a seamless manner. Companies have recognized the transformational capabilities of real-time data and have started integrating IT processes with core business activities, with their clients and with their suppliers. Concurrently, the prevalence of multiple technology platforms and a greater emphasis on network security and redundancy have increased the complexity and cost of IT systems, and have resulted in greater technology-related risks. The need for more dynamic technology solutions and the increased complexity, cost and risk associated with these technology platforms has created a growing need for specialists with experience in leveraging technology to help drive business strategy.

To serve these companies, there is an increasing need for highly skilled technology professionals in the markets in which we operate. IT service providers need cross functional teams of domain experts with deep industry knowledge and process and implementation specialists with technical expertise and application development skills. The cross functional teams should have the ability to integrate solutions across disparate IT systems.

The focus for companies is on objective factors such as:

- providing decision makers with real-time data from disparate IT systems to enhance the effectiveness of the decision making process;
- realizing measurable cost efficiencies;
- realizing a defined return on investment on their IT spending;
- reducing the cycle time of introducing new software applications, commonly known as time-to- application advantage;
- reducing the time it takes to develop new technologies, commonly known as time-to-market advantage; and
- increasing the focus on core activities by outsourcing IT infrastructure to integrated IT service providers; and
- strengthening individual portfolio and expanding geographic footprints through cross-border mergers and acquisitions.

According to the Worldwide Services Spending Forecast, a report published by International Data Corporation, or IDC, in May 2005, the global IT services market is estimated to grow from approximately $ 383 billion in 2003 to approximately $512 billion by 2008, reflecting a compound annual growth rate, or CAGR, of 6%.

According to NASSCOM Strategic Review Report 2006, the IT-ITeS exports are targeted to reach $60 billion by 2010, reflecting a CAGR of 27%.

Companies are increasingly using external professional services as an effective tool to meet their IT requirements. Outsourcing IT requirements enable companies to acquire high quality and cost competitive services. We believe that effective outsourcing provides various benefits, including lower total cost of ownership of IT infrastructure, better productivity from IT, converting a portion of fixed costs into variable costs and quick access to the latest technology. By deploying high-speed communications equipment, companies can access skilled IT services from remote locations to meet their complex IT requirements in a cost-effective manner.

Increasing Trend Towards Offshore Technology Services: Companies are increasingly turning to offshore technology service providers to meet their need for high quality, cost competitive technology solutions. Technology companies have been outsourcing software research and development and related support functions to offshore technology service providers to reduce cycle time for introducing new products and services. These companies are now outsourcing a larger portion of their IT activities, including core software research and development activities, to offshore locations to access skilled resources at lower costs.

According to Gartner's Global Offshore Sourcing Predictions report published in June 2004, less than 3% of global corporate IT services spending are being globally sourced. By 2007, Gartner expects that the globally sourced component of IT services spending will be 7% of total global IT services spending.

According to NASSCOMM Strategic Review Report 2006, IDC forecasts a growth of over 7% (CAGR) in worldwide IT-ITeS spends, and a growth of over 15% (CAGR) in offshore IT spending, over 2005-09.

Pure play IT services is becoming a high-volume commoditized service offering. Indian IT service providers have traditionally addressed the application development and maintenance markets. The Indian IT service providers are now acquiring or developing consulting skills to effectively compete against leading global IT services companies as integrated service providers. Indian IT service providers are also benefiting from the growing trend of companies breaking up large IT services contracts into smaller components. The companies can diversify their vendor base, realize cost savings by off-shoring certain components and retain flexibility to ramp up or scale down IT operations lockstep with changing business requirements. Indian IT service providers can now compete more effectively against established IT services companies like Accenture, EDS and IBM.

The India Advantage: We believe that India is a premiere destination for offshoring IT services. According to the June 2004 Gartner Strategic Analysis Report, titled India Maintains Its Offshore Leading Position, India will remain the dominant offshore service provider through 2008. According to the report, no other nation will have a double-digit share of global offshore service revenue.

According to NASSCOM's Strategic Review Report 2006, the total combined Indian IT services and IT-enabled services export market in fiscal 2006 was nearly $ 23 billion. According to NASSCOM's Strategic Review Report 2006, the total Indian IT services and IT-enabled services export market is projected to grow to $ 60 billion by fiscal 2010.

We believe that there are several key factors contributing to this growth of India-based IT services:

- India-based IT companies have proven their capability to deliver IT services that satisfy the requirements of international clients who expect the highest quality standards. According to a report by Dataquest published in October 2003, 75% of the world's SEI-CMM Level 5-assessed development centers were located in India. According to NASSCOM's Strategic Review Report 2006, out of the 400 companies which have various quality certifications, 82 are assessed at SEI-CMM Level 5 and 90 more companies are reported to be in the process of getting certified. SEI-CMM is the Software Engineering Institute's Capability Maturity Model, which assesses the quality of organizations' management system processes and methodologies.
- India has a large, highly skilled English-speaking labor pool that is available at a relatively low labor cost. According to NASSCOM Strategic Review Report 2006, the Indian IT industry employed nearly 920,000 software professionals as of March 31, 2006, making it the second largest employer in the IT services industry after the United States. Approximately 280,000 engineering degree and diploma holders enter the workforce annually, with a majority of them entering the IT industry. According to this report, client organisations could expect total savings of 25% to 50% by using processes primarily because of the differential in wages paid by these companies in comparison to their India-based counterparts. Although wages in India are rising at a faster pace, the labor rate differential is currently anticipated to remain a competitive advantage for Indian companies.
- With the time differential between India and its largest market, the United States, Indian companies are able to provide a combination of onsite and offshore services on a 24-hour basis on specific projects.
- In addition to strong telecom links and physical connectivity to and within India via road and air have also been stepped up over the past few years. According to the mid term review of the Tenth Five Year Plan 2002-2007 India currently has the second largest road network in the world totaling over 3.3 million kilometers.

The traditional model for most large companies has been to manage most functions internally. However, current global macroeconomic conditions and intense competitive pressures have forced companies to pursue new business models. Companies are focusing on their core activities and outsourcing critical but non-core activities to companies that specialize in such non-core functions. Outsourcing enables companies to reduce their operating costs, realize benefits of scale and flexible cost structures and achieve significant process improvements.

BPO Services

India is a leading destination for BPO services. The proven track record and client relationships of established Indian IT services companies, favorable wage differentials, availability of a large, high quality, English speaking talent pool and a regulatory environment more friendly to investment are facilitating India's emergence as a global outsourcing hub. According to the March 2005 report published by IDC, titled "Worldwide and US Business Process Outsourcing (BPO) 2004-2008 forecast", the worldwide spending on BPO services is expected to grow from $ 448 billion in 2004 to approximately $ 682 billion by 2008, a CAGR of 11%. According to NASSCOM Strategic Review Report 2006, the worldwide spending on ITes-BPO services is expected to grow at a CAGR of more than 10% over 2005-2009.

India and Asia Pac IT Services and Products

The domestic Indian IT industry is primarily composed of hardware, packaged software and IT services. According to IDC, while the domestic packaged software and IT services market is expected to grow at 19.6% and 18.1% respectively for the period 2004-2009, the hardware market is expected to show a comparatively modest growth rate of 17.9% for the same period. However, India is expected to continue to be the fastest growing IT market in the APAC region.

IDC predicts that Indian IT market will grow at 19% in 2006 over 2005. WLAN equipments will show the highest growth in the hardware segment, while Application Life Cycle Management Software and Security Software will witness major growth in the software segment. According to IDC, the IT services market in India is expected to grow to approximately $ 3.5 billion in 2006 from an estimated $ 2.9 billion in 2005. Outsourcing Services are expected to be the largest contributor with 24% of this market. Increasing focus on vertical orientation is expected to lead to IT vendors and independent software vendors, or ISVs bringing to market products and solutions that have 'in-built' industry-specific customization capabilities or templates. Government and education verticals are also emerging as major IT spenders in the country.

Consumer Care and Lighting

The consumer care market that we address includes soaps, toiletries and infant care products. A large portion of our revenues is derived from the sale of soaps. The market for soaps in India is dominated by established players like Hindustan Lever (a subsidiary of Unilever). We have a strong brand presence in a niche segment and have significant market share in select regional geographies. We expect to increase our market share organically in our identified geographies and in addition we look at acquiring established brands which complement our brand presence and distribution strengths. In lighting, we operate in the domestic market for household lamps as well as institutional market for luminaries and lamps. The market for lighting is led by Philips India (subsidiary of Philips NV). We have a strong brand presence in select regional geographies for domestic lighting, as well as an established institutional presence in select segments like retailing, pharma lighting and software development centre lighting.

Our Competitive Strengths

We believe that the following are our principal competitive strengths:

Comprehensive range of IT services

We provide a comprehensive and integrated suite of IT solutions, ranging from consulting to application development and maintenance and take end-to-end responsibility for project execution and delivery. We have over 15 years of experience in software development, re-engineering and maintenance for our corporate customers and provide managed IT support services at the client's site through our offshore development centers in India and several near shore development centers located in countries closer to our clients' offices. We believe that this integrated approach positions us to take advantage of key growth areas in enterprise solutions, including IT services data warehousing, implementation of enterprise package application software such as enterprise resource planning, or ERP, supply chain management or SCM and customer relationship management or CRM. In many large outsourcing deals, BPO services are an integral part of the total services outsourced. Integrating BPO services into our portfolio of service offerings has provided us with a strong competitive advantage over other IT services providers.

World-class quality as measured by SEI-CMM and Six Sigma initiatives

One of the crucial factors in our success has been our commitment to pursue the highest quality standards in all aspects of our business. We were assessed at SEI-CMM Level 5, the highest level of quality certification, in January 1999, making us the first IT services provider in the world to achieve this standard. SEI-CMM is widely accepted in the software industry as a standard to measure the maturity and effectiveness of software processes. Our SEI-CMM Level 5 rating is supported by our Six Sigma initiative, which is an internationally recognized program focusing on defect reduction and cycle time reduction. Our Six Sigma program was launched in 1998. Six Sigma represents a quality standard of less than 3.4 defects per million opportunities in which a defect may arise. In our continuous quest of doing more with less, we pioneered the application of LEAN thinking in software services and support transactions. We believe that LEAN is a proven manufacturing philosophy that has been sustained over several decades. The focus is on streamlining activities solely from the customer's viewpoint, eliminating waste, and a collaborative way of working. We have found that this enhances productivity. We believe that our approach of continuous enrichment through effective experimentation has proven fruitful. Preliminary results, from over 300 projects, indicate improvement in cycle time reduction and effort saving – leading to financial benefit with better teamwork.

Service offerings in emerging growth areas

We focus on identifying emerging growth areas and developing service offerings in these areas. For example, we identified technology infrastructure outsourcing as an emerging growth area in 1998. We developed service offering in this area and familiarized customers with the concept of remote network management. Today this comprises 8% of our revenues from IT Services and Products. We have established centers of excellence in emerging growth areas. These centers focus on understanding technology and developing customized business solutions for our customers.

Broad range of research and development services

Our strengths in research and development services position us to take advantage of a recovery in global research and development spending. We are one of few major IT services companies in the world capable of providing an entire range of research and development services from concept to product realization. According to NASSCOM's Strategic Review Report 2005, Indian Research and Development services and software products exports are expected to grow from $ 2.3 billion in 2004 to grow to $ 8 billion by 2008, with a CAGR of 37%. This is higher than the 28% CAGR projected for IT / ITeS Services by NASSCOM in their strategic review report. The annuity nature of revenues from research and development services helps in mitigating the cyclic nature of IT services. We provide IT services for designing, enhancing and maintaining platform technologies including servers and operating systems, communication subsystems, local area and wide area network protocols, optical networking systems, Internet protocol based switches, routers and embedded software, including software used in mobile phones, home or office appliances, industrial automation and automobiles. We acquired these skill sets through our earlier research and development efforts in the design of computer hardware products for the Indian market when the Government of India did not allow these products to be imported.

Global delivery model

One of our strengths is our global delivery model, which includes our offshore development centers, or ODCs, and our near shore development centers. We were among the first India-based IT services companies to implement the offshore development model as a method for delivering high-quality services at a relatively low cost to international clients. Our global delivery model has many features that are attractive to our clients, including:

- a time difference between the client site and the ODC which allows a 24-hour work schedule for specific projects;
- the ability to quickly increase the scale of development operations;
- increased access to our large pool of highly skilled IT professionals located in India; and
- physical and operational separation from all other client projects, providing enhanced security for a client's intellectual property.

Established track record with premier international customer base

As of March 31, 2006, our IT Services and Products segment had over 494 active clients and our BPO Services had over 30 active customers and over 100 processes and 73% of our revenues of IT Services and products segment was derived from Fortune 1000 and Global 500 clients. We had 79 clients that represented at least $5.0 million in revenues in the fiscal year ended March 31, 2006. We believe that having an established base of high quality, high technology clients provide us with the following competitive advantages:

- the type of clients we target are likely to maintain or increase their IT outsourcing budgets;
- our ODCs support critical IT applications of our large clients, so the clients are therefore likely to provide a high level of repeat business; and
- our IT professionals are consistently exposed to the latest technologies that we are then able to leverage to procure business from other clients.

Ability to access, attract and retain skilled IT professionals

We have continued to develop innovative methods of accessing and attracting skilled IT professionals. We partnered with a leading Indian university to establish a program for on the job training and a Masters degree in software engineering. We have also sought to open facilities in various cities in India to better access local professionals. We believe that our ability to retain highly skilled personnel is enhanced by our leadership position, opportunities to work with leading edge technologies and focus on training and compensation. In fiscal 2002 we were assessed at People Capability Maturity Model or PCMM level 5, the highest level of certification. PCMM is widely accepted as a standard to measure the maturity and effectiveness of human resources practices within a company. As of March 31, 2006, in our IT Services and Products business segment we had over 29,800 IT professionals. We expect to grow these numbers in the foreseeable future. One of the keys to attracting and retaining qualified personnel is our variable and performance linked compensation programs. We have had an employee stock purchase program since 1984 and employee stock option plan and a productivity bonus plan since October 1999.

Robust systems and processes to support growth in business

We have proactively invested in systems, processes and infrastructure to support growth in our business. We have developed systems and processes to ensure that we have adequate infrastructure, robust recruitment systems and processes to maintain our culture of ethical behaviour, openness and transparency. Our employee base in IT Services and Products segment grew from approximately 9,900 employees as of March 31, 2001 to approximately 37,650 employees as of March 31, 2006 and our employee base in BPO Services stands at approximately 16,080 employees as of March 31, 2006. During the same period, our revenues from our IT Services and Products segment have grown from Rs. 17,816 million to Rs. 72,887 million. Our revenues from BPO Services have grown from Rs. 1,644 million for the year ending March 31, 2003 to Rs. 7,626 million for the year ending March 31, 2006.

Broad distribution network and strong sales force in India

We have a large and growing distribution network for our domestic businesses. For our Indian IT Services and Products business segment, our direct sales force targets large corporate clients and over 190 channel partners throughout India, and focuses on medium and small enterprises. For our consumer care and lighting products, we have access to more than 1.5 million retail outlets. This distribution reach provides us with a significant competitive advantage and allows us to grow our business with minimal increases in personnel.

Strong brand recognition in the Indian market

We believe that our brands are some of the most well recognized brands in the Indian market. We have been operating in the Indian market for over 60 years and believe that customers equate our brand with high quality standards and a commitment to customer service. We enhance the value of our brands through aggressive and selective advertising and promotions.

Our Strategy

Our objective is to be a world leader in providing a comprehensive range of IT services to our clients. The markets we address are undergoing rapid change due to the pace of developments in technology, changes in business models and changes in the sourcing strategies of clients. We believe that these trends provide us with significant growth opportunities. The key elements of our strategy include:

Significantly expand our IT Services and Products business and our BPO Services Business

We expect to continue to grow each of our IT Services and Products business and our BPO Services business and the percentage of our total revenues and profits contributed by these businesses over the next few years. We believe that we can achieve this objective through the following means:

- Identify and develop service offerings in emerging growth areas as separate business opportunities. Currently we are focusing on areas such as business intelligence services, package implementation, niche consulting, data warehousing and network storage;
- Increase our share of the total IT spending by our large customers through focused account management and more effective selling of all service lines to our existing customers;
- Develop industry specific point solutions and use them as entry strategies by demonstrating industry knowledge and understanding of customer businesses and the benefits of outsourcing;
- Offer new pricing models, sharing the risks and rewards of the impact of IT solutions on business, productivity improvements and timeliness of delivery;
- Use efficient global sourcing models to source IT services from various geographies and develop methodologies to develop and integrate solutions from around the globe.
- Leverage our experience in providing IT infrastructure management services in the Indian market and our access to existing clients outside India to provide technology infrastructure support services;
- Grow our research and development services by focusing on high growth markets such as telecommunications, mobile communications and the Internet, and high growth technologies such as embedded software;

- Expand our market presence by providing enterprise application integration and system integration services; and
- Expand our business consulting services and position consulting services as strategic differentiator over other competing entities.

Increase the number and penetration of our IT Services and Products and our BPO Services clients

We intend to increase the number of our clients through a dedicated sales team focused on new client acquisitions and increasing our presence in Europe and Asia. Our goal is to make every new client account earn over $ 1 million in annual revenues within twelve months. We intend to increase our share of business with existing clients by expanding our range of IT solutions and by increasing our knowledge of industry segments and individual client businesses to allow us to better understand client requirements. We intend to grow our BPO Services business by leveraging our existing client relationships to offer BPO Services to clients of our IT Services and Products segment. We intend to expand our range of service offerings, migrate from providing solely rules-based processing activities to offering an entire set of enhanced processes, provide value-added services and partner with clients in business transformation initiatives.

Focus on services-led growth in India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products segment

We plan to grow in the IT market in India and AsiaPac by focusing on IT services. We believe that by offering clients a full service technology solution, including IT consulting, systems integration, support services, software and networking solutions along with branded hardware products, we can enhance our profitability significantly.

Aggressively build awareness of the Wipro brand name

We plan to continue aggressively building awareness among clients and consumers both domestically and internationally of the Wipro brand name. We believe we can leverage the strength of an international brand name across all of our businesses by ensuring that our brand name is associated with Wipro's position as a market leader that is committed to high quality standards. To achieve this objective, we intend to expand our marketing efforts with advertising campaigns and promotional efforts that are targeted at specific groups.

Pursue selective acquisition of IT companies

We continue to pursue selective acquisitions of IT service companies that will allow us to expand our service portfolio and acquire additional skills that are valued by our clients. We believe this will strengthen our relationships with clients and allow us to realize higher revenues from them. In pursuing acquisitions, we focus on companies where we can leverage domain expertise and specific skill sets, and where a significant portion of the work can be moved offshore to India to leverage our low cost offshore delivery model and realize higher margins.

In December 2005, we acquired 100% equity of mPower Software Services Inc. and subsidiaries (mPower) including the minority shareholding held by MasterCard International in MPact India, a joint venture between MasterCard International and mPower Software Services Inc. This acquisition has enabled us to provide a wide range of additional technology services, including application development and maintenance, infrastructure services, package implementation, BPO and testing. We believe that through this acquisition, we will be able to expand our domain expertise in the payments space and increase the addressable market for IT services.

In December, 2005, we also acquired 100% equity of BVPENTE Beteiligungsverwaltung GmbH and subsidiaries (New Logic). Through this acquisition, we have acquired strong domain expertise in semiconductor Intellectual Property (IP) cores and complete system-on-chip solutions with digital, analog mixed signal and Radio Frequency (RF) design services. The acquisition also enables us to access over 20 customers in the product engineering space.

In April 2006, we acquired cMango Inc, a privately held California, US-headquartered company, in an all cash deal. cMango is a provider of Business Service Management (BSM) solutions. The consideration included a cash payment of Rs.886 million ($20 million) paid at the closing of the transaction and additional earn-out payments based on achieving specified financial metrics over a two-year period.

In May 2006, we acquired, subject to completion of certain closing conditions, US based Quantech Global Services LLC and India based Quantech Global Services Ltd. for a total consideration of Rs. 444.80 million ($ 10 million) and additional earn outs based on achieving specified financial targets over a three year period. Quantech, founded 16 years ago, is a leading provider of Computer Aided Design and Engineering services to Fortune 500 companies, particularly in the automotive, aerospace and consumer goods industries. We currently intend to fund this acquisition through our internal accruals.

In May 2006, we acquired, subject to completion of certain closing conditions, a Europe based retail solutions provider, Enabler for a consideration of Euros 41 Million ($ 53 million) payable on closure of the transaction as well as earn-outs on achieving agreed financial targets over a two year period. We currently intend to fund this acquisition through our internal accruals. Enabler is one of the leading specialists in consulting and implementation of integrated solutions and effective support of retail systems.

We continue to explore potential strategic partnerships and other relationships.

Sustain growth in operating income and cash flow of our traditional businesses

We have been in the consumer care business since 1945 and the lighting business since 1992. The consumer care business has historically generated surplus cash for us to be able to grow our other businesses. Our strategy is to maintain a steady growth in operating income for these businesses through efficient capital utilization, strong brand name recognition and expanding our nationwide distribution network. We have invested in brands which complement our brand and distribution strengths.

Continue development of our deep industry knowledge

We continue to build specialized industry expertise in the IT service industry. We combine deep industry knowledge with an understanding of our clients' needs and technologies to provide high value, quality services. Our industry expertise can be leveraged to assist other clients in the same industries, thereby improving quality and reducing the cost of services to our clients. We will continue to build on our extensive industry expertise and enter into new industries.

IT Services and Products

Our IT Services and Products business segment, which we call Wipro Technologies, is a leader in providing IT services to international companies. We provide our clients customized IT solutions to improve their business competitiveness. Our IT services are focused on the following areas:

- enterprise IT services;
- technology infrastructure support services; and
- research and development services.

In our IT service offerings, we typically assume primary project management responsibility. We offer these services globally through a team of over 29,800 IT professionals.

Enterprise Solutions Business

We provide a comprehensive range of enterprise solutions primarily to Fortune 1000 and Global 500 companies to meet their business needs. We combine the business knowledge and industry expertise of our domain specialists and the technical knowledge and implementation skills of our delivery team to create customized solutions for delivering time to development advantage, cost savings and productivity enhancements. Our delivery capabilities are supplemented by a holistic quality approach that integrates quality processes like Six Sigma, SEI CMM Level 5 and CMM to eliminate deficiencies in execution.

We address the banking and financial services segment, the manufacturing sector, and the retail, energy and utilities industries through our broad range of service offerings. Our enterprise solutions division accounted for 64%, 63% and 63% of our IT Services and Products revenues for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2004, 2005, and 2006, respectively.

Our services include:

Custom applications. We enable our clients to leverage IT to achieve business goals and to align their IT systems with their business strategy by creating customized solutions, selecting appropriate technologies, implementing systems on a fast-track basis, and ensuring overall quality.

- Development. We offer our software development services over a broad spectrum of technology areas that include client or server applications, object-oriented software, Internet or intranet applications and mainframe applications. For example, a leading electronics company in the United States used to sell products of a particular division online. We helped the client to develop online sales capability at other divisions by building an oracle application interface with EDI systems, third-party softwares and third-party suppliers. Through this process, the client now obtains online information about inventory levels of various products, reconciles sales returns, credits and charge backs and generates automated invoices.

- Re-engineering. We study a client's business processes and existing systems and convert or redevelop them to improve efficiency and reduce costs. For example, we assisted one of the world's largest water companies in a strategic re-engineering initiative to streamline its IT operations to ensure better service delivery, improved customer relationship and closer links with business. Over a two year period, through a series of strategic initiatives, we enabled the client to realize significant cost savings and improvements in the quality of the IT applications. We followed a cycle of define, perform, review and refine for each of the IT applications assigned to us. We realized savings in the IT application support budget by consolidating IT applications to derive economies of scale and redistributing IT applications among third party vendors for optimum cost savings.
- Maintenance. To meet the needs of a changing business environment with limited internal resource utilization, we address legacy software applications for our clients that require upgrades. For example for a leading integrated utility company which sells and delivers electricity and energy related products and services, we significantly reduced the cost of maintaining IT applications by rationalizing disparate IT applications, offshoring application maintenance work and automating certain processes to improve process efficiency.

Enterprise application integration services. We implement packaged enterprise applications that integrate information in an organization with key business processes to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of our clients. Through strategic alliances with other vendors, we assist our clients in implementing services in the areas of enterprise resource planning, supply chain management and customer relationship management. For example, a leading utility company in the United Kingdom which supplies gas and electricity to residential and commercial centers was facing challenges of deregulation and wanted to improve their relationship with customers. We developed a technical architecture to integrate legacy systems with standard energy industry systems of ERP applications. The application now provides critical information on customer interactions across multiple channels and enables the client to develop a deeper understanding of customer requirements.

Business intelligence and data warehousing. We develop strategies and implement solutions for our clients to manage multiple sources of data for use in their decision-making processes. For example, a leading specialty retailer of consumer electronics wanted to develop a deeper understanding of customer preferences and develop a customer centric business model for creating competitive advantages and sustaining growth. We developed an application to deliver data about customers segmented into demographics, buying patterns and profitability. We segmented 65 million customers into five critical segments based on 20 parameters. We integrated over three billion records of demographic information from POS terminals, rebates and warranties. We also developed organization wide performance trackers, rollout of profitability and cost metrics at various levels, including the store, product line and customer segments.

Package Implementation. We use our expertise in package software to architect, implement and maintain client specific solutions. For example, we assisted a leading manufacturer of consumer electronics, communications and IT products in the United States to successfully implement an ERP application. The solution involved business process improvements across 26 cross-functional business units and plants, configuration for two different versions of ERP covering three time zones and two countries, and the training of over 300 users in multiple geographies.

Consulting. We leverage our domain expertise and knowledge base in specific areas to provide consulting services. For example, we worked with one of the largest foreign exchange and travel companies in designing the architecture of a global, online commercial foreign exchange system. The system is intended to facilitate end-to-end automatic foreign exchange transactions with minimal manual intervention and delays, customer relationship management and provide value added services to members. We defined a multi-tiered, multi-layered architecture to meet these requirements. The architecture comprised disparate software technologies such as J2EE, XML, CORBA, VB and COM-Java/EJB bridging.

Testing Services. We are the largest Offshore Testing Services provider in the world with annual revenues aggregating to around $ 164 million, 4500 dedicated employees and 165 customers across the globe, including engagements with fortune 500 companies. We have been operating our Independent Testing Services division since 1997. Our service portfolio in testing covers the entire gamut of user needs from product concept to deployment, across the stages of the product/ application life cycle.

Technology Infrastructure Support Services

Our service offerings include help desk management, systems management and migration, network management and messaging services. We are able to provide our IT Services and Products clients with high quality, 24-hour, seven-day-a-week support services by leveraging our expertise in managing IT infrastructures for our clients in India. For example, we assist a large insurance company in the United States, in monitoring the network, which supports 20,000 employees, independent contractors and independent agents, for any intrusion, scanning, breach of network by use of hacking tools or potential DOS attacks. We monitor and sustain firewalls by monitoring incident detection, incident response and incident notification systems, analysis of logs and MIS reporting. We formed this division at the end of 1998 and it accounted for 7%, 7%, 8% of our IT Services and Products revenues for the year ended March 31, 2004, March 31, 2005 and March 31, 2006, respectively. We anticipate that this division of our Global IT Services business will continue to grow over the next few years.

Research and Development Services

We provide product development services for both hardware and software systems that are implemented in computers and communications equipment. We acquired these skill sets from earlier research and development efforts in the design of computer hardware products for the Indian market when the Government of India did not allow these products to be imported. We have leveraged our research and development skills to become an outsourcing resource for companies that seek highly skilled product development services for some of their core technologies. We are able to assume complete responsibility for all phases of the development, beginning with the requirements analysis to the transfer of technology and information to the client.

Our research and development services division accounted for 36%, 37% and 37% of the our IT Services and Products revenue for the fiscal years ended March 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006. Our services include:

Hardware design and development. We design and develop various types of integrated electronic circuits, or ICs, including application specific integrated circuits, or ASICs and field programmable gate arrays, or FPGAs. We offer our services over a broad spectrum of technology areas, and are able to provide our clients complete subsystems or entire products.

Software system design and development. We develop software applications, including computer operating system software applications commonly known as middleware, electronics communication protocols and software that helps computers manage networks and control peripheral devices such as printers and monitors. We focus on embedded software technologies that involve the design and development of software solutions that are embedded in the hardware of a particular device.

IT Professionals. We have approximately 12,500 IT professionals trained in a broad array of computing platforms and communication technologies. By focusing on selected markets and technologies we are able to leverage our expertise and create greater efficiencies as well as faster delivery times. Our research and development services are organized into three areas of focus, which are described below with illustrative examples of projects we have completed for our clients:

Telecommunications and inter-networking. We provide software and hardware design, development and implementation services in areas such as fiber optics communication networks, wireless networks, data networks, voice switching networks and networking protocols. For example, one of our clients, a European Leader in telematics products, wanted to develop a fully integrated infotainment system featuring global navigation system, GSM phone, audio, emergency services, internet access, voice activation and climate control. We designed a software application interface, using Object Oriented Design methodology, integrating multiple functionalities, comprised of human machine interface, functional modules (API layers), resource schedulers and graphics library. Our client was able to offer the product ahead of competition and maintain the technology leader position in the market.

Embedded systems and Internet access devices. The software solution we provide is programmed into the hardware IC or ASIC to eliminate the need for running the software through an external source. The technology is particularly important to portable computers, hand held devices, consumer electronics, computer peripherals, automotive electronics and mobile phones, as well as other machines such as process-controlled equipment. For example, we helped one of our customers in Japan to gain first-mover advantage by providing mobile printing solution for business travelers. We created an extensive architecture, used device simulators for development and testing and managed the seamless migration of the solution to real-time environment. The solution interfaces with laptops and multiple other mobile devices to cater to needs of 'anywhere printing' solutions for an estimated 45 million business travelers across the globe every year.

Telecommunications and service providers. We provide software application integration, network integration and maintenance services to telecommunications service providers, Internet service providers, application service providers and Internet data centers.

Our Global Delivery Model

In our IT service offerings, we typically assume primary project management responsibility for all stages of implementation of the project. Typically, a project team consists of a small number of IT professionals based at the client's location who define the scope of the project, track changes to specifications and requirements during project implementation, assist in installing the software or system at the client's site and ensure its continued operation. The large proportion of the development work on the project is performed at one of our dedicated offshore development centers, or ODCs, located in India. Our project management techniques, risk management processes and quality control measures enable us to complete projects on time and seamlessly across multiple locations with a high level of quality.

The Offshore Development Center. We were one of the first Indian IT services companies to implement the offshore development model as a method for delivering high-quality services at a relatively low cost to our international clients. Our ODC is a virtual extension of the client's working environment with a dedicated facility and dedicated hardware and software infrastructure that replicates the client's facilities. Certain Clients have had ODCs with us over thirteen years. This is further enhanced by a dedicated high-speed telecommunication link with the client's onsite facilities and a secure working environment. In all our projects, we endeavor to increase the proportion of work performed at the ODCs in order to be able to take advantage of the various benefits associated with this approach, including higher gross margins and increased process control. Due to the level of investment required by our clients in an ODC and the quality of services we provide, the ODC model has provided us a high percentage of repeat business and a stable revenue stream.

The Nearshore Development Center. Based on specific client needs, we have established dedicated development centers in close proximity to our clients' business locations, which we call nearshore development centers. These nearshore development centers have employees with specialized functional expertise and provide on-call support to our customers. We currently have nearshore development centers in Reading, in the U.K., Windsor, Ontario in Canada, Kiel in Germany, Tampere in Finland, Shanghai in China and Yokohama in Japan. In addition to providing software development services, these centers, with their significant local talent, also provide a local customer interface.

Our Clients

We provide IT software solutions to clients from a broad array of industry sectors. Several of our clients purchase our services across several of our business divisions. We seek to expand the level of business with our existing clients by increasing the type and range of services we provide to them. The table below illustrates the size of our client project engagement size as measured by revenues.

Per client revenue($)	Number of clients in
1-3 million	74	64	103
3-5 million	19	28	30
>5 million	44	65	79
Total	137	157	212

For the fiscal years ended March 31, 2005 and 2006, the largest client of our IT Services and Products segment accounted for 5% and 3% of the revenues of IT Services and Products and the largest client of our BPO Services segment accounted for 29% and 24% of the revenues of BPO Services. For the same periods, the five largest clients of our IT Services and Products segment accounted for 18% and 15% of IT Services and Products revenues.

Sales and Marketing

Our headquarters are located at Bangalore, India. We sell and market our IT Services primarily through our direct sales force, with locations worldwide, including in the United States, France, Germany, Holland, Japan, Sweden and the United Kingdom. Our sales teams are organized in three ways:

WIPRO LIMITED

- by the vertical market segment of the client's business;
- by the geographic region in which the client is located; and
- by the specific practice specialization or skill set that the client requires.

We use an integrated team sales approach that allows our sales teams to pass a client over to an execution team once the sale is completed. Our sales personnel work together with the appropriate software professionals and technical managers in analyzing potential projects and selling our expertise to potential clients. Global IT Services and Products also gets support from our corporate marketing team to assist in brand building and other corporate level marketing efforts. Our sales and marketing team in IT Services and Products has increased from 173 to 213 personnel from March 31, 2005 to March 31, 2006. We intend to expand our global marketing efforts through increased presence in targeted geographical regions.

Competition

The market for IT services is highly competitive and rapidly changing. Our competitors in this market include consulting firms, big four accounting firms, global IT services companies, such as Accenture, EDS, IBM Global Services and India based IT services companies such as Cognizant, Infosys, Satyam and Tata Consultancy Services.

These competitors are located internationally as well as in India. We expect that further competition will increase and potentially include companies from other countries that have lower personnel costs than those currently in India. A significant part of our competitive advantage has historically been a wage cost advantage relative to companies in the United States and Europe. Because wage costs in India are presently increasing at a faster rate than those in the United States our ability to compete effectively will increasingly become dependent on our ability to provide high quality, on-time, complex deliverables that depend on increased expertise in certain technical areas. We also believe that our ability to compete will depend on a number of factors not within our control, including:

- the ability of our competitors to attract, retain and motivate highly skilled IT services professionals;
- the extent to which our international competitors expand their operations in India and benefit from the favorable wage differential;
- the price at which our competitors offer their services; and
- the extent to which our competitors can respond to a client's needs.

We believe we compete favorably with respect to each of these factors and believe our success has been driven by quality leadership, our ability to create client loyalty and our expertise in targeted select markets.

In BPO Services, we primarily compete against the in-house business process outsourcing units of international companies, other Indian IT service providers, global competitors and competitors from other offshore locations like the Philippines and Ireland.

Business Process Outsourcing (BPO) Services

Wipro BPO is one of India's largest third party offshore BPO providers. Wipro BPO enables clients to improve their quality of processes, reduce costs and realize benefits of scale. Our service offerings include:

- customer interaction services, such as IT-enabled customer services, marketing services, technical support services and IT helpdesks;
- finance and accounting services, such as accounts payable and accounts receivable processing; and
- process improvement services that provide benefits of scale for repetitive processes like claims processing, mortgage processing and document management.

In BPO Services, we primarily compete against the in-house business process outsourcing units of international companies, other Indian IT service providers, global competitors and competitors from other offshore locations like the Philippines and Ireland. In many large outsourcing deals, BPO services are an integral part of the total services outsourced. Integrating BPO services into our portfolio of service offerings has provided us with a strong competitive advantage over other IT service providers.”

For BPO projects, we have a defined framework to manage the complete BPO process migration and transition. The process has been developed based on the experience of our senior management team over the past ten years in migrating more than 390 remote business processes to India. This defined framework is designed to ensure process integrity and minimize inherent migration risks. The framework includes a proprietary transition toolkit, which ensures that there is a documented methodology with formats, tools, guidelines and a repository of past experiences to aid the transition team during the transition phase. For example, for one of the large broadband service providers in the United States, we have been providing outsourced technical support services. We now have 24x7 customer support facilities, whereas earlier it took 8-9 hours to start attending customer requirements. Call volume has increased by a multiple of 30 times from pilot stage and there is an overall increase in customer satisfaction.

Our employee base in our BPO Services segment is approximately 16,000 employees as of March 31, 2006. Our revenues from our BPO Services segment have grown from Rs. 1,644 million for the year ended March 31, 2003 to Rs. 7,626 million for the year ended March 31, 2006.

India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products

Our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products business segment, which we call Wipro Infotech, is focused on the Indian, Asia-Pacific and Middle-East markets and provides enterprise clients with comprehensive IT solutions. Our suite of services and products consists of the following:

- technology products;
- technology integration, IT management and infrastructure outsourcing services;
- custom application development, application integration, package implementation and maintenance; and
- consulting;

Additionally, we provide our domestic customers with access to our full range of global IT services, including enterprise solutions and research and development services.

Services and Products

Technology Products. We manufacture our own brand of personal desktop computers, servers and notebooks, and offer in India a portfolio of international brands in desktops, servers, notebooks, storage products, networking solutions and packaged software to meet our clients’ requirements. We source components from domestic and international companies for manufacturing our own brand of computers, servers and notebooks.

Technology integration and management services and outsourcing services. We enable our customers to leverage our IT skill and expertise to maximize returns on their technology investments. We have over 23 years of experience and currently support approximately 400,000 systems with over 7,500 contracts, with approximately 5,600 IT professionals, including outsourced professionals. Our offerings include:

- Availability Services. Includes hardware and software maintenance, and network availability services. We provide these services through an annual service or maintenance contract with the client which provides for both preventive and breakdown maintenance services.
- System Integration. We are one of the largest system integrators in India and our services include integration of computing platforms, networks, storage, data center and enterprise management software. These services are typically bundled with sales of our technology products.
- Infrastructure Management and Total Outsourcing. Includes management and operations of customer’s IT infrastructure on a day-to-day basis. Our Total Outsourcing practice encompasses process, function or activity of the IT department in a client’s organization that can be outsourced to us by the client, through a long term contractual agreement. The scope of outsourcing typically covers two or more of the following areas: applications management, infrastructure management, asset outsourcing and human resources transition.
- Technology Support Services. Includes technology support services for upgrades, system migrations, messaging, network audits and new system implementation. When combined with our expertise in availability and managed IT services, we can provide the client with a complete solution for enhanced system performance.

We supplement our in-house resources with approximately 130 franchisees, whom we train, and provide support for to allow them to provide both Availability and Managed IT services. This allows us to grow our business substantially without corresponding increases in our personnel.

Custom application development, application integration, package implementation and maintenance. We design, develop and implement enterprise applications for corporate customers. Our solutions include custom application development, package implementation, sustenance of enterprise applications, including industry-specific applications, and enterprise application integration.

Consulting. We provide consulting services in the areas of business continuity and risk management, technology, process and strategy.

Clients

We provide products and services to clients in a variety of areas such as manufacturing, banking, financial services and insurance, Government, IT and IT-enabled services, telecommunications and education. Our clients also include channel partners, who are value-added resellers of our services and products. As of March 31, 2006, we had close to 190 channel partners throughout India. We have a diverse range of clients, none of whom account for more than 5% of our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products business segment revenues.

Sales and Marketing

We sell and market our products and services to major corporate clients through our direct sales force, and to smaller clients and retail clients through an extensive network of channel partners. Sales teams are organized based on vertical segments, geographies, client size or product or service segment. Compensation to our sales team is comprised of salary and additional compensation linked to achievement of revenue or profit target and collections that a particular sales team produces. Sales efforts are supplemented through a corporate wide web based ordering system and a marketing team that assists in brand building, and other corporate level marketing efforts. As of March 31, 2006, we had 430 sales and marketing staff.

Competition

The market for our services and products is highly competitive and rapidly changing. Our competitors include global players like IBM, Hewlett Packard, EDS, Dell and Indian companies such as TCS, HCL Infosystems and Infosys. We anticipate that Lenovo, which has acquired the PC business of IBM, will be a significant player in Indian IT products market. Global players like IBM and Hewlett Packard and to some extent Sun Microsystems have been increasingly focusing on increasing their presence in the Indian markets. Some of these competitors have secured large IT services contracts in India. We anticipate this competition to continue to grow as the demand for these services increases and we also expect additional companies to enter the Indian market.

Consumer Care and Lighting

Our consumer care and lighting business segment focuses on niche profitable market segments and has historically generated cash to support the growth of our other business segments. We began with the hydrogenated oil business in 1946, and have continued to expand our business, currently offering a mix of consumer products including hydrogenated cooking oil, soaps and toiletries, wellness products, light bulbs and fluorescent tubes, and lighting accessories.

Products

Soaps and toiletries. Our product lines include soaps and toiletries, as well as baby products, using ethnic ingredients. Our umbrella brands include Santoor, Chandrika and Wipro Active. The Wipro Baby Soft line of infant and child care products, which includes soap, talcum powder, oil, diapers and feeding bottles and Wipro Sanjeevani line of wellness products.

Lighting. Our product line includes incandescent light bulbs, compact fluorescent lamps and luminaries. We operate both in commercial and retail markets. We have also developed commercial lighting solutions for pharmaceutical production centers, retail stores, software development centers and other industries.

Hydrogenated cooking oils. Our product line consists of hydrogenated cooking oils, a cooking medium used in homes, and bulk consumption points like bakeries and restaurants. We sell this product under our brand name Wipro Sunflower, which was launched in the 1950s and has been a leading brand in western and southern India.

Sales and Marketing

We sell and market our consumer care products primarily through our distribution network in India, which has access to 2 million retail outlets throughout the country. We sell our lighting products to major industrial and commercial customers through our direct sales force, from 29 sales offices located throughout India. We also have access to over 250,000 retail outlets for our lighting products.

We leverage our brand recognition by successfully incorporating the Wipro identity with our consumer brands. We intend to expand our marketing efforts with advertising campaigns and promotional efforts targeted to specific regions of India.

Competition

Our competitors in consumer care and lighting are located primarily in India, and include multinational and Indian companies such as Hindustan Lever for soaps, toiletries and General Electric and Philips for lighting. Certain competitors have recently focused sales strategies on increasing volumes through lower prices. Sustained price pressures by competitors may require us to respond with similar or different pricing strategies. We cannot be reasonably certain that we will be able to compete successfully against such competitors or that continued competition may not adversely affect our gross and operating profits.

Raw Materials and Manufacturing

The primary raw materials for many of our soap and hydrogenated oil products are agricultural commodities, such as vegetable oils. We normally purchase these raw materials domestically and internationally through various suppliers' contracts. Prices of vegetable oils, agricultural commodities tend to fluctuate due to seasonal, climatic and economic factors, which generally also affect our competitors.

Our lighting products are manufactured from glass and industrialized parts. We purchase these parts from various domestic and foreign distributors and manufacturers, pursuant to a combination of requirement and other supply contracts.

We have six manufacturing facilities located across India.

Wipro Infrastructure Engineering Limited

Our fluid power business started in 1975, as a result of our strategy to enter new emerging markets with profitable business and high margins. We focus on the hydraulics market, especially the mobile construction equipment business and believe the growth of this business is linked to the growth of infrastructure spending in India. We manufacture and sell cylinders and truck hydraulics, and we also distribute hydraulic steering equipment and pumps, motors and valves for international companies. The initiatives by the Government of India in improving physical infrastructure have increased the demand for our products. We anticipate that this demand will continue to remain strong until 2006. Our main competitors include Hitachi Ltd., Hyundai Motor Company, UT Limited (India) and overseas suppliers such as the Danfoss Group and Komatsu Ltd.

Markets and Sales Revenue

Our revenues for the last three fiscal years by geographic areas are as follows:

	Year ended March 31,
	2004	2005	2006
India.....	Rs. 14,783	Rs. 19,350	Rs. 21,804
United States.....	30,869	41,812	53,481
Europe.....	10,459	16,602	24,310
Rest of the world.....	2,323	3,589	6,512
	Rs. 58,434	Rs. 81,353	Rs. 106,107

Wipro GE Medical Systems Private Limited

In 1990, we formed a joint venture with General Electric called Wipro GE Medical Systems Private Limited to learn new technologies and management processes from world class companies like General Electric and to enter new markets. General Electric currently holds 51% of the equity in the joint venture and we hold 49%. The joint venture partners have equal representation on the board of directors and the chairman of the joint venture is the chairman of Wipro Limited. The joint venture provides customers in South Asian markets after sales services for all GE Medical Systems products sold to them. Products offered in this market consist of GE Medical Systems products manufactured world wide and portable ultrasound equipment manufactured in India by this joint venture for the global markets. This venture also leverages our strength in software development to develop embedded software for medical equipment designed and developed by General Electric for their global product portfolio. The main competitors of Wipro GE Medical Systems Private Limited include Siemens and Philips.

Intellectual Property

Our intellectual property rights are important to our business. We rely on a combination of patent, copyright, trademark and design laws, trade secrets, confidentiality procedures and contractual provisions to protect our intellectual property. We require employees, independent contractors and, whenever possible, vendors to enter into confidentiality agreements upon the commencement of their relationships with us. These agreements generally provide that any confidential or proprietary information being developed by us or on our behalf be kept confidential. These agreements also provide that any confidential or proprietary information disclosed to third parties in the course of our business be kept confidential by such third parties. However, our clients usually own the intellectual property in the software we develop for them.

Our efforts to protect our intellectual property may not be adequate. Our competitors may independently develop similar technology or duplicate our products and/or services. Unauthorized parties may infringe upon or misappropriate our products, services or proprietary information. In addition, India has now complied with all World Trade Organization, or WTO, requirements, which means, that India meets the international mandatory and statutory requirements regarding the protection of intellectual property rights.

We could be subject to intellectual property infringement claims as the number of our competitors grows and our product or service offerings overlap with competitive offerings. In addition, we may become subject to such claims since we may not always be able to verify the intellectual property rights of third parties from which we license a variety of technologies. Defending against these claims, even if not meritorious, could be expensive and divert our attention from operating our company. If we become liable to third parties for infringing their intellectual property rights, we could be required to pay substantial damage awards and be forced to develop non-infringing technology, obtain a license or cease selling the applications that contain the infringing technology. The loss of some of our existing licenses could delay the introduction of software enhancements, interactive tools and other new products and services until equivalent technology could be licensed or developed. We may be unable to develop non-infringing technology or obtain a license on commercially reasonable terms, if at all.

As of March 31, 2006, Wipro Limited and its subsidiaries holds more than 450 trademarks in India, including Wipro, Santoor and Wipro Babysoft. Wipro Trademarks Holding Limited, our wholly owned subsidiary, has more than 500 trademark applications pending in India. We have four registered trademarks in Japan, five registered trademarks in the United States, five registered community trademarks. We have one trademark application pending registration in Nepal and twelve applications in Sri Lanka. We have four community trademark applications pending in Europe. It is uncertain we will obtain registration for pending trademark and service mark applications.

We have three patent applications that are currently pending in India. We have one registered patent for our hydraulic tipping valve. We have twenty three registered copyrights and five pending copyright registrations in India. We also have ten designs registered in India. We cannot guarantee that we will obtain patent, design and copyright registration for any of our pending applications.

On April 12, 2005, Wilmer Cutler, attorneys representing Wipro Werbeagentur GmbH an advertising company in Germany sent us a letter alleging infringement. The letter alleged that our use of the WIPRO name and trademark in Germany constitutes infringement of Wipro Werbeagentur GmbH's rights. On April 27, 2005, we replied denying the substantive allegations and asserted various defenses. We were served with an ex parte injunction on June 3, 2005. We are moving the court to vacate the injunction. Based on our review on this matter, we believe the allegations of Wipro Werbeagentur GmbH's are without merit. However, there can be no assurance that we will prevail. An unfavorable outcome of this matter could have a material adverse effect on our consolidated financial position, results of operations and cash flows in Germany.

Effect of Government Regulation of our Business

Regulation of our business by the Indian Government affects our business in several ways. We benefit from certain tax incentives promulgated by the Government of India, including a ten-year tax holiday from Indian corporate income taxes for the operation of most of our Indian facilities and a partial taxable income deduction for profits derived from exported IT services under Indian tax laws. As a result of these incentives, our operations have been subject to relatively insignificant Indian tax liabilities. We have also benefited from the liberalization and deregulation of the Indian economy by the successive Indian Governments since 1991, including the current Indian Government. Further, there are restrictive parts of Indian law that affect our business, including the fact that we are generally required to obtain approval under the Factories Act and the Shops and Establishment Act, from the Reserve Bank of India and/or the Ministry of Finance of the Government of India to acquire companies organized outside India, and we are generally required, subject to some exceptions, to obtain approval from relevant Government authorities in India in order to raise capital outside India. The conversion of our equity shares into ADSs is governed by guidelines issued by the Reserve Bank of India.

Finally, we are subject to several legislative provisions relating to the Prevention of Food Adulteration, Weights and Measures, Drugs and Cosmetics, Storage of Explosives, Environmental Protection, Pollution Control, Essential Commodities and operation of manufacturing facilities. Non-compliance with these provisions may lead to civil and criminal liability. We are and generally have been in compliance with these provisions.

Please see the section titled “Risk Factors” in Item 3, Key Information, as well as the section titled “Additional Information” in Item 10, for more information on the effects of Governmental regulation of our business.

Property, Plant and Equipment

Our headquarters and corporate offices are located at Doddakannelli, Sarjapur Road, Bangalore, India. The offices are approximately 300,000 square feet. We have purchased approximately 2,062,000 square feet of land adjoining our corporate offices for future expansion plans. Additionally, our most significant leased and owned properties are listed in the table below.

We have one sales and marketing office located in each of the following countries: Canada, France, Germany, Japan, Sweden, Italy, Switzerland, Finland, the Netherlands, the United Kingdom, China and Japan. In addition, we have eleven sales and marketing offices in the United States.

We operate ten manufacturing sites, aggregating approximately 12,64,871 square feet and approximately 4,037,979 square feet of land. We own seven of these facilities, located in Amalner, Tumkur, Bangalore, Mysore, Hindupur, Chennai and Pondicherry, India. We have leased on a long-term basis two facilities located in Waluj and Baddi, India. We have one software development facility in London, United Kingdom.

Our software development and manufacturing facilities are equipped with a world class technology infrastructure that includes networked workstations, servers, data communication links, captive power generators and other plants and machinery.

We believe that our facilities are optimally utilized and that appropriate expansion plans are being planned and undertaken to meet our future growth.

Overview

We are a leading global information technology, or IT, services company founded in 1945, and headquartered in Bangalore, India. We provide a comprehensive range of IT services, software solutions and research and development services in the areas of hardware and software design to the leading companies worldwide. We use our development centers located in India and around the world, quality processes and global resource pool to provide cost effective IT solutions and deliver time-to-market and time-to-development advantages to our clients. We also provide business process outsourcing, or BPO, services.

In India, we are a leader in providing IT solutions and services. We also have a profitable presence in the Indian markets for consumer products and lighting.

We have three principal business segments:

Global IT Services and Products: Our Global IT Services and Products segment provides IT services to customers in the Americas, Europe and Japan and BPO Services to clients in North America, Europe, Australia and other markets. The range of IT services we provide includes IT consulting, custom application design, development, re-engineering and maintenance, systems integration, package implementation, technology infrastructure outsourcing, testing services and research and development services in the areas of hardware and software design. Our services offerings in BPO Services include customer interaction services, finance and accounting services and process improvement services for repetitive processes.

Until June 30, 2005, we reported Global IT Services and Products as an integrated business segment. Effective as of July 1, 2005, we reorganized the management structure of our Global IT Services and Products segment. Pursuant to this reorganization, we have reorganized our business into new operating segments. Business lines with similar economic characteristics and which comply with segment aggregation criteria specified in U.S. GAAP have been combined to form our new reportable segments. Consequently, IT Services and Products, and BPO Services now qualify as reportable segments and are reported separately. Segment data for previous periods have been reclassified to conform to the current period presentation.

In December 2005, we acquired 100% of the equity of mPower Software Service Inc. and its subsidiaries, a U.S. based company in the payment processing space, for an aggregate cash consideration equal to Rs. 1,275 million ($28 million). Pursuant to the terms of this acquisition, we also acquired 100% of the equity of MPact India, a joint venture between MasterCard International and mPower.

In December 2005, we also acquired 100% of the equity of BVPENTE Beteiligungsverwaltung GmbH and its subsidiaries (New Logic Technologies AG), a European system-on-chip design company. The consideration included a cash payment of Rs. 1,157 million and an earn-out of Euro 26 million to be determined and paid in the future based on certain financial targets being achieved over a three-year period. A portion of this earn-out, up to a maximum of Euro 3 million, is linked to the continuing employment of one of the selling shareholders.

The operations of mPower and New Logic, which are now part of our IT Services, are currently reviewed by our Chief Operating Decision Maker, or CODM, separately, and have accordingly been reported separately under "Acquisitions" in the Notes to our Financial Statements. We intend to include all acquisitions made within 2 to 4 quarters preceding the reporting date within "Acquisitions".

Our Global IT Services and Products segment accounted for 76% of our revenue and 88% of our operating income for the year ended March 31, 2006. Of these percentages, our IT Services and Products segment accounted for 69% of our revenue and 84% of our operating income for the year ended March 31, 2006 and our BPO Services segment accounted for 7% of our revenue and 4% of our operating income for the year ended March 31, 2006.

In April 2006, we acquired cMango Inc., a privately held California, US-headquartered company, in an all cash deal. cMango is a provider of Business Service Management (BSM) solutions. The consideration included a cash payment of Rs. 886 million ($20 million) paid at the closing of the transaction and additional earn-out payments based on achieving specified financial metrics over a two year period.

In May 2006, we acquired, subject to completion of certain closing conditions, US based Quantech Global Services LLC and India based Quantech Global Services Ltd. for a total consideration of Rs. 444.80 million ($ 10 million) and additional earn outs based on achieving specified financial targets over a three year period. Quantech, founded 16 years ago, is a leading provider of Computer Aided Design and Engineering services to Fortune 500 companies, particularly in the automotive, aerospace and consumer goods industries. We currently intend to fund this acquisition through our internal accruals.

In May 2006, we acquired, subject to completion of certain closing conditions, a Europe based retail solutions provider, Enabler for a consideration of Euros 41 Million ($ 53 million) payable on closure of the transaction as well as earn-outs on achieving agreed financial targets over a two year period. We currently intend to fund this acquisition through our internal accruals. Enabler is one of the leading specialists in consulting and implementation of integrated solutions and effective support of retail systems.

India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products: Our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products segment is a leader in the Indian IT market and focuses primarily on meeting the requirements for IT products and services of companies in India, AsiaPacific and the Middle East region. Our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products segment accounted for 16% of our revenue and 6% of our operating income for the year ended March 31, 2006.

Consumer Care and Lighting: We leverage our brand name and distribution strengths to sustain a profitable presence in niche markets in the areas of soaps, toiletries, lighting products and hydrogenated cooking oils for the Indian market. Our Consumer Care and Lighting segment accounted for 5% of our revenue and 4% of our operating income for the year ended March 31, 2006.

WIPRO LIMITED

Our revenue and net income for the years ended March 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 are provided below.

In June 2004, our shareholders approved a stock dividend, which was previously approved by our Board of Directors. The stock dividend declared was two equity shares for every one equity share outstanding on the record date. As each ADS represented one equity share of the Company, ADS holders also received two ADSs for every one ADS outstanding on the record date. Accordingly, we have issued 465,631,260 additional equity shares, which amount includes 6,419,576 additional ADSs issued in respect of outstanding ADSs on the record date, and have transferred an amount of Rs. 931 million from retained earnings to equity shares (and ADSs) on our balance sheet. Share and per share data for all periods reported have been adjusted to reflect the stock dividend, and the share and per share numbers reflected herein are post-stock dividend numbers.

In July 2005, the members of the Company approved a stock dividend, effective August 24, 2005, in the ratio of 1 additional equity shares or ADS for every equity share or ADS held. Accordingly, we issued 705,893,574 additional shares and has transferred an amount of Rs. 1,162 million from additional paid in capital and Rs. 250.04 from retained earnings, to equity shares. The allocation between additional paid in capital and retained earnings is in line with the local statutory accounts. Share and per share data for all periods reported have been adjusted to reflect the stock split effected in the form of stock dividend. Capitalization of additional paid in capital and retained earnings aggregating Rs. 1,412 million has been recorded for the year ended March 31, 2006.

Acquisitions

Acquisition of Ownership Interest in a Subsidiary

As of March 31, 2005, we held approximately 93% of the outstanding equity shares of Wipro BPO Solutions Limited or Wipro BPO. The remaining shares were held by the employee shareholders.

During the year ended March 31, 2006, we acquired the balance 7% of the equity shares from the employee shareholders at fair value for an aggregate consideration of Rs. 852 million. The step-acquisition resulted in goodwill and intangibles of Rs. 304 million and Rs. 15 million respectively. As a result of this transaction, Wipro BPO became our wholly owned subsidiary.

In terms of the scheme of amalgamation approved by the Reserve Bank of India on February 11, 2006, the High Court of Karnataka on April 5, 2006, the Registrar of Companies, Mauritius on January 6, 2006 and the Ministry of Finance, Bermuda on March 28, 2006, Wipro BPO Solutions Limited, India, Spectramind Limited, Mauritius and Spectramind Limited, Bermuda amalgamated with the Company as of April 1, 2005. The Scheme of Amalgamation became effective in April 2006 pursuant to obtaining necessary approvals and filing with the Registrar of Companies. In accordance with the scheme, the merger became effective as of the Appointed Date of April 1, 2005. The transfer of assets being a transfer from subsidiary to parent was recorded at the carrying value and therefore does not have any impact on the consolidated financial statements of the Company.

WIPRO LIMITED

mPower Software Services Inc. and subsidiaries

In December 2005, we acquired 100% equity of mPower Software Services Inc. and subsidiaries (MPower) including the minority shareholding held by MasterCard International in MPact India, a joint venture between MasterCard International and mPower Software Services Inc., for an aggregate cash consideration of Rs.1,274. mPower Software Services Inc. is a US-based company engaged in providing IT services in the payments service sector.

We believe that through this acquisition, we will be able to expand our domain expertise in providing IT services to customers in payments processing sector and increase the addressable market. Further, a part of this acquisition, we aim to provide MasterCard a wide range of services including application development and maintenance, infrastructure services, package implementation, BPO and testing.

The total purchase price has been preliminarily allocated to the acquired assets and liabilities as follows:

Description	Fair value
Net tangible assets.....	Rs. 185
Customer related intangibles.....	357
Deferred tax liability.....	(125)
Total	Rs. 1,274

The purchase consideration has been allocated on a preliminary basis based on our estimates. We are in the process of making a final determination of the carrying value of assets and liabilities, which may result in changes in the carrying value of net assets recorded. Finalization of the purchase price allocation based on an independent third party appraisal, which is expected to be completed by June 2006, may result in certain adjustments to the above allocation.

mPower Software Services Inc. merged with Wipro Inc. effective upon the close of business on March 31, 2006.

BVPENTE Beteiligungsverwaltung GmbH and subsidiaries

On December 28, 2005, we acquired 100% equity of BVPENTE Beteiligungsverwaltung GmbH and subsidiaries (New Logic). New Logic is a European system-on-chip design company. The consideration includes cash payment of Rs. 1,157 and an earn-out of Euro 26.00 million to be determined and paid in the future based on certain financial targets being achieved over a 3 year period. We have determined that a portion of this earn-out, up to a maximum of Euro 2.50 million that is linked to the continuing employment of one of the selling shareholders is compensatory in nature. The balance earn-out will be recorded as additional purchase price when the contingency is resolved.

We believe that through this acquisition, we have acquired strong domain expertise in semiconductor Intellectual Property (IP) cores and complete system-on-chip solutions with digital, analog mixed signal and Radio Frequency (RF) design services. The acquisition also enables us to access over 20 customers in the product engineering service sector.

The purchase price paid has been preliminarily allocated to the acquired assets and liabilities as follows:

Description	Fair value
Net tangible assets.....	Rs. 307
Customer related intangibles.....	147
Technology related intangibles.....	67
Deferred tax Liability.....	(53)
Goodwill.....	690

WIPRO LIMITED

The purchase consideration has been allocated on a preliminary basis based on our estimates. The Company is in the process of making a final determination of the carrying value of assets and liabilities which may result in changes in the carrying value of net assets recorded. The Others category in the table above includes our other lines of business such as Wipro Infrastructure Engineering and Wipro Biomed. Wipro Biomed, which was earlier reported as part of the Health Science business segment for purposes of financial reporting, is now being reported as part of Others. As discussed previously, we reorganized our business segments in July 2005. We reorganized the management structure of our Global IT Services and Products segment. Pursuant to this reorganization, we have reorganized our business into new operating segments. Business lines with similar economic characteristics and which comply with segment aggregation criteria specified in U.S. GAAP have been combined to form our new reportable segments. Consequently, IT Services and Products and BPO Services now qualify as a separate reportable segments. Corporate activities such as treasury, legal, accounting and human resources which do not qualify as operating segments under SFAS No. 131, have been considered as reconciling items. Reconciling items are net of common costs allocated to other business segments.

Revenue from our IT Services and Products is derived from technology and software services provided on a time-and-materials or fixed-price, fixed-timeframe basis. Our business segment revenue includes the impact of exchange rate fluctuations. Revenue from IT services provided on a time-and-materials basis is recognized in the period that services are provided and costs are incurred. Revenue from IT services provided through fixed-price, fixed-timeframe projects is recognized on a percentage of completion basis. Provisions for estimated losses on projects in progress are recorded in the period in which we determine such losses to be probable. Maintenance revenue is deferred and recognized ratably over the term of the agreement. To date, a substantial majority of our services revenue has been derived from time-and-materials projects. From time to time, we may experience pricing pressure from our clients, especially during economic downturns, which could adversely affect our revenue, margins and gross profits. For example, clients often expect that as we do more business with them they will receive volume discounts. Additionally, clients may ask for fixed-price arrangements or reduced rates. As such, we believe the proportion of revenue from fixed-price, fixed-timeframe projects may increase. Our operating results could be adversely affected by factors such as cost overruns due to delays, unanticipated costs, and wage inflation.

The cost of revenue for services in our IT Services and Products segment consists primarily of compensation expenses, data communication expenses, computer maintenance, travel expenses and occupancy expenses associated with services rendered. We recognize these costs as incurred. Selling and marketing expenses consist primarily of sales, advertising and marketing expenses and allocated corporate overhead expenses associated with corporate marketing. General and administrative expenses consist primarily of administrative expenses and allocated corporate overhead expenses associated with management, human resources, information management systems, quality assurance and finance.

The revenue and profits for any period of our IT services is significantly affected by the proportion of work performed at our facilities in India and at client sites overseas and by the utilization rates of our IT professionals. The higher rates we charge for performing work at client sites overseas do not completely offset the higher costs of performing such overseas work, and therefore, services performed in India generally yield better profit margins. For this reason, we seek to move a project as early as possible from overseas locations to our Indian development centers. As of March 31, 2006, 75% of our professionals engaged in providing IT services were located in India. For the year ended March 31, 2006, 48% of the revenues of our IT services were generated from work performed at our facilities in India.

In our segment reporting only, management has included the impact of exchange rate fluctuations in revenue. Excluding the impact of exchange rate fluctuations, revenue, as reported in our statements of income, is Rs. 39,162 million, Rs. 54,236 million and Rs. 73,061 million for the years ended March 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 respectively.

Revenue from the services component of our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products business segment is derived principally from hardware and software support, maintenance, software services and consulting services. Revenue from the products component of our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products segment is derived primarily from the sale of computers, networking equipment and related hardware products. Our business segment revenue includes the impact of exchange rate fluctuations. We recognize revenue from services, depending on the contract terms, over the contract period. Revenue on products is recognized, in accordance with the sales contract, on dispatch of the products to the customer.

The cost of revenue for services in our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products segment consists primarily of compensation expenses, expenses on outsourced services and replacement parts for our maintenance services. We recognize these costs as incurred. The cost of revenue for products in our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products segment consists of manufacturing costs for products, including materials, labor and facilities. In addition, a portion of the costs reflects products manufactured by third parties and sold by us. We recognize these costs at the time of sale. In cases where the application of the contingent revenue provision of EITF Issue No. 00-21 results in recognizing a loss on a delivered item the cost recognized is limited to the amount of non-contingent revenues recognized. The balance of the costs are recorded as an asset and are reviewed for impairment based on the estimated net cash flows to be received for future deliverables under the contract. These costs are subsequently recognized on recognition of the revenue allocable to the balance deliverables.

Selling and marketing expenses and general and administrative expenses for our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products business segment are similar in type to those for our IT Services and Products business segment.

Historically, in our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products business segment, revenue from products has accounted for a substantial majority of revenue and a much smaller portion of operating income. Our strategy in the IT market in India and AsiaPacific region is to improve our profitability by focusing on IT services, including systems integration, support services, software and networking solutions, internet and e-commerce applications.

In our segment reporting only, management has included the impact of exchange rate fluctuations in revenue. Excluding the impact of exchange rate fluctuations, revenue, as reported in our statements of income, is Rs. 9,413 million, Rs.13,403 million and Rs. 16,477 for the years ended March 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 respectively.

We have been in the consumer care business since 1945 and the lighting business since 1992. The consumer care business has historically generated surplus cash. Our strategy is to sustain operating margins, continue generating positive operating cash flows and increase the proportion of revenues from high margin products.

We recognize revenue from product sales, in accordance with the sales contract, at the time of shipment. Cost of products consists primarily of raw materials and other manufacturing expenses such as overhead costs for factories. Selling, general and administrative expenses are similar in type to those for our other business segments.

Amortization of Deferred Stock Compensation

We use the intrinsic value based method of APB Opinion No. 25 and record stock compensation expense for the difference between the exercise price of options and the fair value as determined by quoted market prices of our equity shares on the date of grant. We have elected to amortize the deferred stock compensation on a straight line basis over the vesting period of the equity shares.

In the previous periods, we issued equity shares to our employees pursuant to our Wipro Equity Reward Trust ("WERT"). In June 2004, we established an option plan titled the Wipro Restricted Stock Unit Plan ("WRSUP 2004") and a plan titled Wipro ADS Restricted Stock Unit Plan ("WARSUP 2004"). Options granted under these plans generally vest ratably at the end of each year over a period of five years from the date of grant. Upon vesting our employees can acquire one equity share for every option held. The options are subject to forfeiture if the employee terminates employment before vesting. The excess of market price on the date of grant over the exercise price payable by the employees is recognized as deferred compensation cost.

WIPRO LIMITED

As of March 31, 2006, there were 7,598,174 options outstanding under our WRSUP 2004 plan and 1,000,720 options outstanding under our WARSUP 2004 Plan. The deferred compensation cost arising from such grants is being amortized over the vesting period of five years.

As a result of the above, we have amortized deferred stock compensation expenses of Rs. 45 million, Rs. 354 million and Rs. 652 million for the years ended March 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 respectively.

The stock compensation charge has been allocated to cost of revenue and selling and marketing expenses and general and administrative expenses in line with the nature of the service rendered by the employee who received the benefit.

The allocation is as follows:

	2004	2005	2006
		(in millions)
Cost of revenue	Rs. 15	Rs. 238	Rs. 437
Selling and marketing expenses	14	49	75
General and administrative expenses	16	67	140
	Rs. 45	Rs. 354	Rs. 652

Amortization of Intangible Assets

Intangible assets are amortized over their estimated useful lives in proportion to the economic benefits consumed in each period. We have amortized intangible assets of Rs. 308 million, Rs. 140 million and Rs. 64 million for the years ended March 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 respectively.

Foreign Exchange Gains/(Losses), net

Foreign exchange gains, net, comprise:

- exchange differences arising from the translation or settlement of transactions in foreign currency; and
- The changes in fair value for derivatives not designated as hedging derivatives and ineffective portion of the hedging instruments. For forward foreign exchange contracts which are designated and effective as accounting hedges, the market to market gains and losses are deferred and reported as a component of other comprehensive income in stockholder's equity.

Others, net

Loss on Direct Issue of Stock by Subsidiary

As of March 31, 2004, we held 93% of the outstanding equity shares of Wipro BPO. The remaining shares were held by the employees of Wipro BPO.

As more fully described in Note 4 and 24 to the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements, as of March 31, 2003, Wipro BPO had 9,329,762 equity shares subject to outstanding employee stock options issued under the Wipro BPO option plan. During the year ended March 31, 2004, 3,339,279 options were exercised at a weighted average exercise price of Rs. 29.41 per share and 839,015 options were exercised at a weighted average exercise price of Rs. 57 per share.

As a result of these option exercises, our ownership interest in Wipro BPO was reduced from 100% to 93%. The exercise price for these options was less than our carrying value per share. Accordingly, the exercise resulted in a decline in the carrying value of our ownership interest by Rs. 206 million. In accordance with our accounting policy, we have included this decline in carrying value in the statement of income as a loss on the direct issue of stock by subsidiary.

WIPRO LIMITED

As of March 31, 2004, Wipro BPO had 4,745,731 employee stock options outstanding under the Wipro BPO option plan. During the year ended March 31, 2005, 4,637,375 options vested and were exercised at a price of Rs. 57 per share. The remaining options were forfeited.

As the exercise price per option was less than our carrying value per share, the decline in the carrying value of our ownership interest of Rs. 207 million has been included in the statement of income for the year ended March 31, 2005 as a loss on the direct issue of stock by a subsidiary.

The shares issued as a result of the option exercises are covered by a share repurchase feature that entitles us to repurchase these shares at the then fair value and also gives the employee the right to sell the shares back to us at the then fair value. Both we and the employee can exercise this repurchase right after six months from the date of option exercise.

During the year ended March 31, 2005, we acquired 4,147,561 shares from the employees of Wipro BPO for an aggregate consideration of Rs. 618 million, pursuant to the repurchase right. The excess of consideration paid over the value of minority interest acquired amounting to Rs. 189 million has been recorded as goodwill.

As a result of the above transactions, as of March 31, 2005, our ownership interest in Wipro BPO remained at approximately 93%. The remaining shares were held by the employee shareholders.

During the year ended March 31, 2006, we acquired the balance 7% of the equity shares from the employee shareholders at fair value for an aggregate consideration of Rs. 852 million. The step-acquisition resulted in goodwill of Rs. 304 million and intangibles of Rs. 15 million.

Other Income, net

Our other income includes interest income on short-term investments, net of interest expense on short-term and long-term debt, dividend income and realized gains/losses on the sale of investment securities.

Equity in Earnings/Losses of Affiliates

Wipro GE Medical Systems Private Limited. (Wipro GE). We hold a 49% equity interest in Wipro GE Medical Systems Private Limited, a venture where General Electric, USA holds the balance of 51%.

WeP Peripherals Ltd. (WeP). We hold a 36.93% equity interest in WeP Peripherals Ltd.

Income Taxes

Our net income earned from providing services at client premises outside India is subject to tax in the country where we perform the work. Most of our tax paid in countries other than India can be applied as a credit against our Indian tax liability to the extent that the same income is liable to tax in India.

Currently, we benefit from certain tax incentives under Indian tax laws. As a result of these incentives, our operations have not been subject to significant Indian tax liabilities. These tax incentives currently include a tax holiday from payment of Indian corporate income taxes for our Global IT Services and Products business operated from specially designated "Software Technology Parks" and "Special Economic Zones" in India and an income tax deduction of 100% for profits derived from exporting information technology services. As a result, a substantial portion of our pre-tax income has not been subject to significant tax in recent years. For the years ended March 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 our tax benefits were Rs. 2,925 million, Rs. 4,591 million and Rs. 4,721 million respectively, from such tax incentives. We are currently also eligible for exemptions from other taxes, including customs duties.

In the Finance Act, 2005, the Government of India introduced a separate tax holiday scheme for units set up under designated special economic zones engaged in manufacture of articles or in provision of services. Under this scheme, units in designated special economic zones which begin providing services on or after April 1, 2005 will be eligible for a deduction of 100 percent of profits or gains derived from the export of services for the first five years from commencement of provision of services and 50 percent of such profits or gains for a further five years. Certain tax benefits are also available for a further five years subject to the unit meeting defined conditions. When our tax holiday and income tax deduction exemption expire or terminate, our costs will increase. Additionally, the Government of India could enact similar laws in the future, which could further impair our other tax incentives. When our tax holiday and income tax deduction exemptions expire or terminate, our costs will increase.

In March 2004 and March 2005, we received demands from the Indian income tax authorities for our 2000 and 2001 fiscal years respectively for a total of Rs. 5,232 million. The tax demands were primarily due to the denial of deductions claimed by us under Section 10A of the Income Tax Act 1961 (Act), with respect to profits earned by our undertakings at our Software Technology Park located at Bangalore. We had appealed against these demands. In March 2006, the first income tax appellate authority substantially upheld the deductions claimed by us under Section 10A of the Act, which will vacate a substantial portion of the demands for these years.

In March 2006, we also received an assessment order for our 2002 fiscal years on similar grounds. The order has demanded a tax of Rs. 2,869 million (including interest of Rs.750 million). We will file an appeal against these assessment orders within the prescribed statutory time-frame.

Considering the facts and nature of disallowances, the order of the appellate authority upholding our deduction claims for our 2000 and 2001 fiscal years, our management believes that the final outcome of the 2002 dispute should be resolved in our favor and there should not be any material impact on our financial statements.

Although we currently believe we will ultimately prevail in our appeal, the results of such appeal, and any subsequent appeals, cannot be predicted with certainty. Should we fail to prevail in our appeal, or any subsequent appeals, in any reporting period, the operating results of such reporting period could be materially adversely affected.

The Indian Finance Act, 2005 imposes an additional income tax on companies called a “Fringe Benefits Tax”, or FBT. Pursuant to this Act, companies are deemed to have provided fringe benefits to their employees if certain defined expenses are incurred. A portion of these expenses is deemed to be a fringe benefit to the employees and subjects a company to tax at a rate of 30%, exclusive of applicable surcharge and cess. The fringe benefits tax and other similar taxes enacted in the future by the Government of India could adversely affect our profitability.

Results of Operations

Revenue. Our total revenues increased by 30% from Rs. 81,353 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 106,107 million for the year ended March 31, 2006. This was driven primarily by a 34%, 19%, 23%, 23% and 23% increase in revenue from our IT Services and Products, BPO Services, India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products, Consumer Care and Lighting and Others business segments, respectively.

Global IT Services and Products revenue increased by 33% from Rs. 60,713 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 80,726 million for the year ended March 31, 2006. IT Services and Products revenue increased by 34% from Rs. 54,256 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 72,884 million for the year ended March 31, 2006. This increase was attributable primarily to two factors. First, we acquired mPower and New Logic in December 2005. Second, the increase in revenues from IT Services comprises of a 36% increase in the revenues from enterprise services and a 36% increase in revenue from technology services. The increase in revenue from enterprise services was primarily driven by increased revenue from services provided to customers in the financial services, energy and utilities and healthcare and other sectors. The increase in revenue from technology services was primarily driven by increased revenue from the design and development of embedded software solutions for customers in the consumer electronics sector. In our IT Services and Products business segment, we added 166 new clients during the year ended March 31, 2006. The total number of clients that individually accounted for over $1 million run rate in revenue increased from 144 as of March 31, 2005 to 195 as of March 31, 2006.

BPO Services revenue increased by 19% from Rs. 6,433 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 7,626 million for the year ended March 31, 2006. This increase in revenue from our BPO Services business segment was primarily due to an increase in the number of clients and increase in the scope and the volume of services provided to existing clients. In our BPO Services business segment, we added five new clients during the year ended March 31, 2006. The total number of clients that individually accounted for over $ 1 million run rate in revenue increased from 13 as of March 31, 2005 to 17 as of March 31, 2006.

India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products revenue increased by 23% from Rs. 13,403 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 16,477 million for the year ended March 31, 2006. Revenue from the products component of our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products business segment increased by 19% from Rs. 8,694 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 10,380 million for the year ended March 31, 2006. The increase is attributable to an increase in revenue from traded products by 22% and in manufactured products by 11%.

Revenue from the services component of our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products business segment grew by 29% from Rs. 4,709 million in the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 6,097 million for the year ended March 31, 2006. The increase was primarily due to an increase in revenue from service lines like consulting services and system integration services and growth in our core service business of hardware and software support and maintenance services.

Consumer Care and Lighting revenue increased by 23% from Rs. 4,555 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 5,625 million for the year March 31, 2006. This was primarily due to increased efforts on expanding market presence in select geographies which resulted in higher sales of soap products, lighting (luminous and compact fluorescent lamp).

Revenue from Others increased by 22% from Rs. 2,681 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 3,279 million for the year ended March 31, 2006. This was primarily due to a 37% increase in the revenues from the sale of hydraulic cylinders and tipping gear systems in our Wipro Infrastructure Engineering business.

Gross Profit. As a percentage of total revenue, gross profit declined marginally by 1% from 34% for the year ended March 31, 2005 to 33% for the year ended March 31, 2006. This was primarily on account of a decline in gross profit as a percentage of revenue from our IT Services and Products segment from 38% for the year ended March 31, 2005 to 36% for the year ended March 31, 2006 and BPO Services from 26% for the year ended March 31, 2005 to 24% for the year ended March 31, 2006 which was partially offset by an increase in gross profit as a percentage of revenue from our Consumer Care and Lighting segment by 1% from 36% for the year ended March 31, 2005 to 37% for the year ended March 31, 2006. Gross profit as a percentage of revenues from our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products remained constant at 22% for the years ended March 31, 2005 and 2006.

The gross profit as a percentage of revenues of our Global IT Services and Products has decreased by 2% from 37% of revenue for the year ended March 31, 2005 to 35% of revenue for the year ended March 31, 2006 primarily on account of :

The gross profits as a percentage of revenues of our IT services and products declined by 2% from 38% for the year ended March 31, 2005 to 36% for the year ended March 31, 2006. The decrease was primarily due to increase in compensation costs for offshore and onsite employees, as a part of our compensation review in November 2005 and January 2006 respectively, increase in amortization of deferred compensation costs and impact of fringe benefit taxes. The gross profits as a percentage of revenues were also impacted by the new acquisitions which have a lower gross profit margin.

The gross profits as a percentage of revenues of our BPO services declined by 2% from 26% for the year ended March 31, 2005 to 24% for the year ended March 31, 2006. The decrease was primarily due to increase in compensation costs as part of our compensation review in October 2005, increase in amortization of deferred compensation costs and impact of fringe benefit taxes.

The gross profits as a percentage of revenues of our Global IT Services and Products was also impacted by the new acquisitions in IT services business which have a lower gross profit margin.

As a percentage of India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products revenue, gross profit remained constant at 22% for the years ended March 31, 2005 and 2006. The gross profits as a percentage of revenues of our services segment of our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products declined by 1% from 43% for the year ended March 31, 2005 to 42% for the year ended March 31, 2006. This decline was offset by an increase in the gross profits as a percentage of revenues of our products segment of our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products by 1% from 10% for the year ended March 31, 2005 to 11% for the year ended March 31, 2006.

As a percentage of Consumer Care and Lighting revenue, gross profit increased by 1% from 36% for the year ended March 31, 2005 to 37% for the year ended March 31, 2006. This was due to increase in the proportion of revenues from soap products which typically have higher margins than lighting products.

Selling and marketing expenses. Selling and marketing expenses increased by Rs. 1,298 million from Rs. 5,466 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 6,764 million for the year ended March 31, 2006. This increase was primarily on account of an increase in selling and marketing expenses in our IT Services business by Rs.771 million, a decrease in BPO Services by Rs.52 million, an increase in selling and marketing expenses in our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products business by Rs. 241 million and increase in the selling and marketing expenses in our Consumer Care and Lighting business by Rs. 284 million and an increase in selling and marketing expenses in Others including reconciling items by Rs. 54 million.

Selling and marketing expenses for our Global IT Services and Products business segment increased by 22% from Rs. 3,223 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 3,942 million for the year ended March 31, 2006. This was primarily due to a 25% increase in the selling and marketing expenses in our IT Services and Products business from Rs. 3,122 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 3,893 million for the year ended March 31, 2006, partially offset by a decline of 52% in the selling and marketing expenses in BPO Services, from Rs. 102 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 49 million for the year ended March 31, 2006. The increase of Rs. 771 million in selling and marketing expenses in our IT Services and Products business was primarily due to an increase in the number of our sales and marketing personnel from 173 as of March 31, 2005 to 213 as of March 31, 2006, increase in the compensation costs as part of our compensation review in January 2006, and increase in the amortization of deferred compensation costs. The decline of Rs. 52 million in the selling and marketing expenses in our BPO Services business is primarily on account of a rationalization of the sales force.

Selling and marketing expenses for our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products business segment increased by 21% from Rs. 1,150 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 1,392 million for the year ended March 31, 2006. This is primarily due to two factors: first, increase in compensation costs due to an increase in the number of sales and marketing personnel for this business segment and increase in compensation costs as part of compensation review in November 2005, and, second, increase in shipping and handling costs from Singapore to customer locations on account of increase in proportion of revenues from our overseas manufacturing facilities.

Selling and marketing expenses for our Consumer Care and Lighting business increased by 32% from Rs. 877 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 1,160 million for the year ended March 31, 2006. This was primarily due to an increase in sales promotion expenses for building brands and expanding market share in select geographies in this business segment and increase in sales personnel and increase in compensation costs.

Selling and marketing expenses for Others, including reconciling items, have increased by 25% from Rs. 216 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 270 million for the year ended March 31, 2006.

General and administrative expenses. General and administrative expenses increased 40% from Rs. 3,744 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 5,238 million for the year ended March 31, 2006. This increase was primarily on account of increase in general and administrative expenses of our IT Services and Products business by Rs. 1,167 million, increase in BPO Services by Rs. 238 million, increase in general and administrative expenses of our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products business by Rs. 53 million, increase in general and administrative expenses of our Consumer Care and Lighting business by Rs. 20 million and increase in general and administrative expenses of Others including reconciling items by Rs. 16 million.

General and administrative expenses for our Global IT Services and Products business segment increased by 51% from Rs. 2,739 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 4,144 million for the year ended March 31, 2006. The increase of Rs. 1,405 million in general and administrative expenses is primarily due to an increase in general and administrative expenses of our IT Services and Products business by Rs. 1,167 million and an increase in general and administrative expenses of our BPO Services business by Rs. 238 million. The increase of Rs. 1,167 million in the general and administrative expenses in our IT Services and Products business was primarily due to an increase in compensation costs as part of compensation review from November 2005 at offshore and January 2006 at onsite, increase in provision for doubtful receivables and an increase in recruitment expenditure due to increase in the number of hires. The increase of Rs. 238 million in the general and administrative expenses in our BPO Services business is primarily due to an increase in compensation costs as part of our compensation review effective October 2005, higher occupancy costs and increase in expenditure on recruiting employees.

General and administrative expenses for our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products business segment increased by 7% from Rs. 788 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 841 million for the year ended March 31, 2006. This was primarily due to an increase in compensation costs as part of compensation review in November 2005.

General and administrative expenses for Consumer Care and Lighting increased by 24% from Rs. 82 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 102 million for the year ended March 31, 2006. The increase is primarily due to an increase in compensation costs as part of our compensation review which is effective from November 2005.

General and administrative expenses for Others, including reconciling items, have increased by 12% from Rs. 135 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 151 million for the year ended March 31, 2006.

Operating income. As a result of the foregoing factors, operating income increased by 23% from Rs. 17,857 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 21,972 million for the year ended March 31, 2006. Operating income of our IT Services and Products business increased by 24% from Rs. 14,817 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 18,399 million for the year ended March 31, 2006. Operating income of our BPO services increased from Rs. 1,008 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 1,011 million for the year ended March 31, 2006. Operating income of our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products increased by 45% from

WIPRO LIMITED

Rs. 970 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 1,404 million for the year ended March 31, 2006. Operating income of our Consumer Care and Lighting increased by 19% from Rs. 671 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 798 million for the year ended March 31, 2006. Operating income of Others, including reconciling items, declined by Rs. 31 million from Rs. 391 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 360 million for the year ended March 31, 2006.

Other income, net. Other income, net, increased from Rs. 799 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 1,276 million for the year ended March 31, 2006. The increase in other income is primarily due to an increase in the average quantum of investments and an increase in the average yield during the year ended March 31, 2006.

Equity in earnings / losses of affiliates. Equity in earnings of affiliates for the year ended March 31, 2005 and 2006 was Rs. 158 million and Rs. 288 million respectively.

Equity in earnings of affiliates of Rs. 288 million for the year ended March 31, 2006 comprises equity in earnings of Wipro GE of Rs. 259 million and equity in earnings of WeP Peripherals of Rs. 29 million. Equity in earnings of affiliates of Rs. 158 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 comprises equity in earnings of Wipro GE of Rs. 126 million and equity in earnings of WeP Peripherals of Rs. 32 million.

Net Income. As a result of the foregoing factors, net income increased by 28% from Rs. 15,832 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 to Rs. 20,270 million for the year ended March 31, 2006.

Revenue. Our total revenues increased by 39% from Rs. 58,433 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 81,353 million for the year ended March 31, 2005. This was driven primarily by a 39%, 47%, 42%, 28% and 35% increase in revenue from IT Services and Products, BPO Services, India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products, Consumer Care and Lighting and Others business segments, respectively.

Global IT Services and Products revenue increased by 40% from Rs. 43,465 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 60,713 million for the year ended March 31, 2005. This increase in revenues of our Global IT Services and Products business segment was attributable to a 39% increase in IT services and 47% increase from BPO services. The increase in IT services is due to 41% increase in revenue from enterprise services and a 45% increase in revenue from technology services. The increase in revenue from enterprise services was primarily driven by increased revenue from services provided to customers in the financial services and retail sectors. The increase in revenue from technology services was primarily driven by increased revenue from services provided in the areas of design and development of embedded software solutions to consumer electronics, automotive and computer hardware manufacturing companies and an increase in revenue from our Telecom and Internetworking division. Revenue from BPO services increased primarily due to an increase in the number of clients and an increase in the scope and volume of services provided to clients.

In our Global IT Services and Products business segment, we added 130 new clients during the year ended March 31, 2005. The total number of clients that individually accounted for over $1 million run rate in revenue increased from 137 as of March 31, 2004 to 157 as of March 31, 2005.

India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products revenue increased by 42% from Rs. 9,413 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 13,404 million for the year ended March 31, 2005. Revenue from the products component of our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products business segment increased by 38% from Rs. 6,305 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 8,695 million for the year ended March 31, 2005. The increase is attributable to an increase in revenue from traded products by 100% partially offset by a decline in revenues from manufactured products by 25%.

Revenue from the services component of our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products business segment grew by 52% from Rs. 3,108 million in the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 4,709 million for the year ended March 31, 2005. The increase was primarily due to an increase in revenue from new service lines like consulting services and system integration services and growth in our core service business of hardware and software support and maintenance services.

Consumer Care and Lighting revenue increased by 28% from Rs. 3,567 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 4,555 million for the year ended March 31, 2005. This was primarily due to an increased efforts on expanding market presence in select geographies which resulted in higher sales of soap products.

Revenue from Others increased by 35% from Rs. 1,988 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 2,681 million for the year ended March 31, 2005. This was primarily due to a 41% increase in the revenues from the sale of hydraulic cylinders and tipping gear systems in our Fluid Power business. The initiatives by the Government of India in improving physical infrastructure have increased the demand for hydraulic cylinders and tipping gear systems.

Gross Profit. As a percentage of total revenue, gross profit increased marginally by 1% from 33% for the year ended March 31, 2004 to 34% for the year ended March 31, 2005. This was primarily on account of increase in gross profit as a percentage of revenue from our IT Services and Products segment from 36% for the year ended March 31, 2004 to 38% for the year ended March 31, 2005, decrease in gross profit as a percentage of revenue from our BPO Services from 34% for the year ended March 31, 2004 to 26% for the year ended March 31, 2005 and increase in gross profit as a percentage of revenue from our Consumer Care and Lighting segment by 2% from 34% for the year ended March 31, 2004 to 36% for the year ended March 31, 2005. Gross profit as a percentage of revenues from our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products was around 22% for the years ended March 31, 2004 and 2005. Gross margins of Others remained constant at 29% for the years ended March 31, 2004 and 2005.

The gross profit as a percentage of revenues of Global IT Services and Products has increased by 1% from 36% of revenue for the year ended March 31, 2004 to 37% of revenue for the year ended March 31, 2005. This increase was due to an increase of 2% in gross profit as a percentage of revenue from our IT Services and Products, from 36% for the year ended March 31, 2004 to 38% for the year ended March 31, 2005. Gross profit as a percentage of revenues from our BPO Services business decreased from 34% for the year ended March 31, 2004 to 26% for the year ended March 31, 2005. The increase in IT Services and Products is primarily due to a 2% increase in the proportion of services rendered offshore, a 7% increase in our onsite billing rates and a 6% increase in our offshore billing rates. This increase was partially offset by a decline in average exchange rates at which the revenue has been realized and an increase in compensation for offshore employees as a part of our compensation review in March 2004 and November 2004 and amortization of deferred compensation cost arising from the grant of options in October 2004. The decline of 8% in BPO Services was primarily due to reduction in quantum of services sourced by a key customer and efforts to improve mix of revenues from transaction processing services in total revenues.

As a percentage of India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products revenue, gross profit remained constant at 22% for the year ended March 31, 2004 and 2005. This was primarily on account of a decline in gross profits as a percentage of revenue from the Services segment of our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products by 4% from 47% for the year ended March 31, 2004 to 43% for the year ended March 31, 2005. This decline was offset by an increase in the proportion of revenues from the Services segment, which typically have a higher gross margin compared to the Products segment. The gross profits as a percentage of revenues from the Products component of our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products remained constant at 10%.

As a percentage of Consumer Care and Lighting revenue, gross profit increased by 2% from 34% for the year ended March 31, 2004 to 36% for the year ended March 31, 2005. This was due to increase in the proportion of revenues from soap products which have higher margins than the other products.

Selling and marketing expenses. Selling and marketing expenses increased by Rs. 188 million from Rs. 5,278 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 5,466 million for the year ended March 31, 2005. The increase in selling and marketing expenses in our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products business by Rs. 231 million and increase in the selling and marketing expenses in our Consumer Care and Lighting business by Rs. 281 million was partially offset by a decline in selling and marketing expenses in our IT Services and Products business by Rs. 297 million and in Others including reconciling items by Rs. 27 million.

Selling and marketing expenses for our Global IT Services and Products business segment declined by 8% from Rs. 3,520 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 3,223 million for the year ended March 31, 2005. This was primarily due to a 9% decrease in the selling and marketing expenses in our IT Services and Products business from Rs. 3,418 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 3,122 million for the year ended March 31, 2005. The decline of Rs. 297 million in selling and marketing expenses is primarily due to two factors: first, lower expenditure on advertisement and travel, and second, selling and marketing expenses for the year ended March 31, 2004 included Rs. 120 million of special incentive bonus paid to employees of our Global Energy Practice and Wipro Nervewire, the businesses we acquired in December 2002 and May 2003 respectively.

Selling and marketing expenses for our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products business segment increased by 25% from Rs. 919 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 1,150 million for the year ended March 31, 2005. This was primarily due to two factors: first, increase in compensation costs due to an increase in the number of sales and marketing personnel for this business segment and increase in compensation costs as part of compensation review in April 2004 and October 2004, and, second, increase in expenditure on travel due to increased promotional activities in select geographies in this business segment.

Selling and marketing expenses for Consumer Care and Lighting increased by 47% from Rs. 596 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 877 million for the year ended March 31, 2005. This was primarily due to the increase in sales promotion expenses for building brands and expanding market share in select geographies in this business segment.

Selling and marketing expenses for Others, including reconciling items, have declined by 11% from Rs. 243 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 216 million for the year ended March 31, 2005.

General and administrative expenses. General and administrative expenses increased 18% from Rs. 3,172 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 3,744 million for the year ended March 31, 2005. This increase was primarily on account of increase in general and administrative expenses of our IT Services and Products business by Rs. 100 million, increase in general and administration expenses of our BPO Services by Rs. 146 million, increase in general and administrative expenses of our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products business by Rs. 296 million, increase in general and administrative expenses of our Consumer Care and Lighting business by Rs. 10 million and increase in general and administrative expenses of Others including reconciling items by Rs. 20 million.

General and administrative expenses for our Global IT Services and Products business segment increased by 10% from Rs. 2,493 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 2,739 million for the year ended March 31, 2005. The increase of Rs. 246 million in general and administrative expenses is primarily due to an increase in general and administrative expenses of our IT Services and Products business by Rs. 100 million and an increase in general and administrative expenses of our BPO Services business by Rs. 146 million. The increase of Rs. 246 million in general and administrative expenses is primarily due to an increase in compensation costs and additional expenditure on new common facilities.

General and administrative expenses for our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products business segment increased by 60% from Rs. 492 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 788 million for the year ended March 31, 2005. This was primarily due to an increase in compensation costs as part of compensation review in April 2004 and October 2004, an increase in the provision for doubtful receivables and an increase in the loss on sale of trade receivables due to increase in sale of trade receivables.

General and administrative expenses for Consumer Care and Lighting increased by 14% from Rs. 72 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 82 million for the year ended March 31, 2005.

General and administrative expenses for Others, including reconciling items, have increased by 17% from Rs. 115 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 135 million for the year ended March 31, 2005.

Operating income. As a result of the foregoing factors, operating income increased by 64% from Rs. 10,901 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 17,857 million for the year ended March 31, 2005. Operating income of Global IT Services and Products increased by 70% from Rs. 9,300 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 15,825 million for the year ended March 31, 2005. Operating income of India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products increased by 27% from Rs. 761 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 970 million for the year ended March 31, 2005. Operating income of Consumer Care and Lighting increased by 23% from Rs. 546 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 671 million for the year ended March 31, 2005. Operating income of Others, including reconciling items, increased by Rs. 97 million from Rs. 294 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 391 million for the year ended March 31, 2005.

Other income, net. Other income, net, declined from Rs. 868 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 800 million for the year ended March 31, 2005. The decline in other income is primarily due to a decline in investment yields partially offset by an increase in the average quantum of investments during the year ended March 31, 2005.

Income taxes. Income taxes increased by 67% from Rs. 1,611 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 2,694 million for the year ended March 31, 2005. Our effective tax rate increased from 13.8% for the year ended March 31, 2004 to 14.5% for the year ended March 31, 2005. The increase in effective tax rate is primarily on account of an increase in the proportion of income being subject to tax.

Equity in earnings / losses of affiliates. Equity in earnings of affiliates for the year ended March 31, 2004 and 2005 was Rs. 96 million and Rs. 158 million respectively.

Equity in earnings of affiliates of Rs. 158 million for the year ended March 31, 2005 comprises equity in earnings of Wipro GE of Rs. 126 million and equity in earnings of WeP Peripherals of Rs. 32 million. Equity in earnings of affiliates of Rs. 96 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 comprises equity in earnings of Wipro GE of Rs. 56 million and equity in earnings of WeP Peripherals of Rs. 40 million.

Net income. As a result of the foregoing factors, net income increased by 58% from Rs. 9,992 million for the year ended March 31, 2004 to Rs. 15,833 million for the year ended March 31, 2005.

During the year ended March 31, 2005 and 2006 a dividend of Rs. 7,575 and Rs. 3,998 million respectively was paid to the shareholders. As of March 31, 2006, the short-term borrowings from Banks were Rs. 705 million. The short-term borrowings are against the line of credit by banks and are used to bridge the temporary mismatches in cash flows of certain subsidiaries.

We have proposed to pay an annual cash dividend of Rs. 5 per share on equity shares and ADRs. This proposal is subject to approval by the shareholders of the Company. We expect a dividend payout of approximately Rs. 8,200 million.

As of March 31, 2006 we had contractual commitments of Rs. 6,656 million ($ 150 million) related to capital expenditures on construction or expansion of software development facilities, non-cancelable operating lease obligations and other purchase obligations. Plans to construct or expand our software development facilities are dictated by business requirements.

We currently intend to finance our operations and planned construction and expansion from internal sources of capital.

In our acquisitions, a portion of purchase consideration is payable upon achievement of specified earnings targets in future. We currently intend to finance the payment of additional purchase consideration entirely from internal sources of capital.

In April 2006, we acquired cMango Inc., a privately held California, US – headquartered company, in an all cash deal. cMango is a provider of Business Service Management (BSM) solutions. The consideration included a cash payment of Rs. 886 Million ($20 million) paid at the closing of the transaction and additional earn-out payments based on achieving specified financial metrics over a two year period.

In May 2006, we acquired, subject to completion of certain closing conditions, US based Quantech Global Services LLC and India based Quantech Global Services Ltd. for a total consideration of Rs. 444.80 million ($ 10 million) and additional earn outs based on achieving specified financial targets over a three year period. Quantech, founded 16 years ago, is a leading provider of Computer Aided Design and Engineering services to Fortune 500 companies, particularly in the automotive, aerospace and consumer goods industries. We currently intend to fund this acquisition through our internal accruals.

In May 2006, we acquired, subject to completion of certain closing conditions, a Europe based retail solutions provider, Enabler for a consideration of Euros 41 Million ($ 53 million) payable on closure of the transaction as well as earn-outs on achieving agreed financial targets over a two year period. For Wipro BPO, 4,637,375 shares issued as a result of option exercises during the year ended March 31, 2005 are covered by a share repurchase feature that entitles us to repurchase these shares at the then fair value and also gives the employee the right to sell the shares back to us at the then fair value. The right can be exercised only after six months from the date of option exercise. The shares were acquired in April 2005.

WIPRO LIMITED

In the normal course of business, we transfer accounts receivables and employee advances (financial assets). These transfers can be with or without recourse. As at March 31, 2006, we have transferred financial assets of Rs. 259 million.

Our liquidity and capital requirements are affected by many factors, some of which are based on the normal ongoing operations of our businesses and some of which arise from uncertainties related to global economies and the markets that we target for our services. In addition, we routinely review potential acquisitions. In the future, we may require or choose to obtain additional debt or equity financing. We cannot be certain that additional financing, if needed, will be available on favorable terms.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

The company has not entered into any off-balance sheet arrangements as defined by SEC Final Rule 67 (FR-67), "Disclosure in Management's Discussion and Analysis about Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements and Aggregate Contractual Obligations".

Contractual Obligations

The table of future payments due under contractual commitments as of March 31, 2006, aggregated by type of contractual obligation, is given below:

In Rs. million

	Total contractual payment	Payments due in
		2006-07	2007-09	2009-11	2011 onwards
Capital Commitments	1,714	1,714	-	-	-
Non-cancelable operating lease obligation	2,996	396	735	611	1,254
Purchase obligations	1,946	1,946	-	-	-

Purchase obligations include all commitments to purchase goods or services of either a fixed or minimum quantity that meet any of the following criteria: (1) they are non-cancelable, or (2) we would incur a penalty if the agreement was terminated. If the obligation to purchase goods or services is non-cancelable, the entire value of the contract was included in the above table. If the obligation is cancelable, but we would incur a penalty if canceled, the amount of the penalty was included as a purchase obligation.

Over a period of two to three years research and development efforts in identified areas are focused on developing in-depth solutions, frameworks and applications.

Research and development initiatives are executed through Centers of Excellence or CoE and Innovation Initiative.

CoEs are designed to enable growth of existing practice and/or create a new practice. CoEs focus on creating competencies in specific existing and emerging technologies and domains. CoEs create thought leadership by publishing white papers and participating in industry forums. Currently, we have CoEs focusing on Wireless and Broadband Communication, Computing Platforms like Grid Computing, e-Biz technologies like Web services, Retail Supply chain management and other similar areas.

Innovation initiative is directed towards creating new solutions and intellectual property which potentially expand our service offerings.

Innovation initiative covers the entire cycle of Idea Generation, Incubation and Successful Execution. We focus on Process Innovations, Delivery Innovations, Technology Innovations, Product Innovations and Business Innovations. We were awarded the NASSCOM's IT Innovation Award 2005 for our pioneering work in next generation managed services platform.

Research and development expenditures for the years ended March 31, 2005 and 2006 were Rs. 274 million and Rs. 202 million, respectively.

Trend Information

IT Services and Products: We believe that the increased competition among IT companies, commoditization of services and high volume transactions in IT services limits our ability to increase our prices and improve our profits. We continually strive to differentiate ourselves from the competition, innovate service delivery models, adopt new pricing strategies and demonstrate our value proposition to the client to sustain prices and profits. We have also acquired businesses to augment our existing services and capabilities. Our acquisitions have also allowed us to sustain and in certain circumstances improve our prices and profits.

Gross profit as a percentage of revenues in our IT Services and Products decreased from 38% in the year ended March 31, 2005 to 36% in the year ended March 31, 2006. We anticipate difficulty in sustaining or improving our profits due to:

- pricing pressures;
- increases in proportion of services performed at client location - some of our newer service offerings, such as consulting and package implementation, require a higher proportion of services to be performed at the client's premises;
- increases in wages for our IT professionals;
- the impact of amortization of stock compensation cost; and
- the impact of exchange rate fluctuations on our rupee realizations.

We expect these trends to continue for the foreseeable future. In response to the pressure on gross margins and the increased competition from other IT services companies, we are focusing on offering services with higher margins, strengthening our delivery model, increasing employee productivity, investing in emerging technology areas, managing our cost structure, aligning our resources to expected demand and increasing the utilization of our IT professionals.

To remain competitive, we believe that we need to innovate, identify and position ourselves in emerging technology areas and increase our understanding of industry, business and impact of IT on the business.

Our IT Services and Products business segment is also subject to fluctuations primarily resulting from factors such as:

- the effect of seasonal hiring which occurs in the quarter ended September 30;
- the time required to train and productively use new employees;
- the proportion of services we perform at client sites for a particular project;
- exchange rate fluctuations; and
- the size, timing and profitability of new projects.

BPO Services: Although we believe that the increasing acceptance of outsourcing and offshoring as an economic necessity has contributed to continued growth in our revenue, we have experienced pricing pressures in our BPO Services business due to increased competition among the IT companies. Gross profit as a percentage of revenues in BPO Services decreased from 26% in the year ended March 31, 2005 to 24% in the year ended March 31, 2006. We anticipate difficulty in sustaining or improving our profits due to, among other things, the impact of the high percentage on fixed costs, attrition rates and composition of voice based services in our revenues from BPO Services. Our BPO Services business segment is also subject to sessional fluctuations.

India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products: In our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products business segment we have experienced pricing pressures due to increased competition among IT companies. Large multinational corporations like IBM and HP have identified India as a key focus area. The gross margins in the products component of this business segment increased by 1% from 10% for the year ended March 31, 2005 to 11% for the year ended March 31, 2006.

Our India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products business segment is also subject to seasonal fluctuations. Our product revenue is driven by capital expenditure budgets and the spending patterns of our clients, who often delay or accelerate purchases in reaction to tax depreciation benefits on capital equipment. As a result, our India and AsiaPac IT Services and products revenue for the quarters ended March 31 and September 30 are typically higher than other quarters of the year. We believe the impact of this fluctuation on our revenue will decrease as the proportion of services revenue increases.

Consumer Care and Lighting: Our Consumer Care and Lighting business segment is also subject to seasonal fluctuations. Our revenues in this segment are also subject to commodity price fluctuations.

Our quarterly revenue, operating income and net income have varied significantly in the past and we expect that they are likely to vary in the future. You should not rely on our quarterly operating results as an indication of future performance. Such quarterly fluctuations may have an impact on the price of our equity shares and ADSs.

Recent Accounting Pronouncements.

In December 2004, the Financial Accounting Standard Board (FASB) issued SFAS No. 123 (revised 2004), Share-Based Payment (SFAS No. 123R), requiring companies to measure the cost of employee services received in exchange for an award of equity instruments based on the grant-date fair value of the award. The compensation costs arising out of such awards are required to be recognized over the period during which an employee provides service in exchange for the award. SFAS No. 123R provides two alternative adoption methods. The first method is a modified prospective transition method whereby a company would recognize share-based employee costs from the beginning of the fiscal period in which the recognition provisions are first applied as if the fair value-based accounting method had been used to account for all employee awards granted, modified, or settled after the effective date and to any awards that were not fully vested as of the effective date. Measurement and attribution of compensation cost for awards that are unvested as of the effective date of SFAS No. 123R would be based on the same estimate of the grant-date fair value and the same attribution method used previously under SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock Based Compensation" (SFAS No. 123).

The second adoption method is a modified retrospective transition method whereby a company would recognize employee compensation cost for periods presented prior to the adoption of SFAS No. 123R in accordance with the original provisions of SFAS No. 123; that is, an entity would recognize employee compensation costs in the amounts reported in the pro forma disclosures provided in accordance with SFAS No. 123; a company would not be permitted to make any changes to those amounts upon adoption of SFAS No. 123R unless those changes represent a correction of an error. For periods after the date of adoption of SFAS No. 123R, the modified prospective transition method described above would be applied.

SFAS No. 123R does not change the accounting guidance for share-based payment transaction with parties other than employees provided in SFAS No. 123 as originally issued and EITF Issue No. 96-18. "Accounting for Equity Instruments That Are Issued to Other Than Employees for Acquiring, or in Conjunction with Selling Goods or Services".

SFAS No. 123R is effective for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2005. SFAS No. 123R applies to all awards granted and to awards modified, repurchased, or cancelled in the fiscal year beginning after June 15, 2005. Pursuant to the Securities and Exchange Commission Release No. 33-8568, we are required to adopt SFAS No. 123R from April 1, 2006.

If we had amortized the stock-based employee compensation expense determined under the fair value method, the Company's net income as reported for the years ended March 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 would have been reduced by Rs. 2,080 million, Rs. 1,244 million and Rs. 571 million, respectively.

We will adopt SFAS No. 123R from fiscal year beginning April 1, 2006, using the modified prospective method. As of March 31, 2006, unamortized costs determined based on the fair value approach described in SFAS No. 123, net of estimated forfeiture, amounted to Rs. 2,365 million which will be amortised over the weighted average period of approximately three years.

Upon adoption of SFAS No. 123R, the Company will record a cumulative catch-up adjustment to recognise the impact of adjusting compensation charge for estimated forfeitures.

The corresponding unamortized stock compensation cost determined under the intrinsic value based method of APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, amounted to Rs. 2,202 million.

Critical accounting policies

Critical accounting policies are defined as those that in our view are most important to the portrayal of the Company's financial condition and results and that place the most significant demands on management's judgment. For a detailed discussion on the application of these and other accounting policies, please refer to Note 2 to the Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements.

Revenue Recognition

We derive our revenues primarily from two sources: (i) product revenue and (ii) service revenue.

Product Revenue

Product revenue is recognized when there is persuasive evidence of an arrangement, the product has been delivered, the sales price is fixed or determinable, and collectibility is reasonably assured. The product is considered delivered to the customer once it has been shipped, and title and risk of loss has been transferred.

We generally consider a binding purchase order or a signed contract as persuasive evidence of an arrangement. Persuasive evidence of an arrangement may take different forms depending upon the customary practices of a specific class of customers.

Service Revenue

Service revenue is recognized when there is persuasive evidence of a contract, the sales price is fixed or determinable, and collectibility is reasonably assured. Time-and-materials service contract revenue is recognized as the services are rendered. Revenue from fixed-price, fixed-timeframe contracts that involve significant production, modification or customization of the software is accounted for in conformity with ARB No. 45, using the guidance in Statement of Position (SOP) 81-1, and the Accounting Standards Executive Committee's conclusion in paragraph 95 of SOP 97-2, Software Revenue Recognition. Fixed-price, fixed-timeframe contracts, which are similar to "contracts to design, develop, manufacture, or modify complex aerospace or electronic equipment to a buyer's specification or to provide services related to the performance of such contracts" and "contracts for services performed by architects, engineers, or architectural or engineering design firms" as laid out in paragraph 13 of SOP 81-1, are also accounted for in conformity with SOP 81-1. In these Fixed-price, fixed-timeframe contracts revenue is recognized using the percentage-of-completion method.

We use the input (cost expended) method to measure progress towards completion. Percentage of completion method accounting relies on estimates of total expected contract revenue and costs. We follow this method when reasonably dependable estimates of the revenues and costs applicable to various elements of the contract can be made. Key factors we review to estimate the future costs to complete include estimates of future labor costs and productivity efficiencies. Because the financial reporting of these contracts depends on estimates that are assessed continually during the term of these contracts, recognized revenue and profit are subject to revisions as the contract progresses to completion. When estimates indicate that a loss will be incurred, the loss is provided for in the period in which the loss becomes evident. To date, we have not had any fixed-price, fixed-timeframe contracts that resulted in a material loss.

We evaluate change orders to determine whether such change orders are normal element and form part of the original scope of the contract. If the change orders are part of the original scope of the contract, no changes are made to the contract price. For other change orders, contract revenue and costs are adjusted only after the approval of the changes to the scope and price by us and the client. Costs that are incurred for a specific anticipated contract that will result in no future benefits unless the contract is obtained are not included in contract costs are deferred before the signing of the contract.

Maintenance revenue is recognized ratably over the term of the agreement. Revenue from customer training, support and other services is recognized as the related services are performed.

Revenues from BPO services are derived from both time-based and unit-priced contracts. Revenue is recognized as services are performed under the specific terms of the contracts with the customers.

Revenue Arrangements with Multiple Deliverables

Based on the guidance in EITF Issue No. 00-21, we recognize revenues on the delivered products or services only if:

- The revenue recognition criteria applicable to the unit of accounting is met;
- The delivered element has value to the customer on a stand-alone basis. The delivered unit will have value on a stand-alone basis if it is being sold separately by other vendors or the customer could resell the deliverable on a stand-alone basis;
- There is objective and reliable evidence of the fair value of the undelivered item(s); and

- If the arrangement includes a general right of return relative to the delivered item, delivery or performance of the undelivered item(s) is considered probable and substantially in our control.

The arrangement consideration is allocated to the units of accounting based on their fair values. The revenue recognized for the delivered items is limited to the amount that is not contingent upon the delivery or performance of the undelivered items. In certain cases, the application of the contingent revenue provisions of EITF Issue No. 00-21 could result in recognizing a loss on the delivered element. In such cases, the cost recognized is limited to the amount of non-contingent revenues recognized and the balance of costs are recorded as an asset and are reviewed for impairment based on the estimated net cash flows to be received for future deliverables under the contract. These costs are subsequently recognized on recognition of the revenue allocable to the balance of deliverables.

Assessments about whether the delivered units have a value to the customer on a stand-alone basis, impact of forfeiture and similar contractual provisions, and determination of fair value of each unit would affect the timing of revenue recognition and would impact our results of operations.

Accounting Estimates

While preparing financial statements we make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets, liabilities, disclosure of contingent liabilities at the date of financial statements and the reported amount of revenues and expenses for the reporting period. Specifically, we make estimates of the uncollectability of our accounts receivable by analyzing historical payment patterns, customer concentrations, customer credit-worthiness and current economic trends. If the financial condition of the customers deteriorates, additional allowances may be required.

Our estimate of liability relating to pending litigation is based on currently available facts and our assessment of the probability of an unfavorable outcome. Considering the uncertainties about the ultimate outcome and the amount of losses, we reassess our estimates as additional information becomes available. Such revisions in our estimates could materially impact our results of operations and our financial position.

We provide for inventory obsolescence, excess inventory and inventories with carrying values in excess of market values based on our assessment of the future demands, market conditions and our specific inventory management initiatives. If the market conditions and actual demands are less favorable than our estimates, additional inventory write-downs may be required. In all cases inventory is carried at the lower of historical costs or market value.

Accounting for Income Taxes

As part of the process of preparing our consolidated financial statements we are required to estimate our income taxes in each of the jurisdictions in which we operate. We are subject to tax assessments in each of these jurisdictions. A tax assessment can involve complex issues, which can only be resolved over extended time periods. Though we have considered all these issues in estimating our income taxes, there could be an unfavorable resolution of such issues that may affect results of our operations.

We also assess the temporary differences resulting from differential treatment of certain items for tax and accounting purposes. These differences result in deferred tax assets and liabilities, which are recognized in our consolidated financial statements. We assess our deferred tax assets on an ongoing basis by assessing our valuation allowance and adjusting the valuation allowance appropriately. In calculating our valuation allowance we consider the future taxable incomes and the feasibility of tax planning initiatives. If we estimate that the deferred tax asset cannot be realized at the recorded value, a valuation allowance is created with a charge to the statement of income in the period in which such assessment is made. We have not created a deferred tax liability in respect of the basis difference in the carrying value of investments in domestic subsidiaries, since we expect to realize this in a tax-free manner and the current tax laws in India provide means by which we can realize our investment in a tax-free manner.

We are subject to a 15% branch profit tax in the United States to the extent the net profit attributable to our U.S. branch for the fiscal year is greater than the increase in the net assets of the U.S. branch for the fiscal year, as computed in accordance with the Internal Revenue Code. As of March 31, 2006, the U.S. branch's net assets amounted to approximately $130 million. We have not triggered the branch profit tax and, consistent with our business plan, we intend to maintain the current level of our net assets in the United States. Accordingly, we did not record a provision for branch profit tax.

Business Combinations, Goodwill and Intangible Assets

In accordance with SFAS No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, we have assigned all the assets and liabilities, including goodwill, to the reporting units. We review goodwill for impairment annually and whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate the carrying value of goodwill may not be recoverable. The provisions of SFAS No. 142 require that a two-step impairment test be performed on goodwill. In the first step, we compare the fair value of the reporting unit to its carrying value. We determine the fair value of our reporting units using the income approach. Under the income approach, we calculate the fair value of a reporting unit based on measurement techniques such as discounted cash flow analyses. If the fair value of the reporting unit exceeds the carrying value of the net assets assigned to that unit, goodwill is not impaired and we are not required to perform further testing. If the carrying value of the net assets assigned to the reporting unit exceeds the fair value of the reporting unit, then we must perform the second step in order to determine the implied fair value of the reporting unit's goodwill and compare it to the carrying value of the reporting unit's goodwill. The implied fair value of goodwill is determined in the same manner as the amount of goodwill recognized in a business combination. That is, the fair value of the reporting unit is allocated to all of the assets and liabilities of that unit (including any unrecognized intangible assets) as if the reporting unit had been acquired in a business combination and the fair value of the reporting unit was the purchase price paid to acquire the reporting unit. If the carrying value of a reporting unit's goodwill exceeds its implied fair value, then we must record an impairment loss equal to the difference.

To assist in the process of determining goodwill impairment, we obtain appraisals from independent valuation firms. In addition we perform internal valuation analyses and consider other market information that is publicly available. The discounted cash flow approach and the income approach, which we use to estimate the fair value of our reporting units are dependent on a number of factors including estimates of future market growth and trends, forecasted revenue and costs, appropriate discount rates and other variables. We base our fair value estimates on assumptions we believe to be reasonable, but which are unpredictable and inherently uncertain. Actual future results may differ from those estimates.

Derivatives and Hedge Accounting, and Exchange Rate Risk

Although our functional currency is the Indian rupee, we transact a major portion of our business in foreign currencies, particularly the U.S. dollar. The exchange rate between the rupee and the dollar has changed substantially in recent years and may fluctuate substantially in the future. Consequently, the results of our operations are adversely affected as the rupee appreciates against the U.S. dollar. Our exchange rate risk primarily arises from our foreign currency revenues, receivables and payables. We enter into forward foreign exchange contracts (derivatives) to mitigate the risk of changes in foreign exchange rates on accounts receivables and forecasted cash flows denominated in certain foreign currencies. The derivatives also include short-term forward foreign exchange contracts pursuant to a roll-over hedging strategy which are replaced with successive new contracts up to the period in which the forecasted transactions are expected to occur. We also designate zero-cost dollars, which qualify as net purchased options, to hedge the exposure to variability in expected future foreign currency cash inflows due to exchange rate movements beyond a defined range. The range comprises an upper and lower strike price. At maturity, if the exchange rate remains within the range the cash inflows are realized at the spot rate, otherwise the cash inflows are realized at the upper or lower strike price.

We designate the derivatives in respect of forecasted transactions, which meet the hedging criteria, as cash flow hedges. Changes in the derivative fair values that are designated, effective and qualify as cash flow hedges, under SFAS No. 133 Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities, are deferred and recorded as a component of accumulated other comprehensive income until the hedged transactions occur and are then recognized in the consolidated statements of income. With respect to derivatives acquired pursuant to the roll-over hedging strategy, the changes in the fair value of discount or forward premium points are recognized in consolidated statements of income of each period. The Company does not apply the short-cut method to determine hedge effectiveness.

Gains and losses upon roll-over of derivatives acquired pursuant to the roll-over hedging strategy are deferred and recorded as a component of accumulated other comprehensive income until the hedged transactions occur and are then recognized in the consolidated statements of income.

Changes in fair value for derivatives not designated as hedging derivatives and ineffective portion of the hedging instruments are recognized in consolidated statements of income of each period. We assess the hedge effectiveness at the end of each reporting period.

Hedge ineffectiveness could result from forecasted transactions not happening in the same amounts or in the same periods as forecasted or changes in the counter-party credit rating. Further, change in the basis of designating derivatives as hedges of forecasted transactions could alter the proportion of derivatives which are ineffective as hedges. Hedge ineffectiveness increases volatility of the consolidated statements of income since the changes in fair value of an ineffective portion of derivatives is immediately recognized in the consolidated statements of income.

WIPRO LIMITED

We may not purchase adequate instruments to insulate ourselves from foreign exchange currency risks. The policies of the Reserve Bank of India may change from time to time which may limit our ability to hedge our foreign currency exposures adequately. In addition, any such instruments may not perform adequately as a hedging mechanism. We may, in the future, adopt more active hedging policies, and have done so in the past.

As of March 31, 2006 there were no significant gains or losses on derivative transactions or portions thereof that have become ineffective as hedges, or associated with an underlying exposure that did not occur.

Compensation

Director Compensation

Our Board Governance and Compensation Committee determines and recommends to our Board of Directors the compensation payable to our directors. All board-level compensation is subject to approval by our shareholders. Each of our non-employee directors receive an attendance fee of $224.82 (Rs. 10,000) for every Board and Committee meeting they attend. Our directors are reimbursed for travel and out-of-pocket expenses in connection with their attendance at Board and Committee meetings. Additionally, we also compensate non-employee directors by way of commission, which is limited to a fixed sum payable as approved by the Board subject to a maximum of 1% of the net profits of the Company as approved by the shareholders, as follows:

1. Dr. Ashok S. Ganguly receives approximately $26,978 (Rs. 1,200,000) per year.
2. Narayan Vaghul receives approximately $31,474 (Rs. 1,400,000) per year.
3. Dr. Jagdish N. Sheth receives approximately $50,000 (Rs. 2,224,000) per year.

1. Deferred benefits payable to other employees by way of our contribution to the Provident Fund and Pension Fund. The Provident Fund is a statutory fund to which Wipro and our employees contribute every month. A lump sum payment on separation and a Pension payment on attaining the age of superannuation are payable from the balance standing to the credit of the Fund, as per the Employee Provident Fund and Miscellaneous Provisions Act, 1952.

Deferred benefits, in the case of Mr. Vivek Paul, are comprised of our contribution to a Deferred Compensation Plan. We have a Deferred Compensation Plan in place, and a Participation Agreement with Mr. Paul. Contributions made by us under this Deferred Compensation Plan are managed by an irrevocable Trust whose trustees are appointed by us under a Trust Agreement. Wells Fargo NA has been appointed as a Trustee of the Trust. We make a contribution of 15% of the base salary of Mr. Paul to the Trust and Mr. Paul was also eligible to contribute up to 15% of his base salary and up to 100% of his commission under the Deferred Compensation Plan to the Trust. The Trust has made payouts of Deferred Compensation to Mr. Vivek Paul upon compliance with specific conditions prescribed in the Plan and related agreements. Upon resignation of Mr. Paul, the investments of the Trust are liquidated and remitted to Mr. Paul offsetting the deferred compensation. As of March 2006, there is no other Participant in the said Plan.

Under our pension plans, any pension that is payable to an employee is not computed on the basis of final compensation, but on the accumulated pension fund to the credit of the employee as the date of separation, death, disability or retirement. We annually contribute 15% of Mr. Premji's base salary and commission earned for that year to our pension fund for the benefit of Mr. Premji. For all other employees, we contribute 15% of their respective base salaries to our pension for their benefit. These contributions are included in this column.

2. In addition to the deferred benefits indicated above, we are also required by Indian law to pay a one-time only lump sum of $8,023 (Rs. 350,000) as a gratuity payment for each of our employees, other than Mr. Paul, at the time of separation, death, disability or retirement, subject to complying with certain conditions.

We operate in numerous countries and compensation for our officers and employees may vary significantly from country to country. As a general matter, we seek to pay competitive salaries in all the countries in which we operate.

Board Composition

Our Articles of Association provide that the minimum number of directors shall be four and the maximum number of directors shall be twelve. As of March 31, 2006, we had six directors on our Board. Our Articles of Association provide that at least two-thirds of our directors shall be subject to retirement by rotation. One-third of these directors must retire from office at each annual general meeting of the shareholders. A retiring director is eligible for re-election. Up to one-third of our directors can be appointed as non-retiring directors. Currently, Azim H. Premji is a non-retiring director.

The terms of each of our directors and their expiration dates are:

Name	Expiration of current term of office	Term of office
Azim H. Premji	July 30, 2007	2 years and seven months
Dr. Jagdish Sheth	Annual General Meeting 2006	Retirement by rotation
Dr. Ashok S. Ganguly	Annual General Meeting 2008	Retirement by rotation
B.C. Prabhakar	Annual General Meeting 2007	Retirement by rotation
N. Vaghul	Annual General Meeting 2007	Retirement by rotation
P.M. Sinha	Annual General Meeting 2006	Retirement by rotation

Option Grants

There were no option grants to our Chief Executive Officer, Chairman and Managing Director (designated as "Chairman") in the fiscal years ended March 31, 2005 and 2006. Details of options granted to other senior management executives are reported elsewhere in this Item 6 under the section titled "Share Ownership."

Option Exercises and Holdings

Our Chairman did not exercise or hold any options during the fiscal year ended March 31, 2006. The details of stock options held and exercised with respect to other senior management executives are reported elsewhere in this Item 6 under the section titled "Share Ownership."

Terms of Employment Arrangements and Indemnification Agreements

Under the Companies Act, our shareholders must approve the salary, bonus and benefits of all employee directors at a General Meeting of Shareholders. Each of our employee directors have signed an agreement containing the terms and conditions of employment, including a monthly salary, performance bonus and benefits including vacation, medical reimbursement and pension fund contributions. These agreements have varying terms ranging from a two to five year period, but either we or the employee director may generally terminate the agreement upon six months notice to the other party.

The terms of our employment arrangements with Azim H. Premji, Pratik Kumar, Suresh C. Senapaty, Ranjan Acharya, Suresh Vaswani, Sudip Banerjee, Tamal Dasgupta, Dr. A.L. Rao, Vineet Agrawal and Ramesh Emani provide for up to a 180-day notice period, up to 21 days of leave per year in addition to statutory holidays, and an annual compensation review. Additionally, employees are required to relocate as we may determine, and to comply with confidentiality provisions.

We also have entered into agreements to indemnify our directors and officers for claims brought under any rule of law to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law. These agreements, among other things, indemnify our directors and officers for certain expenses, judgments, fines and settlement amounts incurred by any such person in any action or proceeding, including any action by or in the right of Wipro Limited, arising out of such person's services as our director or officer, including claims which are covered by the Insurance Policy on Director's and Officer's Liability Insurance taken by the Company.

Board Committee InformationAudit Committee

The Audit Committee of our Board of Directors, which was formed in 1987, reviews, acts on and reports to our Board of Directors with respect to various auditing and accounting matters. The primary objective of our Audit Committee is to monitor and provide effective supervision of our financial reporting process with a view towards ensuring accurate, timely and proper disclosures and the transparency, integrity and quality of financial reporting. Our Audit Committee oversees the work carried out in the financial reporting process – by our management, including our internal auditors and reviews the processes and safeguards employed by each. In addition, our Audit Committee has the responsibility of oversight and supervision over our system of internal control over financial reporting, audit process and process for monitoring the compliance with related laws and regulations. Our Audit Committee recommends to our shareholders the appointment of our independent registered public accounting firm and reviews the scope of our annual audits, approves fees to be paid to the independent registered public accounting firm and reviews / approves our accounting practices. The Audit Committee is comprised of the following three non-executive directors:

Mr. N. Vaghul	- Chairman of the Audit Committee
Messrs. P.M. Sinha and B.C. Prabhakar	- Members of the Audit Committee

Our Audit Committee held five meetings during our 2006 fiscal year. Our Audit Committee has adopted a charter. The charter is available under the investor relations section on our website at www.wipro.com. See Item 18 of this Annual Report for the report of our Audit Committee.

Board Governance and Compensation Committee

The Board Governance and Compensation Committee of our Board of Directors, (formerly functioning as two committees viz. Compensation and Benefits Committee which was originally formed in 1987 and Nomination and Corporate Governance Committee formed in 2003) determines the salaries, benefits for our employees, directors and senior officers, and administers the stock option grants issued by our company. This Committee also develops and recommends our Board a set of corporate governance guidelines applicable to our company, implements the policies and processes relating to corporate governance principles and the self evaluation process for our Board and Committees, ensures that appropriate procedures are in place to assess Board membership needs and recommends potential director candidates to our Board of Directors. The Board Governance and Compensation Committee is comprised of the following three non-executive directors:

|----------------------------------|---|
| Dr. Ashok S. Ganguly | - Chairman of the Board Governance and Compensation Committee |
| Messrs. N. Vaghul and P.M. Sinha | - Members of the Board Governance and Compensation Committee |

Our Board Governance and Compensation Committee held five meetings during our 2006 fiscal year. Our Board Governance and Compensation Corporate Governance Committee has adopted a charter. The charter is available under the investor relations section on our website at www.wipro.com.

Employees

As of March 31, 2006, we had over 53,700 employees, including over 29,800 IT professionals. Highly trained and motivated people are critical to the success of our business. To achieve this, we focus on attracting and retaining the best people possible. A combination of strong brand name, a congenial working environment and competitive compensation programs enables us to attract and retain these talented people.

Our human resources department is centralized at our corporate headquarters in Bangalore and functions across all of the business segments. We have implemented corporate-wide recruiting, training, performance evaluation and compensation programs that are tailored to address the needs of each of our business segments.

Recruiting

We hire entry level graduates from both the top engineering and management universities in India, as well as more experienced lateral hires through employee referral programs, advertisements, placement consultants, our website postings and walk-ins. To facilitate employee growth within Wipro Limited, all new openings are first offered to our employees. The nature of work, skill sets requirements and experience levels are highlighted to the employees. Applicants undergo the regular recruitment process and, if selected, get assigned to their new roles.

Training

Each of our new recruits must attend a eight week intensive training program when they begin working with us. New or recent graduates must also attend additional training programs that are tailored to their area of technology. We also have a mandatory continuing education program that requires each IT professional to attend at least 40 hours of continuing education classes to improve their understanding and competency of new technologies, as well as to develop leadership and personal self-development skills. We currently have 82 full-time faculty members to provide these training courses. We supplement our continuing education program for existing employees by sponsoring special programs at leading educational institutions, such as the Indian Institute of Management, Bangalore, Birla Institute of Technology and Science, Pilani, Symbiosis Institute of Business Management, Pune and others, to provide special skill set training in areas such as Business Skills and Project management to any of our IT professionals who choose to enroll and meet the eligibility criteria of these Institutes.

Performance Evaluations

Employees receive written performance objectives that they develop in cooperation with their respective managers. They are measured against these criteria annually in a formal review process which includes self-reviews and reviews from peers, managers and subordinates.

Compensation

We continually strive to provide our employees with competitive and innovative compensation packages. Our compensation packages include a combination of salary, stock options, pension, and health and disability insurance. We measure our compensation packages against industry standards and seek to match or exceed them. We adopted an employee stock purchase plan in 1984. We have devised both business segment performance and individual performance linked incentive programs that we believe more accurately link performance to compensation for each employee. For example, we link cash compensation to a business segment's quarterly operating margin objectives.

WIPRO LIMITED

Share Ownership

The following table sets forth, as of March 31, 2006, for each director and executive officer, the total number of equity shares, ADSs and options to purchase equity shares and ADSs exercisable within 60 days from March 31, 2006. Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. All information with respect to the beneficial ownership of any principal shareholder has been furnished by such shareholder and, unless otherwise indicated below, we believe that persons named in the table have sole voting and sole investment power with respect to all the shares shown as beneficially owned, subject to community property laws, where applicable.

The shares beneficially owned by the directors include the equity shares owned by their family members to which such directors disclaim beneficial ownership. The number of shares beneficially owned includes equity shares, equity shares underlying ADSs, the number of equity shares and equity shares underlying ADSs exercisable within 60 days from March 31, 2006. The number of shares presented in the table below also reflects the adjusted figure from our 1-for-1 stock dividend approved by our shareholders in July 2005. For the convenience of the readers, the stock option grant price has been translated into U.S. dollars based on the noon buying rate in the City of New York on March 31, 2006, for cable transfers in Indian rupees as certified for customs purposes by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York which, was Rs. 44.48 per $1.00. The share numbers and percentages listed below are based on 1,425,754,267 equity shares outstanding as of March 31, 2006.

OPTION PLANS

Wipro Employee Restricted Stock Unit Plan 2005

Our Wipro Restricted Stock Unit Plan 2005, or 2005 unit plan, provides for the grant of options to eligible employees and directors. The creation of our 2005 unit plan was approved by our Board of Directors on June 14, 2005 and by our shareholders on July 21, 2005. Our 2005 unit plan became effective on July 21, 2005, and unless terminated sooner, the plan will terminate automatically on July 20, 2015. A total of 12,000,000 equity shares (as adjusted for corporate actions from time to time) are currently reserved for issuance pursuant to the plan.

Our Board Governance and Compensation Committee appointed by our Board of Directors administers our 2005 unit plan. The committee has the sole power to determine the terms of the units granted, including the exercise price, selection of eligible employees, the number of equity shares to be covered by each option, the vesting and exercise periods, and the form of consideration payable upon such exercise. In addition, the committee has the authority to amend, suspend or terminate the 2005 stock plan with the approval of the shareholders, provided that no such action may adversely affect the rights of any participant under the plan. The Committee has the powers to interpret the terms of the Plan and options granted pursuant to the Plan. The plan does not confer any right to the participant with respect to continuing the participant's status as an employee with the Company.

Our 2005 unit plan does not allow for the transfer of options and only the participant may exercise an option during his or her life-time. The vesting period for the options under the plan shall range from 12 months to not more than 84 months. A participant must exercise any vested units prior to termination of service with us and within a specified period post separation as per the Plan. The exercise price of options granted under our 2005 unit plan will be determined by the committee.

Our 2005 unit plan provides that in the event of our merger with or into another corporation or a sale of substantially all of our assets, the successor corporation shall either assume the outstanding units or grant equivalent units to the holders. If the successor corporation neither assumes the outstanding units nor grants equivalent units, such outstanding units shall vest immediately, and become exercisable in full.

ADS Restricted Stock Unit Plan 2004 (ADS option)

Our ADS Restricted Stock Unit Plan 2004, or 2004 ADS unit plan, provides for the grant of options to our eligible employees and directors. The creation of our 2004 ADS unit plan was approved by our Board of Directors on April 16, 2004 and by our shareholders on June 11, 2004. The 2004 ADS unit plan became effective on June 11, 2004, and unless terminated sooner, the 2004 ADS unit plan will terminate automatically on June 10, 2014. A total of 12,000,000 ADSs, representing 12,000,000 equity shares (as adjusted for corporate action from time to time), are currently reserved for issuance pursuant to the plan.

Our Board Governance and Compensation Committee appointed by our Board of Directors administers the 2004 ADS unit plan. The committee has the sole power to determine the terms of the units granted, including the exercise price, selection of eligible employees, the number of ADSs to be covered by each ADS option, the vesting and exercise periods, and the form of consideration payable upon such exercise. In addition, the committee has the authority to amend, suspend or terminate the stock plan provided that no such action may adversely affect the rights of any participant under the plan. The Committee has the powers to interpret the terms of the plan and the ADS options granted pursuant to the plan. The plan does not confer any right to the participant with respect to participant's status as an employee with the Company.

Our 2004 ADS unit plan does not allow for the transfer of units and only the participant may exercise an option during his or her life-time. The vesting period for the options under the plan shall range from 12 months to not more than 84 months. A participant must exercise any vested options prior to termination of service with us and within a specified period post separation as per the Plan. The exercise price of options granted under our 2004 ADS unit plan will be determined by the committee.

Our 2004 ADS unit plan provides that in the event of our merger with or into another corporation or a sale of substantially all of our assets, the successor corporation shall either assume the outstanding units or grant equivalent units to the holders. If the successor corporation neither assumes the outstanding units nor grants equivalent units, such outstanding units shall vest immediately, and become exercisable in full.

Our Wipro Restricted Stock Unit Plan 2004, or 2004 unit plan, provides for the grant of options to eligible employees and directors. The creation of our 2004 unit plan was approved by our Board of Directors on April 16, 2004 and by our shareholders on June 11, 2004. Our 2004 unit plan became effective on June 11, 2004, and unless terminated sooner, the plan will terminate automatically on June 10, 2014. A total of 12,000,000 equity shares (as adjusted for corporate actions from time to time) are currently reserved for issuance pursuant to the plan.

Our Board Governance and Compensation Committee appointed by our Board of Directors administers the 2004 unit plan. The committee has the sole power to determine the terms of the units granted, including the exercise price, selection of eligible employees, the number of equity shares to be covered by each option, the vesting and exercise periods, and the form of consideration payable upon such exercise. In addition, the committee has the authority to amend, suspend or terminate the 2004 stock plan with the approval of the shareholders, provided that no such action may adversely affect the rights of any participant under the plan. The Committee has the powers to interpret the terms of the Plan and options granted pursuant to the Plan. The plan does not confer any right to the participant with respect to continuing the participant's status as an employee with the Company.

Our 2004 unit plan does not allow for the transfer of options and only the participant may exercise an option during his or her life-time. The vesting period for the options under the plan shall range from 12 months to not more than 84 months. A participant must exercise any vested options prior to termination of service with us and within a specified period post separation as per the Plan. The exercise price of options granted under our 2004 unit plan will be determined by the committee.

Our 2004 unit plan provides that in the event of our merger with or into another corporation or a sale of substantially all of our assets, the successor corporation shall either assume the outstanding units or grant equivalent units to the holders. If the successor corporation neither assumes the outstanding units nor grants equivalent units, such outstanding units shall vest immediately, and become exercisable in full.

2000 ADS Option Plan

Our 2000 ADS option plan provides for the grant of two types of options to our employees and directors: incentive stock options, which may provide our employees with beneficial U.S. tax treatment, and non-statutory stock options. Our 2000 ADS option plan was approved by our Board of Directors in September 2000 and by our shareholders on April 26, 2000. Unless terminated sooner by our Board, our 2000 ADS option plan will terminate automatically in September 2010. A total of 9,000,000 ADSs, representing 9,000,000 equity shares (as adjusted for corporate actions from time to time), are currently reserved for issuance under our 2000 ADS option plan. All options under our 2000 ADS option plan will be exercisable for ADSs. Either our Board of Directors or a committee of our Board of Directors administers our 2000 ADS option plan. The committee has the power to determine the terms of the options granted, including the exercise prices, the number of ADSs subject to each option, the exercisability thereof, and the form of consideration payable upon such exercise. In addition, the committee has the authority to amend, suspend, or terminate our 2000 ADS option plan, provided that no such action may affect any ADS previously issued and sold or any option previously granted under our 2000 ADS option plan.

Our 2000 ADS option plan generally does not allow for the transfer of options, and only the optionee may exercise an option during his or her lifetime. An optionee generally must exercise an option within three months of termination of service. If an optionee's termination is due to death or disability, his or her option will fully vest and become exercisable and the option must be exercised within twelve months after such termination. The exercise price of incentive stock options granted under our 2000 ADS option plan must at least equal the fair market value of the ADSs on the date of grant. The exercise price of non-statutory stock options granted under our 2000 ADS option plan must at least equal 90% of the fair market value of the ADSs on the date of grant. The term of options granted under our 2000 ADS option plan may not exceed ten years. Our 2000 ADS option plan provides that in the event of our merger with or into another corporation or a sale of substantially all of our assets, the successor corporation shall either assume the outstanding options or grant equivalent options to the holders. If the successor corporation neither assumes the outstanding options nor grants equivalent options, such outstanding options shall vest immediately, and become exercisable in full.

2000 Employee Stock Option Plan

Our 2000 stock plan provides for the grant of stock options to eligible employees and directors. The creation of our 2000 stock plan was approved by our Board of Directors on April 26, 2000, and by our shareholders on July 27, 2000. Our 2000 stock plan became effective on September 15, 2000, and unless terminated sooner, our 2000 stock plan will terminate automatically on September 15, 2010. A total of 150,000,000 equity shares (as adjusted for corporate actions from time to time) are currently reserved for issuance pursuant to our 2000 stock plan. All options under our 2000 stock plan will be exercisable for our equity shares.

Our Board Governance & Compensation Committee appointed by our Board of Directors administers our 2000 stock plan. The committee has the power to determine the terms of the options granted, including the exercise price, the number of shares subject to each option, the exercisability thereof, and the form of consideration payable upon such exercise. In addition, the committee has the authority to amend, suspend or terminate our 2000 stock plan, provided that no such action may adversely affect the rights of any optionee under our 2000 stock plan.

Our 2000 stock plan generally does not allow for the transfer of options and only the optionee may exercise an option during his or her lifetime. An optionee generally must exercise any vested options within seven days of termination of service with us. If an optionee's termination is due to death, disability or retirement, his or her option will fully vest and become exercisable. Generally, such options must be exercised within six months after termination. The exercise price of stock options granted under our 2000 stock plan will be determined by the committee. Normally, the term of options granted under our 2000 stock plan may not exceed six years.

Our 2000 stock plan provides that in the event of our merger with or into another corporation or a sale of substantially all of our assets, each option shall be proportionately adjusted to give effect to the merger or asset sale.

1999 Employee Stock Option Plan

Our 1999 stock plan provides for the grant of stock options to eligible employees and directors. Our 1999 stock plan was approved by our Board of Directors on April 30, 1999 and by our shareholders on July 29, 1999. Unless terminated sooner, our 1999 stock plan will terminate automatically on July 28, 2009. A total of 30,000,000 equity shares (as adjusted for corporate actions from time to time) are currently reserved for issuance pursuant to our 1999 stock plan. All options under our 1999 stock plan will be exercisable for our equity shares.

Our Board Governance and Compensation Committee appointed by our Board of Directors administers our 1999 stock plan. The committee has the power to determine the terms of the options granted, including the exercise price, the number of shares subject to each option, the exercisability thereof, and the form of consideration payable upon such exercise. In addition, the committee has the authority to amend, suspend or terminate our 1999 stock plan, provided that no such action may adversely affect the rights of any optionee under our 1999 stock plan.

Our 1999 stock plan generally does not allow for the transfer of options and only the optionee may exercise an option during his or her lifetime. An optionee generally must exercise any vested options within seven days of termination of service with us. If an optionee's termination is due to death, disability or retirement, his or her option will fully vest and become exercisable. Generally, such options must be exercised within six months after termination. The exercise price of stock options granted under our 1999 stock plan will be determined by the committee. The term of options granted under our 1999 stock plan may not exceed six years.

Our 1999 stock plan provides that in the event of our merger with or into another corporation or a sale of substantially all of our assets, each option shall be proportionately adjusted to give effect to the merger or asset sale.

Wipro Equity Reward Trust

We established the Wipro Equity Reward Trust, or WERT, in 1984 to allow our employees to acquire a greater proprietary stake in our success and growth, and to encourage our employees to continue their association with us. The WERT is designed to give eligible employees the right to receive restricted shares and other compensation benefits at the times and on the conditions that we specify. Such compensation benefits include voluntary contributions, loans, interest and dividends on investments in the WERT and other similar benefits.

The WERT is administered by a board of trustees that generally consists of between two and six members as appointed by us. We select eligible employees to receive grants of shares and other compensation from the WERT and communicate this information to the WERT. We select employees based upon various factors, including, without limitation, an employee's performance, period of service and status. The WERT awards the number of shares that each employee is entitled to receive out of the shares we issued to the WERT at its formation. We also determine the time intervals that an employee may elect to receive them. The shares issued under the WERT are generally not transferable for a period of four years after the date of issuance to the employee. Shares from the WERT are issued in the joint names of the WERT and the employee until such restrictions and obligations are fulfilled by the employee. After the four-year period, complete ownership of the shares is transferred to the employee.

If employment is terminated by death, disability or retirement, his or her restricted shares are transferred to the employee's legal heirs or continue to be held by the employee, as the case may be, and such individuals may exercise any rights to those shares for up to ninety days after employment has ceased.

The Trustees of the WERT have the authority to amend or terminate the WERT at any time and for any reason. The WERT is subject to all applicable laws, rules, regulations and approvals by any governmental agencies as may be required. As of March 31, 2006, the WERT holds 7,968,660 of our outstanding equity shares in its own name and holds 106,354 of our outstanding equity shares jointly in the names of the WERT and participating employees, including 83,400 shares not yet jointly registered in the names of the WERT and participating employees.

Dividends

Although the amount varies, public companies in India typically pay cash dividends. Under Indian law, a corporation pays dividends upon a recommendation by the Board of Directors and approval by a majority of the shareholders, who have the right to decrease but not increase the amount of the dividend recommended by the Board of Directors. Under the Indian Companies Act, dividends may be paid out of profits of a company in the year in which the dividend is declared or out of the undistributed profits of previous fiscal years.

For the years ended March 31, 2003, we paid cash dividend of Rs. 0.17 per equity share. For the year ended March 31, 2004, we paid a final dividend of Rs. 0.67 per equity share and a one time dividend of Rs. 4.17 per equity share. For the year ended March 31, 2005, we paid a final dividend of Rs. 2.50 per equity share. Although we have no current intention to discontinue dividend payments, we cannot assure you that any future dividends will be declared or paid or that the amount thereof will not be decreased. Holders of ADSs will be entitled to receive dividends payable on equity shares represented by such ADSs. Cash dividends on equity shares represented by ADSs are paid to the Depositary in rupees and are generally converted by the Depositary into U.S. dollars and distributed, net of depositary fees, taxes, if any, and expenses, to the holders of such ADSs.

The Board of Directors has, subject to the approval of the shareholders at the forthcoming Annual General Meeting in July 2006, recommended a final dividend of Rs.5 ($ 0.11) per equity share for the year ended March 31, 2006. This dividend will be payable to the shareholders who are on the records of the Company as of the opening hours of July 1, 2006.

Significant Changes

None.

Item 9. The Offer and Listing

Price History

Our equity shares are traded on The Stock Exchange, Mumbai or BSE and The National Stock Exchange of India Limited, or NSE. We have also applied for de-listing our equity shares from the Kolkatta Stock Exchange Association Limited and await the approval. Our American Depository Shares, as evidenced by American Depository Receipts, or ADRs, are traded in the U.S. on the New York Stock Exchange, or NYSE, under the ticker symbol "WIT". Each ADS represents one equity share. Our ADSs began trading on the NYSE on October 19, 2000.

As of March 31, 2006, we had 1,425,754,267 issued and outstanding equity shares. As of March 31, 2006, there were approximately 16,732 record holders of ADRs evidencing 21,484,797 ADSs (equivalent to 21,484,797 equity shares). As of March 31, 2006, there were approximately 155,832 record holders of our equity shares listed and traded on the Indian Stock Exchanges.

The following tables set forth for the periods indicated the price history of our equity shares and ADSs on the BSE, NSE and the NYSE. The stock prices for the periods prior to July 2005 are re-stated to reflect the stock dividend issued by the Company in July 2005 in the ratio of 1:1.

MarketsTrading Practices and Procedures on the Indian Stock Exchanges

BSE and NSE (Exchanges) together account for more than 80% of the total trading volume on the Indian Stock Exchanges. Trading on both of these exchanges is accomplished on electronic trading platforms. Trading is done on a two-day fixed settlement basis on all of the exchanges. Any outstanding amount at the end of the settlement period is settled by delivery and payment. However, institutional investors are not permitted to 'net out' their transactions and must trade on a delivery basis.

Orders can be entered with a specified term of validity that may last until the end of the session, day or settlement period. Dealers must specify whether orders are for a proprietary account or for a client. Exchanges specify certain margin requirements for trades executed on the exchange, including margins based on the volume or quantity of exposure that the broker has on the market, as well as market-to-market margins payable on a daily basis for all outstanding trades. Trading on Exchanges normally takes place from 10:00 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. on all weekdays, except holidays. Exchanges do not permit carry forward trades. They have separate margin requirements based on the net exposure of the broker on the exchange. Exchanges also have separate online trading systems and separate clearing houses.

BSE was closed from January 11 through January 13, 1993 due to a riot in Mumbai. It was also closed on March 12, 1993 due to a bomb explosion within its premises. From December 14 through December 23, 1993 the BSE was closed due to a brokers' strike, and from March 20 through March 22, 1995, the governing board of the BSE closed the market due to a default of one of the broker members and due to which the trading of equity shares on the BSE has been suspended. There have been no closures of the Indian Stock Exchanges in response to "panic" trading or large fluctuations. On May 17, 2004, Exchanges have observed that there were wide fluctuations in the prices of various securities / SENSEX/Nifty, thereby resulting in a halt in the trading activity at the exchanges on two occasions, as per the Securities and Exchange Board of India or SEBI prescribed guidelines on Circuit Breakers. BSE and NSE were closed on July 28, 2005 due to rain in Mumbai.

The Stock Exchanges in India now operate on a trading day plus two, or T+2 rolling settlement system. At the end of the T+2 period, obligations are settled with buyers of securities paying for and receiving securities, while sellers transfer and receive payment for securities. The SEBI has moved to a T+2 settlement system, and is subsequently planning to move to a T+1 settlement system.

In order to contain the risk arising out of the transactions entered into by the members in various securities either on their own account or on behalf of their clients, the largest exchanges have designed risk management procedures, which include compulsory prescribed margins on the individual broker members, based on their outstanding exposure in the market, as well as stock specific margins from the members. There are generally no restrictions on price movements of any security on any given day. In order to restrict abnormal price volatility, the SEBI has instructed the stock exchanges to apply the following price bands, calculated at the previous day's closing price as follows:

Market Wide Circuit Breakers: Market wide circuit breakers are applied to the market for movements by 10%, 15% and 20% for two prescribed market indices; the Sensex for the BSE and the Nifty for the NSE. If any of these circuit breaker thresholds are reached, trading on all equity and equity derivatives markets nationwide is halted.

Price Bands: Price Bands are circuit filters of 20% movements either up or down and are applied to most securities traded in the markets, excluding securities included in the BSE Sensex and the NSE Nifty indices and derivatives products.

Amendments to SEBI (DIP) Guidelines, 2000;

In the event of book built issues in an Initial Public Offering, or IPO, it has been decided to increase the allocation to Retail Individual Investors (RIIs) from the existing 25% to 35%, and to correspondingly reduce the allocation to Non-Institutional Investors (NIIs) from the existing 25% to 15%. Further, if the book built issues are made pursuant to the requirement of mandatory allocation of 60% to QIBs in terms of Rule 19(2)(b) of the Securities Contract Regulations Rules, 1956, the respective figures shall be 30% of the RIIs and 10% for NIIs.

The RII at present is defined in value terms as one who can apply for shares up to a maximum amount of Rs.1,00,000.

The Securities and Exchange Board of India or SEBI has introduced the regime of private placements of securities by Indian listed companies called Qualified Institutions Placements or QIP. The new regime has been introduced in the form of Chapter XIII A of the SEBI (Disclosures and Investor Protection) Guidelines, 2000, or DIP Guidelines on May 8, 2006 or the Amendment.

QIPs are basically the issue of “specified securities” by Indian companies to Qualified Institutional Buyers, QIBs. The Amendment defines the specified securities as equity shares, fully convertible debentures, partly convertible debentures or any securities other than warrants, which are convertible into or exchangeable with equity shares at a later date.

Reduction in the bidding period

To effect a change in the existing bidding period, which may not exceed 10 business days subject to a three day extension in case of a revision in price bands, SEBI has decided to reduce the bidding period from the current 5-10 business day period (including holidays) to a 3-7 business day period.

Disclosure of Price Band/Floor Price in case of listed companies

The existing DIP guidelines requires all issuers (whether listed or unlisted) making a public issue through the book building process to disclose the price band/floor price in the Red Herring Prospectus/application form. SEBI has also decided to give an option to listed issuers to either disclose the price band in the red herring prospectus or application form or to disclose the price band/floor price at least one day before the bid opens.

Listing

The SEBI has promulgated regulations creating an independent self-regulatory authority called the Central Listing Authority, or the CLA. No stock exchange can consider a listing application unless it is accompanied by a letter of recommendation from the CLA. However, currently the CLA is not fully operational.

The National Stock Exchange of India Limited

The market capitalization of the capital markets (equities) segment of the NSE as of March 31, 2006 was approximately Rs. 28.13 trillion or approximately $632 billion. The clearing and settlement operations of the NSE are managed by its wholly-owned subsidiary, the National Securities Clearing Corporation Limited. Funds settlement takes place through designated clearing banks. The National Securities Clearing Corporation Limited interfaces with the depositories on the one hand and the clearing banks on the other to provide delivery versus payment settlement for depository-enabled trades.

As of April 30, 2006, the NSE had 944 members comprised of 29 individual members, 659 corporates/institutions, 32 firms and 6 subsidiaries of regional stock exchanges.

Bombay Stock Exchange Limited

The estimated aggregate market capitalization of stocks trading on the BSE as of March 31, 2006 was approximately Rs. 30.22 trillion or approximately $679 billion. The BSE began allowing online trading in May 1995. As of March 31, 2006, the BSE had 874 members, comprised of 180 individual members, 675 Indian companies and 19 foreign institutional investors. Only a member of the stock exchange has the right to trade in the stocks listed on the stock exchange.

Derivatives

Trading in derivatives in India takes place either on separate and independent derivatives exchanges or on a separate segment of an existing stock exchange. The derivative exchange or derivative segment of a stock exchange functions as a self-regulatory organization under the supervision of the SEBI.

Depositories

The National Securities Depository Limited and Central Depository Services (India) Limited are the two depositories that provide electronic depository facilities for trading in equity and debt securities in India. The SEBI mandates a company making a public or rights issue or an offer for sale to enter into an agreement with a depository for dematerialization of securities already issued or proposed to be issued to the public or existing shareholders; The SEBI has also provided that the issue and allotment of shares in initial public offerings and/or the trading of shares shall only be in electronic form.

Securities Transaction Tax

A brief description of the securities transaction tax and capital gains treatment under India law is provided under the section "Taxation".

Item 10. Additional InformationShare Capital

Description of Equity Shares

Dividends

Under the Indian Companies Act, 1956, unless our Board of Directors recommends the payment of a dividend, we may not declare a dividend. Similarly, under our Articles of Association, although the shareholders may, at the annual general meeting, approve a dividend in an amount less than that recommended by the Board of Directors, they cannot increase the amount of the dividend. In India, dividends generally are declared as a percentage of the par value of a company's equity shares. The dividend recommended by the Board, if any, and subject to the limitations described above, is distributed and paid to shareholders in proportion to the paid up value of their shares within 30 days of the approval by the shareholders at the annual general meeting. Pursuant to our Articles of Association, our Board of Directors has discretion to declare and pay interim dividends without shareholder approval. Under the Indian Companies Act, 1956 read with the listing agreements entered into with Indian stock exchanges, dividends can only be paid in cash to the registered shareholder at a record date fixed on or prior to the annual general meeting or to his order or his banker's order.

The Companies Act provides that any dividends that remain unpaid or unclaimed after the 30-day period are to be transferred to a special bank account. We transfer any dividends that remain unclaimed for seven years from the date of the transfer to the Investor Education and Protection Fund created by the Indian Government. After the transfer to this fund, such unclaimed dividends can not be claimed.

Under the Companies Act, dividends may be paid out of profits of a company in the year in which the dividend is declared or out of the undistributed profits of previous fiscal years. Before declaring a dividend greater than 10% of the par value of its equity shares, a company is required under the Companies Act to transfer to its reserves a minimum percentage of its profits for that year, ranging from 2.5% to 10%, depending upon the dividend percentage to be declared in such year.

The Companies Act further provides that, in the event of an inadequacy or absence of profits in any year, a dividend may be declared for such year out of the company's accumulated profits, subject to the following conditions:

- the rate of dividend to be declared may not exceed 10% of its paid up capital or the average of the rate at which dividends were declared by the company in the prior five years, whichever is less;
- the total amount to be drawn from the accumulated profits earned in the previous years and transferred to the reserves may not exceed an amount equivalent to 10% of its paid up capital and free reserves, and the amount so drawn is to be used first to set off the losses incurred in the fiscal year before any dividends in respect of preference or equity shares are declared; and
- the balance of reserves after withdrawals shall not fall below 15% of its paid up capital.

Bonus Shares

In addition to permitting dividends to be paid out of current or retained earnings as described above, the Companies Act permits a company to distribute an amount transferred from the general reserve or other permitted reserves, including surplus in the company's profit and loss account, to its shareholders in the form of bonus shares (similar to a stock dividend). The Companies Act also permits the issuance of bonus shares from a share premium account. Bonus shares are distributed to shareholders in the proportion recommended by the Board of Directors. Shareholders on record on a fixed record date are entitled to receive such bonus shares.

Audit and Annual Report

At least 21 days before the Annual General Meeting of shareholders (excluding the day of mailing), we must distribute to our shareholders a detailed version of our audited balance sheet and profit and loss account and the related reports of our Board of Directors and the Auditors, together with a notice convening the general meeting. Under the Companies Act, a company must file the balance sheet and annual profit and loss account presented to the shareholders within 30 days of the conclusion of the Annual General Meeting with the Registrar of Companies.

A company must also file an annual return containing a list of the company's shareholders and other company information within 60 days of the conclusion of the meeting.

Consolidation and Subdivision of Shares

The Indian Companies Act permits a company to split or combine the par value of its shares, provided such split or combination is not made in fractions. Shareholders of record on a fixed record date are entitled to receive the split or combination.

Preemptive Rights, Issue of Additional Shares and Distribution of Rights

The Companies Act gives shareholders the right to subscribe for new shares in proportion to their respective existing shareholdings unless otherwise determined by a special resolution passed by a General Meeting of the shareholders. Under the Companies Act, in the event of an issuance of securities, subject to the limitations set forth above, a company must first offer the new shares to the shareholders on a fixed record date. The offer must include: (i) the right, exercisable by the shareholders of record, to renounce the shares offered in favor of any other person; and (ii) the number of shares offered and the period of the offer, which may not be less than 15 days from the date of offer. If the offer is not accepted, it is deemed to have been declined. The Board of Directors is authorized under the Companies Act to distribute any new shares not purchased by the preemptive rights holders in the manner that it deems most beneficial to the company. Holders of ADSs may not be permitted to participate in any such offer.

If we ever plan to distribute additional rights to purchase our equity shares, we will give prior written notice to the depositary bank and we will assist the depositary bank in determining whether it is lawful and reasonably practicable to distribute rights to purchase additional ADSs to holders.

The depositary bank will establish procedures to distribute rights to purchase additional ADSs to holders and to enable such holders to exercise such rights if it is lawful and reasonably practicable to make the rights available to holders of ADSs, subject to all of the documentation contemplated in the deposit agreement (such as opinions to address the lawfulness of the transaction). You may have to pay fees, expenses, taxes and other governmental charges to subscribe for the new ADSs upon the exercise of your rights. The depositary bank is not obligated to establish procedures to facilitate the distribution and exercise by holders of rights to purchase new equity shares directly, rather than new ADSs.

The depositary bank will not distribute the rights to you if:

- we do not timely request that the rights be distributed to you or we request that the rights not be distributed to you;
- we fail to deliver satisfactory documents to the depositary bank; or
- it is not reasonably practicable to distribute the rights.

The depositary bank will sell the rights that are not exercised or not distributed if such sale is lawful and reasonably practicable. The proceeds of such sale will be distributed to holders as in the case of a cash distribution. If the depositary bank is unable to sell the rights, it will allow the rights to lapse.

Voting Rights

At any General Meeting, voting is by show of hands unless a poll is demanded by a shareholder or shareholders present in person or by proxy holding at least 10% of the total shares entitled to vote on the resolution or by those holding shares with an aggregate paid up capital of at least Rs. 50,000. Upon a show of hands, every shareholder entitled to vote and present in person has one vote and, on a poll, every shareholder entitled to vote and present in person or by proxy has voting rights in proportion to the paid up capital held by such shareholders. The Chairman of the Board has a deciding vote in the case of any tie. Any shareholder of the company may appoint a proxy. The instrument appointing a proxy must be delivered to the company at least 48 hours prior to the meeting. A proxy may not vote except on a poll. A corporate shareholder may appoint an authorized representative who can vote on behalf of the shareholder, both upon a show of hands and upon a poll.

Ordinary resolutions may be passed by simple majority of those present and voting at any General Meeting for which the required period of notice has been given. However, certain resolutions such as amendments of the Articles and changes in certain clauses in the Memorandum of Association, commencement of a new line of business, the waiver of preemptive rights for the issuance of any new shares and a reduction of share capital, require that votes cast in favor of the resolution (whether by show of hands or poll) are not less than three times the number of votes, if any, cast against the resolution. As per the Companies Act, not less than two-third of the directors of a public company shall retire by rotation and be appointed by the shareholders in the general meeting.

Liquidation Rights

Subject to the rights of creditors, employees and the holders of any shares entitled by their terms to preferential repayment over the equity shares, if any, in the event of our winding-up, the holders of the equity shares are entitled to be repaid the amounts of paid up capital or credited as paid up on those equity shares. All surplus assets after payments to the holders of any preference shares at the commencement of the winding-up shall be paid to holders of equity shares in proportion to their shareholdings.

Preference Shares

Preference shares have preferential dividend and liquidation rights. Preference shares may be redeemed if they are fully paid, and only out of our profits, or out of the proceeds of the sale of shares issued for purposes of such redemption. Holders of preference shares do not have the right to vote at shareholder meetings, except on resolutions which directly affect the rights of their preference shares. However, holders of cumulative preference shares have the right to vote on every resolution at any meeting of the shareholders if the dividends due on the preference shares have not been paid, in whole or in part, for a period of at least two years prior to the date of the meeting. Currently, there are no preference shares issued and outstanding.

Redemption of Equity Shares

Under the Companies Act, unlike preference shares, equity shares are not redeemable.

Liability on Calls

Not applicable.

Discriminatory Provisions in Articles

There are no provisions in our Articles of Association discriminating against any existing or prospective holder of such securities as a result of such shareholder owning a substantial number of shares.

Alteration of Shareholder Rights

Under the Companies Act, the rights of any class of shareholders can be altered or varied with the consent in writing of the holder of not less than three-fourths of the issued shares of that class or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holders of the issued shares of that class if the provisions with respect to such variation is contained in the memorandum or articles of the company, or in the absence of any such provision in the memorandum or articles, if such variation is not prohibited by the terms of issue of the shares of that class.

Under the Companies Act, the Articles may be altered only by way of a special resolution.

Meetings of Shareholders

We must convene an annual general meeting of shareholders within six months after the end of each fiscal year and may convene an extraordinary general meeting of shareholders when necessary or at the request of a shareholder or shareholders holding at least 10% of our paid up capital carrying voting rights. The annual general meeting of the shareholders is generally convened by our Secretary pursuant to a resolution of our Board of Directors. Written notice setting out the agenda of the meeting must be given at least 21 days, excluding the days of mailing and date of the meeting, prior to the date of the general meeting to the shareholders of record.

Shareholders who are registered as shareholders on a pre-determined date are entitled to such notice or their proxies and have a right to attend or vote at such meeting. The annual general meeting of shareholders must be held at our registered office or at such other place within the city in which the registered office is located. Meetings other than the annual general meeting may be held at any other place if so determined by our Board of Directors. Our Articles of Association provide that a quorum for a general meeting is the presence of at least five shareholders in person.

Additionally, shareholder consent for certain items or special business is required to be obtained by a postal ballot. In order to obtain the shareholders' consent, our Board of Directors appoint a scrutinizer, who is not in our employment, who, in the opinion of the Board, can conduct the postal ballot voting process in a fair and transparent manner in accordance with the provisions of Companies (Passing of the Resolution by Postal Ballot) Rules, 2001.

Limitations on the Rights to Own Securities

The limitations on the rights to own securities, including the rights of non-resident or foreign shareholders to hold the securities, imposed by Indian law are discussed in Item 10 of this Annual Report, under the section titled "Currency Exchange Controls" and is incorporated herein by reference.

Voting Rights of Deposited Equity Shares Represented by ADSs

Under Indian law, voting of the equity shares is by show of hands unless a poll is demanded by a member or members present in person or by proxy holding at least 10% of the total shares entitled to vote on the resolution or by those holding an aggregate paid up capital of at least Rs. 50,000. A proxy may not vote except on a poll.

As soon as practicable after receipt of notice of any meetings or solicitation of consents or proxies of holders of shares or other deposited securities, our Depositary shall fix a record date for determining the holders entitled to give instructions for the exercise of voting rights. The Depositary shall then mail to the holders of ADSs a notice stating (a) such information as is contained in such notice of meeting and any solicitation materials, (b) that each holder on the record date set by the Depositary therefore will be entitled to instruct the Depositary as to the exercise of the voting rights, if any, pertaining to the deposited securities represented by the ADSs evidenced by such holders of ADRs, and (c) the manner in which such instruction may be given, including instructions to give discretionary proxy to a person designated by us.

On receipt of the aforesaid notice from the Depositary, our ADS holders may instruct the Depositary on how to exercise the voting rights for the shares that underlie their ADSs. For such instructions to be valid, the Depositary must receive them on or before a specified date.

The Depositary will try, as far as is practical, and subject to the provisions of Indian law and our Memorandum of Association and our Articles of Association, to vote or to have its agents vote the shares or other deposited securities as per our ADS holders' instructions. The Depositary will only vote or attempt to vote as per an ADS holder's instructions. The Depositary will not itself exercise any voting discretion.

Neither the Depositary nor its agents are responsible for any failure to carry out any voting instructions, for the manner in which any vote is cast, or for the effect of any vote. There is no guarantee that our shareholders will receive voting materials in time to instruct the Depositary to vote and it is possible that ADS holders, or persons who hold their ADSs through brokers, dealers or other third parties, will not have the opportunity to exercise a right to vote.

Register of Shareholders; Record Dates; Transfer of Shares

We maintain a register of shareholders. The register of shareholders in electronic form is maintained through the National Securities Depository Limited and the Central Depository Services (India) Ltd. For the purpose of determining the shares entitled to annual dividends, the register is closed for a specified period prior to the annual general meeting. The date on which this period begins is the record date. To determine which shareholders are entitled to specified shareholder rights, we may close the register of shareholders. The Companies Act requires us to give at least seven days' prior notice to the public before such closure. We may not close the register of shareholders for more than thirty consecutive days, and in no event for more than forty-five days in a year. Trading of our equity shares, however, may continue while the register of shareholders is closed.

Shares held through depositories are transferred in the form of book entries or in electronic form in accordance with the regulations laid down by SEBI. Transfers of beneficial ownership of shares held through a depository are exempt from stamp duty. Transfers of equity shares in book-entry form require both the seller and the purchaser of the equity shares to establish accounts with depository participants appointed by depositories established under the Depositories Act, 1996. Upon delivery, the equity shares shall be registered in the name of the relevant depository on our books and this depository shall enter the name of the investor in its records as the beneficial owner. The transfer of beneficial ownership shall be effected through the records of the depository. The beneficial owner shall be entitled to all rights and benefits and subject to all liabilities in respect of his securities held by a depository.

The requirement to hold the equity shares in book-entry form will apply to the ADS holders when the equity shares are withdrawn from the depository facility upon surrender of the ADSs. In order to trade the equity shares in the Indian market, the withdrawing ADS holder will be required to comply with the procedures described above.

Following the introduction of the Depositories Act, 1996, and the repeal of Section 22A of the Securities Contracts (Regulation) Act, 1956, which enabled companies to refuse to register transfers of shares in some circumstances, the equity shares of a public company are freely transferable, subject only to the provisions of Section 111A of the Companies Act. Since we are a public company, the provisions of Section 111A will apply to us. Our Articles of Association currently contain provisions which give our directors discretion to refuse to register a transfer of shares in some circumstances. Furthermore, in accordance with the provisions of Section 111A(2) of the Companies Act, our directors may refuse to register a transfer of shares if they have sufficient cause to do so. If our directors refuse to register a transfer of shares, the shareholder wishing to transfer his, her or its shares may file a civil suit or an appeal with the Company Law Board or National Company Law Tribunal.

Pursuant to Section 111A(3), if a transfer of shares contravenes any of the provisions of the Indian Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992, or the regulations issued thereunder, or the Indian Sick Industrial Companies (Special Provisions) Act, 1985, or any other Indian laws, the Company Law Board or National Company Law Tribunal may, on application made by the company, a depository incorporated in India, an investor, the Securities and Exchange Board of India or other parties, direct the rectification of the register of records. The Company Law Board or National Company Law Tribunal may, in its discretion, issue an interim order suspending the voting rights attached to the relevant shares before making or completing its investigation into the alleged contravention. Notwithstanding such investigation, the rights of a shareholder to transfer the shares will not be restricted.

Under the Companies Act, unless the shares of a company are held in a dematerialized form, a transfer of shares is effected by an instrument of transfer in the form prescribed by the Companies Act and the rules thereunder together with delivery of the share certificates. Our transfer agent for our equity shares is Karvy Computershare Pvt. Limited located in Bangalore, Karnataka, India.

Company Acquisition of Equity Shares

Under the Companies Act, approval of at least 75% of a company's shareholders voting on the matter and approval of the High Court or National Company Law Tribunal of the state in which the registered office of the company is situated is required to reduce a company's share capital. A company may, under some circumstances, acquire its own equity shares without seeking the approval of the High Court or National Company Law Tribunal. However, a company would have to extinguish the shares it has so acquired within the prescribed time period. A company is not permitted to acquire its own shares for treasury operations.

An acquisition by a company of its own shares that does not rely on an approval of the High Court/National Company Law Tribunal must comply with prescribed rules, regulations and conditions of the Companies Act. In addition, public companies which are listed on a recognized stock exchange in India must comply with the provisions of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Buy-back of Securities) Regulations, 1998, or Buy-back Regulations. Since we are a public company listed on two recognized stock exchanges in India, we would have to comply with the relevant provisions of the Companies Act and the provisions of the Buy-back Regulations.

Disclosure of Ownership Interest

Section 187C of the Indian Companies Act requires beneficial owners of shares of Indian companies who are not holders of record to declare to the company details of the beneficial owner. Any person who fails to make the required declaration within 30 days may be liable for a fine of up to Rs. 1,000 for each day the declaration is not made. Any lien, promissory note or other collateral agreement created, executed or entered into with respect to any share by the registered owner thereof, or any hypothecation by the registered owner of any share, pursuant to which a declaration is required to be made under Section 187C, shall not be enforceable by the beneficial owner or any person claiming through the beneficial owner if such declaration is not made. Failure to comply with Section 187C will not affect the obligation of the company to register a transfer of shares or to pay any dividends to the registered holder of any shares. While it is unclear under Indian law whether Section 187C applies to holders of ADSs of the company, investors who exchange ADSs for the underlying Equity Shares of the Company will be subject to the restrictions of Section 187C. Additionally, holders of ADSs may be required to comply with such notification and disclosure obligations pursuant to the provisions of the Depository Agreement to be entered into by such holders, the company and a depository.

Provisions on Changes in Capital

Our authorized capital can be altered by an ordinary resolution of the shareholders in a General Meeting. The additional issue of shares is subject to the preemptive rights of the shareholders and provisions governing the issue of additional shares are discussed in Item 10 of this Annual Report. In addition, a company may increase its share capital, consolidate its share capital into shares of larger face value than its existing shares or sub-divide its shares by reducing their par value, subject to an ordinary resolution of the shareholders in a General Meeting.

Takeover Code and Listing Agreements

Under the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Substantial Acquisition of Shares and Takeovers) Regulations, 1997, or Takeover Code, upon the acquisition of more than 5%, 10%, 14%, 54% or 74% of the outstanding shares or voting rights of a publicly-listed Indian company, a purchaser is required to notify the company and the company and the purchaser are required to notify all the stock exchanges on which the shares of such company are listed. An ADS holder would be subject to these notification requirements.

Upon the acquisition of 15% or more of such shares or voting rights, or a change in control of the company, the purchaser is required to make an open offer to the other shareholders, offering to purchase 20% of all the outstanding shares of the company or such number of shares that will result in the public shareholding not falling below the minimum public holding requirement, whichever is lower. Since we are a listed company in India, the provisions of the Takeover Code will apply to us. If an acquirer holding more than 15% but less than 55% of shares acquires 5% or more shares during a fiscal year, the acquirer is required to make a public announcement offering to purchase from the other shareholders at least 20% of all the outstanding shares of the company at a minimum offer price determined pursuant to the Takeover Code. Any further acquisition of outstanding shares or voting rights of a publicly listed company by an acquirer who holds more than 55% but less than 75% of shares or voting rights also requires the making of an open offer to acquire such number of shares as would not result in the public shareholding being reduced to below the minimum specified in the listing agreement. As per the amendment effective May 26, 2006, if a Company has made a public issue offering 10% capital to public in India or has obtained relaxation from SEBI, the above limits of 75% shall be read as 90% in such cases. Where the public shareholding in a target company may be reduced to a level below the limit specified in the listing agreement the acquirer may acquire such shares or voting rights only in accordance with guidelines or regulations regarding delisting of securities specified by the Securities and Exchange Board of India. In addition, no acquirer may acquire more than 55% of the outstanding shares or voting rights of a publicly listed company through market purchases or preferential allotments. Any such acquisition beyond 55% is required to be divested in a manner specified in the Takeover Code. Since we are a listed company in India, the provisions of the Takeover Code will apply to us and to any person acquiring our equity shares or voting rights in our company. However, the Takeover Code provides for a specific exemption from this provision to an ADS holder and states that this provision will apply to an ADS holder only once he or she converts the ADSs into the underlying equity shares.

An acquirer is required to disclose the aggregate of the pre and post acquisition of shareholding and voting rights of the acquirer to the target company when such acquisition aggregates to 5%, 10%, 14%, 54% and 74% of the voting rights. The creeping acquisition limits provided under SEBI (Substantial Acquisition of Shares and Takeovers) Regulations, 1997, have been changed to 5% with effect from October 1, 2002 in any fiscal year.

Although the provisions of the listing agreements entered into between us and the Indian Stock Exchanges on which our equity shares are listed will not apply to equity shares represented by ADSs, holders of ADSs may be required to comply with such notification and disclosure obligations pursuant to the provisions of the Depository Agreement to be entered into by such holders, our company and a depository.

The Takeover Code permits conditional offers as well as the acquisition and subsequent delisting of all shares of a company, and provides specific guidelines for the gradual acquisition of shares or voting rights. Specific obligations of the acquirer and the Board of Directors of a target company in the offer process have also been set out. Acquirers making a public offer are also required to deposit into an escrow account a percentage of the total consideration, which amount will be forfeited if the acquirer does not fulfill his obligations. In addition, the Takeover Code introduces the “chain principle” by which the acquisition of a holding company will obligate the acquirer to make a public offer to the shareholders of each listed subsidiary companies.

The general requirements to make such a public announcement do not, however, apply entirely to bail-out takeovers when a promoter is taking over a financial weak company, but not to a “sick industrial company” pursuant to a rehabilitation scheme approved by a public financial institution or a scheduled bank. A “financial weak company” is a company which has at the end of the previous financial year accumulated losses, which have resulted in the erosion of more than 50% but less than 100% of the total sum of its paid up capital and free reserves at the end of the previous financial year. A “sick industrial company” is a company registered for more than five years which has at the end of any financial year accumulated losses equal to or exceeding its entire net worth.

The Takeover Code does not apply to acquisitions involving the acquisition of shares, as follows;

- by allotment in a public/rights issue (subject to compliance with certain terms and conditions);
- pursuant to an underwriting agreement;
- by registered stockbrokers in the ordinary course of business on behalf of customers;
- in unlisted companies provided it does not result in an indirect acquisition of a listed entity;
- pursuant to a scheme of reconstruction or amalgamation;
- pursuant to a scheme under Section 18 of the Sick Industrial Companies (Special Provisions) Act, 1985; or;
- in terms of the guidelines or regulations regarding delisting of securities specified or framed by SEBI.

The Takeover Code does not apply to acquisitions in the ordinary course of business by public financial institutions either on their own account or as a pledge. The tender offer requirements under the Takeover Code do not apply to the acquisition of ADSs so long as such ADSs are not converted into equity shares. However, the acquisition of ADSs (irrespective of conversion into underlying equity shares) is subject to disclosure and reporting requirements under the Takeover Code.

A listed company can be delisted under the provisions of the SEBI (Delisting of Securities) Guidelines, 2003, which govern voluntary and compulsory delisting of shares of Indian companies from the stock exchanges.

Amendment to the SEBI (Delisting of Securities) Guidelines, 2003

In order to simplify the existing framework with respect to Compulsory Delisting and make it possible for stock exchanges to delist the Companies which are noncompliant with the provisions of Listing Agreement, it has been decided to amend the SEBI (Delisting Of Securities) Guidelines, 2003. The amendment seeks to ensure adequate and wide public notice of the fact of delisting and disclosure of the fair value through newspapers and notice boards/trading systems of the stock exchange upon delisting of a security. The amendment also seeks to determine the fair value of securities by persons appointed by the stock exchange out of a panel of experts, which shall also be selected by the stock exchange.

Minimum Level of public shareholding

In order to ensure availability of floating stock on a continuous basis and to bring about greater transparency in respect of disclosure of shareholding pattern of companies, SEBI vide its circular dated April 13, 2006, (as amended), has decided to bring in the following policy changes to the continuous listing requirements:

All listed companies, other than those mentioned hereunder, will be required to ensure minimum level of public shareholding at 25% of the total number of issued shares of a class or kind for the purpose of continuous listing:

- Companies which, at the time of initial listing, had offered less than 25% but not less than 10% of the total number of issued shares of a class or kind, in terms of Rule 19(2)(b) of Securities Contract (Regulation) Rules 1957 (SCRR) or companies desiring to list their shares by making an Initial Public Offering (IPO) of at least 10% in terms of Rule 19(2)(b) of SCRR.
- Companies which have, irrespective of the percentage of their shares with public at the time of initial listing, reached a size of 20 million or more in terms of number of listed shares and Rs. 10 billion or more in terms of market capitalization.

The companies at (a) and (b) above will be required to maintain the minimum level of public shareholding at 10% of the total number of issued shares of a class or kind for the purpose of continuous listing. The aforesaid requirement of maintaining minimum level of public shareholding on a continuous basis will not be applicable to government companies (as defined under Section 617 of the Companies Act, 1956), infrastructure companies (as defined under clause 1.2.1(xv) of the SEBI (DIP) Guidelines, 2000) and companies referred to the Board for Industrial and Financial Reconstruction.

The “public shareholding” for the purpose of continuous listing, will continue to comprise of shares held by entities other than promoters and promoter group. It shall include the shares held by custodians against which depository receipts are issued overseas. The terms “Promoter” and “Promoter group” shall have the same meaning as is assigned to them under the SEBI (Disclosure & Investor Protection) Guidelines, 2000.

Increasing the public shareholding to the minimum level

As of the date of this circular coming into force, there may be two categories of companies, viz., those which are non-compliant and those which may subsequently become non-compliant on account of factors such as compliance with directions of a court, tribunal, regulatory or statutory authority, compliance with SEBI (Substantial Acquisition of Shares and Takeovers) Regulations, 1997, re-organization of capital by way of a scheme of arrangement, etc.

SEBI decided to provide a transparent mechanism to such non-compliant companies for enabling them to graduate to the level of compliant companies. The mechanism for increasing the public shareholding to the minimum level will inter alia provide for various modes of issuing shares in domestic market and reasonable time period, as approved by Specified Stock Exchange. This disclosure requirement applies to Wipro and we are compliant with this regulation.

Material Contracts

We are a party to various employment arrangements and indemnification agreements with our directors and executive officers. See “Terms of Employment Arrangements and Indemnification Agreements” under Item 6 of this Annual Report for a further description of the employment arrangements and indemnification agreements that we have entered into with our directors and executive officers.

Currency Exchange Controls

Foreign Investments in India are governed by the provisions of Section 6 of the Foreign Exchange Management Act (FEMA) 1999 and are subject to the Regulations issued by the Reserve Bank of India under FEMA 1999. The Regulations have been published pursuant to Notification No. FEMA 20/2000-RB dated May 3, 2000. The Foreign Direct Investment Scheme under the Reserve Bank’s Automatic Route enables Indian Companies (other than those specifically excluded in the scheme) to issue shares to persons resident outside India without prior permission from the RBI, subject to certain conditions. General permission has been granted for the transfer of shares and convertible debentures by a person resident outside India as follows: (i) for transfers of shares or convertible debentures held by a person resident outside India other than NRI, to any person resident outside India, and (ii) NRIs are permitted to transfer shares or convertible debentures of Indian company to other NRIs.

A person resident outside India may transfer securities of an Indian company to a person resident in India by way of gift. However, where such transfer is not by way of gift, prior approval of the RBI is necessary only if certain prescribed conditions are not met. For transfer of existing shares or convertible debentures of an Indian company by a person resident in India to a person resident outside India by way of sale, the transferor shall make an application to Authorised Dealer for permission subject to certain conditions being met. In cases where such conditions are not met, approval of the Central Government and the Reserve Bank of India may be also required.

General

Shares of Indian companies represented by ADSs may be approved for issuance to foreign investors by the Government of India under the Issue of Foreign Currency Convertible Bonds and Equity Shares (through Depository Receipt Mechanism) Scheme, 1993, or the 1993 Regulation, as modified from time to time, promulgated by the Government of India. The 1993 Regulation is distinct from other policies or facilities, as described below, relating to investments in Indian companies by foreign investors. The issuance of ADSs pursuant to the 1993 Regulation also affords to holders of the ADSs the benefits of Section 115AC of the Indian Income Tax Act, 1961 for purposes of the application of Indian tax law.

The Reserve Bank of India, or RBI, has issued a notification directing that Indian companies may utilize up-to 100 percent of proceeds realized from the sale of ADSs for overseas investments.

In February 2002, the RBI issued a circular stating that the terms of Regulation 4A of the Reserve Bank of India Notification No. FEMA 20/2000-RB dated May 3, 2000, as amended by Notification No. FEMA 41/2001-RB dated March 2, 2001, allow a registered broker to purchase shares of an Indian company on behalf of a person resident outside of India for the purpose of converting those shares into ADSs/GDSs. However, such conversion is subject to compliance with the provisions of the Issue of Foreign Currency Convertible Bonds and Ordinary Shares (Through Depository Receipt Mechanism) Scheme 1993 and the periodic guidelines issued by the Central Government. This would mean that ADSs converted into Indian shares may be converted back into ADSs, subject to the limits of sectoral caps.

The Operative Guidelines for the limited two-way fungibility under the “Issue of Foreign Currency Convertible Bonds and Ordinary Shares” (Through Depository Receipt Mechanism) Scheme 1993 has also been approved by the Government of India.

These guidelines provide that a re-issuance of ADSs/GDSs is permitted to the extent of ADSs/GDSs, have been redeemed for underlying shares and sold in the domestic market. The re-issuance must be within the specified limits. The conditions to be satisfied in this regard are: (i) the shares are purchased on a recognized stock exchange; (ii) the Indian company has issued ADS/GDS, (iii) the shares are purchased with the permission of the custodian of the ADSs/GDSs of the Indian company and are deposited with the custodian; and (iv) the number of shares so purchased shall not exceed the number of ADSs/GDSs converted into underlying shares.

The procedure for conversion of shares into ADSs/GDSs is as follows: (i) on request by the overseas investor for the acquisition of shares for re-issuance of ADSs/GDSs, the SEBI registered broker will purchase shares from a stock exchange after verifying with the custodian as to the availability of “Head Room” (i.e., the number of ADSs/GDSs originally issued minus number of ADSs/GDSs outstanding further adjusted for ADSs/GDSs redeemed into underlying shares and registered in the name of the non-resident investor(s)); (ii) an Indian broker purchases the shares in the name of the overseas depository; (iii) after the purchase, the Indian broker places the domestic shares with the custodian; (iv) the custodian advises the overseas depository on the custody of domestic shares and to issue corresponding ADSs/GDSs to the investor; and (v) the overseas depository issues ADSs/GDSs to the investor.

Transfer of ADSs and Surrender of ADSs

A person resident outside India may transfer the ADSs held in Indian companies to another person resident outside India without any permission. A person resident in India is not permitted to hold ADSs of an Indian company, except in connection with the exercise of stock options. An ADS holder is permitted to surrender the ADSs held by him in an Indian company and to receive the underlying equity shares under the terms of the Deposit Agreement. Under Indian regulations, the re-deposit of these equity shares with the depository to ADSs may not be permitted.

Sponsored ADS

The amendment to the FEMA regulations permit an issuer in India to sponsor the issue of ADSs through an overseas depository against underlying equity shares accepted from holders of its equity shares in India for offering outside of India. The sponsored issue of ADSs was possible only if the following conditions are satisfied: There have been amendments to the Issue of Foreign Currency Convertible Bonds and Ordinary Shares (through Depository Receipt Mechanism), Scheme 1993 and primarily the amendments were on the Eligibility of Issuer, Eligibility of Subscriber, Pricing of the offerings, and Voting Rights.

- the price of the offering is determined by the managing underwriters of the offering;
- the ADS offering is approved by the FIPB;
- the ADS offering is approved by a special resolution of the shareholders of the issuer in a general meeting;
- the facility is made available to all the equity shareholders of the issuer;
- the proceeds of the offering are repatriated into India within one month of the closing of the offering;
- the sales of the existing equity shares are made in compliance with the Foreign Direct Investment Policy (as described above) in India;

- the number of shares offered by selling shareholders are subject to limits in proportion to the existing holdings of the selling shareholders when the offer is oversubscribed; and
- the offering expenses do not exceed 7% of the offering proceeds and are paid by shareholders on a pro-rata basis.

The issuer is also required to furnish a report to the RBI specifying the details of the offering, including the amount raised through the offering, the number of ADSs issued, the underlying shares offered and the percentage of equity in the issuer represented by the ADSs.

Conditions for issuance of ADS/GDS outside India by Indian Companies

Eligibility of issuer: An Indian Company, which is not eligible to raise funds from the Indian Capital Market including a company which has been restrained from accessing the securities market by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) will not be eligible to issue ADS/GDS apart from Foreign Currency Convertible Bonds.

Eligibility of subscriber: Erstwhile Overseas Corporate Bodies (OCBs) who are not eligible to invest in India through the portfolio route and entities prohibited to buy, sell or deal in securities by SEBI will not be eligible to subscribe to (i) Foreign Currency Convertible Bonds and (ii) ADS/GDS.

Pricing: The pricing of ADS/GDS and Foreign Currency Convertible Bonds issues should be made at a price not less than the higher of the following two averages:

- (i) The average of the weekly high and low of the closing prices of the related shares quoted on the stock exchange in India during the six months preceding the relevant date;
- (ii) The average of the weekly high and low of the closing prices of the related shares quoted on a stock exchange in India during the two weeks preceding the relevant date.

The “relevant date” means the date thirty days prior to the date on which the meeting of the general body of shareholders is held, in terms of section 81 (IA) of the Companies Act, 1956, to consider the proposed issue.

Foreign Direct Investment

In July 1991, the Government of India raised the limit on foreign equity holdings in Indian companies from 40% to 51% in certain high priority industries. The RBI gives automatic approval for such foreign equity holdings. The Foreign Investment Promotion Board, or FIPB, currently under the Ministry of Finance, was thereafter formed to facilitate companies to make long-term investments in India. Foreign equity participation in excess of 51% in such high priority industries or in any other industries up to Rs. 6 billion is currently allowed only with the approval of the FIPB. Proposals in excess of Rs. 6 billion require the approval of the Cabinet Committee on Foreign Investment. Proposals involving the public sector and other sensitive areas require the approval of Cabinet Committee on Economic Affairs. These facilities are designed for direct foreign investments by persons who are not residents of India who are not NRIs, or FIIs (as each term is defined below), or foreign direct investors. The Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion, a part of the Ministry of Industry, issued detailed guidelines in January 1998 for consideration of foreign direct investment proposals by the FIPB, or the Guidelines. Under the Guidelines, sector specific guidelines for foreign direct investment and the levels of permitted equity participation have been established. In March 2000, the RBI issued a notification that foreign ownership of up to 49%, 51%, 74% or 100%, depending on the category of industry, would be allowed without prior permission of the RBI. The issues to be considered by the FIPB, and the FIPB's areas of priority in granting approvals are also set out in the Guidelines. The basic objective of the Guidelines is to improve the transparency and objectivity of the FIPB's consideration of proposals. However, because the Guidelines are administrative guidelines and have not been codified as either law or regulations, they are not legally binding with respect to any recommendation made by the FIPB or with respect to any decision taken by the Government of India in cases involving foreign direct investment.

In May 1994, the Government of India announced that purchases by foreign investors of ADSs as evidenced by ADRs and foreign currency convertible bonds of Indian companies will be treated as direct foreign investment in the equity issued by Indian companies for such offerings. Therefore, offerings that involve the issuance of equity that results in Foreign Direct Investors holding more than the stipulated percentage of direct foreign investments (which depends on the category of industry) would require approval from the FIPB. In addition, in connection with offerings of any such securities to foreign investors, approval of the FIPB is required for Indian companies whether or not the stipulated percentage limit would be reached, if the proceeds therefrom are to be used for investment in non-high priority industries.

In July 1998, the Government of India issued guidelines to the effect that foreign investment in preferred shares will be considered as part of the share capital of a company and will be processed through the automatic RBI route or will require the approval of the FIPB, as the case may be. Investments in preferred shares are included as foreign direct investment for the purposes of sectoral caps on foreign equity, if such preferred shares carry a conversion option. If the preferred shares are structured without a conversion option, they would fall outside the foreign direct investment limit but would be treated as debt and would be subject to special Government of India guidelines and approvals.

Over a period of time, the Government of India has relaxed the restrictions on foreign investment. Subject to certain conditions, under current regulations, foreign direct investment in most industry sectors does not require prior approval of the FIPB or RBI, if the percentage of equity holding by all foreign investors does not exceed specified industry specific thresholds. Purchases by foreign investors of ADSs are treated as direct foreign investment in the equity issued by Indian companies for such offerings. Foreign investment up to 100% of company's share capital is currently permitted in the IT industry.

Subsequent Transfers

Restrictions for subsequent transfers of shares of Indian companies between residents and non-residents were relaxed significantly as of October 2004 in sectors other than the financial services sector. As a result, for a transfer between a resident and a non-resident of securities of an Indian in the IT sector, no prior approval of either the RBI or the Government of India is required, as long as certain conditions are met. These conditions include compliance, as applicable, with pricing guidelines and the ownership restrictions based on the nature of the foreign investor. Transfers of shares from residents to non-residents which trigger the provision of the Takeover Code require prior approval of the Government of India or the RBI. If a sale or purchase is conducted on a stock exchange at prevailing market prices, the pricing guidelines will be deemed satisfied. For off-market, negotiated transactions, the guidelines require a transaction price based on the prevailing market price.

Transfers between two non-residents are not subject to RBI approvals or compliance with pricing guidelines. However, for industries other than the IT sector, approval of the Government of India would be required if the transferee of shares have an existing venture in India in the same field, unless the existing venture is sick or defunct or the investment of the parties in the existing venture is less than 3%.

Investment by Non-Resident Indians

A variety of facilities for making investments in shares of Indian companies is available to individuals of Indian nationality or origin residing outside India, or NRIs. These facilities permit NRIs to make portfolio investments in shares and other securities of Indian companies on a basis that is not generally available to other foreign investors. A Non-Resident Indian (NRI) or a Person of Indian Origin (PIO) resident outside India may invest by way of contribution to the capital of a firm or a proprietary concern in India on a non-repatriation basis. These facilities are different and distinct from investments by Foreign Direct Investors described above. Indian companies are now allowed, without prior Government of India approval, to invest in joint ventures or wholly-owned subsidiaries outside India. The amount invested may not exceed two times the net worth of the company or its equivalent in a financial year. RBI no longer recognizes Overseas Corporate Bodies, or OCBs as an eligible class of investment vehicle under various routes and schemes under the foreign exchange regulations.

NRIs are permitted to make investments through a stock exchange, or Portfolio Investments on favorable tax and other terms under India's Portfolio Investment Scheme. Under the scheme, an NRI can purchase up to 5% of the paid up value of the shares issued by a company, subject to the condition that the aggregate paid up value of shares purchased by all NRIs does not exceed 10% of the paid up capital of the company. The 10% ceiling may be exceeded if a special resolution is passed in a general meeting of the shareholders of a company, subject to the overall ceiling of Foreign Direct Investment limit.

Investment By Foreign Institutional Investors

In September 1992, the Government of India issued guidelines which enable foreign institutional investors or FIIs, including institutions such as pension funds, investment trusts, asset management companies, nominee companies and incorporated/institutional portfolio managers, to invest in all the securities traded on the primary and secondary markets in India. Under the guidelines, FIIs are required to obtain an initial registration from the SEBI and a general permission from the RBI to engage in transactions regulated under FEMA. FIIs must also comply with the provisions of the SEBI Foreign Institutional Investors Regulations, 1995. When it receives the initial registration, the FII also obtains general permission from the RBI to engage in transactions regulated under FEMA. Together, the initial registration and the RBI's general permission enable the registered FII to buy (subject to the ownership restrictions discussed below) and sell freely tradable securities issued by Indian companies; realize capital gains on investments made through the initial amount invested in India; subscribe or renounce rights offerings for shares; appoint a domestic custodian for custody of investments held; and repatriate the capital, capital gains, dividends, income received by way of interest and any other compensation received towards the sale or renunciation of rights offerings of shares. As of December 2003, the RBI vide A.P. circulars No. 53 and 54 have permitted such registered FIIs or sub-accounts of FIIs as well as unincorporated entities abroad to buy or sell equity shares and debentures of Indian companies (excluding those in the print media sector), units of domestic mutual funds, dated Government Securities and Treasury Bills through stock exchanges in India at the ruling market price, invest or trade in exchange traded derivative contracts, and also to buy or sell shares and debentures etc. of listed and unlisted companies otherwise than on stock exchanges at a price approved by SEBI/ RBI as per the terms and conditions prescribed.

Ownership Restrictions

SEBI and RBI regulations restrict investments in Indian companies by FIIs and NRIs or collectively, Foreign Direct Investors. Under current SEBI regulations applicable to Wipro Limited, subject to the requisite approvals of the shareholders in a General Meeting, Foreign Direct Investors in aggregate may hold no more than 49% of a company's equity shares, excluding the equity shares underlying the ADSs. However, under Vide Notification No. FEMA.45/2001-RB dated September 20, 2001 under Foreign Exchange Management (Transfer or Issue of Security by a person resident outside India) Regulations, 2001, the limit of FII investment in a company has been linked to sectoral caps/statutory ceiling as applicable to the concerned industry subject to obtaining the approval of the shareholders by a special resolution. NRIs in aggregate may hold no more than 24% of a company's equity shares, (subject to obtaining the approval of the shareholders by a special resolution) excluding the equity shares underlying the ADSs. Furthermore, SEBI regulations provide that no single FII may hold more than 10% of a company's total equity shares and no single NRI may hold more than 5% of a company's total equity shares. There is uncertainty under Indian law about the tax regime applicable to FIIs which hold and trade ADSs. FIIs are urged to consult with their Indian legal and tax advisers about the relationship between the FII guidelines and the ADSs and any equity shares withdrawn upon surrender of ADSs.

More detailed provisions relating to FII investment have been introduced by the SEBI and RBI with the introduction of the SEBI Foreign Institutional Investors Regulations, 1995 and the RBI circulars in this regard. These provisions relate to the registration of FIIs, their general obligations and responsibilities, and certain investment conditions and restrictions. The SEBI registered FII shall restrict allocation of its total investment between equities and debt in the Indian capital market in the ratio of 70:30. The FII may form a 100% debt fund and get such fund registered with SEBI.

Registered FIIs may trade in all exchange traded derivative contracts on the stock exchanges in India subject to the position limits as prescribed by SEBI from time to time. The SEBI has also permitted private placements of shares by listed companies with FIIs, subject to the prior approval of the RBI under FEMA. Such private placement must be made at the average of the weekly highs and lows of the closing price over the preceding six months or the preceding two weeks, whichever is higher.

Open market purchases of securities of Indian companies in India by Foreign Direct Investors or investments by NRIs and FIIs above the ownership levels set forth above require Government of India approval on a case-by-case basis.

The Reserve Bank of India in circular No. 44 dated December 8, 2003 has imposed certain restrictions on OCBs in making any new investments as well as on the sale or transfer of shares held by them.

Government of India Approvals

Approval of the Foreign Investment Promotion Board, or FIPB, for foreign direct investment by ADS holders is required. Specific approval of the Reserve Bank of India, or RBI, will have to be obtained for:

- any renunciation of rights in the underlying equity shares in favor of a person resident in India; and
- the sale of the underlying equity shares by a person resident outside India to a person resident in India and vice versa if the prescribed conditions for such sale/purchase are not met.

In such cases, the foreign investor would have to apply to the Reserve Bank of India by submitting Form TS1, which requires information as to the transferor, the transferee, the shareholding structure of the company whose shares are to be sold, the proposed price and other information. The Reserve Bank of India is not required to respond to a Form TS1 application within any specific time period and may grant or deny the application at its discretion. Exceptions to this requirement of Reserve Bank of India approval include sales made in the stock market through a registered Indian broker, through a recognized stock exchange in India at the prevailing market rates, or if the shares are offered in accordance with the terms of an offer under the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Substantial Acquisition of Shares and Takeovers) Regulations, 1997. The proceeds from any sale of the underlying equity shares by a person resident outside India to a person resident in India may be transferred outside India after receipt of Reserve Bank of India approval (if required), and the payment of applicable taxes and stamp duties.

No approval is required for transfers of ADSs outside India between two non-residents. Any person resident outside India who desires to sell equity shares received upon surrender of ADSs or otherwise transfer such equity shares within India should seek the advice of Indian counsel as to the requirements applicable at that time.

Overseas investment - Liberalisation

- Regulation 6 of the Notification No. FEMA.120/RB-2004 dated July 7, 2004 read with Circular No. 42 dated May 12, 2005 in terms of which an Indian entity is permitted to invest upto 200 percent of their net worth in overseas Joint Ventures and/or Wholly Owned Subsidiaries (JV/WOS) in any bonafide business activity under automatic route. Accordingly, under the automatic route for overseas investment, eligible Indian companies are permitted to invest in overseas in JV/WOS upto 200 per cent of their net worth. It was further clarified by the Reserve Bank of India that the ceiling is not applicable to the investments made out of balances held in EEFC accounts and out of the proceeds of ADR /GDR issue, as hitherto. This enables Authorized Dealers to allow remittances under automatic route upto 200 percent of the net worth as on the date of the last audited balance sheet of the investing companies, after considering the proposals received in form ODA.
- With a view to grant more operational flexibility to the corporates in India it has been decided to further liberalise the various Regulations as under:
 - Presently, only promoter corporates are permitted to offer guarantees on behalf of their Wholly Owned Subsidiaries (WOSs) or Joint Ventures (JVs), under the Automatic Route and issue of personal, collateral and third party guarantees requires prior approval of Reserve Bank (RBI) and is considered by them, on a case by case basis.
 - With a view to simplify the procedure, RBI has decided to enlarge the scope of guarantees covered under the Automatic Route. Accordingly, Indian entities may offer any forms of guarantee - corporate or personal, primary or collateral, guarantee by the promoter company, guarantee by group company, sister concern or associate company in India, provided that :
 - All 'financial commitments' including all forms of guarantees are within the overall prescribed ceiling for overseas investment of the Indian party, for example, currently within 200% of the net worth of the investing company (Indian party),
 - No guarantee is open ended, for example, the amount of the guarantee should be specified upfront; and
 - As in the case of corporate guarantees, all guarantees are required to be reported to RBI, in Form ODR.

General Permission for disinvestment

Currently, in terms of Regulation 16 of Notification No. FEMA120/RB-2004 dated 7th July, 2004, all disinvestments that involve a 'write off' i.e., where the amount repatriated on disinvestment is less than the amount of the original investment can be made by the Company.

- in cases where the JV / WOS is listed in the overseas stock exchange.
- in cases where the Indian promoter company is listed on a stock exchange in India and has a networth of not less than Rs.1,000 million; or

- where the Indian promoter is an unlisted company and the investment in overseas venture does not exceed USD 10 million.

Taxation

The following summary is based on the law and practice of the Indian Income-tax Act, 1961, or Income-Tax Act, including the special tax regime contained in Sections 115AC and 115ACA of the Income-tax Act read with the Issue of Foreign Currency Convertible Bonds and Ordinary Shares (through Depository Receipt Mechanism) Scheme, 1993, as amended on, January 19, 2000, or the Issue of Foreign Currency Convertible bonds and Ordinary Shares Scheme. The Income-tax Act is amended every year by the Finance Act of the relevant year. Some or all of the tax consequences of Sections 115AC and 115ACA may be amended or changed by future amendments to the Income-tax Act.

We believe this information is materially complete as of the date hereof, however, this summary is not intended to constitute a complete analysis of the individual tax consequences to non-resident holders or employees under Indian law for the acquisition, ownership and sale of ADSs and equity shares.

Residence. For purposes of the Income-tax Act, an individual is considered to be a resident of India during any fiscal year if he or she is in India in that year for:

- a period or periods amounting to 182 days or more; or
- 60 days or more and, within the four preceding years has been in India for a period or periods amounting to 365 days or more.

The period of 60 days referred to above shall be read as 182 days (i) in case of a citizen of India who leaves India in a fiscal year for the purposes of employment outside of India or (ii) in case of a citizen of India or a person of Indian origin living abroad who visits India and within the four preceding years has been in India for a period or periods amounting to 365 days or more.

A company is a resident of India if it is incorporated in India or the control and the management of its affairs is situated wholly in India. Companies that are not residents of India would be treated as non-residents for purposes of the Income-tax Act.

Taxation of Distributions: As per Section 10(34) of the Income Tax Act, dividends paid by Indian Companies on or after April 1, 2003 to its shareholders (whether resident in India or not) are not subject to tax. However, the Company paying the dividend is subject to a dividend distribution tax of 12.50% on the total amount it distributes, declares or pays as a dividend, in addition to the normal corporate tax. Additionally, the Finance Act, 2006 levies a surcharge of 10% on such tax and an additional surcharge namely “education cess” of 2% on such tax and surcharge, after which the dividend distribution tax payable would be 14.03%.

Any distributions of additional ADSs or equity shares to resident or non- resident holders will not be subject to Indian tax.

Taxation of Capital Gains: The following is a brief summary of capital gains taxation of non-resident holders and resident employees in respect of the sale of ADSs and equity shares received upon redemption of ADSs. The relevant provisions are contained mainly in sections 45, 47(vii)(a), 115AC and 115ACA, of the Income Tax Act, in conjunction with the Issue of Foreign Currency Convertible Bonds and Ordinary Shares Scheme.

Gains realized upon the sale of ADSs or shares that have been held for a period of more than thirty-six months and twelve months, respectively, are considered long term capital gains. Gains realized upon the sale of ADSs or shares that have been held for a period of thirty six months or less and twelve months or less, respectively, are considered short term capital gains. Capital gains are taxed as follows:

- Gains from a sale of ADSs outside India, by a non-resident to another non-resident are not taxable in India.
- Long term capital gains realized by a resident employee from the transfer of the ADSs will be subject to tax at the rate of 10%. Short-term capital gains on such a transfer will be taxed at graduated rates with a maximum of 30%.
- Long-term capital gains realized by non-resident upon the sale of equity shares obtained through the redemption of ADSs, settlement of such sale being made off a recognized stock exchange, are subject to tax at a rate of 10%. Short-term capital gains on such transfer will be taxed at graduated rates with a maximum of 30%.

- Long-term capital gains realized by a non-resident upon the sale of equity shares obtained through the redemption of ADSs, settlement of such sale being made on a recognized stock exchange, is exempt from tax and the Short-term capital gains on such sale will be taxed at 10%. An additional tax called “Securities Transaction Tax”, or “STT” (described in detail below will be levied at the time of settlement.

In addition to the above rates, the Finance Act 2006 levies a surcharge of 10% on the above taxes, in the case of resident employees or the non-resident individuals, in case their aggregate taxable income exceed Rs. 10,00,000 during the relevant financial year and an additional surcharge called “education cess” of 2% on the above tax and surcharge.

The above rates may be reduced by the applicable tax treaty in case of non-residents. The capital gains tax is computed by applying the appropriate tax rates to the difference between the sale price and the purchase price of the equity shares or ADSs. Under the Issue of Foreign Currency Convertible Bonds and Ordinary Shares Scheme, the purchase price of equity shares in an Indian listed company received in exchange for ADSs will be the market price of the underlying shares on the date that the depository gives notice to the custodian of the delivery of the equity shares in exchange for the corresponding ADSs’ or the “stepped up” basis purchase price. The market price will be the price of the equity shares prevailing on The Stock Exchange, Mumbai or the National Stock Exchange. There is no corresponding provision under the Income Tax Act in relation to the “stepped up” basis for the purchase price of equity shares. However the tax department in India has not denied this benefit. In the event that the tax department denies this benefit, the original purchase price of ADSs would be considered the purchase price for computing the capital gains tax.

According to the Issue of Foreign Currency Convertible Bonds and Ordinary Shares Scheme, a non-resident holder’s holding period for the purposes of determining the applicable Indian capital gains tax rate in respect of equity shares received in exchange for ADSs commences on the date of the notice of the redemption by the depository to the custodian. However, the Issue of Foreign Currency Convertible Bonds and Ordinary Shares Scheme does not address this issue in the case of resident employees, and it is therefore unclear as to when the holding period for the purposes of determining capital gains tax commences for such a resident employee.

The Issue of Foreign Currency Convertible Bonds and Ordinary Shares Scheme provides that if the equity shares are sold on a recognized stock exchange in India against payment in Indian rupees, they will no longer be eligible for the preferential tax treatment.

It is unclear as to whether section 115AC and the Issue of Foreign Currency Convertible Bonds and Ordinary Shares Scheme are applicable to a non-resident who acquires equity shares outside India from a non-resident holder of equity shares after receipt of the equity shares upon redemption of the ADSs.

It is unclear as to whether capital gains derived from the sale of subscription rights or other rights by a non-resident holder not entitled to an exemption under a tax treaty will be subject to Indian capital gains tax. If such subscription rights or other rights are deemed by the Indian tax authorities to be situated within India, the gains realized on the sale of such subscription rights or other rights will be subject to Indian taxation. The capital gains realized on the sale of such subscription rights or other rights, which will generally be in the nature of short term capital gains, will be subject to tax at variable rates with a maximum rate of 40% in case of a foreign company and at graduated rate with a maximum of 30%, in case of resident employees and non-resident individuals. In addition to this, there will be a surcharge of 10% in the case of all corporate holders and in the case of non-corporate holders with an aggregate taxable income exceeding Rs. 10,00,000 and an additional surcharge called “education cess” of 2% on the above tax and surcharge.

As per Section 55(2) of the Income Tax Act, the cost of any share (commonly called a “bonus share”) allotted to any shareholder without any payment and on the basis of such shareholder’s share holdings, shall be nil. The holding period of bonus shares for the purpose of determining the nature of capital gains shall commence on the date of allotment of such shares by the company.

Securities Transaction Tax. The Finance Act, 2004 has introduced certain new provisions with regard to taxes on the sale and purchase of securities, including equity shares. On and after October 1, 2004, in respect of a sale and purchase of equity shares entered into on a recognized stock exchange, (i) both the buyer and seller are required to pay each a Securities Transaction Tax, or STT at the rate of 0.075% of the transaction value of the securities, if a transaction is a delivery based transaction i.e. the transaction involves actual delivery or transfer of shares; (ii) the seller of the shares is required to pay a STT at the rate of 0.015% of the transaction value of the securities, if the transaction is a non-delivery based transaction, i.e. a transaction settled without taking delivery of the shares. The Finance Act, 2005 has increased the rate STT, with effect from April 1, 2005, in respect of a sale and purchase of equity shares entered into on a recognized stock exchange, to 0.1% for delivery based transactions and 0.02% for non-delivery based transactions.

Withholding Tax on Capital Gains. Any gain realized by a non-resident or resident employee on the sale of equity shares is subject to Indian capital gains tax, which, in the case of a non-resident is to be withheld at the source by the buyer. However, as per the provisions of Section 196D(2) of the Income Tax Act, no withholding tax is required to be deducted by way of capital gains arising to Foreign Institutional Investors as defined in Section 115AD of the Income Tax Act on the transfer of securities defined in Section 115AD of the Income Tax Act.

Buy-back of Securities. Indian companies are not subject to any tax on the buy-back of their shares. However, the shareholders will be taxed on any resulting gains. Our company would be required to deduct tax at source according to the capital gains tax liability of a non-resident shareholder.

Stamp Duty and Transfer Tax. Upon issuance of the equity shares underlying our ADSs, companies will be required to pay a stamp duty of 0.1% per share of the issue price of the underlying equity shares. A transfer of ADSs is not subject to Indian stamp duty. However, upon the acquisition of equity shares from the depository in exchange for ADSs, the non-resident holder will be liable for Indian stamp duty at the rate of 0.25% of the market value of the ADSs or equity shares exchanged. A sale of equity shares by a non-resident holder will also be subject to Indian stamp duty at the rate of 0.25% of the market value of the equity shares on the trade date, although customarily such tax is borne by the transferee. Shares must be traded in dematerialized form. The transfer of shares in dematerialized form is currently not subject to stamp duty.

Wealth Tax. The holding of the ADSs and the holding of underlying equity shares by resident and non-resident holders will be exempt from Indian wealth tax. Non-resident holders are advised to consult their own tax advisors regarding this issue.

Gift Tax and Estate Duty. Indian gift tax was abolished as of October 1998. Indian Estate Duty was abolished as of March 1985. On and after September 1, 2004, a sum of money exceeding Rs. 25,000 (approx $ 570), received by a individual without consideration will be subject to tax at graduated rates with a maximum of 30% (excluding applicable surcharge and education cess), unless the same was received from a relative as defined in Explanation under Section 56(v), or on the occasion of the marriage of the Individual or under a will or by way of inheritance or in contemplation of death of the payer. The Taxation Laws Amendment Bill, 2005 introduced in the Parliament on May 12, 2005 proposes to levy the above tax in case the sum of money exceeds in aggregate Rs. 50,000 in a fiscal year. We cannot assure that these provisions will not be amended further in future. Non-resident holders are advised to consult their own tax advisors regarding this issue.

Service Tax. Brokerage or commission paid to stock brokers in connection with the sale or purchase of shares is subject to a service tax of 12% excluding surcharges and education cess. The stock broker is responsible for collecting the service tax from the shareholder and paying it to the relevant authority.

PROSPECTIVE PURCHASERS SHOULD CONSULT THEIR OWN TAX ADVISORS WITH RESPECT TO THE INDIAN AND THEIR LOCAL TAX CONSEQUENCES OF ACQUIRING, OWNING OR DISPOSING OF EQUITY SHARES OR ADSs.

Material United States Federal Tax Consequences

The following is a summary of the material U.S. federal income and estate tax consequences that may be relevant with respect to the acquisition, ownership and disposition of equity shares or ADSs and is for general information only.. This summary addresses the U.S. federal income and estate tax considerations of holders that are U.S. persons. U.S. persons are citizens or residents of the United States, or corporations (or entities treated as corporation for United States federal income tax purposes) created in or under the laws of the United States or any political subdivision thereof or therein, estates, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation regardless of its source and trusts for which a U.S. court exercises primary supervision and a U.S. person has the authority to control all substantial decisions. This summary is limited to U.S. persons who will hold equity shares or ADSs as capital assets..

This summary is limited to U.S. persons who will hold equity shares or ADSs as capital assets. In addition, this summary is limited to U.S. persons who are not residents in India for purposes of the Convention between the Government of the United States of America and the Government of the Republic of India for the avoidance of Double Taxation and the prevention of Fiscal Evasion with respect to taxes on income. If a partnership holds the equity shares or ADSs, the tax treatment of a partner will generally depend upon the status of the partner and upon the activities of the partnership. A partner in a partnership holding equity shares or ADSs should consult his/her/its own tax advisor.

This summary does not address tax considerations applicable to holders that may be subject to special tax rules, such as banks, insurance companies, financial institutions, dealers in securities or currencies, tax-exempt entities, persons that will hold equity shares or ADSs as a position in a “straddle” or as part of a “hedging” or “conversion” transaction for tax purposes, persons that have a “functional currency” other than the U.S. dollar or holders of 10% or more, by voting power or value, of the share of our company. This summary is based on the tax laws of the United States as in effect on the date of this document and on United States Treasury Regulations in effect or, in some cases, proposed, as of the date of this document, as well as judicial and administrative interpretations thereof available on or before such date and is based in part on the assumption that each obligation in the deposit agreement and any related agreement will be performed in accordance with its terms. All of the foregoing is subject to change, which change could apply retroactively and could affect the tax consequences described below.

Each prospective investor should consult his, her or its own tax advisor with respect to the U.S. federal, state, local and foreign tax consequences of acquiring, owning or disposing of equity shares or ADSs.

Ownership of ADSs. For U.S. federal income tax purposes, holders of ADSs will be treated as the owners of equity shares represented by such ADSs.

Dividends. Except for equity shares, if any, distributed pro rata to all shareholders of our company, including holders of ADSs, the gross amount of any distributions of cash or property with respect to equity shares or ADSs will generally be included in income by a U.S. holder as foreign source dividend income at the time of receipt, which in the case of a U.S. holder of ADSs generally should be the date of receipt by the depository, to the extent such distributions are made from the current or accumulated earnings and profits (as determined under U.S. federal income tax principles) of our company. Such dividends will not be eligible for the dividends received deduction generally allowed to corporate U.S. holders. To the extent, if any, that the amount of any distribution by our company exceeds our company’s current and accumulated earnings and profits as determined under U.S. federal income tax principles, such excesses will be treated first as a tax-free return of the U.S. holder’s tax basis in the equity shares or ADSs and thereafter as capital gain.

Subject to certain conditions and limitations, dividends paid to non-corporate U.S. holders, including individuals, may be eligible for a reduced rate of taxation if we are deemed to be a “qualified foreign corporation” for United States federal income tax purposes. A qualified foreign corporation includes a foreign corporation if (1) its shares (or, according to legislative history, its ADSs) are readily tradable on an established securities market in the United States or (2) it is eligible for the benefits under a comprehensive income tax treaty with the United States. In addition, a corporation is not a qualified foreign corporation if it is a passive foreign investment company (as discussed below). The ADSs are traded on the New York Stock Exchange. Due to the absence of specific statutory provisions addressing ADSs, however, there can be no assurance that we are qualified foreign corporation solely as a result of our listing on New York Stock Exchange. Nonetheless, we may be eligible for benefits under the comprehensive income tax treaty between India and the United States. The reduced rate of taxation will not apply to dividends received in taxable years beginning after December 31, 2010. Each US holder should consult its own tax advisor regarding the treatment of dividends and such holders’s eligibility for reduced rates of taxation.

Subject to certain conditions and limitations, any Indian dividend withholding tax imposed upon distributions paid to a U.S. holder should be eligible for credit against the U.S. holder’s federal income tax liability. Alternatively, a U.S. holder may claim a deduction for such amount, but only for a year in which a U.S. holder does not claim a credit with respect to any foreign income taxes. The overall limitation on foreign taxes eligible for credit is calculated separately with respect to specific classes of income. For this purpose, distributions on equity shares or ADSs will be income from sources outside the United States, and, for tax years beginning before January 1, 2007, will generally be “passive income”, or “financial services income”, and for tax years beginning after December 31, 2006, will generally be “passive category income” or “general category income” for purposes of computing the United States foreign tax credit allowable to a U.S. holder.

If dividends are paid in Indian rupees, the amount of the dividend distribution included in the income of a U.S. holder will be in the U.S. dollar value of the payments made in Indian rupees, determined at a spot exchange rate between Indian rupees and U.S. dollars applicable to the date such dividend is included in the income of the U.S. holder, regardless of whether the payment is in fact converted into U.S. dollars. Generally, gain or loss, if any, resulting from currency exchange fluctuations during the period from the date the dividend is paid to the date such payment is converted into U.S. dollars will be treated as U.S. source ordinary income or loss.

Sale or Exchange of Equity Shares or ADSs. A U.S. holder generally will recognize gain or loss on the sale or exchange of equity shares or ADSs equal to the difference between the amount realized on such sale or exchange and the U.S. holder’s tax basis in the equity shares or ADSs, as the case may be. Such gain or loss will be capital gain or loss, and will be long-term capital gain or loss if the equity shares or ADSs, as the case may be, were held for more than one year. Gain or loss, if any, recognized by a U.S. holder generally will be treated as U.S. source passive income or loss for U.S. foreign tax credit purposes. Capital gains realised by a U.S. holder upon sale of equity shares (but not ADSs) may be subject to certain tax in India. See taxation - “Taxation of Distributions - Taxation of Capital Gain”. Due to limitations on foreign tax credits, however, a U.S. holder may not be able to utilise any such taxes as a credit against the U.S. holder’s federal income tax liability Estate Taxes. An individual shareholder who is a citizen or resident of the United States for U.S. federal estate tax purposes will have the value of the equity shares or ADSs held by such holder included in his or her gross estate for U.S. federal estate tax purposes. An individual holder who actually pays Indian estate tax with respect to the equity shares will, however, be entitled to credit the amount of such tax against his or her U.S. federal estate tax liability, subject to a number of conditions and limitations.

Backup Withholding Tax and Information Reporting. Any dividends paid, or proceeds on a sale of, equity shares or ADSs to or by a U.S. holder may be subject to U.S. information reporting, and a backup withholding tax (currently at a rate of 28%) may apply unless the holder is an exempt recipient or provides a U.S. taxpayer identification number, certifies that such holder is not subject to backup withholding and otherwise complies with any applicable backup withholding requirements. Any amount withheld under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a refund or credit against the holder’s U.S. federal income tax, provided that the required information is furnished to the Internal Revenue Service.

Passive Foreign Investment Company. A non-U.S. corporation will be classified as a passive foreign investment company for U.S. Federal income tax purposes if either:

- 75% or more of its gross income for the taxable year is passive income; or
- on average for the taxable year by value, or, if it is not a publicly traded corporation and so elects, by adjusted basis, if 50% or more of its assets produce or are held for the production of passive income.

We do not believe that we satisfy either of the tests for passive foreign investment company status for 2005. Since this determination is made on an annual basis, however, no assurance can be given that we will not be considered a passive foreign investment company in future taxable years. If we were to be a passive foreign investment company for any taxable year, U.S. holders would be required to either:

- pay an interest charge together with tax calculated at an ordinary income rates on “excess distributions,” as the term is defined in relevant provisions of U.S. tax laws, and on any gain on a sale or other disposition of equity shares;
- if an election is made, a “qualified electing fund” (as the term is defined in relevant provisions of the U.S. tax laws), include in their taxable income their pro rata share of undistributed amounts of our income; or
- if the equity shares are “marketable” and a mark-to-market election is made, mark-to-market the equity shares each taxable year and recognize ordinary gain and, to the extent of prior ordinary gain, ordinary loss for the increase or decrease in market value for such taxable year.

If we are treated as a passive foreign investment company, we do not plan to provide information necessary for the ‘qualified electing fund’ election.

The above summary is not intended to constitute a complete analysis of all tax consequences relating to ownership of equity shares or ADSs. You should consult your own tax advisor concerning the tax consequences of your particular situation.

Item 11. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

General

Market risk is the risk of loss of future earnings, to fair values or to future cash flows that may result from a change in the price of a financial instrument. The value of a financial instrument may change as a result of changes in the interest rates, foreign currency exchange rates, commodity prices, equity prices and other market changes that affect market risk sensitive instruments. Market risk is attributable to all market risk sensitive financial instruments including foreign currency receivables and payables and long-term debt.

Our exposure to market risk is a function of our investment and borrowing activities and our revenue generating activities in foreign currency. The objective of market risk management is to avoid excessive exposure of our earnings and equity to loss. Most of our exposure to market risk arises out of our foreign currency account receivables.

Risk Management Procedures

We manage market risk through a corporate treasury department, which evaluates and exercises independent control over the entire process of market risk management. Our corporate treasury department recommends risk management objectives and policies which are approved by senior management and our Audit Committee. The activities of this department include management of cash resources, implementing hedging strategies for foreign currency exposures, borrowing strategies, and ensuring compliance with market risk limits and policies on a daily basis.

Components of Market Risk

Our exposure to market risk arises principally from exchange rate risk. Interest rate risk is the other component of our market risk.

Exchange rate risk. Our exchange rate risk primarily arises from our foreign exchange revenue, receivables, forecasted cash flows, payables and foreign currency debt. A significant portion of our revenue is in U.S. dollars while a significant portion of our costs are in Indian rupees. The exchange rate between the rupee and dollar has fluctuated significantly in recent years and may continue to fluctuate in the future. Appreciation of the rupee against the dollar can adversely affect our results of operations.

We evaluate our exchange rate exposure arising from these transactions and enter into foreign currency forward contracts to mitigate such exposure. We follow established risk management policies, including the use of derivatives like forward foreign exchange contracts to hedge forecasted cash flows denominated in foreign currency. As of March 31, 2005, we had forward contracts to sell amounting to $856 million and £11 million. As of March 31, 2006, we had forward contracts to sell amounting to $592 million and £4 million.

In connection with cash flow hedges, the Company has recorded Rs. 114, and Rs. 202 of net gains/(losses) as a component of accumulated and other comprehensive income within stockholders' equity as at March 31, 2005 and March 31, 2006.

Sensitivity analysis of exchange rate risk

As at March 31, 2006, a Re.1 increase /decrease in the spot rate for exchange of Indian Rupee with U.S. dollar would result in approximately Rs. 600 million decrease/increase in the fair value of the company's forward contracts.

Interest rate risk. Our interest rate risk primarily arises from our investment securities. Our investments are primarily in short-term investments, which do not expose us to significant interest rate risk.

Fair value. The fair value of our market rate risk sensitive instruments, other than forward contracts and option contracts, closely approximates their carrying value.

Item 12. Description of Securities Other Than Equity Securities

Item 13. Defaults, Dividend Arrearages and Delinquencies

Not applicable.

Item 14. Material Modifications to the Rights of Security Holders and Use of Proceeds

Not Applicable

Item 15. Controls and Procedures

Evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures.

Based on their evaluation as of March 31, 2006, our principal executive officer and principal financial officer have concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures as defined in Rules 13a-15 and 15d-15 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, or the Exchange Act, are effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in Securities and Exchange Commission rules and forms and that material information related to us and our consolidated subsidiaries is accumulated and communicated to management, including the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, as appropriate to allow timely decisions about required disclosures.

Change in internal controls.

During the period covered by this Annual Report, there were no changes in our internal control over financial reporting that have materially affected or are reasonably likely to materially affect our internal control over financial reporting.

Item 16 A. Audit Committee Financial Expert

The Audit Committee is responsible for reviewing reports of our financial results, audits, internal controls, and compliance with federal procurement laws and regulations. The committee selects the independent registered public accounting firm and approves all related fees and compensation and reviews their selection with the Board of Directors. The committee also reviews the procedures of the independent registered public accounting firm to ensure their independence with respect to the services performed for the Company.

Members of the committee are non-management directors who, in the opinion of the Board, are independent as defined under the applicable rules of the New York Stock Exchange. The Board has determined that Mr. Narayan Vaghul qualifies as an Audit Committee Financial Expert as defined by the applicable rules of the SEC.

Item 16 B. Code of Ethics

Our Audit Committee has adopted a written Code of Ethics, as defined in Item 406 of Regulation S-K, applicable to our principal executive officer, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer and all officers working in our finance, accounting, treasury, internal audit, tax, legal, purchase, financial analyst, investor relations functions, disclosure committee members, and senior management, as well as members of the Audit Committee and the board of directors. Our Code of Ethics is available under the investor relations section on our website at www.wipro.com. We will post any amendments to, or waivers from, our Code of Ethics at that location on our website.

Our Audit Committee has also adopted an Ombudsprocess policy wherein it has established procedures for receiving, retaining and treating complaints received, and procedures for the confidential, anonymous submission by employees of complaints regarding questionable accounting or auditing matters, conduct which results in a violation of law by Wipro or in a substantial mismanagement of company resources. Under this policy, our employees are encouraged to report questionable accounting matters, any reporting of fraudulent financial information to our shareholders, the government or the financial markets any conduct that results in a violation of law by Wipro to our management (on an anonymous basis, if employees so desire). Likewise, under this policy, we have prohibited discrimination, retaliation or harassment of any kind against any employee who, based on the employee's reasonable belief that such conduct or practices have occurred or are occurring, reports that information or participates in an investigation. Our Ombudsprocess policy is available under the investor relations section on our website at www.wipro.com.

We have also adopted a Code of Business Conduct and Ethics, applicable to all officers, directors and employees. Our Code of Business Conduct and Ethics is available under the investor relations section on our website at www.wipro.com.

Item 16 C. Principal Accountant Fees and Services

Our Audit Committee charter requires us to obtain the prior approval of our audit committee on every occasion that we engage our principal accountants or their associated entities and on every occasion that they provide us with any non-audit services. At the beginning of each year, the Audit Committee reviews the proposed services, including the nature, type and scope of services contemplated and approves the related fees, to be rendered by these firms during the year. In addition, Audit Committee pre-approval is also required for those engagements that may arise during the course of the year that are outside the scope of the initial services and fees pre-approved by the Audit Committee.

	In millions
	Year ended March 31,
	2005	2006
Audit fees	Rs. 11.00	Rs. 17.67

Total	Rs. 38.50	Rs. 39.98

Description of Non-Audit Services

Audit related fees - advice related to the Company's preparation for compliance with Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002.

Tax Fees—comprise fees for tax compliance and tax planning services rendered by the independent registered public accounting firm. These services include tax services for employees on assignment and other corporate tax services like assistance with foreign income tax, value added tax, transfer pricing study, Government sales tax and equivalent tax matters in local jurisdictions and assistance with local tax authority reporting requirements for tax compliance purposes.

Our Audit Committee charter requires us to take the prior approval of our Audit Committee on every occasion we engage our principal accountants or their associated entities to provide us any non-audit services. We disclose to our Audit Committee the nature of services that are provided and the fees to be paid for the services. All of the non-audit services provided by our principal accountants or their associated entities in the previous two fiscal years have been pre-approved by our Audit Committee.

Item 16 D. Exemptions from the Listing Standards for Audit Committees

We have not sought any exemption from the listing standards for Audit Committees applicable to us as foreign private issuer, pursuant to Rule 10(A)-3(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

Item 16 E. Purchase of Equity Securities by the Issuer and Affiliated Purchasers

None.

REPORT OF MANAGEMENT

Management of Wipro is responsible for the integrity and objectivity of the consolidated financial statements and related notes. The consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) and include amounts based on judgments and estimates by management. Management is also responsible for the accuracy of the related data in the annual report and its consistency with the financial statements.

Management maintains internal control systems designed to provide reasonable assurance that assets are safeguarded, transactions are executed in accordance with management's authorization and properly recorded, and accounting records are adequate for preparation of financial statements and other financial information. These are reviewed at regular intervals to ascertain their adequacy and effectiveness.

In addition to the system of internal controls, the Company has articulated its vision and core values which permeate all its activities. It also has corporate policies to ensure highest standards of integrity in all business transactions, eliminate possible conflicts of interest, ensure compliance with laws, and protect confidentiality of proprietary information. These are reviewed at periodic intervals.

The consolidated financial statements have been audited by the Company's independent registered public accounting firm, KPMG. Their responsibility is to audit these statements in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States) and express their opinion on the fairness of presentation of the statements.

The Audit Committee of the board comprising entirely of independent directors conducts an ongoing appraisal of the independence and performance of the Company's internal and external auditors and monitors the integrity of Company's financial statements. The Audit Committee meets several times during the year with management, internal auditors and the independent registered public accounting firm to discuss audit activities, internal controls and financial reporting matters.

REPORT OF THE INDEPENDENT REGISTERED PUBLIC ACCOUNTING FIRM

Wipro Limited

We have audited the accompanying consolidated balance sheets of Wipro Limited and subsidiaries as of March 31, 2006 and 2005, and the related consolidated statements of income, stockholders' equity and comprehensive income, and cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended March 31, 2006. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits.

We conducted our audits in accordance with the standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audits provide a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Wipro Limited and subsidiaries as of March 31, 2006 and 2005, and the results of their operations and their cash flows for each of the years in the three-year period ended March 31, 2006, in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles.

WIPRO LIMITED AND SUBSIDIARIES
NOTES TO THE CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1. Overview

Wipro Limited (Wipro), together with its subsidiaries Wipro Inc., Wipro Holdings (Mauritius) Limited, Wipro Chandrika Limited, Wipro Travel Services Limited, Wipro Trademarks Holdings Limited, Wipro Japan KK, Wipro Infrastructure Engineering Limited (formerly known as Wipro Fluid Power Limited), Wipro Healthcare IT Limited, Spectramind Inc., Wipro Consumer Care Limited, Wipro Shanghai Limited and affiliates WeP Peripherals Limited and Wipro GE Medical Systems Limited (collectively, referred to as the Company) is a leading India based provider of IT Services and Products, including Business Process Outsourcing (BPO) services, globally. Further, Wipro has other businesses such as India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products and Consumer Care and Lighting. Wipro is headquartered in Bangalore, India.

2. Significant Accounting Policies

The preparation of consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP) requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, revenues and expenses and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Basis of preparation of financial statements. The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. GAAP.

Functional currency and exchange rate translation. The functional currency of Wipro and its foreign subsidiaries is predominantly the Indian rupee. For certain foreign subsidiaries, the functional currency is their local currency. The translation of the functional currency of these foreign subsidiaries into Indian rupee is performed for balance sheet accounts using the exchange rate in effect at the balance sheet date and for revenue and expense accounts using an appropriate monthly weighted-average exchange rate for the respective periods. The gains or losses resulting from such translation are reported as a separate component of stockholders' equity.

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency at the rates of exchange prevailing on the date of respective transactions. Monetary assets and liabilities in foreign currency are translated into functional currency at the exchange rates prevailing on the balance sheet date. The resulting exchange gains/(losses) are included in the statement of income.

Convenience translation. The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been reported in Indian rupees, the national currency of India. Solely for the convenience of the readers, the financial statements as of and for the year ended March 31, 2006, have been translated into US dollars at the noon buying rate in New York City on March 31, 2006, for cable transfers in Indian rupees, as certified for customs purposes by the Federal Reserve Bank of New York of $ 1 = Rs. 44.48. No representation is made that the Indian rupee amounts have been or could have been or could be converted into United States dollars at such a rate or any other rate.

Principles of consolidation. The consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of Wipro and all of its subsidiaries, which are more than 50% owned and controlled. All inter-company accounts and transactions are eliminated on consolidation. The Company accounts for investments by the equity method where its investment in the voting stock gives it the ability to exercise significant influence over the investee.

Cash equivalents. The Company considers investments in highly liquid investments with remaining maturities, at the date of purchase/investment, of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Revenue recognition. Revenue from services, as rendered, are recognized when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, the sales price is fixed or determinable and collectibility is reasonably assured. Revenues from software development and related services comprise revenues from time-and-material and fixed-price contracts. Revenue on time-and-material contracts is recognized as the related services are performed. Revenue from fixed-price, fixed-time frame contracts is recognized in accordance with the percentage of completion method. Guidance has been drawn from the Accounting Standards Executive Committee's conclusion in paragraph 95 of Statement of Position (SOP) 97-2, Software Revenue Recognition, to account for revenue from fixed price arrangements for software development and related services in conformity with SOP 81-1, Accounting for Performance of Construction-Type and Certain Production-Type Contracts. The input (cost expended) method has been used to measure progress towards completion as there is a direct relationship between input and productivity. Provisions for estimated losses on contracts-in-progress are recorded in the period in which such losses become probable based on the current contract estimates. Maintenance revenue is deferred and recognized ratably over the term of the agreement. Revenue from customer training, support and other services is recognized as the related service is performed.

Revenue from sale of products is recognized when persuasive evidence of an arrangement exists, the product has been delivered, in accordance with sales contract, the sales price is fixed or determinable and collectibility is reasonably assured.

The Company has adopted the guidance in EITF Issue No. 00-21 for all revenue arrangements with multiple deliverables.

Based on this guidance, the Company recognizes revenues on the delivered products or services only if:

- The revenue recognition criteria applicable to the unit of accounting is met;
- The delivered element has value to the customer on a standalone basis. The delivered unit will have value on a standalone basis if it is being sold separately by other vendors or the customer could resell the deliverable on a standalone basis;
- There is objective and reliable evidence of the fair value of the undelivered item(s); and
- If the arrangement includes a general right of return relative to the delivered item, delivery or performance of the undelivered item(s) is considered probable and substantially in control of the Company.

The arrangement consideration is allocated to the units of accounting based on their fair values. The revenue recognized for the delivered items is limited to the amount that is not contingent upon the delivery or performance of the undelivered items.

In certain cases, the application of the contingent revenue provisions of EITF Issue No. 00-21 could result in recognizing a loss on the delivered element. In such cases, the cost recognized is limited to the amount of non-contingent revenues recognized and the balance costs are recorded as an asset and are reviewed for impairment based on the estimated net cash flows to be received for future deliverables under the contract. These costs are subsequently recognized on recognition of the revenue allocable to the balance deliverables.

Revenues from BPO Services are derived from both time-based and unit-priced contracts. Revenue is recognized as the related services are performed, in accordance with the specific terms of the contract with the customers.

Revenues are shown net of excise duty, sales tax, value added tax, service tax and applicable discounts and allowances.

When the Company receives advance payments from customers for sale of products or provision of services, such payments are reported as advances from customers until all conditions for revenue recognition are met.

Warranty costs. The Company accrues the estimated cost of warranties at the time when the revenue is recognized. The accruals are based on the Company's historical experience of material usage and service delivery costs.

Shipping and handling costs. Shipping and handling costs are included in selling and marketing expenses.

Inventories. Inventories are stated at the lower of cost and market value. Cost is determined using the weighted-average method for all categories of inventories.

Investment securities. The Company classifies its debt and equity securities in one of the three categories: trading, held-to-maturity or available-for-sale, at the time of purchase and re-evaluates such classifications as of each balance sheet date. Trading and available-for-sale securities are recorded at fair value. Held-to-maturity securities are recorded at amortized cost, adjusted for the amortization or accretion of premiums or discounts. Unrealized holding gains and losses on trading securities are included in income. Temporary unrealized holding gains and losses, net of the related tax effect, on available-for-sale securities are excluded from income and are reported as a part of other comprehensive income in stockholders' equity until realized. Realized gains and losses from the sale of trading and available-for-sale securities are determined on a first-in-first out basis and are included in income. A decline in the fair value of any available-for-sale or held-to-maturity security below cost that is deemed to be other than temporary results in a reduction in carrying amount to fair value with a charge to the income statement. Fair value for mutual fund units is based on published per unit value, which is the basis for current transactions. Non-readily marketable equity securities for which there is no readily determinable fair value are recorded at cost, subject to an impairment charge to the income statement for any other than temporary decline in value.

Investments in affiliates. The Company's equity in the earnings/(losses) of affiliates is included in the statement of income and the Company's share of net assets of affiliates is included in the balance sheet.

Shares issued by subsidiary/affiliate. The issuance of stock by a subsidiary/affiliate to third parties reduces the proportionate ownership interest in the investee. Unless the issuance of such stock is part of a broader corporate reorganization or unless realization is not assured, the Company recognizes a gain or loss, equal to the difference between the issuance price per share and the Company's carrying amount per share. Such gain or loss is recognized in the statement of income when the transaction occurs.

Property, plant and equipment. Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost. The Company depreciates property, plant and equipment over the estimated useful life using the straight-line method. Assets under capital lease are amortized over their estimated useful life or the lease term, as appropriate. The estimated useful lives of assets are as follows:

Plant and machinery	2 to 20 years
Furniture, fixtures and equipment.	5 years
Vehicles.	4 years
Computer software	2 years

Software for internal use is primarily acquired from third-party vendors and is in ready to use condition. Costs for acquiring this software are capitalized and subsequent costs are charged to the statement of income. The capitalized costs are amortized on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of the software.

Deposits paid towards the acquisition of property, plant and equipment outstanding as of each balance sheet date and the cost of property, plant and equipment not ready for use before such date are disclosed under capital work-in-progress. The interest cost incurred for funding an asset during its construction period is capitalized based on the actual investment in the asset and the average cost of funds. The capitalized interest is included in the cost of the relevant asset and is depreciated over the estimated useful life of the asset.

Business combinations, goodwill and intangible assets. In accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 141, Business Combinations, the Company uses the purchase method of accounting for all business combinations. Intangible assets acquired in a business combination are recognized and reported apart from goodwill if they meet the criteria specified in SFAS No. 141. Any purchase price allocated to an assembled workforce is not accounted separately.

In accordance with SFAS No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, all assets and liabilities of the acquired business including goodwill are assigned to the reporting units.

The Company does not amortize goodwill but instead tests goodwill for impairment at least annually, using a two step impairment process.

The fair value of the reporting unit is first compared to its carrying value. The fair value of reporting units is determined using the income approach based on measurement techniques such as discounted flow analyses. If the fair value of the reporting unit exceeds the carrying value of the net assets to that unit, goodwill is not impaired. If the carrying value of the net assets assigned to the reporting unit exceeds the fair value of the reporting unit, then the implied fair value of the reporting unit's goodwill is compared with the carrying value of the reporting unit's goodwill. The implied fair value of goodwill is determined in the same manner as the amount of goodwill recognized in a business combination. If the carrying value of a reporting unit's goodwill exceeds its implied fair value, then an impairment loss to the difference is recorded.

Intangible assets acquired individually, with a group of other assets or in a business combination are carried at cost less accumulated amortization. The intangible assets are amortized over their estimated useful lives in proportion to the economic benefits consumed in each period. The estimated useful lives of the intangible assets are as follows:

Technology-based intangibles	5 years
Customer-related intangibles.	2 to 5 years
Marketing-related intangibles	2 to 25 years

Start-up costs. Cost of start-up activities including organization costs are expensed as incurred.

Research and development. Revenue expenditure on research and development is expensed as incurred. Capital expenditure incurred on equipment and facilities that are acquired or constructed for research and development activities and having alternative future uses, is capitalized as tangible assets when acquired or constructed. Software product development costs are expensed as incurred until technological feasibility is achieved.

Impairment or disposal of long-lived assets. Long-lived assets to be held and used are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of such assets may not be recoverable. Such assets are considered to be impaired if the carrying amount of the assets is higher than the future undiscounted net cash flows expected to be generated from the assets. The impairment amount to be recognized is measured by the amount by which the carrying value of the assets exceeds its fair value.

Earnings per share. In accordance with SFAS No. 128, Earnings Per Share, basic earnings per share is computed using the weighted-average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per share is computed using the weighted-average number of common and dilutive common equivalent shares outstanding during the period, using the treasury stock method for options and warrants, except where the results would be anti-dilutive.

Income taxes. Income taxes are accounted for using the asset and liability method. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts of existing assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases and operating loss carry-forwards. Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured using enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled. The effect on deferred tax assets and liabilities of a change in tax rates is recognized in income in the period that includes the enactment date. The deferred tax asset is reduced by a valuation allowance if it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the asset will not be realized.

Stock-based compensation. The Company uses the intrinsic value based method of APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, to account for its employee stock based compensation plans. For fixed awards that vest on a pro-rata basis, the Company recognizes compensation cost on a straight-line basis.

The Company has adopted the pro-forma disclosure provisions of SFAS No. 123, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation as amended by SFAS No. 148, Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation – Transition and Disclosure, an amendment of SFAS No. 123.

Had compensation cost been determined in a manner consistent with the fair value approach described in SFAS No. 123, the Company's net income and earnings per share as reported would have been reduced to the pro-forma amounts indicated below:

	Year ended March 31,
	2004	2005	2006
Net income, as reported	Rs. 9,992.04	Rs. 15,832.75	Rs. 20,269.97
Add: Stock-based employee compensation expense included in reported net income, net of tax effects	44.87	353.86	619.43
Less: Stock-based employee compensation expense determined under fair value based method, net of tax effects	(2,124.47)	(1,598.10)	(1,190.50)
Pro-forma net income	Rs. 7,912.44	Rs. 14,588.51	Rs. 19,698.90
Earnings per share: Basic
As reported	7.20	11.38	14.41
Pro-forma	5.70	10.49	14.01
Earnings per share: Diluted
As reported	7.20	11.29	14.24
Pro-forma	5.70	10.44	13.87

There were no option grants during the year ended March 31, 2004. The Company has granted 11,376,196 and 55,500 options, at a nominal exercise price of Rs. 2 per share, during the years ended March 31, 2005 and 2006. Since these options have been granted at a nominal exercise price, the intrinsic value on the date of grant approximates the fair value of the options.

Derivatives and hedge accounting. The Company purchases forward foreign exchange contracts/option contracts (derivatives) to mitigate the risk of changes in foreign exchange rates on accounts receivable and forecasted cash flows denominated in certain foreign currencies. The strategy also includes purchase of series of short term forward foreign exchange contracts which are replaced with successive new contracts up to the period in which the forecasted transactions are expected to occur (roll-over hedging). The Company also designates zero-cost collars, which qualify as net purchased options, to hedge the exposure to variability in expected future foreign currency cash inflows due to exchange rate movements beyond a defined range.

In accordance with SFAS No. 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities, as amended, the Company recognizes all derivatives as assets or liabilities measured at their fair value, regardless of the purpose or intent of holding them. In respect of derivatives designated and effective as cash flow hedges, gains or losses resulting from changes in the fair value are deferred and recorded as a component of accumulated other comprehensive income within stockholder's equity until the hedged transaction occurs and are then recognized in the consolidated statements of income along with the hedged item. The Company does not apply the short-cut method to determine hedge effectiveness.

The Company assesses hedge effectiveness based on overall change in fair value of derivative instrument. However, for derivatives acquired pursuant to roll-over hedging strategy, the forward premium/discount points are excluded from assessing hedge effectiveness.

Changes in fair value for derivatives not designated as hedging derivatives and ineffective portion of the hedging instruments are recognized in consolidated statements of income of each period and/or reported within foreign exchange gains/(losses), net under operating expenses.

In respect of derivatives designated as hedges, the Company formally documents all relationships between hedging instruments and hedged items, as well as its risk management objective and strategy for undertaking various hedge transactions. The Company also formally assesses both at the inception of the hedge and on an ongoing basis, whether each derivative is highly effective in offsetting changes in fair values or cash flows of the hedged item. If it is determined that a derivative is not highly effective as a hedge, or if a derivative ceases to be a highly effective hedge, the Company, prospectively, discontinues hedge accounting with respect to that derivative.

Recent accounting pronouncement In December 2004, the Financial Accounting Standard Board (FASB) issued SFAS No. 123 (revised 2004), Share-Based Payment (SFAS No. 123R), requiring companies to measure the cost of employee services received in exchange for an award of equity instruments based on the grant-date fair value of the award. The compensation costs arising out of such awards are required to be recognized over the period during which an employee provides service in exchange for the award. SFAS No. 123R provides two alternative adoption methods. The first method is a modified prospective transition method whereby a company would recognize share based employee costs from the beginning of the fiscal period in which the recognition provisions are first applied as if the fair value-based accounting method had been used to account for all employee awards granted, modified, or settled after the effective date and to any awards that were not fully vested as of the effective date. Measurement and attribution of compensation cost for awards that are unvested as of the effective date of SFAS No. 123R would be based on the same estimate of the grant-date fair value and the same attribution method used previously under SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock Based Compensation" (SFAS No. 123).

The second adoption method is a modified retrospective transition method whereby a company would recognize employee compensation cost for periods presented prior to the adoption of SFAS No. 123R in accordance with the original provisions of SFAS No. 123; that is, an entity would recognize employee compensation costs in the amounts reported in the pro forma disclosures provided in accordance with SFAS No. 123; a company would not be permitted to make any changes to those amounts upon adoption of SFAS No. 123R unless those changes represent a correction of an error. For periods after the date of adoption of SFAS No. 123R, the modified prospective transition method described above would be applied.

SFAS No. 123R does not change the accounting guidance for share-based payment transaction with parties other than employees provided in SFAS No. 123 as originally issued and EITF Issue No 96-18. "Accounting for Equity Instruments That Are Issued to Other Than Employees for Acquiring, or in Conjunction with Selling Goods or Services".

SFAS No. 123R is effective for fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2005. SFAS No. 123R applies to all awards granted and to awards modified, repurchased, or cancelled in the fiscal year beginning after June 15, 2005. Pursuant to the Securities and Exchange Commission Release No. 33-8568, the Company is required to adopt SFAS No. 123R and related guidance in the implementation of SFAS No. 123R under Staff Accounting Bulletin (SAB) 107 on Share based payments from April 1, 2006.

Upon adoption of SFAS No. 123R the Company will record a cumulative catch-up adjustment to recognize the impact of adjusting compensation charge for estimated forfeitures.

If the Company had amortized the stock-based employee compensation expense determined under the fair value method, the Company's net income as reported for the years ended March 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 would have been reduced by Rs. 2,079.60, Rs. 1,244.24 and Rs. 571.07, respectively as set out in the pro-forma disclosure above.

The Company will adopt SFAS No. 123R from fiscal year beginning April 1, 2006, using the modified prospective method. As of March 31, 2006, unamortized costs determined based on the fair value approach described in SFAS No. 123 amounted to Rs. 2,364.96 which will be amortised over the weighted average period of approximately three years. The corresponding unamortized stock compensation cost determined under the intrinsic value based method of APB Opinion No. 25, Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees, amounted to Rs. 2,202.42.

Reclassifications: In July 2005, the members of the Company approved a stock dividend, effective August 24, 2005. Share and per share data for all periods reported have been adjusted to reflect the stock split effected in the form of stock dividend.

3. Acquisitions

mPower Software Services Inc. and subsidiaries

In December 2005, the Company acquired 100% equity of mPower Software Services Inc. and subsidiaries (MPower) including the minority shareholding held by MasterCard International in MPact India, a joint venture between MasterCard International and mPower Inc, for an aggregate cash consideration of Rs.1,274.57. mPower Software Services Inc. is a US based Company engaged in providing IT services in the payments service sector.

WIPRO LIMITED

Wipro believes that through this acquisition, it will be able to expand its domain expertise in providing IT Services to customers in the payments processing sector and increase the addressable market. Further, as a part of this acquisition, Wipro aims to provide MasterCard a wide range of services including application development and maintenance, infrastructure services, package implementation, BPO and testing.

The total purchase price has been preliminarily allocated to the acquired assets and liabilities as follows:

Description	Fair value
Net tangible assets	Rs. 185.23
Customer-related intangibles	356.96
Deferred tax liabilities	(124.94)
Total	Rs. 1,274.57

The purchase consideration has been allocated on a preliminary basis based on management's estimates. The Company is in the process of making a final determination of the carrying value of assets and liabilities, which may result in changes in the carrying value of net assets recorded. Finalization of the purchase price allocation based on an independent third party appraisal, which is expected to be completed by June 2006, may result in certain adjustments to the above allocation.

BVPENTE Beteiligungsverwaltung GmbH and subsidiaries

On December 28, 2005, the Company acquired 100% equity of BVPENTE Beteiligungsverwaltung GmbH and subsidiaries (New Logic). New Logic is a European system-on-chip design company. The consideration includes cash payment of Rs. 1,156.54 and an earn-out of Euro 26.70 million to be determined and paid in the future based on certain financial targets being achieved over a 3 year period. The Company has determined that a portion of this earn-out, up to a maximum of Euro 2.50 million that is linked to the continuing employment of one of the selling shareholders is compensatory in nature. The balance earn-out will be recorded as additional purchase price when the contingency is resolved.

Wipro believes that through this acquisition, it has acquired strong domain expertise in semiconductor Intellectual Property (IP) cores and complete system-on-chip solutions with digital, analog mixed signal and Radio Frequency (RF) design services. The acquisition also enables the Company to access over 20 customers in the product engineering services sector.

The purchase price paid has been preliminarily allocated to the acquired assets and liabilities as follows:

Description	Fair value
Net tangible assets	Rs. 307.15
Customer-related intangibles	146.52
Technology-related intangibles	66.60
Deferred tax liabilities	(53.28)
Goodwill	689.55
Total	Rs. 1,156.54

The purchase consideration has been allocated on a preliminary basis based on management's estimates. The Company is in the process of making a final determination of the carrying value of assets and liabilities which may result in changes in the carrying value of net assets recorded. Finalization of the purchase price allocation based on an independent third party appraisal, which is expected to be completed by June 2006, may result in certain adjustments to the above allocation.

4. Acquisition of Ownership Interest in a Subsidiary

As more fully described in note 23, as of March 31, 2003, Wipro BPO had 9,329,762 employee stock options outstanding under the Wipro BPO option plan. In the year ended March 31, 2004, 4,178,294 options vested and were exercised. 3,339,279 options were exercised at a weighted-average exercise price of Rs. 29.41 per share and 839,015 options were exercised at a weighted-average exercise price of Rs. 57 per share.

As a result of the option exercise, the Company's ownership interest in Wipro BPO reduced from 100% to 93%. As the exercise price per option was less than the Company's carrying value per share, the exercise resulted in a decline in the carrying value of the Company's ownership interest by Rs. 206 million. In accordance with the accounting policy adopted by the Company, this decline in carrying value has been included in the statement of income as a loss on direct issue of stock by subsidiary.

Similarly, during the year ended March 31, 2005, 4,637,375 options vested and were exercised at a price of Rs. 57 per share. The remaining options were forfeited. As the exercise price per option was less than the Company's carrying value per share, the Company recorded the Rs. 206.58 million decline in the carrying value of ownership interest as a loss on direct issue of stock by subsidiary.

The shares arising out of the option exercise are covered by a share purchase feature that entitles the Company to repurchase these shares at fair value and also gives the employee the right to sell the shares back to the Company at fair value. The Company and the employee can exercise this repurchase right after six months from the date of option exercise.

During the year ended March 31, 2005, the Company acquired 4,147,561 shares from the employees for an aggregate consideration of Rs. 617.99 million. The excess of consideration paid over the value of minority interest acquired amounting to Rs. 189.12 million has been recorded as goodwill.

As a result of the above transactions, as of March 31, 2005, the Company's ownership interest in Wipro BPO remained approximately at 93%. During the year ended March 31, 2006, the Company acquired the balance 7% of the equity shares from the employee shareholders at fair value for an aggregate consideration of Rs. 852.00 million. The step-acquisition resulted in goodwill and intangibles of Rs. 304.14 million and Rs. 14.86 million respectively..

14. Investments in Affiliates*Wipro GE Medical Systems (Wipro GE)*

The Company has accounted for its 49% interest in Wipro GE under the equity method. The carrying value of the investment in Wipro GE as of March 31, 2005 and 2006, was Rs. 582.41 million and Rs. 841.57 million, respectively. The Company's equity in the income of Wipro GE for years ended March 31, 2005 and 2006 was Rs. 125.95 million and Rs. 259.16 million, respectively.

In March 2004 and 2005, Wipro GE had received tax demands aggregating Rs. 714.19 million including interest from the Indian income tax authorities for the financial years ended March 31, 2001 and 2002 respectively. The tax demands were primarily on account of transfer pricing adjustments and denial of export benefits and tax holiday benefits claimed by Wipro GE under the Indian Income Tax Act 1961 (Act). Wipro GE has appealed against the said demands before the first appellate authority. Considering the facts and nature of disallowance and based on the opinion of the external legal counsel, Wipro GE believes that the final outcome of the dispute should be in favor of Wipro GE and will not have any material adverse effect on the financial position and overall trends in results of operation. Additionally, in March 2006, Wipro GE received intimation from the Indian income tax authorities for the financial year ended March 31, 2003, proposing transfer pricing adjustments (similar to the claims made for 2001 and 2002) resulting in additional tax demands of Rs. 421.46. Wipro GE has contested the proposed transfer pricing adjustments. Considering the facts and nature of adjustments proposed Wipro GE believes that the ultimate outcome of this intimation will not have any material adverse effect on the financial position and overall trends in results of operations..

WeP Peripherals

The Company has accounted for its 37.7% and 36.9% interest as of March 31, 2005 and 2006, respectively in WeP Peripherals under the equity method. The carrying value of the equity investment in WeP Peripherals as of March 31, 2005 and 2006 was Rs. 186.83 and Rs. 201.52 respectively. The Company's equity in the income of WeP Peripherals for the years ended March 31, 2005 and 2006 was Rs. 32.13 and Rs. 28.81 respectively. During the years ended March 31, 2005 and 2006 the Company received dividends of Rs. 8.40 and Rs. 14.12, respectively from WeP Peripherals.

15. Financial Instruments and Concentration of Risk

Concentration of risk. Financial instruments that potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk consist principally of cash and cash equivalents, investments in liquid and short-term mutual funds, other investments securities, derivative financial instruments, accounts receivable and corporate deposits. The Company's cash resources are invested with financial institutions and commercial corporations with high investment grade credit ratings. Limits have been established by the Company as to the maximum amount of cash that may be invested with any such single entity. To reduce its credit risk, the Company performs ongoing credit evaluations of customers. No single customer accounted for 10% or more of the accounts receivable for the years ended March 31, 2005 and 2006 and revenues for the year ended March 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006.

Derivative financial instruments. The Company is exposed to foreign currency fluctuations on foreign currency assets and forecasted cash flows denominated in foreign currency. The Company follows established risk management policies, including the use of derivatives to hedge foreign currency assets and foreign currency forecasted cash flows. The counter party is a bank and the Company considers the risks of non-performance by the counterparty as non-material. The forward foreign exchange/option contracts mature between one to twelve months and the forecasted transactions are expected to occur during the same period.

18. Equity Shares and Dividends

Currently, the Company has only one class of equity shares. For all matters submitted to vote in the shareholders meeting, every holder of equity shares, as reflected in the records of the Company on the date of the shareholders meeting shall have one vote in respect of each share held.

In October 2000, the Company made a public offering of its American Depositary Shares, or ADSs, to international investors. The equity shares represented by the ADS carry similar rights as to voting and dividends as the other equity shares.

In July 2005, the member of the Company approved for increase in authorised capital of the Company from 750,000,000 to 1,650,000,000.

Dividend is paid in Indian rupees. Indian law mandates that any dividend, exceeding 10% of the equity shares, can be declared out of distributable profits only after the transfer of upto 10% of net income computed in accordance with current regulations to a general reserve. Also, the remittance of dividends outside India is governed by Indian law on foreign exchange. Dividend payments are also subject to applicable taxes.

In the event of liquidation of the affairs of the Company, all preferential amounts, if any, shall be discharged by the Company. The remaining assets of the Company, after such discharge, shall be distributed to the holders of equity shares in proportion to the number of shares held by them.

WIPRO LIMITED

The Company paid cash dividends of Rs. 262.36 million, Rs. 7,575.99 million and Rs. 3,997.74 million during the years ended March 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006. The dividends per share were Rs. 0.17, Rs. 4.84 and Rs. 2.50 during the years ended March 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006, respectively.

19. Retained Earnings

The Company's retained earnings as of March 31, 2005 and 2006 include restricted retained earnings of Rs. 259.54 million and Rs. 9.50 million, respectively, which are not distributable as dividends under Indian Company Laws. These relate to requirements regarding earmarking a part of the retained earnings on redemption of preference shares.

Retained earnings as of March 31, 2005 and 2006, also include Rs. 634.04 and Rs. 922.01 respectively, of undistributed earnings in equity of affiliates.

A substantial portion of the profits of the Company's India operations are exempt from Indian income taxes being profits attributable to export operations and profits from undertakings situated in Software Technology and Hardware Technology Parks. Under the tax holiday, the taxpayer can utilize an exemption from income taxes for a period of any ten consecutive years. The Company has opted for this exemption from the year ended March 31, 1997, for undertakings situated in Software Technology and Hardware Technology Parks. Profits from certain other undertakings are also eligible for preferential tax treatment. In addition, dividend income from certain category of investments is exempt from tax. The aggregate rupee and per share (basic) effects of these tax exemptions, are Rs. 2,925.32 and Rs. 2.11 per share for the year ended March 31, 2004, Rs. 4,836.12 and Rs. 3.48 per share for the year ended March 31, 2005 and Rs. 5,322.48 and Rs. 3.78 per share for the year ended March 31, 2006.

Management believes that based on a number of factors, the available objective evidence creates sufficient uncertainties regarding the generation of future capital gains and realizability of the carry-forward capital losses. Accordingly, the Company has established a valuation allowance for the carry-forward capital losses. These losses expire after eight years succeeding the year in which they were first incurred. The carry-forward capital losses as of March 31, 2006 will expire by the year ended March 31, 2009.

In assessing the realizability of remaining deferred tax assets, management considers whether it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized. The ultimate realization of deferred tax assets is dependent upon the generation of future taxable income during the periods in which those temporary differences and loss carry-forwards become deductible or utilizable. Management considers the scheduled reversal of deferred tax liabilities, projected future taxable income, and tax planning strategies in making this assessment. Based upon the level of historical taxable income and projections for future taxable income over the periods in which the deferred tax assets are deductible, management believes it is more likely than not that the Company will realize the benefits of these deductible differences and loss carry-forwards utilizable, net of the existing valuation allowances at March 31, 2006. The amount of the deferred tax asset considered realizable, however, could be reduced in the near term if estimates of future taxable income during the carry-forward period are reduced.

Upon acquisition of Wipro Nervewire and New Logic, the Company was entitled to utilize tax benefits of Rs. 264.55 and Rs. 280.75 respectively, on pre-acquisition carry-forward business losses. Based on projections of future taxable income and tax planning strategies management believes that the Company will be able to realize tax benefits only to the extent of Rs. 155.06 on the pre-acquisition carry-forward losses. Consequently, the Company has recorded a valuation allowance for the remaining amount. Reversal, if any, of the valuation allowance would be recorded as a reduction of goodwill arising from the respective acquisition.

Year ending March 31,

2013.	Rs.	22.52
2020.		71.97
2021.		79.51
2022.		43.04
2023.		85.44
2024.		409.44
2025.		325.48
2027.		778.10
Thereafter.		1,181.13
	Rs.	2,996.63

The increase in valuation allowance of Rs. 69.41 for the year ended March 31, 2005 is on account valuation allowance recognized primarily on operating losses of certain subsidiaries for the year ended March 31, 2005. The increase in valuation allowance of Rs. 229.16 for the year ended March 31, 2006 is on account of valuation allowance of Rs. 199.76 recognized on the deferred tax assets on pre-acquisition carry forward business losses of New Logic and valuation allowance of Rs. 29.40 recognized on operating losses of certain subsidiaries for the year ended March 31, 2006.

The Company is subject to a 15% branch profit tax in the US to the extent the net profit during the fiscal year attributable to its US branch are greater than the increase in the net assets of the US branch during the fiscal year, computed in accordance with the Internal Revenue Code. As of March 31, 2006, the US branch's net assets amounted to approximately $ 130.00. The Company has not triggered the branch profit tax and intends to maintain the current level of its net assets in the US as is consistent with its business plan. Accordingly, a provision for branch profit tax has not been recorded as of March 31, 2006.

23. Employee Stock Incentive Plans

Wipro Equity Reward Trust (WERT). In 1984, the Company established a controlled trust called the WERT. Under this plan, the WERT would purchase shares of Wipro out of funds borrowed from Wipro. The Company's Compensation Committee would recommend to the WERT, officers and key employees, to whom the WERT will grant shares from its holding. The shares have been granted at a nominal price. Such shares would be held by the employees subject to vesting conditions. The shares held by the WERT are reported as a reduction from stockholders' equity.

The movement in the shares held by the WERT is given below:

	Year ended March 31,
	2004	2005	2006
Shares held at the beginning of the year	7,821,660	7,887,060	7,893,060
Shares granted to employees	-	-	(24,000)
Grants forfeited by employees	65,400	6,000	-
Shares held at the end of the year	7,887,060	7,893,060	7,869,060

Deferred compensation related to these grants is amortized on a straight-line basis over the vesting period of the shares. The amortization of deferred stock compensation, net of reversals, for the years ended March 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006, was Rs. 44.87, Rs. 8.24 and Rs. 10.14 respectively.

Wipro Employee Stock Option Plan 1999 (1999 Plan). In July 1999, the Company established the 1999 Plan. Under the 1999 Plan, the Company is authorized to issue up to 30 million equity shares to eligible employees. Employees covered by the 1999 Plan are granted an option to purchase shares of the Company subject to the requirements of vesting. The Company has not recorded any deferred compensation as the exercise price was equal to the fair market value of the underlying equity shares on the grant date.

Restricted Stock Unit Plans: In June 2004, the Company established a rupee option plan titled Wipro Restricted Stock Unit Plan (WRSUP 2004) and a dollar option plan titled Wipro ADS Restricted Stock Unit Plan (WARSUP 2004). The Company is authorized to issue up to 12 million options to eligible employees under each plan. Options under the plan will be granted at a nominal exercise price (par value of the equity shares).

These options generally vest ratably at the end of each year over a period of five years from the date of grant. Upon vesting the employees can acquire one equity share for every option. The options are subject to forfeiture if the employee terminates employment before vesting. The excess of market price on the date of grant over the exercise price payable by the employees is recognized as deferred compensation cost. The Company has elected to amortize the deferred compensation cost on a straight-line basis over the vesting period.

WIPRO LIMITED

Shares arising from the exercise of employee stock options are covered by a share purchase arrangement that entitles the Company to repurchase the shares at fair value and gives the employee the right to sell the shares back to the Company at fair value. The Company and the employees can exercise this repurchase right only after six months of the date of option exercise. In accordance with FIN No. 44 and EITF Issue No. 00-23, this share repurchase feature does not result in variable accounting. In April 2005, the shares have been repurchased by the Company at fair value pursuant to this share purchase agreement.

24. Earnings Per Share

	Year ended March 31,
	2004	2005	2006
Earnings
Net income	Rs. 9,992.04	Rs. 15,832.75	Rs. 20,269.97
Effect of dilutive instruments of subsidiary	-	(27.97)	-
Net income (adjusted for full dilution)	Rs. 9,992.04	Rs. 15,804.78	Rs. 20,269.97
Equity shares
Weighted average number of equity shares outstanding	1,387,740,780	1,391,554,372	1,406,505,974
Effect of dilutive equivalent shares-stock options	1,349,862	8,292,410	17,173,256
Weighted average number of equity shares and equivalent shares outstanding	1,389,090,642	1,399,846,782	1,423,679,230

Shares held by the controlled WERT have been reduced from the equity shares outstanding and shares held by employees subject to vesting conditions have been included in outstanding equity shares for computing basic and diluted earnings per share.

Options to purchase 57,358,374, 12,661,148 and Nil equity shares were outstanding during the year ended March 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006, respectively, but were not included in the computation of diluted earnings per share because the exercise price of the options was greater than the average market price of the equity shares.

25. Employee Benefit Plans

Gratuity. In accordance with applicable Indian laws, the Company provides for gratuity, a defined benefit retirement plan (Gratuity Plan) covering certain categories of employees. The Gratuity Plan provides a lump sum payment to vested employees, at retirement or termination of employment, an amount based on the respective employee's last drawn salary and the years of employment with the Company. The Company provides the gratuity benefit through annual contributions to a fund managed by the Life Insurance Corporation of India (LIC). Under this plan, the settlement obligation remains with the Company, although the Life Insurance Corporation of India administers the plan and determines the contribution premium required to be paid by the Company.

	As of March 31,
	2005	2006
Change in the benefit obligation
Projected Benefit Obligation (PBO) at the beginning of the year	Rs. 115.04	Rs. 131.47

PBO at the end of the year	131.47	150.12

	As of March 31,
	2005	2006
Change in plan assets
Fair value of plan assets at the beginning of the year	32.53	124.32
Actual return on plan assets	4.83	8.94
Employer contributions	99.08	2.07
Benefits paid	(12.12)	(6.74)
Plan assets at the end of the year	124.32	128.59
Funded status	(7.15)	(21.53)
Unrecognized actuarial loss/(gain)	59.71	55.53
Unrecognized transition obligation	3.46	2.43
Unrecognized actuarial cost	5.19	4.00
Prepaid benefit	Rs. 61.21	Rs. 40.43

Net gratuity cost for the years ended March 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 included:

	Year ended March 31,
	2004	2005	2006
Service cost	Rs. 5.92	Rs. 8.07	Rs. 7.73
Interest cost	4.53	7.47	9.95
Expected return on assets	(2.22)	(1.96)	(2.02)
Amortization of transition liabilities	2.05	5.84	7.19
Net gratuity cost	Rs. 10.28	Rs. 19.42	Rs. 22.85

	Year ended March 31,
	2004	2005	2006
Discount rate	7%	8%	8%
Rate of increase in compensation levels	7%	7%	7%
Rate of return on plan assets	7%	7%	7%

The Company assesses these assumptions with its projected long-term plans of growth and prevalent industry standards. Unrecognized actuarial loss/(gain) are amortized over the average remaining service period of the active employees expected to receive benefits under the Plan.

Accumulated benefit obligation was Rs. 95.62 and Rs. 110.30 as of March 31, 2005 and 2006 respectively.

Expected contribution to the fund during the year ending March 31, 2007

Rs. 12.73

Expected benefit payments from the fund during the year ending March 31:

2008	15.79
2009	17.74
2010	16.19
2011	16.44
Thereafter.	86.83
Total.	Rs. 170.10

The expected benefits are based on the same assumptions used to measure the company's benefit obligations as of March 31, 2006.

The Company estimates the long-term return on plan assets based on the average rate of return expected to prevail over the next 15 to 20 years in the types of investments held by LIC.

Superannuation. Apart from being covered under the Gratuity Plan described above, the employees of the Company also participate in a defined contribution plan maintained by the Company. This plan is administered by the LIC. The Company makes annual contributions based on a specified percentage of each covered employee's salary. From April 1, 2005, the Company discontinued superannuation contributions for certain category of employees and paid such contribution amounts as cash compensation to the employees. The Company has no further obligations under the plan beyond its annual contributions.

WIPRO LIMITED

Provident fund. In addition to the above benefits, all employees receive benefits from a provident fund, a defined contribution plan. The employee and employer each make monthly contributions to the plan equal to 12% of the covered employee's salary. A portion of the contribution is made to the provident fund trust established by the Company, while the remainder of the contribution is made to the Government's provident fund. The Government mandates the annual yield to be provided to the employees on their corpus. The Company has an obligation to make good the shortfall, if any, between the yield on the investments of the trust and the yield mandated by the Government

The Company contributed Rs. 715.63, Rs. 995.93 and Rs. 695.65 to various defined contribution and benefit plans during the years ended March 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 respectively.

27. Sale of accounts receivables/employee advances

From time to time, in the normal course of business, the Company transfers accounts receivables and employee advances (financial assets) to banks. Under the terms of the arrangements, the Company surrenders control over the financial assets and accordingly the transfers are recorded as sale of financial assets. The sale of financial assets may be with or without recourse. Under arrangements with recourse, the Company is obligated to repurchase the uncollected financial assets, subject to limits specified in the agreement with the banks. Additionally, the Company retains servicing responsibility for the transferred financial assets. Gains and losses on sale of financial assets are recorded based on the carrying value of the financial assets, fair value of servicing liability and recourse obligations. Loss on sale is recorded at the time of sale.

During the years ended March 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006, the Company transferred financial assets of Rs. 270.00, Rs. 737.80 and Rs. 258.67 respectively, under such arrangements and has included the proceeds in net cash provided by operating activities in the consolidated statements of cash flows. This transfer resulted in loss of Rs. 42.20, Rs. 42.03 and Rs. 9.28 for the years ended March 31, 2004, 2005 and 2006 respectively, which is included in General and Administrative expenses. As at March 31, 2006, the maximum amount of recourse obligation in respect of the transferred financial assets is Rs. 20.40.

28. Commitments and Contingencies

Capital commitments. As of March 31, 2005 and 2006, the Company had committed to spend approximately Rs. 1,180.80 and Rs. 1,714.22 respectively, under agreements to purchase property and equipment. These amounts are net of capital advances paid in respect of these purchases.

Other commitments. The Company's Indian operations have been established as a Software Technology Park Unit under a plan formulated by the Government of India. As per the plan, the Company's India operations have export obligations to the extent of 1.5 times the employee costs for the year on an annual basis and 5 times the amount of foreign exchange released for capital goods imported, over a five year period. The consequence of not meeting this commitment in the future, would be a retroactive levy of import duty on certain computer hardware previously imported duty free. As of March 31, 2006, the Company has met all commitments required under the plan.

As of March 31, 2005 and 2006, the Company had contractual obligations to spend approximately Rs. 1,203 and Rs. 1,946 respectively; under purchase obligations which include commitments to purchase goods or services of either a fixed or minimum quantity that meet certain criteria.

Guarantees. As of March 31, 2005 and 2006, performance and financial guarantees provided by banks on behalf of the Company to the Indian Government, customers and certain other agencies amount to approximately Rs. 2,243.12 and Rs. 2,941.20 respectively, as part of the bank line of credit.

Contingencies and lawsuits. The Company had received tax demands from the Indian income tax authorities for the financial years ended March 31, 2001 and 2002 aggregating to Rs. 5,231.72. The tax demands were primarily on account of denial of deduction claimed by the Company under Section 10A of the Indian Income Tax Act 1961 (Act), in respect of profits earned by its undertakings in Software Technology Park at Bangalore. The Company had appealed against the said demands. In March 2006, the first income tax appellate authority substantially upheld the deductions claimed by the Company under Section 10A of the Act, which will vacate a substantial portion of the demands for these years.

In March 2006, the Company received additional tax demand on similar grounds as 2001 and 2002, for the financial year ended March 31, 2003 aggregating Rs. 2,868.77 (including interest of Rs.750.38). The Company will file an appeal against the demand for the year ended March 31, 2003 within the prescribed statutory time. Considering the facts and nature of disallowance, the order of the appellate authority upholding the claims of the Company for financial year ended March 31, 2001 and 2002, the company believes that the final outcome of the dispute should be in favor of the Company and there should not be any material impact on the financial statements.

Certain other income-tax related legal proceedings are pending against the Company. Potential liabilities, if any, have been adequately provided for, and the Company does not currently estimate any incremental liability in respect of these proceedings.

Additionally, the Company is also involved in lawsuits, claims, investigations and proceedings, including patent and commercial matters, which arise in the ordinary course of business. There are no such matters pending that Wipro expects to be material in relation to its business.

29. Segment Information

The Company is currently organized by the following segments, (a) Global IT Services and Products (comprising of IT Services and BPO Services segments), (b) India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products, (c) Consumer Care and Lighting and (d) 'Others'.

The Chairman of the Company has been identified as the Chief Operating Decision Maker ("CODM") as defined by SFAS No. 131, Disclosure about Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information. The Chairman of the Company evaluates the segments based on their revenue growth, operating income and return on capital employed. The management believes that return on capital employed is considered appropriate for evaluating the performance of its operating segments. Return on capital employed is calculated as earnings from continuing operations before interest expenses, tax and minority interests divided by the average of the capital employed at the beginning and at the end of the year.

Until June 30, 2005, the Company reported Global IT Services and Products as an integrated business segment. Effective July 2005, the company reorganized the management structure of Global IT Services and Products Segment. Pursuant to this reorganization, the Company identified new operating segments. Operating segments with similar economic characteristics and complying with other aggregation criteria specified in SFAS No. 131 have been combined to form the Company's new reportable segments. Consequently, IT Services and BPO services now qualify as reportable segments. Segment data for previous periods have been reclassified to conform to the current period presentation.

The IT Services segment provides research and development services for hardware and software design to technology and telecommunication companies and software application development services to corporate enterprises. The BPO services segment provides Business Process Outsourcing services to large global corporations.

In December 2005, the Company acquired MPower, a company engaged in providing IT services to the payments processing sector and New Logic, a European system-on-chip design company. The operations of MPower and New Logic, which are a component of IT Services and Products, are currently reviewed by the CODM separately and have accordingly been reported separately as 'Acquisitions'. The Company intends to include all acquisitions made within 2 to 4 quarters preceding the reporting date within 'Acquisitions'.

The India and AsiaPac IT Services and Products segment focuses primarily on addressing the IT and electronic commerce requirements of companies in India, MiddleEast and AsiaPacific region.

The Consumer Care and Lighting segment manufactures, distributes and sells soaps, toiletries, lighting products and hydrogenated cooking oils for the Indian market.

'Others' consist of business segments that do not meet the requirements individually for a reportable segment as defined in SFAS No. 131. Corporate activities such as treasury, legal and accounting, which do not qualify as operating segments under SFAS No. 131 have been considered as reconciling items.

Information on reportable segments is as follows:

 - b. The maximum vesting period of an RSU shall not be of a period more than 84 months.
 - c. Subject to the minimum and maximum vesting periods of an RSU referred to in Section 13(a) and (b) above, the Administrator shall have the sole discretion to decide upon the vesting periods in respect of any Optionee or a category of Optionee.
14. Consideration payable by Optionees while exercising RSU
 - a. The consideration payable by an Optionee for exercising an RSU would be as per the exercise price.
 - b. The consideration to be paid for the shares to be issued upon exercise of an RSU, including the method of payment shall be determined by the Administrator at the time of grant. Such consideration may be paid by way of;
 - i. cash
 - ii. cheque or cheque equivalent
 - c. In making its determination as to the type of consideration to accept, the Administrator shall consider if acceptance of such consideration may be reasonably expected to benefit the Company.
15. Methodology of Exercise of RSUs
 - a. Procedure for Exercise of RSUs;
 - b. An RSU granted hereunder shall be exercisable according to the terms hereof at such times and under such conditions as determined by the Administrator and set forth in the RSU Agreement. The RSU shall be deemed exercised when the Company receives;
 - c. Written or electronic notice of exercise (in accordance with the RSU Agreement) from the person entitled to exercise the RSU;
 - d. Full payment for the shares with respect to which the RSU is exercised;
 - e. RSUs will become exercisable in part or whole. The unexercised portion of the RSU will continue to be available to the Optionee or the nominee, for exercise, in case of specified circumstances such as separation, death, disability, etc upto such time frame as provided for in the Restricted Stock Unit agreement;
 - f. Exercise of RSUs in the case of separation of an Employee from the Company:
 - I. In the event of separation of an employee from the company due to reasons of permanent and total disability of the Optionee, the Optionee may exercise his or her RSU both vested as well as unvested immediately after the date of permanent and total disability but in no event later than six months from the date of separation from employment.
 - II. In the event of death of an employee while in employment with the Company, the RSUs granted both vested and unvested may be exercised by the Optionee's nominee immediately after, but in no event later than six months from the date of Optionee's death.
 - III. In the event of termination of employment for reasons of misconduct, all RSUs including those, which are vested but not exercised at the time of termination of employment, shall expire and stand terminated with effect from the date of such termination.
 - IV. In the event of resignation from employment for reasons of normal retirement or an early retirement specifically approved by the company, the RSUs granted both vested and unvested may be exercised by the Optionee or his/her nominee, as the case may be immediately after, but in no event later than six months from the date of Optionee's retirement.

- V. In the event of resignation, all RSUs, which are not vested on the date of separation, shall expire and stand terminated with effect from that date. However, all RSUs which has already been vested as on that date shall be exercised by the employee immediately but not later than 7 days from the effective date of separation of the employee.
- VI. In the event of abandonment of service by an Optionee without the Company's consent, all RSUs including those, which are vested but were not exercised at the time of abandonment of service shall stand terminated with immediate effect. The date of abandonment of an employee shall be decided by the Company at its sole discretion which, decision shall be binding on all concerned.
- VII. In the event of termination with or without cause other than termination of employment for reasons of misconduct as per 15 b iii above, all RSUs, which are not vested on the date of termination, shall expire and stand terminated with effect from that date. However, all RSUs which has already been vested as on that date shall be exercised by the employee immediately but not later than 7 days from the effective date of termination of the employee.
- g. Breach of the policies of the Company or the terms of employment
- h. In the event of breach of the policies of the company or the terms of employment by the Optionee, during the term of his employment and thereafter for a period of one year, all RSUs including those which are vested but not exercised at the time of such breach shall expire and stand terminated with effect from the date of such breach.
- i. Cashless exercise of Restricted Stock Units: Cash less exercise of Restricted Stock Units may be made by the Optionee which shall be subject to regulatory restrictions and permissions, as may be applicable. Under the cashless system of securities, the Company may itself fund or permit the empanelled stock brokers to fund the payment of exercise price, which shall be adjusted against the sale proceeds of some or all the shares subject to the provisions of the Act.
- 16. Consequence of failure to exercise RSU
The amount payable by the employee, if any, at the time of grant of RSU:
 - a. may be forfeited by the company if the RSU is not exercised by the employee within the exercise period; or
 - b. the amount may be refunded to the employee if the RSUs are not vested due to non-fulfillment of condition relating to vesting of RSU as per the Plan.
- 17. Non transferability of RSU
The RSUs granted under this Plan are not eligible to be sold, pledged, assigned, hypothecated, transferred or disposed or alienated in any manner other than by will or by the laws of descent or distribution and may be exercised, during the life time of the Optionee, only by the Optionee.
- 18. Adjustments of number and exercise price of RSU in certain cases
 - a. Capitalisation by way of issue of bonus shares:
Subject to any required action by the shareholders of the Company, all the Restricted Stock Units including those which are vested but were not exercised and / or, as well as the price per share covered by each such outstanding RSU, shall be proportionately adjusted for any increase in the number of issued shares resulting from issue of bonus shares without receipt of consideration by the company provided however that price per share shall not be reduced below the par value of the share as on the date of allotment of such bonus shares.
 - b. Issue of rights shares:
Subject to any required action by the shareholders of the Company, all the RSUs including those which are vested but were not exercised and/or the price per share covered by each such outstanding RSU, shall be proportionately adjusted for any increase in the number of issued shares resulting from issue of rights shares provided however that price per share shall not be reduced below the par value of the share as on the date of allotment of such rights shares.
 - c. Issue of additional equity (other than by way of issue of rights shares, or allotment of shares under an Employee Stock Option Scheme/Employee Stock Purchase Scheme/Restricted Stock Units scheme) :
In the event of issue of additional equity shares other than by way of rights share at less than fair market value, the Optionee shall have the right to acquire shares covered by each outstanding RSU at the value at which the additional equity is infused, for a quantum, equivalent to the proportion of the awarded RSUs bears to the total paid up equity capital of the Company before the infusion of equity.
 - d. Merger or Asset sale:
In the event of a merger of the Company with or into another company, all the RSUs including those which are vested but were not exercised, and/or the price per share covered by each such outstanding shall be proportionately adjusted to give effect to the merger or asset sale provided however that price per share shall not be reduced below the par value of the share as on the date of merger. Such adjustment shall include the substitution of options of any other company/ companies and the terms and conditions thereof as may be decided by the Compensation Committee.
 - e. Demerger :
In the event of demerger of the company into a separate legal entity, the administrator shall in consultation with the parties to the transaction, decide on the manner in which and the terms and conditions on which the issue regarding outstanding Restricted Stock Units of the company held by the Restricted Stock Optionees is to be addressed before consent for such demerger is given by the shareholders of the company.
 - f. Dissolution or liquidation of the Company:
In the event of dissolution or liquidation of the Company, the Administrator shall notify each Optionee as soon as practicable prior to the effective date of such proposed transaction. The Administrator at its discretion may provide for an Optionee to have right to exercise his or her RSU until 15 days prior to such transaction as to all of the RSU Stock covered thereby, including shares as to which the RSU would not otherwise be exercisable.
- 19. Time of granting RSUs
The date of grant of an RSU shall be the date specified in the "Restricted Stock Unit Agreement".
- 20. Amendment and Termination of the Plan
 - a. Amendment and Termination :
The Board may subject to 20(b) below, at any time amend, alter, suspend or terminate the Plan provided that such variation is not prejudicial to the interest of the RSU holder.
 - b. Shareholder approval :
The Board shall obtain shareholder approval by way of special resolution in a general meeting of the Company for any amendment to the Plan to the extent necessary and desirable to comply with Applicable Laws.
The notice for passing special resolution shall contain the information as set out in Clause 6.2 of SEBI ESOP Guidelines.
 - c. Effect of Amendment or Termination:
No amendment, alteration, suspension or termination of the Plan shall impair the rights or be prejudicial or detrimental to the interests of the Optionee..
- 21. Conditions Upon Issuance of Shares
 - a. Legal Compliance :
Shares shall not be issued pursuant to the exercise of an RSU unless the exercise of such RSU and the issuance and delivery of such shares shall comply with Applicable Laws and shall be further subject to the approval of counsel for the Company with respect to such compliance.
 - b. Inability to obtain authority:
The inability of the Company to obtain authority from any regulatory body having jurisdiction, which authority is deemed by the Company's counsel to be necessary to the lawful issuance and sale of any shares hereunder, shall relieve the Company of any liability in respect of the failure to issue or sell such shares as to which such requisite authority shall not have been obtained.
- 22. Reservation of Shares
The Company during the term of this Plan, shall at all times reserve and keep available such number of shares as part of its authorised share capital as shall be sufficient to satisfy the requirements of the Plan.
- 23. Shareholder Approval
The Plan shall be subject to approval by the shareholders of the Company within twelve (12) months after the date the Plan is adopted. Such shareholder approval shall be obtained in the degree and manner required by Applicable Laws.
